THEORY OF PHAGAN MURDER REVEALED BY DISSENSE

Questions asked yesterday by Attorney Rogers and special inquirer that the defense may attempt to establish the fact that it would have been possible for the body to have been blown out of the window and dropped to the ground by the explosion of the boiler.

WITNESS FOUND WHO SAW MARY PHAGAN ON WAY TO FACTORY
 And will testify several witnesses are expected to appear for the prosecution.

The hearing of the case was held in the afternoon and the defense was successful in securing the testimony of a witness who saw Mary Phagan on her way to the factory on the morning of the murder. The witness, a woman named Mrs. W. M. Mincey, testified that she saw Phagan at about 7:30 a. m. on the morning of the murder. She said that Phagan was walking towards the factory and that she saw her enter the building. Mincey testified that she saw Phagan enter the building and that she saw her go to the second floor. She said that she saw Phagan enter the building and that she saw her go to the second floor. She said that she saw Phagan enter the building and that she saw her go to the second floor.

NEGRO RECTION HAND KILLED BY PASSENGER
 Lord Baltimore, a negro rector, was killed by a passenger on a passenger train No. 1 of that road Saturday night about 9 o'clock.

The accident occurred on the W. & A. right of way just outside the west city limits. It was discovered when the train was stopped at the station and the body was found lying between the tracks. A search of the train was made and the body was found in the baggage car. The body was removed to the W. & A. morgue and will be buried at the coroner's request.

Will give up character. While there has been no authoritative announcement from either Attorney Rogers or the defense, the theory that Mary Phagan was murdered in the factory is being maintained by the prosecution. The defense is expected to continue to be strengthened by the testimony of several witnesses who saw Phagan on her way to the factory on the morning of the murder. HERE'S HOW THE FRANK TRIAL JURORS ARE SPENDING THEIR TIME THESE DAYS

Anybody who has the impression that the juror is a big man with his arms crossed and a stern expression, who sits in the courtroom with the crown prosecutor and the defense lawyer, and who looks at the witness and the jury and says "I find the defendant guilty" is mistaken. The juror is a man who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence. He is a man who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence. PLAYING PRACTICAL JOES ON WATCHFUL BAILIFFS IS PASTIME OF FRANK JURORS

Court Night Charles F. Huber, who guards boys in hotel at night, spends hours in search of mysterious female voice which disrupts his peace - Deder Townsend Invoices His Time While Shut Off From World by Growing Mustache

There are a few pastimes which are popular among the juror. One of the most popular is playing practical jokes on the bailiffs. The juror is a man who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence. He is a man who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence. LIFE IS WORTH LIVING WITH THESE JURORS AROUND

Juror Deder Townsend (at left), who has developed his reputation for the last two weeks in outwitting a prosecutor, and A. H. Herndon, who is a juror who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence.

of the left of the boy, in improving his time since he has learned his weekly lessons. There are a number of things on the upper lip that look like this. They are hair. The whole jury seems proud of the crop. Mr. Townsend's mustache is blond. At the stage of the game it is impossible to tell whether it will grow or not, owing to the fact that it cannot be increased. It cannot be shaved when the juror is in the court. Almost his whole face is covered with hair. He is a man who is a member of the jury and who is sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence.
