NO PHAGAN TRIAL BEFORE LAST OF JUNE DECLARES SOLICITOR

Indictments Are Returned by Grand Jury When Bills Are Presented There Will Be No Immediate Trial

WM. J. BURNS COMING,
SAYS THOS. B. FELDER

He Calls Upon the Public to Subscribe a Fund to Pay the Expense of Bringing Great Detective to Atlanta

Should the Fulton county grand jury meet next Thursday or Friday, return a true bill against either one or both of the men held by the grand jury in the Mary Phagan murder investigation, the state will not be able to bring them to trial before the latter part of June.

The reason for the delay at a special court session of the grand jury is that the grand jury met at 10 o'clock on Thursday and adjourned until next Thursday. The grand jury met at 10 o'clock on Thursday and adjourned until next Thursday. The grand jury met at 10 o'clock on Thursday and adjourned until next Thursday.
