

APPROVAL STAMPED ON MONEY MEASURE BY HOUSE CAUCUS

By Vote of 163 to 9 Administration's Plan for Currency and Banking Reform Is Adopted.

ONLY MINOR CHANGES MADE IN THE MEASURE

Chairman Glass Will Introduce the Bill in the House Today and Speedy Passage Is Predicted.

By John Corrigan, Jr. Washington D C August 28.—(Special)—Overwhelming endorsement was given the administration currency bill in the house caucus today. Only two amendments were adopted. One changes the requirement as to reserves, turning loose more money for circulation and the other extending from 9 to 12 months the time that loans on farm lands may run.

The provision permitting national banks to loan money on farm lands apparently failed by one majority. The vote was 99 to 91. Representative Samuel J. Tribble of Georgia moved a recapitulation. This was accomplished and showed the adoption of this section by 119 to 63.

Only Nine Votes Against Measure. The bill, after nearly three weeks of discussion, was approved by the caucus by a vote of 163 to 9. The nine dissenters were Representatives Henry Eagle and Callaway of Texas, Hardwick of Georgia, Lobeck of Nebraska, Buchanan and Fowler of Illinois, Neely of Kansas, and Brown of Mississippi.

After agreeing to the bill the caucus adopted a resolution by an almost unanimous vote declaring the bill to be a party measure and that members of this caucus are pledged to support it without further amendment.

The feature of today's session was the adoption of a committee amendment on the section on the bank reserves, which in effect simply serves to clarify the section as originally drawn.

The measure will be re-introduced in the house tomorrow by Chairman Glass and referred immediately to the banking and currency committee, which will meet next Tuesday.

It is expected the bill at once will be reported back to the house, which Mr. Glass predicted tonight would pass it within ten days. Many republicans having indicated their purpose to support it.

BOAT FALLS IN MIDST OF VETERANS' REUNION

Forty Old Soldiers Shocked and Ten Injured at Gathering at The Rock.

Barnesville, Ga., August 28.—(Special)—Nearly forty odd soldiers were shocked and ten badly injured when lightning struck a big tree today within fifteen feet of the platform at The Rock, where 3,000 people were celebrating the annual reunion of Upson camp of confederate veterans.

The tree was silced in two by the bolt, the top falling directly alongside the platform. It appeared almost a miracle that none was killed. Exercises were suspended until the afternoon, when the program was completed.

An immense crowd was present from Upson and the surrounding counties. There were several talks by veterans, war songs were sung and a number of recitations, one of which, 'The Wounded Soldier,' by Miss Pauline Baker, of Zebulon, completely captured the crowd. A magnificent barbeque dinner was served the veterans and all the visitors.

BLALOCK RUNS AFOUL OF CIVIL SERVICE RULES

Revenue Collector in Washington to See Hoke Smith About Matter.

Washington, D C August 28.—(Special)—A O Blalock, the new collector of internal revenue for Georgia, was in Washington today for a conference with Senator Hoke Smith. Mr. Blalock ran afoul of the civil service rules in filling the places of deputy collectors. These places are now protected by the civil service and the incumbents cannot be removed and demerits appointed, without cause.

Democrats and Merit System. There is considerable dissatisfaction among good democrats in all the states on finding how extensive are the ramifications of the so called merit system. President Taft before leaving office covered 10,000 fourth class positions under the civil service. Examinations will be held next week to fill the vacancies in these offices paying less than $180 a year of which there are 294 in Georgia.

Reconvene Sponsor for Bram. Representative William Schley Howard was pleased to learn today that a parole had been granted to Thomas C. Bram, a life term convict now confined in the Atlanta penitentiary. This is the first parole of a life term man under the Howard amendment to the parole law. Daniel W. Romatree of Atlanta, will stand sponsor for Bram during the term he is out on parole, and Bram must report to him at regular intervals. When Bram's exemplary conduct as a prisoner became known, a number of persons in Atlanta interested themselves in his behalf and wrote Mr. Howard, who took the matter up with the parole board.

Georgians in Washington. Among the Georgia visitors here today were W E Stovall of Atlanta, and Orrin Roberts of Monroe.

PRE-CANCELLED STAMPS TO BE PLACED ON SALE

WRONGED WIFE FACES MARSHAL'S TRIAL

Mrs. Diggs Hears Girl Tell of Trip to Reno With Diggs. Diggs Looked First at One Woman and Then at Other.

San Francisco, Cal., August 28.—For the first time since the story of her husband's infidelity became public property, Mrs. Maury L. Diggs heard it today from the lips of Marsha Warrington, 'the other woman.' Marsha told the same story she did in the Diggs trial in the case of F. Drew Caminetti charged with violation of the Mann white slave act.

Mrs. Diggs sat just inside the rail that divides the audience, and the star of the court she listened intently, rigidly wincing at certain parts of the testimony.

Girls Faces the Wronged Wife. Concluding her testimony for the day, Marsha Warrington walked to a seat at the table of counsel for the government. Facing her as she drew near, stood Mrs. Diggs at the table of counsel for the defense, staring her steadfastly in the face, with only the width of the aisle between the two tables separating them. The girl turned her head and looked away.

Midway between the two tables stood Diggs, who, after adjournment, joined his wife. He looked nonchalantly, first at one woman and then at the other, talking the meanwhile with Caminetti.

