

VOL. XXXI. NO. 129.

ATLANTA, GA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1913.

LAST EDITION.

PRICE 2 CENTS PER COPY.

OPERATOR TELLS OF CONGRESSMAN ROLE HE PLAYED BY PHONE

David Lamar, Wall Street Operator, Smilingly Recites How He Boosted Political Abilities of Lawyer Friend

$82,000 FORGERY ON U. P. BOOKS, HE SAYS

Declares This Was Foundation for Harriman, Kuhn and Loeb Fortunes—Campaign to Depress U. P. Stock Charged

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—David Lamar, Wall Street operator and one-time assistant of Russell Sage, James R. Doolittle and other financiers, today says he was instrumental in the forgery of $82,000 worth of United States Pacific notes in 1907. Lamar, who is now a member of the United States Senate, told the story in a long interview with a reporter today. He said that he was the one who suggested to the committee that the United States Pacific notes should be forged. He said that he was the one who suggested to the committee that the United States Pacific notes should be forged. He said that he was the one who suggested to the committee that the United States Pacific notes should be forged.

DETAILED CHARGES OF OPEN VICE ARE MADE BY A DOCTOR

Specific Information Supplied to Chief Beavers Points Out Six Downtown Places as Flagrantly Bad

POLICE PROTECTION OF ONE IS ALLEGED BY HIM

Says He Reported It—Police "Tipped It Off," and Nothing Happened—Cafe Has an Adjunct, Says He

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—A doctor, who has been a prominent Atlanta physician for many years, today charges that the police protect a certain downtown place in Atlanta, which he says is a flagrant violation of the law. He said that he reported this to the police, but that nothing happened. He said that he reported this to the police, but that nothing happened. He said that he reported this to the police, but that nothing happened.

THEY COMMAND "ATLANTA'S OWN" REGIMENT

Officers of the 79th Georgia Regiment, which began its summer camp at St. George last Wednesday. The above picture was made during last year's encampment.

BATTLE OPENS TO CHEAPEN COST OF TEXT BOOKS IN GA.

Rep. McGroarty Would Save People Hundreds of Thousands Annually by Breaking "Book Trust," He Says

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—A battle is being waged in the Georgia legislature today to break the "book trust" and save people hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. Representative McGroarty is the champion of the cause. He says that the book trust is a monopoly that keeps the cost of textbooks high. He says that he wants to break this trust and save people money. He says that he wants to break this trust and save people money.

GRAND JURY UPHOLDS BEAVERS, DEPLORES RECKLESS CRITICISM

Lad Stabs Playmate While Demonstrating Method of Fighting

Presentments Have Little to Say About Vice-Sensational Headlines in Newspaper Extra-Commodored for Its Courage by Judge

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—A grand jury today upheld the verdict in the case of a young man who stabbed his playmate. The grand jury deplored the reckless criticism of the case in the newspaper. The grand jury deplored the reckless criticism of the case in the newspaper. The grand jury deplored the reckless criticism of the case in the newspaper.

HITCHCOCK WITHDRAWS FROM DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska withdrew from the Democratic caucus today. He said that he was not interested in the caucus. He said that he was not interested in the caucus. He said that he was not interested in the caucus.

PLAY THE GREAT BOOKLOVERS' GAME AND BRING HOME A PILE OF GOLD.

The First Three Prizes Are $1,000, $750 and $500 In Gold.

YOU CAN EARN ONE OF THEM IN THE NEXT SEVENTEEN DAYS IF YOU ENTER THE CAMPAIGN NOW.

You will find the Booklovers' most interesting and instructive game you ever took part in. You will not have to place yourself under obligations to any one in order to win. No writing or soliciting subscriptions to this delightful game. Need details on page two and join the happy Booklovers' family today. The first prize of $1,000 may be yours!

