COMMITTEE OF 16 NAMED TO CONSIDER CITY BOND ISSUE

Ten Council Members and Five Citizens, With Councilman Thomson Chairman, Will Take Up Question

COUNCILMAN THOMSON RAPS MAYOR WOODWARD

Says Mayor's "Mean Disposition" Causes Him to Oppose Bonds, After He Has Gotten City In Seriously

Mayor Pro Tem Warren Saturday morning announced the committee to take up the question of a bond issue, which he appoints in pursuance of a resolution adopted by council some days ago.

The committee follows:

From council—First ward, Alderman J. M. Sewell; second ward, Councilman T. J. Lynch; third ward, Councilman Orville H. Hall; fourth ward, Councilman A. D. Thomson, chairman; fifth ward, Alderman J. W. Maddox; sixth ward, Alderman James R. Mattina; seventh ward, Councilman A. R. Colcord; eighth ward, Councilman W. G. Humphrey; ninth ward, Alderman John S. Candler; tenth ward, Alderman I. N. Ransdale.

Citizens—Ex-Mayor Courtland S. Winn; William L. Moore, president of the chamber of commerce; Jerome Jones, editor of the Journal of Labor; Fred J. Paxon, ex-president of the chamber of commerce, A. Frank Lieberman, real estate dealer.

Councilman Thomson states that he will call a meeting of the committee as soon as they can possibly get together, his desire being to have a meeting next week.

Discussing the city's financial situation, Councilman Thomson said:

"The supreme court's decision in the crematory case makes it impossible for the city to provide any more special improvements on the moral obligation plan. Under no circumstances will the city ever borrow money on the moral obligation plan. Under the decision, the city must [illegible] the situation. I am sure that they will rally to the support of whatever good plan is proposed.

"If Mayor Woodward opposes bonds, which I see by the papers he probably will, then there is no chance for bonds to carry. As every one knows, the sentiment of the political leaders of a municipality must be unanimous, or practically so, for bonds to be carried at an election. Any man of any considerable political influence can defeat a bond issue.

"Why the mayor should oppose bonds, now that he has gotten the city in the present situation, is more than I can understand unless it be his naturally mean disposition. His activities have never been constructive. They have always been destructive and obstructive.

"I better be in quoted as saying he doesn't believe the people would vote any more bonds for that gang in council to spend. Grantted he is right, that will doubtless alter the fact that bonds must be issued, or else the city's income increased. If the people don't want to restrain the expenditure of a bond issue to the present council, all they've got to do is to elect another council. The terms of ten councilmen and three aldermen expire this fall. Thirteen new council members ought certainly to be sufficient leaven in the lump to satisfy everybody's detractors—even Mayor Woodward. And as far as I'm concerned, it makes no particular difference with me if the fourth ward selects a different man to council, serving the city as a councilman is a thankless job. It requires a lot of time, and the reward is a lot of criticism."

CHESTERTON GUILTY OF CRIMINAL LIBEL

Brother of Author Is Found Guilty of Libelling Godfrey Isaacs in London

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, June 7.—A verdict of guilty was returned against Cecil Chesterton, a brother of G. K. Chesterton, today at the Central criminal court on the charge of criminal libel.

He had charged Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of the Marconi company with corruption in connection with the British government's wireless contract. Some of the most prominent lawyers in England were engaged in the case.

Chesterton was fined $100 and all the costs of the prosecution which will be exceedingly heavy as the trial lasted ten days. He is to be kept in prison until his fine has been paid.

On sentencing the defendant the judge said that when he considered the cruelty of Chesterton's conduct with his wife he might have rendered Mr. Isaac a beggar by driving him from his employment, it was extremely difficult to refrain from sending Chesterton to prison. The judge thanked the jurors for their verdict in vindication of the prosecutor's honor.