The girl's story today was a somewhat curious repetition of her testimony in the Diggs trial, and carried her through the earlier stages of her experience with Diggs to the point where Diggs said scandal had surrounded them and began to urge the necessity of flight. Her examination will be resumed tomorrow.

Be Won't Contradict Lola. Whatever the testimony of Lola Norris may be, Caminetti has announced that he will not dispute it. The prosecution has stated that it will attempt to prove that Mrs. Norris was pure until she met Caminetti and that it was in Reno that she yielded, after promise of marriage was made to her.

Thus far the wife children and mother of Caminetti have not appeared in the courtroom. Judge Van Fleet today reprimanded Marshall Woodworth, chief counsel for the defense.

Counsel for the government called the attention of the court to an interview with Woodworth in which Woodworth was quoted as saying of the Mann act: 'It is ridiculous to suppose that the law was framed with the intent of making felons of youths like Drew Caminetti. Everybody knows that the Mann law was passed for the purpose of checking commercialized prostitution. Caminetti believed that the only way in which he could avoid disgrace for his family, himself and Mrs. Norris was to leave Sacramento for a private life in the Spanish war in the volunteers and was a candidate for lieutenant governor of New York in the campaign of 1904. He was educated at Yale university and the New York Law school. A reorganization of the Philippine commission was among Mr. Harrison's plans. Mr. Harrison was a member of the party which accompanied William Howard Taft as secretary of war on his trip to the Philippines and he has had several conferences on Philippine matters from time to time with President Wilson, so that his policy is known to the administration.'

Aged Man Pleads With Police To Send Son to Penitentiary

A gaunt and haggard man with sorrow stamped in his worn and wrinkled face walked into police headquarters last night and pleaded with Night Chief E. L. Jett to send his 22-year-old son to the penitentiary so that the erring youth might be able to cure himself of the drug habit.

He gave the name of John Mauldin, of Mountain View, and said his son C. L. Mauldin, had been addicted to cocaine for several months. It was impossible, he told, to check the boy's love for the drug, and the only remedy lay in a year's enforced abstinence in prison.

Chief Jett issued orders for the police to look out for the boy and arrest him on a charge of idling and loitering. In case of arrest, he will be arraigned before Recorder Broyles on statutory charges which will permit a year's imprisonment in the penitentiary.

AMERICANS FLEEING FROM HUERTA LAND

They Are Obeying Wilson's Warning to Return to U. S. Government Assisting the Needy to Leave Mexico.

Washington, August 28.—Americans in Mexico are heeding President Wilson's warning to get out and state department officials believe that two weeks hence there will be scarcely a thousand of them left the troubled southern republic. Although many had refused to consider leaving before the word came of the president's urgent advice, hundreds have been starting for home or abroad daily during the last three weeks and it is estimated that nearly 10,000, or about as many as still remain in Mexico, have gotten away.

4,000 Americans Need Help. Of those now preparing to leave, 4,000 will need help from the government, so the $100,000 appropriation asked for by Secretary Bryan some time ago to aid refugees will be needed immediately. Of the 4,000, about 3,000 will come out by the east coast ports and the northern border, the other 1,000 through west coast ports.

Since last February the state department has aided, it was said today, between 4,000 and 5,000 refugees, furnishing many transportation in some instances, in others securing special rates or reductions which the individuals themselves could not get.

Department officials estimated that there were about 60,000 Americans in Mexico two or three years ago and Ambassador Wilson places the number as high as 75,000. In aiding American refugees the American Red Cross has spent about $23,000 and last year the trips which the army transport Buford made down the west coast to Mazatlan, Manzanillo, Tepic and other ports cost the war department about $26,000.

High Praise of E. A. Cunard Cummins, British vice consul at Gomez Palacio, which was in the center of the recent fighting around Torreon, was given in a report today from American consular agent, Carothers, at Torreon, who said Mr. Cummins on several occasions risked his life in his efforts to assist British and American subjects, and that he has harbored large numbers of refugees in his own home, among them about thirty Chinese who feared a repetition of the massacre of a few years ago.

The price of foodstuffs in certain sections has become almost prohibitive, it was reported, meat having gone from 30 cents to $2 a kilo, and eggs from 5 cents to 20 cents each. The only Americans remaining at Madera, it is reported, are C. E. Cooper, C. H. Hix, Hicks, Gleason, Carruth and Schmidt, and two or three others whose names were not known. Those who left Madera are expected to arrive at El Paso in a day or two.

AMERICANS SCARED BY WILSON'S WARNING

Mexico City, August 28.—It is fully expected that a resumption of negotiations between the United States and Mexico will occur tomorrow on the return to the Mexican capital of President Wilson's personal representative, John Lind. Mr. Lind is hurrying back from Vera Cruz on the strength of Senator Gamboa's note, which he received this morning, and, according to the understanding, the Mexican government is prepared to make some concessions to the American demands.

Among Americans resident in Mexico, the urgent warning from the United States government that they should leave the country immediately, at first caused an excited, and, according to approaching consternation, and later a general determination to abide by the government's injunction, no matter what the monetary cost. There doubtless will be a great exodus from the republic in the next few days unless the warning is rescinded by reason of a prospective improvement of the most of long strained relations.

Americans resident in the capital are at a loss to know how to interpret the pre-emptory warning issued by President Wilson to leave the republic. Somewhat reassured by the declaration that armed intervention is not intended, they are now wondering whether there is a hidden meaning back of the latest warning.