SMITH AND MILES INDICTED IN CASE OF GUARANTEE BANK

President and Secretary Former Trust and Banking Company Are Held on Charges Each

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—President and Secretary of the Guarantee Bank, Smith and Miles, were indicted today in a case involving the bank's operations. The indictment charges them with various offenses. The indictment charges them with various offenses. The indictment charges them with various offenses.

HOUSE DENIES SEATS TO REPRESENTATIVES OF NEW COUNTIES

By Vote of 135 to 37, the Lower House Declined to Seat Mr. Arthur, of Wheeler, and Browning, of Bleckley

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—The House of Representatives today denied seats to representatives of new counties. The vote was 135 to 37. The House denied seats to Mr. Arthur of Wheeler and Mr. Browning of Bleckley. The House denied seats to Mr. Arthur of Wheeler and Mr. Browning of Bleckley.

CRIMINAL LIBEL BILL AGAINST C. HUTCHESON

Attorney Indicted on Two Counts for Card Attacking Beavers and Lanford

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—A criminal libel bill was introduced today against C. Hutcheson. The bill charges Hutcheson with libel for attacking Beavers and Lanford. The bill charges Hutcheson with libel for attacking Beavers and Lanford.

A Want Thought

The Journal Want Columns are in season during the summer months. They carry the messages of employer and employee, landlord and tenant, buyer and seller, lover and friend, and those who would exchange at all times of the year. In season and out of season there are those who should look to The Journal Wants for a practical aid in many ways. In getting work, securing servants, renting property of all kinds, providing business chances, showing opportunities in all the enterprises of everyday life in the household, in the shop, office or factory—Journal Wants are always on hand. To those who wish to get the most out of the Journal Wants, it is best to send in their notices as early as possible.

GE EAT THAT A DANDY SKYROCKET THOUGH? ONLY TWO MORE DAYS—GODDY!

Oh! I wish I wasn't a GUSIE!

MAGON SCANDAL TO END IN SUIT FOR SLANDER

M. L. Lester Will Sue Wife's Accusers, Who Charge Intimacy With Choir Leader.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
ATLANTA, July 2.—The Magon scandal is to end in a suit for slander. M. L. Lester is to sue the accusers who charged intimacy with a choir leader. M. L. Lester is to sue the accusers who charged intimacy with a choir leader.

NOTICES

FUNERAL NOTICES
The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Johnson are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Johnson, which will be held at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 118 West View street, on Wednesday, July 3, 1913. The interment will be at 10 o'clock at the Mt. Zion cemetery. Mr. Johnson was born in Georgia and was a member of the Methodist church. He was a successful business man and a public-spirited citizen. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Johnson, and several children.

SPECIAL NOTICES

A. O. & ROY DENMOOR
Have Opened
Funeral Parlors at 200 Marietta St.
Phone 1111

DISOLUTION NOTICE

The firm of H. H. and H. H. of Marietta, Ga., has this day dissolved. All debts due to or by the firm are hereby acknowledged. H. H. and H. H.

LEGAL NOTICES

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as executor of the last will and testament of the late J. H. Smith, deceased, has filed in the probate court of this county a true and correct copy of said will, and that the same has been admitted to probate. J. H. Smith.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given to all creditors of the late J. H. Smith, deceased, to present their claims against the estate of said decedent to the undersigned, as executor, at his late residence, 118 West View street, on or before the 15th day of July, 1913. J. H. Smith.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given to all creditors of the late J. H. Smith, deceased, to present their claims against the estate of said decedent to the undersigned, as executor, at his late residence, 118 West View street, on or before the 15th day of July, 1913. J. H. Smith.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY JOURNAL EXHIBITION

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA
$100 ROUND TRIP—$6.00
The Southern Railway is sponsoring a journal exhibition in the Western North Carolina region. The exhibition will feature a variety of journals and books. The round trip fare is $100, and the exhibition fee is $6.00. The exhibition will be held from July 10th to July 15th. For more information, contact the Southern Railway.