LITTLE SUSIE LLOYD IS DEAD FROM BITE OF DOG

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

WATKINSVILLE, Ga., June 7.—Susie Lloyd, who yesterday developed symptoms of hydrophobia from the effect of a mad dog's bite inflicted in March, died today after suffering intense agonies. Three other people in Watkinsville are taking treatment for bites inflicted by the dog. Numerous people are about to leave town.

General Shake-Up in Weather Bureau Follows Firing of Chief Forecaster Willis L. Moore by Wilson

HEISKELL AND CARROLL SUSPENDED WITH NO PAY

Thirty-One Employes Have Been Reduced for Connection With Alleged Political Activities in Department

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Thirty-one employes of the weather bureau have been reduced for connection with the alleged political activity which resulted in the recent dismissal of Chief Willis L. Moore.

Henry L. Heiskell, professor of meteorology, and D. J. Carroll, chief clerk, have been suspended without pay, pending an investigation.

LITTLE ATTENTION PAID TO TOWNSEND'S CHARGE

Statement That President Had Been Lobbying Will Not Be Made an Issue

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Senators on the lobby investigating committee were of the opinion today that Senator Townsend's sensational charge that President Wilson himself virtually had been lobbying for the tariff bill would not be taken up by the committee as an issue unless some specific charges were made.

The committee was in recess from Friday until Monday, but Senator Overman, chairman, said it would be examined, but will begin questioning any of the witnesses named by Senator Townsend, or any other witnesses whose names have been brought out in testimony as having represented special interests in Washington.

"President Wilson will be welcomed before the committee if he desires to appear," said Acting Chairman Reed today, "but I see no reason why he should deny charges that never have been made."

Democratic members took the position that it remained for Republicans to perfect inquiries on whether President Wilson had used "undue influence" with any Democratic senators, and insisted that the statements by Senators Townsend, Weeks and Warren had been of a general character. Senators Nelson and Cummins, the Republican members of the committee, had no plans today for following up that line of inquiry.

"I intend, however, to insist before the hearings are over," said Senator Cummins. "That President Wilson furnish the committee with the facts of information upon which he based his statements as to 'insidious lobbying' in Washington."

The list of witnesses for next week was enlarged today by the addition of R. D. Bowen, Paris, Tex. Circular letters signed by Bowen as chairman of the "National Farmers' Union committee," were furnished by Senators Nelson and Kern. These letters urged cotton farmers to "use strong language" with their senators in favor of higher duties on cotton cloth.

JERE KNODE COOKE WILL WED MISS WHALEY

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 7.—Some time within the next week or ten days Jere Knode Cooke, the former Hampstead, N. Y., clergyman whose wife divorced him yesterday, will be married to Florette Whaley, with whom he eloped six years ago. The date of the marriage, Cooke's lawyer, W. J. Ennison, said today, has been set for the day Cooke receives a certified copy of the divorce decree.

"The honeymoon," said the lawyer, "will probably be an afternoon off, a good dinner and an evening at the theater. The ceremony will be a civil one, although one of the most respected clergymen in New York has expressed his willingness to officiate."

Cooke was working as usual today at his trade of painter and decorator.

EDUCATION BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS FOR CITY SCHOOLS

Supernumeraries Are Chosen, but Names Will Not Be Given Out Until Monday or Tuesday

MATRIMONIAL WAVE CAUSE OF MANY RESIGNATIONS

Places of Twenty-Two Teachers Filled—Promotions to Principals and Assistant Principals

Dan Cupid has made it necessary for the city board of education to fill the places of twenty-two teachers, the majority of whom have already married or expect to change their names are another scholastic year looms upon the horizon.

When the board met in the office of Superintendent William M. Slaton Saturday morning to elect teachers in all of the schools for next year they were greeted with this unusually large number of resignations. "The matrimonial scyths," said Mr. Slaton, "has cut a wider swath in the ranks of our teachers this year than is usual, and accordingly, there are a number of places to be filled."

Just how many out of the twenty-two teachers are contemplating matrimony Mr. Slaton would not tell. It would not be fair to them, he said, so the general public must, for the time being, remain in the dark.