The American consulate general was crowded throughout the day by Americans of all classes, seeking detailed information. The consul general, Arnold Shambler, was unable to give any advice other than that based upon instructions from the state department to send to all consuls in his district a message to the effect that they should advise all Americans in their territory to leave Mexico at once, going to the nearest seaport, where ships would be ready to take them off.

Most of the Americans who called at the consulate are planning to register their property and obey Washington's injunction. A few are availing themselves of the fund appropriated for the refugees, a great many put the cost of transportation in secondary place. The great majority of those who have been able to arrange their affairs have already departed from the capital, and some from other places. Those who remain here, for the most part, intend to leave behind which would mean the sacrifice of their only means of livelihood.

Lind Is Returning From Vera Cruz to Mexico City at the Request of Huerta—Negotiations Will Be Resumed Today.

Washington Is Greatly Grati-fied at the Turn of Events, and Is Hopeful of a Speedy Adjustment of the Trouble. Situation Loses Much of Its Tension.

Vera Cruz, August 28.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, made hasty preparations this afternoon to return to Mexico City. Colonel Manuel A. Gasque brought a final message to Mr. Lind from President Huerta, as a result of which the American envoy hastened to make ready for a renewal of the negotiations at the capital.

WILLING TO MEET LIND HALF WAY. The contents of the message have not been made public, but it is reported that General Huerta has expressed willingness to meet Mr. Lind at least half way in the matter of the American proposals without absolutely yielding.

Other messages have been received and answered by Mr. Lind since he came to Vera Cruz. Members of his party express great gratification over the outcome, but say the most important part of the work yet remains to be done.

William Bayard Hale, another official agent sent here by President Wilson, will leave immediately for Washington to lay the situation before the president.

HUERTA IS DISPOSED TO YIELD TO WILSON. It now is understood that General Huerta has notified Mr. Lind that his government is willing to renew the conference, and that he is disposed to accept President Wilson's terms in order to secure peace and further recognition of the American government.

Conservative Mexicans here express themselves as hoping that General Huerta will abide by this determination, as they are anxious for the pacification of the country.

Mexico City, August 29.—The announcement of the return of John Lind to Mexico City, brought from Senator Gamboa, minister of foreign affairs, the declaration that Mexico had agreed to nothing, and that Senator Gamboa's note of August 26 to Mr. Lind was the last communication he sent.

It was suggested to the minister

That President Wilson's representative was coming to the capital to resume negotiations. Senator Gamboa replied that this appeared not unlikely, as he naturally expected a reply to his last note.

WILSON ENCOURAGED BY THE DEVELOPMENTS

Washington, August 28.—President Wilson received a long message from John Lind at Vera Cruz late tonight outlining the prospects of a settlement of the Mexican problem in most optimistic terms. While absolute silence was maintained at the white house, there was a well defined impression in official circles that the Huerta government and Mr. Lind had reached a preliminary agreement which might lead to peace in the southern republic.

Huerta May Make Statement

There were persistent reports current that Huerta had stated he would make public announcement of his intention not to be a candidate in the coming election, but which they lacked confirmation in official quarters.

Administration officials expressed themselves as pleased with the day's developments. President Wilson regarded as hopeful the tone of the note sent by Huerta to Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, in reply to supplementary suggestions made by John Lind before leaving Mexico City for Vera Cruz last Monday.

The full text of the two communications was received here, and while the note made by Huerta to Gamboa, in interpretation, yields any of the essential points in its contentions, the method of approaching the difficulties at hand admittedly is more friendly and framed with more regard for a

Pilfered Picture of Patrick Rescued by Detective 'Gene'

The Rescue of Patrick Henry.

Mona Lisa's might be stolen over on 'van' side and might be stolen successfully, but nobody can pull that kind of stuff in Atlanta and get away with it. No, sirree! That is not so long as Sherlock Gene Coker is on the job.

Gene is a detective down at police headquarters, and he can catch anything from a crap shooter in Snuff Alley to a severe cold in the middle of July. He's handsome, too; big Roman features, stout wrists and a pair of pedal extremities that provide foundation as stable as Gibraltar.

The other day Chief Lanford summoned Gene to his office and said: "Look-a-here, Gene, somebody's gone and stole a picture of some kind out of Mr. Carnegie's library. They might get away with that kind of stuff over where they swiped that Monning Lisa thing, but not here, where we've got such men as you purely for the business of catching stolen things."

Gene set out to find the pilfered portrait. It was a handsome picture of Patrick Henry, he of declaration of the rights of man and signer of the Declaration of Independence. The picture had been stolen as mysteriously from Carnegie library as the Mona Lisa had been flicked from its famous gallery.

Gene interviewed the library officials, and from their force of habit more than anything else, turned his sleuthing nostrils to Decatur street, wherein thrive many pawnshops.

Gene searched the trunk, found the pilfered picture, and went gloriouly to the hall of Carnegie library, where he turned it over to Miss Wooten, head librarian.

The accompanying illustration was conceived by Harold History, the ambitious office boy, and only resident in the block who remembered just who was Patrick Henry and what it was he said that made him famous.

The artist, realizing Mr. Henry was quite distant from liberty in the mercenary hands of Detective Gene, put in the handcuffs and visage of grimness on the Coker features.

