ing to unusual agitation on the part of Frank on the day of the murder. Sergeant Dobbs' testimony concerned the finding of the girl's body, and the two pieces which were picked up near it. Also the condition of the body when it was found.

During Tuesday afternoon other officers will probably be introduced to give similar evidence, and it is believed the undersheriff and coroner will also be put on the stand.

Court officials believe that the trial will run well into a second week and that the coroner's evidence will be one of the stand for two or three days. It is also thought that the state will call Frank for two or three days. It is also thought that the state will call Frank for two or three days.

Frank followed the progress of his trial Tuesday with great interest and apparent satisfaction. He listened intently to every word from the court room and frequently by conferred with his attorneys. "I am anxious" while conversing with his wife, mother, who sat beside him.

Also any spectators retained their seats in the court room throughout the trial, foregoing lunch and fresh air in order to hear for themselves good news at the afternoon session. Mrs. Frank and her husband remained together in an automobile of the court. The jury returned to the courtroom about 10:30 a. m. and the court resumed three minutes later.

At 1:15 Sergeant Dobbs continued on the stand. He testified that he was in the room at the time of the murder. He testified that he saw the girl's body lying on the floor. He testified that he saw the two pieces of the girl's body lying on the floor. He testified that he saw the girl's body lying on the floor.