While the supernumeraries were also elected along with the teachers, their names will not be made public until each has been assigned to her school. This will be either Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Slaton and Assistant Superintendent L. M. Landrum are now at work along this line and hope to finish up by that time.

The board of education re-elected every official from the superintendent to the clerical force in the office and named two new principals. Miss Lelia Garcia, who acted in the capacity of assistant principal of the Ivy Street school, was promoted to head of the boulevard school next year. Mrs. Joe Gamble will succeed Mrs. Leach M. White as principal of the Girls' Night School.

The committee was in session from [illegible] o'clock until [illegible] o'clock. While it did not elect Miss Mary Bell, Miss Bertie Fowler, Miss Lily Cook, Miss Henrietta Dull, Miss Annie Dixon, Miss Daisy Bearden, Mrs. L. O. Mayo, Miss Kate Gresham, Miss Annie Mae Patterson, Miss Kate Johnston, Miss Vera Daniel, Mrs. Laura M. White, Miss Lucile Estes, Miss Erma Proctor, Miss Julia Brenner, Miss Elsie Williams, Miss Hattie B. Rosser, Miss Cleveland Zahner and Miss Hazel Stevenson.

The three colored resignations were Hortense Carson, Barbara Taylor and Lane Jones.

NEW ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS.

Ten new assistant principals were elected as follows:

Miss Addie F. Arnold, Miss Marion Bolenbaugh, Miss Jamie Bowers, Miss Newell Sims, Miss Bertie Fowler, Miss Martha Haygood, Miss Edith S. Anderson, Miss Marie Parks, Miss Annabel Horn and Miss Elsie Krumrine.

Another teacher will be added to the faculty at North High school, but the board has not yet decided on the man. The new grade teachers elected are Miss I. F. Reynolds, Miss Ruby Hightower, Miss Gussie Carr, Miss Annie Boyd, Miss Annie May Fuller, Miss Ada Lathe, Miss Martha Smith, Miss Lena Ledford, Miss Emma Fraser, Miss Mary Lumpkin, Miss Mabel King, Miss Elizabeth Haden, Miss Jane Candler, Miss Eugenia Jones, Miss Maggie Lanham, Miss Cora Hamstein, Miss Nancy Griffin, Miss Mildred Hardy, Miss Eva McFall, Miss Ola Grant, Miss Minnie Collet, Miss Elizabeth Silvey, Miss Frances Richardson, Miss Julia Hendon, Miss Ruth Blodgett, Miss Grace Terrell, Miss Ora Mae Hines, Miss Ada Jordon and Miss Cornelia Cooper.

Following are the officers and teachers for the Atlanta public schools, for 1913-1914:

ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WOOD IS ACQUITTED OF DYNAMITE PLOT; COLLINS CONVICTED

Jury Frees President of American Woolen Company From Charge of Conspiring to "Plant" Dynamite

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, June 7.—After deliberating throughout the night a jury today acquitted President William M. Wood of the American Woolen company of the charge of conspiracy to injure the textile strikers at Lawrence by "planting" dynamite.

A disagreement in the case of Frederick E. Atteaux was reported.

Dennis J. Collins, who turned state's evidence, was found guilty on two counts of the indictment.

The first count charged conspiracy to injure the textile strikers, and the second county conspiracy to injure unknown persons. The other counts allege conspiracy against certain persons and a plot to damage property.

The case, one of the most beneficiaries that has come out of a dispute between capital and labor, was given to the jury at noon yesterday. The jurors began their deliberations at 8 o'clock and when they had filled out reports at midnight they were locked up for the night. Court convened at 9:30 this morning and the jury came in at 10 o'clock.

The foreman reported that Collins was guilty on the first two counts; Wood acquitted and that the jury had been unable to agree in the case of Atteaux.

The court ordered that bail for Atteaux be renewed pending disposition of his case.

Counsel for Wood asked the court to direct an investigation of the publication of statement that an attempt had been made to influence Morris Bauman, one of the jurors. Yesterday Bauman was questioned by Judge John C. Crosby regarding a statement which he was said to have made recently to the district attorney.

