

L. M. FRANK FACTOR IN SUPERSTITION

THREE NEGRO NIGHT WATCHMEN SAY NEGRO MURDERER'S NOTES FOUND BY BODY OF VICTIM

Frank M. Barry, of the Fourth National Bank, Andrew M. Bergstrom of Third National, and Pope C. Drivog, of the American National, Examined Notes at Journalist's Request And Found Same Person Write Both

ALL THREE ARE EXPERTS AND MADE MICROSCOPICAL EXAMINATIONS

Their Investigation Shows He Wrote Both Notes and Seems to Prove Conclusively That Either the Negro Committed the Crime or Knows Who the GUILTY Party Is

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

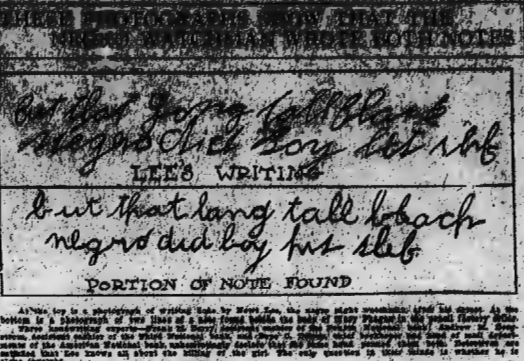

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

THROUGH his own investigations, The Atlanta Journal has proven conclusively that New Lee, the negro night watchman for the National Penitentiary, either himself murdered and murdered pretty Mary Phagan, or that he knew who committed the crime and is assisting the perpetrator to conceal his identity.

GANTT'S RELEASE ASKED IN HABEAS CORPUS WRIT

Petition Made to Judge George L. Bell and Will Be Heard at 4 o'Clock

J. M. GANTT charged with the murder of Mary Phagan is seeking his release from a writ of habeas corpus.

WITNESSES POSITIVE MURDERED GIRL WAS SAME WHO CREATED SCENE AT THE TERMINAL STATION ON FRIDAY

Getman T. R. Malone and H. P. Sibley, After Viewing Corpse Declare Mary Phagan, Sobbing Loudly and Displaying Vehement Feelings, Prevented Strange Man From Boarding Train for Washington—Neither of Men Detained by Police Is Mysterious Stranger

H. P. SIBLEY, policeman and T. R. Malone, special officer at the Atlanta Terminal station, have identified the dead body of Mary Phagan as the same girl whom they saw dramat- ically prevent a man from leaving on train No. 28 for Washington, D. C., Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

POLICE DETECTIVES BUILDING CASE ON THEORY THAT FRANK AND NEGRO CAN CLEAR MYSTERY

Chief Lanford Believes That Testimony of the Superintendent and Negro Night Watchman May Lead to the Arrest of the Person Guilty of the Atrocious Crime That Has Shocked the Whole City—No Further Arrests Expected Soon

MRS. FRANK IN TEARS AT POLICE STATION WHILE HUSBAND IS UNDER EXAMINATION

Frank Was Confronted by Negro Night Watchman—His Attorney, Luther Z. Rosser, Present at Inquiry, Which Was Conducted by Chief Beavers, Chief Lanford and Detectives Behind Closed Doors—Conference Still in Progress at 2

AT 11:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Chief of Detectives N. A. Lanford, announced that L. M. Frank, superintendent of the National Penitentiary, where Mary Phagan was found murdered, early Sunday morning, would be detained by the police until after the coroner's inquest, which is expected to be resumed Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Chief Lanford made this statement when he emerged from a conference which had been in progress in his office on the third floor of the police station since shortly after 1 o'clock.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

Chief Lanford declared that the police were working on the theory that the murderer probably could be cleared up through evidence which they hoped to obtain from the negro night watchman and from Mrs. Frank.

TALKING AGAIN TO THE POLICE

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

Both of them went out together, and we have seen neither of them since that time. The girl was still crying, but her conversation with the man was nervous and showed his discomfiture.

FRENCH USES DYNAMITE ON HOME, KILLING TWO

Colorado Politician Wounded and His Wife and Child Killed by Explosion

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The dynamite which exploded the home of James T. Moore, former member of the Colorado legislature, yesterday, killing his wife and six-year-old daughter and probably fatally injuring Moore himself, was packed in the trunk of a car belonging to a woman, according to the police.

Moore, who is leader of several clubs, is reported to have been returning to his home from the office when the explosion occurred.

Moore's wife and child were killed instantly. Moore himself was severely injured and is being treated in a hospital.