LEO M. FRANK TO MAKE NO PUBLIC STATEMENT. This Decision Is at the Advice of His Attorneys—Sees Many Friends.

It was learned yesterday that, contrary to reports, Leo Frank would not make public a statement attacking his arraignment by Solicitor Dorsey, withholding at the advice of attorneys.

His counsel has advised silence for the present, and it is likely that no statement at all will be made by the convicted man until his case is brought before the supreme court, in event a new trial is granted.

No move of any kind is expected on the part of the defense until October 4, the date set for argument before Judge L. S. Roan. Both the defense and prosecution are busy preparing and outlining their argument.

Mrs. Rea Frank, mother of the factory superintendent, left Thursday afternoon for her home in Brooklyn, she intimated, however, that she would return to Atlanta shortly. Her husband, said to be ill, is at home.

Frank is resting well in the Tower. Much of his time is spent in attending to business. He receives visitors daily, and his wife has been a constant caller. He slept nine hours Wednesday night, the robbery was committed. Entrance to the house was made through a kitchen window, and a trunk containing money was broken open. Suspicion rests upon a negro familiar with the house and surroundings. No definite clew has been discovered yet.

Griffin, Ga., August 28.—(Special.)—While he was away from home last night, the residence of E. D. Rogers, postmaster at Zetella, Ga., was entered by burglars and money to the amount of over a hundred dollars and a large quantity of stamps were taken. Mr. Rogers was at the Mt. Zion camp meeting when the robbery was committed. Entrance to the house was made through a kitchen window, and a trunk containing money was broken open. Suspicion rests upon a negro familiar with the house and surroundings. No definite clew has been discovered yet.

JUST MARKING TIME IN HARRY THAW CASE

Long Stay in Canadian Prison Seems Certain for Stanford, White's Slayer.

Sherbrooke, Quebec, August 28.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers, successful so far in keeping their client in jail, safe from the immigration authorities, rejoiced tonight when they received word from Quebec that the trip of William Travers Jerome to see Sir Lomer Gouin, provincial premier and attorney general, has been in vain.

Mr. Jerome, leader of the New York state forces seeking Thaw's return to Attleboro, accompanied by Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennerly, left here last night hoping to lay before the premier facts that would persuade him to sweep aside the commitment on which Thaw is held in Sherbrooke and place him in the hands of the immigration authorities. Presumably Mr. Jerome did not know that the premier was to leave Quebec for New York to join those paying tribute to Lord Haldane, who is to arrive there from England tomorrow.

"Gentleman Roger Thompson, Thaw's chauffeur, will be arraigned tomorrow before District Magistrate Mulvana on a charge of aiding an undesirable to cross the frontier. Thompson can prove he is a British subject, he cannot be deported, but can be fined a maximum of $500 or imprisoned for three months.

Thompson said tonight that he would plead not guilty and absolutely would not sue as to the details of Thaw's delivery from Mattawan. It doubtless would be necessary for the prosecution to prove Thaw insane before they can establish that he is an undesirable alien and thus sustain the charge against Thompson. If this is the case, the Thompson trial may go over until alienists can examine Stanford White's slayer.

Talk of Bull for Thaw. There was renewed talk today of the possibility of Thaw's being admitted to bail pending the long wait for trial before the king's bench in October, the length of time it now appears he will be held. One of Thaw's counsel said that Thaw's admission to bail he would regard as an extremely unwise move.

TO LEVY HEAVY TAX ON LARGE INCOMES

Insurgent Movement Among Democrats Forced Leaders to Agree to Revise Income Tax Section of Tariff Bill

Washington August 28—An insurgent movement among democratic senators that threatened to break party lines on the income tax was stopped by democratic leaders today by an agreement to revise the tariff bill so as to levy a heavier tax on the incomes from large fortunes.

The insurgent leaders began with a demand for a party conference and claimed the support of 20 democratic senators out of the 50 in the senate in support of an increase in the tax. They finally agreed to withdraw their demand for a special caucus but the question will be taken up in a party conference tomorrow or Saturday.

Extra Tax on Big Incomes

It is understood that democratic leaders have agreed to a revision of the income tax section so that the extra tax on incomes of more than $100,000 will be 5 per cent with an increasing scale reaching 10 per cent on incomes of half million dollars. The bill as it now stands provides only 3 per cent tax above $100,000. The present rates on incomes between $20,000 and $100,000 also will be increased.

The argument to redraft the bill came after the Vandran left the party ranks and voted for the Follette amendment to increase the rates and Senators Reed Thomson and Ashurst had threatened to take similar action.

Senators Peet Ashurst and Phelan voted with their party only after expressly stating they had been assured an increase would be made for taxes on incomes more than $100,000. Senator La Follette's amendment would have taxed all incomes more than $100,000 10 per cent. Twelve publishers joined the democrats in voting to amend.

Efforts to Amend Failed

Inefficient attempts were made repeatedly to amend the income tax bill. An amendment by Senator La Follette to allow exemption of $500 for a minor child instead of $1000, the exemption to two children was defeated 51 to 47. Another amendment by Senator Lodge to substitute

BIG MOB RUNS DOWN NEGRO WHO ESCAPED FROM BULLOCH JAIL

Statesboro, Ga., August 28—(Special.)—Ed Smith, colored charged with murder, escaped from the Bulloch county jail this afternoon to be run down later by a big crowd who followed. The negro made his escape by bending one of the bars and lowering himself from a rope made of his suspenders and belt.