This was to the effect that a man, unnamed, had intimated to him that he might have a business position for life and $200 in cash if he voted "right." Upon assuring the court that he would not be influenced by the alleged attempt at bribery, Bauman was permitted to continue in the jury box.

Judge Crosby stated that as inquiry would be begun before him next Wednesday and he instructed all the jurors to be present.

In addition for the investigation Counsel Hurlburt said:

"The newspapers of Boston have been filled with the statement that a juror was approached. While the name of the attorney to whom it was said this juror was to go to get $200 was not mentioned, it was generally known through rumors circulated about the court that the attorney was myself.

"I am an officer of this court. The charge of attempting to bribe a juror is of the gravest character. The jurors are here and I ask that that a juror while these charges are publicly investigated."

District Attorney Pelletier said he understood everything that Mr. Hurlburt had said. He declared that he did not believe that either Mr. Hurlburt or any client, Mr. Wood, had any part in the alleged conversation with the juror.

John Dowling, who was the juror in question, stated that he had not been approached.

TOO MUCH RELIGIOUS SERVICE FOR PRISONERS, DISCIPLINE SAYS SUPERINTENDENT

Taft and Wilson Put Feet Under the Same Table at White House

Former President Taft Is Guest of President and Mrs. Wilson at Luncheon on Saturday

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Former President Taft made his first visit to the White House today since he left on March 4 to become a private citizen. Mr. Taft was the luncheon guest of the president and Mrs. Wilson, but before he sat down to the White House table amid the noon rush, made a brief visit to the executive offices and shook hands with all the old employes he knew.

Before his White House call, Mr. Taft noticed to the contrary and got lost.

He went to the house wing and looked for Speaker Clark in the chamber. The house was not in session and only aides belched greeted him. He strolled through the lobby and stepped confidently up to the door of Representative Underwood's private office to find it locked.

"I'm looking for Speaker Clark," said Mr. Taft.

"That's not his office," suggested a bystander, who pointed out the proper door.

"I'm looking for a gentleman named Champ Clark," said Mr. Taft, he looked.

Speaker Clark jumped from behind a newspaper and shouted:

"Why are you?"

The former president and the speaker embraced for long, the former President Taft of the United States, Democrat, Taft, the speaker's office. Relating to Mr. Clark, he observed:

"The speaker hasn't changed any, I don't."

"I haven't been on this side in more than four years," added Mr. Taft, "I used to come up and lobby to secure my salary."

"I am the happiest man in the United States," declared Mr. Taft, as he left the speaker's office. Relating to Mr. Clark, he observed:

"The speaker hasn't changed any, I don't."

"I haven't been on this side in more than four years," added Mr. Taft, "I used to come up and lobby to secure my salary."

SENT BLACKHAND NOTE TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Giuzphe Pomaro, It Is Said, Admits Demanding $5,000, and Is Arrested

(By Associated Press.)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 7.—Giuzphe Pomaro, thirty-five years old, was arrested here today on the charge of sending a blackhand letter to President Wilson, demanding $5,000. It is said Pomaro admits the guilt, giving as a reason that he just wanted the money.

The letter embodying the money was mailed on May 23 and was addressed simply to "President Woodrow Wilson, Washington, D. C." Captain Weaver arrived in Youngstown today and took Pomaro to Washington, where he will be arraigned before a United States commissioner.

Pomaro is said to have been a bandit in his native country, Italy, and to have had extensive experience in this section.

Asks Public Works Committee to Bar All Ministers and Evangelists Except Regular Chaplains to Be Employed by County

As a result of assertions made by Captain Tom Donaldson, chief of county construction, Saturday that discipline was being demoralized in Fulton convict camps by the holding of sectarian religious services the county authorities in future likely will bar all ministers and evangelists excepting the regular chaplains.

Captain Donaldson appeared before the public works committee of the county board and recommended that the county employ a number of ministers as chaplains and labor any further religious services at the camps.

