

PATERSON TO FRANK'S AID.

Prominent Business Men Wire Plea to the Governor of Georgia.

PATERSON, N. J., May 18.—A number of the most prominent business men of Paterson, who have interested themselves in the nation-wide campaign to secure clemency for Leo M. Frank of Atlanta, Ga., met today and passed resolutions to add their pleadings to those of the great multitude who are endeavoring to influence Governor Slaton. Their telegram to the Governor follows:

Hon. J. H. Slaton, Governor, Atlanta, Ga.: We most respectfully approach you on behalf of Leo Frank, convicted in your city and State. As citizens of the United States, we do not question the justice of the verdict, but in a question of mercy, no one should hesitate to appeal in the behalf of any unfortunate citizen.

We beg to intercede with your Excellency to bestow clemency upon Leo Frank.

Among the signers of the telegram were Samuel Goldstein, Morris A. Goldstein, Arnold Levy, S. Klein, Nathan Levine, Herman Orbach, David Gordon, Harry Dunn, Benjamin Lowenthal, Solomon D. Stern, and Isadore F. Rosenthal.

$95,000 for Holy Apostles Church.

It was announced last night at a meeting of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Ninth Avenue and Twenty-eighth Street, held in the grill room of the Pennsylvania Station, that only $5,000 more was required to complete the first endowment of $100,000. William Clarkson Van Antwerp, a Governor of the New York Stock Exchange, addressed the meeting on the "New Spirit in Business."