There were a number of prisoners in the jail at the time none of whom tried to escape. Ed Smith walked out at night probably a complete delivery would have been effected.

per cent and of all country banks from 12 to 15 per cent. The federal reserve board is required to establish a graduated tax on the amounts which banks make in excess of full reserve requirements such tax to be uniform in its application to all banks.

National banks are compelled to become members of the system under penalty of forfeiture of charters, while state banks are permitted to become members under regulations of the federal reserve board.

For amending the provisions relating to red discounts over which there was such a prolonged fight and as a substitute for which Representative Henry and others offered amendments comprising eighteen printed pages the only change made was to add two and one quarter typewritten lines defining that nothing contained therein should be construed to prohibit the rediscounting of notes and bills of exchange secured by agricultural products and other goods wares and merchandise.

Vote dependent for minor children also was promptly voted down. Senator Cummins attacked the provision defining income declaring that the definition of the word as used in the constitutional amendment was for the courts to pass upon and the attempt of congress to do so might result in the entire income tax being declared invalid. He objected to what he termed the efforts of the committee to have principal reckoned as income and to have undivided profits of corporations regarded as part of the income of individual shareholders.

Just as the senate adjourned Senator Hitchcock proposed his amending tax on corporations and on the production of any line of goods. During the afternoon Senator Lodge had warned against levying the income tax as a class measure. He suggested every person should be made to pay part of the tax no matter how small his income.

GIRL'S BRIGHT EYES AND SHOWER OF RAIN SOLVE JEWEL "THEFT"

Savannah, Ga., August 28—(Special.)—The rain today unraveled a "diamond robbery mystery" which baffled the police for several weeks during the early spring.

While Little Miss Kite Shehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shehan, was playing with companions in front of the Burke home just after the rain today, she was attracted by a bright sparkle on the ground which resembled that of a jewel. Picking it up, she found it to be a diamond earring and the next minute she found a diamond ring. The police learned of it and Patrolman Kearney notified headquarters.

The diamonds were identified as those which Mrs. Burke had lost several months ago. At the time Mrs. Burke reported the loss of two earrings and two diamond rings—one having one stone and the other having two stones. One earring and the solitaire were found this morning. The diamonds are valued at several hundred dollars.

CREMATORY TEST TO BE MADE MONDAY

Upon These Tests Depends Whether City Will Install Generating Plant

After announcing the appointment of Frank Lederle, a consulting engineer, to be the city's representative in making the evaporator tests at the new $750,000 crematory Mayor Woodward yesterday stated that he will order the first test to be made Monday morning.

Inspector Lederle was appointed by the mayor under a resolution offered by Chairman Ashley of a sanitary committee and adopted by the board of health and the city council. His commission for making the tests will be $700. The New York architect company the contractor selected for the plant has not yet announced who will conduct the test but it is assumed that P. D. Canham the engineer who was in charge of the construction details and who is still on the job will be assigned.

Ashley to Be Present

Councilman Claude L. Ashley will also be present at the test.

In making the appointment of the engineer Mayor Woodward for the first time since the crematory became a disputed issue gave sanction for the expenditure of the city's money in carrying out a detail of the work. He says that he will hold the contract to every guarantee it has made.

Upon the tests which will be made by Engineer Lederle depends whether the city will expend approximately $102,000 for a 1500 kilowatt electric generating plant. By a resolution offered by Alderman Nutting and adopted by council over the veto of Mayor Woodward the city obligated itself by option to allow the District Engineer to bid on the electric plant.

Ashley is Skeptical

Councilman Ashley is of the opinion that the plant is not capable of generating 1000 kilowatts of current using garbage for fuel.

Even though it does evaporate enough steam to drive turbines large enough to make 1500 kilowatts, it will oppose paying the District Engineer any other concern $102,000 for the generating plant. I don't think such a plant will cost 30 per cent of what the company has offered it to the city. My honest opinion based on the knowledge I have gained of the plant by daily visits is that the city will be fortunate to get 80 kilowatts from it.

Mayor Woodward has called Sanitary Chief John Jentzen for a conference on the crematory to be held in the executive office Friday morning.

There are Still Pump Piles

The mayor told reporters Thursday that he has been informed that the city is still maintaining garbage dump piles despite the fact that the crematory has been in full operation with three furnaces working since August 15.

Mr. informant says that it is costing the city $40 a day to maintain these piles. Mayor Woodward said I am not sure of the cost but I intend finding out. I want Chief Jentzen to conduct the incinerating tests himself and I expect to conduct the reports as to the cost to the city for burning refuse.

In signing the commission to Engineer Lederle Mayor Woodward informed him that what the city wants is a fair and complete report.

BERRY SCHOOL OPENS FOR ITS 14TH SESSION

Rome, Ga., August 28—(Special.)—The Berry school opened this afternoon for its fourteenth session. During the summer the dormitory space was enlarged to accommodate 220 boys in all. Every place is taken and it was necessary to reject about fifty applicants for lack of room. During the summer a successful summer school was conducted and the schools are now practically in continuous session.

Miss Martha Berry, the director announced that the Martha Berry School for Girls will open its third session next week. The opening ceremonies were simple, consisting of a welcome to the new students from Miss Berry, the registration and assignment to classes and the starting of regular work.