Would a large number of volunteer ministers and persons interested in the prisoners appear at the camps Sunday, asked Captain Donaldson, that it would be impossible to maintain discipline.

The services which take place on Sunday cause great confusion in the convict camps, he said, and recently they have been forced to all through Sunday after hour of service, even to their physical discomfort. If it keeps on it is going to be very difficult for my men to maintain discipline.

"I want to recommend to the board that a certain number of chaplains be employed to hold services and then all labor be forbidden. I think that men should have religious services, but the present plan of letting every person who wants to come in and talk to the prisoners is bad for the system and unfavorable to good discipline."

Commissioners Bailey Smith, S. R. Varnedoe and W. Tom Wynn, composing the public works committee, discussed the matter at length with Captain Donaldson and as a result probably will recommend to the board that the recommendation receive favorable action on the part of the commission.

Captain Donaldson's statement was preceded by a request made to the public works committee by T. J. Day that Mr. Fleming, a recent consultant to Atlanta, interested in work among convicts be allowed to hold services in the camps. Mr. Fleming's plan, as outlined by Mr. Day, included a number of chaplains.

Captain Donaldson told the board that under the present system a large number of persons congregated at the camps every Sunday and the services keep up during the greater part of the day. The fact that the camps were full of outsiders boded ill for discipline, he said.

ATLANTA BOY GOES MAD; FOUR MEN HOLD HIM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 7.—Two deputy sheriffs, two constitution attendants and several probate court attaches were kept busy for two hours today with Charles Sanders, eighteen years old, son of Mrs. Lane Sanders, an Atlanta, Ga., lady, traveling, she says, in the interest of an Atlanta concern, manufacturer of patentable toilet, tenders, was declared insane and committed to the Cincinnati sanitarium.

Mrs. Sanders is related to Sanford Lough furniture and declares she will run back home not to a state institution in Georgia.

"TORTURE CHAMBER" METHODS CHARGED IN GETTING EVIDENCE

In Card to The Journal, Wife of Factory Superintendent Declares Solicitor Dorsey Has Approved Third Degree

"WE ARE SUFFERING NOW, BUT WHO WILL BE NEXT?"

Her Statement in Full—Conley Will Not Be Indicted as Accessory, but If Frank Is Acquitted, He Will Be Tried

Mrs. Leo M. Frank, wife of the indicted pencil factory superintendent, Saturday afternoon sent The Journal a second statement in which she renews her charge that Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey and the city detectives are obtaining evidence in the Phagan murder case by torturing witnesses into giving testimony.

Mrs. Frank's statement is given out in reply to one issued Thursday afternoon by the solicitor. She declares that her negro cook, Minola McKnight, was arrested in violation of the criminal laws, because there was no charge against her and she was suspected of no crime.

"I do not wish to be in any manner bitter towards Mr. Dorsey, even in my feelings," declares Mrs. Frank, "because it is as perfectly clear that his action is dictated by a serious mistake of judgment, and my only purpose is to let the community understand as thoroughly as I can, in the interest of fairness to my innocent husband, that Mr. Dorsey is promoting to use third degree torture chamber testimony in an effort to strike the life and that he thinks it is perfectly proper for him to do so."

Ancient Pharmacopoea

LONDON.—Quaint medical remedies which were popular in bygone days are described at the city of London School by Dr. F. M. Sandwith. Grandma's pills, he said, were as a sweeter on "frogs and mice."

After quoting out that herbs supplied the first drugs, the lecturer declared how animal products were as varied as medicine, some even remaining in the first English pharmacopoeia published in 1618.

Tired flesh and new-born puppies were among the old remedies.

One book recommended a live spider in its relief in butter and formed into a pill, and then swallowed, as an anti-ague for jaundice.

Toads were held in high esteem, and a toad made from them was said to strengthen the sight. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries powdered mummies were prescribed.

In some of the older herbal works a peculiar fact was the constant recommendation of remedies for brutes, which gave some idea of the manners of the day.