NEGRO SENIORS OUTPOSTS CUTAWAY FORTS

George Danilo and Marsh Out of City North on Monday

FOR DEFENSE DR EVACUATION

Powers, Backing Demand That Little or Surrender Spoils

Terms Demand Cruel and Unjust

Instructions from the government to the military

ILLING SYMPTOM IN DIABETES

Medical friend said, 'You never see them better and putting their feet in water'

GEORGIA CHAIR CO. IS SOLD AT FLOWERY BRANCH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) The Georgia Chair Co. is being sold at the Flowering Branch

REV. A. B. BAKER GO TO JACKSONVILLE

Rev. A. B. Baker, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Fla., is expected to leave for Jacksonville

LEO N. FRANK

Department of the State, Atlanta, Ga.

Journal photograph of the man in the photograph, who is the subject of the article.

NEGRO IS MURDERER

Believes That Newt Lee Bound and Gagged, Then Murdered Mary Phagan

W. J. Coleman, step-father of Mary Phagan, believes that she was murdered by Newt Lee, the negro night watchman, but that before the murder she was bound and gagged at the factory of the National Pen Company, at South Forsyth street, from shortly after noon of Saturday until next midnight.

As Lee passed back and forth along the street, as a member of the city night watch, Coleman, who is a white man, believes that he saw Lee while the factory, while the negro waited for an opportune time to attack and then murder the girl who had been paid the wages for the day and been sent to her home.

Lee, Coleman believes, is a white man, and Coleman believes that Lee is a white man, and Coleman believes that Lee is a white man.

PEACHTREE HEIGHTS ACCUSED OF MURDER

Who was arrested at Marietta and brought to Atlanta Monday, charged with the death of Mary Phagan.

STATE OFFERS $200 REWARD; CITY WILL FOLLOW WITH $1,000 FOR MARY-PHAGAN'S MURDERER

Mayor Woodward Calls Special Meeting of Council So That Reward Can Be Formally Offered—Governor Brown Issues Proclamation Tuesday Morning

Governor Joseph M. Brown Tuesday morning offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of Mary Phagan, and the city of Atlanta is expected to offer a $200 reward at a special meeting that has been called by Mayor James O. Woodward for Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mayor Woodward points out that this is one of the most atrocious crimes in Atlanta's history and that the city cannot afford to let it go unheeded.

Following is the mayor's message to council: "Atlanta, Ga., April 23, 1932. To the General Council City of Atlanta: 'The general council of the city of Atlanta is hereby called to convene in special session tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, April 24, 1932, to take consideration in an official way of that most brutal crime that was committed in this city on last Saturday night.

FIFTEEN NOTED HORSES BURNED IN KENTUCKY

LUXINGTON, Ky., April 23—Fifteen famous American and English-bred horses, each with two or three years of age, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a barn at this Lexington stable farm near here today. The fire is believed to have been the work of incendiaries. The monetary loss is estimated at $50,000.

MILLIONAIRE DIES FROM FRACTURED SKULL

ST. LOUIS, April 23—The late Lewis and Clark monument secretary of the Mississippi Valley Trade company of St. Louis, died today from an injury he received at the home of a friend. His skull was fractured. Dr. Fort was one of the principal surgeons. He was one of the principal surgeons of the $1,000,000 estate left by the late David T. Barken.

BANKRUPT PETITION

G. W. Mallett, a Lawrenceville merchant, filed a petition in bankruptcy today in the United States court here. He has liabilities of $2,411, and his assets at $1,600.

COMING! BASS' SALE

See Wednesday's Journal for Big Bargain Ad.

PEACHTREE HEIGHTS AUCTION

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30 3 O'CLOCK P. M.

Do you want a home? Tomorrow's auction in PEACHTREE HEIGHTS offers you the opportunity of a lifetime. In buying a home site you want the right location, and you want good neighbors. And, then, you want to know that your home is so situated that it is easily convertible into cash—more cash than you paid for it.

PEACHTREE HEIGHTS possesses these essential qualifications and more. Geographically, it is located in the very heart of what will always be Atlanta's most popular and most attractive home section.

For class and tone, the neighborhood is unexcelled anywhere; those who know PEACHTREE need no elucidation of this fact.

PEACHTREE enhancement is a matter of familiar history. There is just so much PEACHTREE property; there can NEVER be any more. BUT THE DEMAND FOR IT IS GOING TO CONTINUE TO GROW AS ATLANTA GROWS; AND ATLANTA IS GROWING AT THE RATE OF 15,000 NEW POPULATION EVERY YEAR. That growth means just so much increase in the value of PEACHTREE property every twelve months.

