WALLS OF WHITE HOUSE GET NEW COAT OF TINTS

Many Improvements Being Made During Absence of Mrs. Wilson and Daughters
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Advantage is being taken of the absence of Mrs. Wilson and her daughters, to touch up and freshen the white house. Painters now are at work retouching the walls and ceiling. The changes are being made in the decorative or color scheme.

Other improvements which will be completed before the return of the first members of the executive family, include a remodeling of the attic, to provide for the installation of a shower bath in the basement for the use of the family.

The white house is being freshened up in many ways. The walls are being retouched and the ceiling is being painted.
