WALTER COLQUITT

AS U. S. COMMISSIONER

Atlanta, Lawyer Resigns Important Court Job-Successor Not Indicated

Walter T. Colquitt, United States Commissioner for the northern district of Georgia for nearly fifteen years, resigned today after Friday in a letter to Judge William T. Newman, Jr., resigning the position. Mr. Colquitt's successor in the office, but it is expected he will do so very soon.

The reason given by Mr. Colquitt for resigning the commission is that he has positive reasons for leaving the office. He is a member of the law firm of Colquitt, Conner, and Newman, and he is expected to be succeeded by his partner, Mr. Alfred H. Conner, and one of the best known lawyers in the state. Mr. Newman states that he has accepted the position with cordial relations.