VICTORY FOR FRIENDS OF BIRD PROTECTION

J. H. Rice Talks of Feather Proviso in the Tariff Bill

A telegram from National Secretary T. G. Pearson to James Henry Rice, Jr. of South Carolina, field agent of the National Association of Audubon Societies now in Atlanta, conveyed the information that the feather proviso in the report of the finance committee of the United States senate had been referred back to the committee for further consideration. This is a victory so far for the friends of bird protection.

An explanation of the situation is that the tariff bill carried a provision prohibiting the importation of the feathers of all wild birds except ostrich feathers. Feathers of some 10 countries were also permitted to come in.

The finance committee of the senate is on an amendment providing that the feathers of all birds which are killed in traps and the feathers of game birds might be imported. This, such as practically all birds are killed as pests in some parts of the world and to grow out of the value and as most birds are likewise killed as game birds somewhere or other by different means. The passage of it is dependent upon the wood preserve protection from all the birds of the world which live beyond our bounds.

The Work of the Societies

The Audubon societies are to be congratulated on their successful work in this regard. The use of feathers in hats and in dress is an article of commerce. This is the whole of it. A bird is a bird.

In each country there is a wonderful list of birds. Some of the most useful birds are those which are native to the state of Massachusetts. These are the native birds of the state. The list of birds is a list of birds which are native to the state of Massachusetts. These are the native birds of the state. The list of birds is a list of birds which are native to the state of Massachusetts. These are the native birds of the state.

Killed During Nesting Period

The objection to slaughtering birds for their feathers is fairly obvious from the foregoing. But it becomes vastly clearer when it is known that practically all birds whose feathers are used in commerce are killed during the nesting period. Many birds for example the snowbirds known to commerce as egrettes have a special nuptial plumage or bridal dress. This plumage is moulted immediately after the nesting period.

It is these reasons the three hundred million birds which are used up annually in the trade as decorations for women's hats, means a far greater number than the staggering total cited. Indeed so heavy have been the losses on the agriculture of the whole world that every civilized government has been forced to take notice of the fact to pass laws for the protection of the birds within their jurisdiction.

FIFTY FIRE ORPHANS TO UNVEIL MEMORIAL

New York, August 28—Fifty young girls left fatherless by firemen who sacrificed their lives in the discharge of their duties will unveil here on September 5 a firemen's Memorial on Riverside Drive at One Hundredth street. The children will be dressed in white carrying bouquets of roses for the women's hats.

The event has been arranged in connection with the forty first annual convention and exposition of the International Association of Fire Engineers which will begin on Monday to continue through the week.

FORCED TO CALL OFF PLAYGROUND CONTESTS

Lack of Funds to Hold Rally Brings Disappointment to Children

Joseph W. Bean, supervisor of playgrounds for the city of Atlanta, announced Thursday that the events of the playground rally held last week which was postponed on account of lack of time and which were scheduled to be contested next Saturday had been canceled for the reason that no funds are available for the purpose. The announcement will be received with deep regret by the children interested and the large number of people who have been eagerly looking forward to the day.

The big sixth pennant which was offered by the playground committee has been officially awarded to the Grant park playground athletes as they are far in advance of any other team in the city. The flag was practically won by the Grant Park team last week as they rolled up such big wins that it would have been well nigh impossible for any of the other contestants to have passed them.

Mr. Bean expressed himself Thursday as being highly pleased with the progress of playground work in Atlanta and commended in unmeasured terms the valuable service given by the present corps of playground directors.

Supervisor Bean leaves for New York Sunday for his annual outing. While away he expects to take a course of instruction in the new department of parks with a view to the further improvement of playground education in Atlanta.

Ministers would meet with more success if they knew as much about this world as they think they know about their next—September Lippincott's

SAYS STATE BUREAU OF STATISTICS NEEDED

Dan Hughes Discusses Plans of Agricultural Department for Gathering Figures.

The state department of agriculture is considering various plans regarding the collection of statistics concerning the production and movement of cotton. In this connection, Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture Dan Hughes said yesterday:

"I doubt the feasibility with our present facilities of gathering statistics regarding the movement of cotton that would be in any way reliable. Of course, we could gather reports from the various leading inland markets of the state as to the cotton received at stated periods, say weekly, and these receipts compared with receipts at the same markets for the corresponding period last year, might give a good general idea of the movement of the crop.

"A better plan than this would probably be to have the railroads cooperate with us and furnish us with weekly reports as to the number of bales moved. I do not know that they would do this but I rather think they would.

Need State Bureau.

"But it is a very difficult matter for us to gather anything like accurate statistics as to the movement of cotton with our present facilities. It is a matter of requiring expert knowledge. I believe if the legislature would create a bureau of statistics in connection with the department that great good could be accomplished for the farmers, in supplying them with data as to cotton and other crops.

"While we are not in a position to get accurate statistics as to the movement of cotton, I believe we can get secure accurate data as to the production. We are now in correspondence with Director of Census W. J. Harris and we expect to obtain through him weekly reports of the cotton ginned in Georgia. In this way we can keep our farmers informed through the press as to just what the production is at any given time. These reports may be compared with previous years to show how the production is increasing or decreasing.

Federal Weighers Proposed.

"The suggestion has been made that the federal government establish a standard system of grading cotton and also government weighers. When this is done, I believe that it will be possible to follow accurately the movement of the crop, as a bale that had once received the government stamp could be numbered and located at any time.