John Gerrard, who was chief gardener to Queen Elizabeth, lived in the Strand and had a garden of his own in Holborn, then called a "suburb" of London, published a book in 1597 which recommended Robinson's seed for taking away no one sight the black spots of bruises caused by falls "or Dame's wife's stubborness in combing her hair against husbands' firsts or such like."

Lord Morley in Berlin

BERLIN.—Why has Lord Morley come to Berlin in official quarters it is stated that a political mission of any kind is responsible for his presence in the German capital, but on the other hand, the newspapers decline to believe that he would select Berlin as the place to spend a prolonged holiday at this juncture when Russian affairs are the most tragic were engaging his attention.

The lord president of the council is celebrated for his same experience at the hands of the newspapers of the father, and as Lord Stanhope undoubtedly is aware, he is not the newspapers point out that the "private" visit is peculiarly timely, inasmuch as Prince Lichnowsky, the German ambassador is also present in Berlin.

The Reichsrat believed that the visit is connected with the specific phase of development in the near east, the object of which was inevitable and which will mean the division of Asia Minor, followed by a change in the balance of power in the Mediterranean.

Soprano's Complaint

LONDON.—Miss Maggie Teyte, one of the most popular and probably the most youthful of English singers, returned to London last week from an itinerary tour in America and on the continent.

She is to appear at the Albert hall with Dame Nellie Melba, Kreisler and others, and will also give a concert at the Queen's hall.

"It is such a flying visit," said Miss Teyte. "I have to go back to Germany to sing in Strauss opera. I have just a little heartache about it.

"My table is London, my own city, and to me the whole place is the world. I am always flying once. Without comment I have really had great success in great opera all over America and Europe.

"I have sung all the leading soprano roles in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Paris, and many times in Germany. But in London I only come now to sing in concert.

"London, London is the only place in the world to sing and eat. I, though an Englishwoman, am warmly greeted over here, and I do not sing in my native opera. I do not think there is a terrible handicap it is to be an Englishwoman in the musical world.

"There, I have achieved my success. I have always done so against all difficulties, so I am confident that difficulties you cannot sing opera, is a fable. I have often heard.

"In America after I have sung big opera and had great receptions I have been called an American."

Gorky's Wife Returns to Stage

MOSCOW.—Maxim Gorky's wife, Madame Andreyeva, has returned here with the intention of resuming her dramatic career.

The actress she could not longer resist the call of the stage. She has, she said, sacrificed herself enough for her family sentiments.

It is after herself, like her husband, and would prefer to be a cheering comfort.

What Barristers Earn

LONDON.—Who will be the new judge?

There is much interesting speculation among legal circles as to who will be appointed of the new seat on the bench in the King's bench division of the high court of justice.

The recommendation of the committee of inquiry has been inquiring into the question of public business on the bench side—that an additional judge should be appointed—is quite certain to be carried into effect very

HAS YOUR SHIP COME IN?

If it has, pass up this little talk, which is intended only for those who are still in hopes that their ships are due to arrive soon.

While you are waiting for your ships to show above the horizon what are you doing?

Are you profitably employed? Would you, if you could secure it, accept employment with one of the going, growing concerns in Atlanta?

Waiting for a ship to come in is wearing work, brothers—get busy and the ship will make faster time. For all you know your ship may be waiting for you now right on Opportunity street. Read The Journal Want Ads, get to work, and you'll find your ship.

BARGAIN—Unblemished, used two months; perfect condition. Sample ad.

When Remodeling and Enlarging Comes then is when you can use Journal "Want" ads to splendid advantage. Journal "Want" ads go hand in hand with progress and improvement.

The old furniture that the new replaces, the fixtures of the office, the devices that have accumulated, can all be advertised and sold through Journal "Want" ads.

Progressive firms have the old sold before the new supply has arrived.

If you decide to advertise a "Want" of any kind tell The Journal by phone. The Journal gets results.

HALF or private office; example; chair and telephone stand. Sample ad.
