Leo Frank Received Fair Trial Declares Chief Newport Lanford

lowing statement Monday night in talking with a Constitution reporter:

"It is very gratifying to the mem bers of my department that the jury, after their undoubtedly careful deligeration, found Frank guilty. I am not in the least surprised nor do I think are any of the detectives who have been associated with me in this case.

"Frank was given one of the fairest trials it has ever been my lot to figure in. A body of twelve honorable gentlemen of high standing in the community have found him guilty, as charged, of the murder of Mary Phagan, and I am of the opinion that

Chief Newport Lanford made the fol | nearly everyone who is familiar with the case believes him guilty.

"We, the other detectives and myself, have worked very hard on the case and have been untiring in our case and nave been untring in our efforts to get at the truth regarding this terrible crime. We have been severely condemned by a few persons, most of whom are unfamiliar with the case, and with police methods of obtaining evidence, for the manner in which the city detectives have bandled. which the city detectives have handled which the city detectives have naudled the Frank case, but the verdict ren-dered by the jury comes as a com-plete vinification of our department, in my opinion, and we feel that we have received the greatest reward possible, namely, the conviction of the man responsible for the little Pha gen city death." gan girl's death."

Rabbi David Marx Expresses Great Surprise Over Verdict

Rabb David Marx, close friend of Leo M. Frank, who has stoud by the convicted young man with s devotion which has been the admiration of even those who thought Frank guilty, was one of those most surprised at the verdict-surprised and stunned. Dr. Mark had been granted a leave of absence by his congregation and had been intending to take a trip to

When Frank was arrested Dr. Marx gladly gave up the idea of a vacation and not a day has passed that he has not been with the unfortunate young

When he learned the verdict Monday he said:

Monday no seed.
"I am stunned. I cannot believe it.
I know he is innocent—I know he is such a crime. My fath in Leo Frank has not diminished one

"I ask that the public suspend final judgment until an appeal for a naw triai is made."

Dr. Marx was with Frank when the news of the jury's finding was made known.

Later he consulted with Frank's attorneys and then went back to the jail to lend what comfort he could to the young man.

Phones Kept Busy for Hours With Messages About Verdict

According to a statement made by an official of the company Monday hight never in the history of the South-ern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, have as many calls been regis fered as were put into the local ex-changes within the first hour after the Frank jury brought in a verdict

The company had a full and com-petent corps of operators at the switchboards, but the calls came in too fast and frequently to be han-dled promptly. The officials state that it appeared that overy man, woman and child in Atlanta wanted to make use of the phone immediately and talk with their friends about the trial had with their friends about the trial and the outcome. The company has a rush hour every day, in which the operators are taxed to their utmost speed to handle the calls, but Monday afternoon broke all records, more than three times the number of connections being called for than the largest number of any provious day in the history of the commany in Allants. the history of the company in Atlanta.