In the meantime, you choose your lot and build your home. You have every comfort, every convenience that the home-builder can desire. You are just twenty minutes by trolley from the business center of the city.

And while you are enjoying home life in ideal surroundings, with parks and playgrounds on every hand, you have an investment that is growing daily in value, just as Atlanta is building in population.

You are offered these lots tomorrow—42 of them—AT AUCTION PRICES. You will never have an opportunity to touch them again at the prices at which you may secure them at this sale.

They are going to be sold, and if you want one or more of them, there is just one answer: GO TO THE AUCTION AND BID. CALL FOR PLATS AT THE OFFICE OF E. RIVERS REALTY CO.

MAIR & BERKELE, Inc. Gold and Silversmiths 31-33 Whitehall Street Established 1887

E. RIVERS REALTY CO. STEVE R. JOHNSON, Auctioneer 8 West Alabama Street

'NDOGA UNIVERSITY TO HOLD SUMMER SCHOOL

Special Dispatch to The Journal. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 23.—The board of trustees of the University of the South has decided to conduct the summer school again this year. The school will open on July 1 and close on August 1. It will be held on the campus of the university at the state capital, where the president of the university, Dr. J. H. Jones, is president of the university. The school will be held on the campus of the university at the state capital, where the president of the university, Dr. J. H. Jones, is president of the university.

CHATTANOOGA PUTS ON SMILE FOR VETS

Special Dispatch to The Journal. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 23.—The board of trustees of the University of the South has decided to conduct the summer school again this year. The school will open on July 1 and close on August 1. It will be held on the campus of the university at the state capital, where the president of the university, Dr. J. H. Jones, is president of the university.

FREIGHT HITS HOUSE; BLOCKS MAIN LINE

Special Dispatch to The Journal. ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—An unusual wreck, caused by a freight train, blocked the main line of the Georgia Railroad between the city and the city. The wreck occurred at the intersection of the main line and the city street. The freight train was carrying a load of lumber, which fell onto the main line, blocking it for several hours.

350 SALAZAR'S MEN DESERT TO VILLA

Special Dispatch to The Journal. ST. PAUL, Tex., April 23.—General Salazar's army of 350 men deserted to the forces of General Villa after a meeting yesterday at the city of Salazar. The deserters were reported to have been seen in the city of Salazar, where they were welcomed by Villa's forces.

BANKING COMMITTEE TO TAKE UP REFORM FRIDAY

Special Dispatch to The Journal. ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—The Banking Committee of the General Assembly will meet on Friday to take up a bill for the reform of the banking system. The bill is expected to be passed by the committee and then sent to the floor of the assembly.

FIRE PROBE POSTPONED UNTIL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Special Dispatch to The Journal. ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—The fire probe into the cause of the fire which destroyed the building at the intersection of the main line and the city street will be postponed until Friday afternoon. The probe is expected to be completed by Friday afternoon.

WILSON PREPARES TO INVADE NEW JERSEY

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Wilson is expected to invade New Jersey tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The president is expected to arrive in New Jersey at 10 o'clock and to spend the night in the city of New Jersey.

Special Values in 7 Jewel Watches For $5.00

In our south window we are showing some splendid values in watches for men and boys. The watches are 12-size and 16-size open face. The movements are (jewel) adjusted, bearing the usual guarantee. The cases are of a soft, gray white metal, guaranteed not to change color. The cases are finely engraved in attractive designs. The dials are hand white enamel—a top with gold detail.

L. & N. RAILROAD BUYS BURNED IN KENTUCKY

LUXINGTON, Ky., April 23—The Louisville and Nashville railroad today bought out the Stone company and its assets in the heart of the city. The purchase price is expected to be $1,000,000.

Mrs. M. L. Cornett Dead

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 23.—Mrs. M. L. Cornett, aged 72, died at her home Monday afternoon at 7 o'clock after an illness of several months. She was survived by her husband, Mr. M. L. Cornett, and one daughter, Mrs. M. L. Cornett. Her funeral will be held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Cornett, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

The Antiseptic powder which is the cause of the foot-ease. It is the best foot-ease powder on the market. It is the best foot-ease powder on the market. It is the best foot-ease powder on the market.

MAIR & BERKELE, Inc.

Gold and Silversmiths 31-33 Whitehall Street Established 1887

COMING! BASS' SALE

See Wednesday's Journal for Big Bargain Ad.