ARES JURY tion (1881-2001); Aug 26, 1913; Newspapers Atlanta Constitution (1868 - 1945) GUILTY, DECLARES

GUILTY, DECLARES JURY

FRANK'S LIFE HISTORY. LEO

The following chronological history of the life of Leo. M. Frank is taken from his statement to the jury, made August 18: April 17, 1884, born in Paris, Texas.

July, 1884, taken by parents to live in Brooklyn, N. Y.

June, 1902, graduated from Pratt institute, a Brooklyn high school.

September, 1902, entered Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y.

June, 1906, graduated from Cornell.

July, 1906, accepted position as draftsman with B. F. Sturtevant company, of High Park, Mass.

January, 1907, became testing engineer and draftsman for the Na-January, 1907, became testing etional Meter company, of Brooklyn.

October, 1907, came to Atlanta blishment of a pencil company. to Atlanta to confer with friends here about tablishment of December, 1907, went to Europe to study the pencil business. December, 1907, went to Europe to study the pentil.

August, 1908, returned from Europe and came directly to Aflanta, where he has remained ever since, as superintendent of Pencil factory. October, 1910, married to Miss Lucile Selig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Selig, and went to live with his wife's parents at 68 East Georgia avenue.

April 26, 1913, paid off Mary Phagan at the factory office. April 27, 1913, notified early in the morning by officers to come to factory. Visited morgue and saw the girl's body and then went to his factory. factory.

April 28, 1913, gives first statement to detectives at police station.

April 29, 1913, arrested on suspicion of the crime.

May 1, 1913, bound over by the coroner's jury on charge of murder of Mary Phagan and taken to the Tower. May 24, 1913, indicted by the Fulton grand jury for the murder.

· July 28, 1913, his trial begins.

August 18, 1913, makes statement to jury. August 25, 1913, found guilty.