"There would also be a great saving to farmers from our present extremely wasteful system of sampling and handling cotton. I am informed that this loss is not less than $6,000,000 per year and that in many cases, by the time the bale has reached the manufacturer, it has been so cut to pieces as greatly to expose and damage the lint. I understand that Mr. R. C. Neely, of Waynesboro, has worked out a feasible plan of grading and weighing by the government and that he also has some ideas as to the best method of keeping track of the movement of cotton."

Mr. Hughes said that his department was now in correspondence with the state as to the methods now in vogue as to gathering crop statistics.

LABOR DAY IS HOLIDAY AT THE CITY HALL

Mayor Woodward will issue a proclamation declaring Labor day a holiday, and ordering every department of the city to close. The mayor's order will be in the hands of the clerk by Friday morning, and will be conspicuously placed in the corridors of the city hall.

Mayor Woodward has been asked to attend several celebrations on Labor day, but has not accepted any. It is likely that he will spend his day in the business in shape for the new month. Labor day will not interfere with the regular meeting of council. The call for the meeting has been sent out, and if there is a quorum present, the body will adjourn to meet on some other day.

MISS CLYBURN SINGING AT THE HOTEL ANSLEY

An additional feature has been added to the new Hotel Ansley with a view to making it more popular. Miss Maxie Clyburn, a well known local vocalist, has been engaged to sing there during the evening concerts on the mezzanine floor. Her first appearance was Sunday night, and a large number showed their appreciation for Manager Letton's innovation by frequent and liberal applause.

SMALL AUDIENCE HEARS FINE CONCERT AT THE AUDITORIUM

The concert rendered Thursday night by the Fifth Regiment band under the auspices of the Atlanta Music Festival association was an event deserving of a far larger attendance than was present at the Auditorium-Army.

The reception given the Fifth's band by those who were present, however, was indicative that similar concerts in the future would be highly welcome and would receive a support more commensurate with the deserving work of the musicians.

MRS. E. M. WILSON DIES AS THE RESULT OF FALL

Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 88 years of age, died at Grady hospital Thursday afternoon as a result of a fall in the home of her son-in-law, R. G. Anderson, 4 Baltimore block, corner Peachtree and Spring streets, a few hours previous. Mrs. Wilson sustained a fracture of the skull, and never regained consciousness from the time the accident occurred until she passed away.

The aged woman arose at 3 o'clock Thursday morning and was going down the stairway to the breakfast table when her feet became entangled in her dress and she plunged headlong to the lower floor, her head striking a stone jar as she fell.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by a sister, Mrs. E. G. Taylor, and one daughter, Mrs. R. G. Anderson, with whom she resided in Baltimore block.

MANY DOGS MAKE ESCAPE FROM TAYLOR'S DOGGERY

Walter Taylor's doggerly in Manhattan avenue was raided Wednesday night, and when the city's official canine executioner went on the job yesterday morning to send a dozen or more flea-bitten mongrels to the happy bone-hunting grounds, there was not a captive within miles of the place.

Just who allowed the canines to escape City Clerk Taylor has no idea. He has reported the matter to the police, however, and will ask the city to put a watchman on guard.

One of the city's dog-catchers resigned Thursday as the result of an encounter he had with a victim he roped on Butler street. The dog made a savage attack on the man with the loop, burying its fangs in the calf of the right leg.

BOLLING H. JONES HAS NOT GOT COMMISSION

Bolling H. Jones, president of the Atlanta Store Works, whose appointment as postmaster at Atlanta was confirmed by the senate on Wednesday, has not received his commission and does not expect to receive it for about two weeks yet.

Mr. Jones, accompanied by his wife, expects to leave Atlanta Saturday for a ten-day or two weeks' vacation in New York and other eastern cities.

He expects to be in Washington next Monday, when he will pay his respects to the Georgia senators and representatives there.

Mr. Jones said Thursday that he does not expect to do anything definite in regard to the postoffice until his return from his eastern trip.

CENTRAL BAPTIST WILL HOLD A BIG REVIVAL

The congregation of Central Baptist church is planning a special series of evangelistic meetings for the last half of September, and the deacons have asked Dr. Ridley, the pastor, to do all the preaching. He is hoping to secure the services of Dr. Len G. Broughton for at least one week of the time, as Dr. Broughton will be sojourning in the city at that time.

On next Sunday night, Dr. Ridley will begin a series of preparatory sermons looking to the coming meeting. His subject for Sunday night will be "The Human Soul and How May It Be Lost." The large chorus, which Mr. Witham declares is the best he has heard in America, will lead the congregation in old-time singing.

RANDALL HEIRS ARE RESTRAINED BY ORDER

Temporary Injunction Secured by McKenzies to Establish Clear Titles.

Judge George L. Bell has granted a temporary injunction to George M. and William M. McKenzie restraining the P. H. Randall heirs from mining in the residence subdivision which the McKenzies are now marketing in the exclusive country residence section of northern Fulton county.

This is not that the subdivision is suspected of being a second Klondike, but to establish a clear title to the land.

The McKenzies, so the petition alleges, purchased 85 acres in land lot 216 of the seventeenth district of Fulton county from Thomas L. English about June 24, 1912, with the understanding that the title was good. The property was subdivided into small tracts, some of which have since been sold.

Walter McBireath, attorney-at-law, made the abstract of the title, showing that deeds recorded showed three transfers of the land and that no other deeds so far as known existed.

The first of these deeds conveyed the property from William A. Callahan to William M. Howell. No earlier deed than this was discovered at the time the abstract was drawn.

Another deed recorded. It appears, however, that in July, 1913, another deed was recorded transferring the property from P. H. Randall to William A. Callahan, and reserving a right to one-half the minerals and mining interests in the land.

The petition sets forth that there are no valuable minerals in the land, and that the land is good only for residence purposes, for which it is now being marketed.

The record of former deeds, says the petition, were probably destroyed by fire in 1912, when all the DeKalb records were destroyed, but it claims that the title is, nevertheless, good, since Thomas English had established adverse possession of the property by long residence.

The defendants named are: W. L. P. H., H. G., H. I., Mrs. L. C., Miss M., Miss Lorena and Prince Randall, and Mrs. J. D. Cleaton and Mrs. Neppie Clarke, of Fulton county; B. P. Randall, of DeKalb county; Mrs. Kate Roberts, Mrs. Laura Herrick and George Randall, of Jefferson county, Ala.

RECORD FOR AUGUST IS ALMOST EQUALLED

Thursday was the hottest day with the exception of but one that Atlanta has felt during this month of August. The mercury in the weather bureau registered 93 degrees about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. On August 11 the official figure was 92.

People on the streets Thursday had regular sweltering summer weather, although the official temperature was nothing outrageous. Downtown thermometer readings ranged around 93 degrees. The forecast for Friday is for fair weather, with little, if any, cessation in the heat.

IS A REAL MAJOR NOW INSTEAD OF COLONEL

Colonel A. R. Lawton, the well-known Savannah attorney, has been elected a major in the First Infantry with headquarters in Savannah. He will succeed Major George H. Richter, resigned.

Officers at the state military department in the capitol received notice yesterday that Colonel Lawton had been elected and qualified. He will receive his commission as soon as the governor returns from the west.

Judge Roan Leaves City. Judge L. S. Roan, after the strenuous four weeks of the Frank trial, over which he presided, has left Atlanta for New York and other eastern points on a vacation.

Judge Roan will probably be gone about ten days or two weeks. He is accompanied by his wife and son.

DR. L. G. BROUGHTON COMING ON A VISIT TO FRIENDS HERE

News has been received in Atlanta that Dr. Len G. Broughton, pastor of Christ Congregational church, London, formerly pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle in this city, will return for a few days in Atlanta some time next week.

Dr. Broughton is at present in New York city, and will pass through Atlanta on his way to Macon, where he will conduct a series of revivals under the auspices of the Baptist ministers of that city.

MRS. H. BROWNE WINS FINE RING OFFERED BY HAYNES COMPANY

Mrs. H. Browne, of No. 133 Spring street, won the diamond ring offered by the Eugene V. Haynes company. The award was made yesterday afternoon at the close of the sale, and Mrs. Browne was immediately notified of her good fortune.

The ring was set in diamonds clustered about a large emerald.

PANTHERSVILLE LODGE HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The Panthersville Masonic lodge, DeKalb county, held their annual all-day convention and barbecue on Wednesday. Prominent Masons from Atlanta and the state took part in the proceedings. Speeches were made by George M. Napier, past grand master, Thomas Jeffries, past grand master, and Dr. Horace Grant, past master of E. A. Minor lodge.

Worship Master Warren acted as chairman and master of ceremonies, Rev. C. V. Withers, chaplain. The Hon. Hooper Alexander spoke of the church and its affinity with fraternal orders.

Executive Secretary Hardy Ulm is looking for Governor Slaton to return to Atlanta from his attendance on the governors' conference at Colorado Springs next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Ulm was in receipt yesterday of a telegram from Colonel Fred J. Paxton, the governor's chief of staff, who is with him, to the effect that the governor would leave Colorado Springs for Denver Saturday and would start for home from Denver Saturday night. That would put him in Atlanta late Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

EXPECT GOVERNOR'S RETURN NEXT TUESDAY

There is much speculation as to who will be the successor of Jesse E. Mercer, game commissioner. Mr. Mercer's term expires next month, but, under the law, he will remain in office until his successor is appointed and qualified.

There are a large number of applicants for the position and no one seems to have any idea whom the governor will select. He may take up the matter soon after his return from Colorado, when several other important appointments will be awaiting him.

ROAD TO EXTEND TRACKS ON AMERICUS STREETS

Americus, Ga., August 23.—(Special.) The Americus city council today extended the Central Railway the right and privilege of extending its tracks along Hampton street by which means the railway lines will reach the business district, thus greatly advancing property values. This concession, it is generally believed, will result in the building eventually of a union passenger station by the Central and Seaboard railroads located at some point uptown. Both roads need enlarged passenger stations and the union depot will undoubtedly result.

"The Speed Mania,"

BY NED M'INTOSH.

Mr. McIntosh, in his own inimitable style, will give a new phase of the "speed mania," which is daily resulting in deaths in every nook and corner of the world. According to Mr. McIntosh, it is not those who risk their life and limb who are the sufferers from this modern madness, but the thousands who watch the feats of daring and urge the racers to even more desperate efforts. Mr. McIntosh's feature is gripping in its appeal to the every-day sort of a person, and will make intensely interesting reading.

"The Dream of the Man in the Tower,"

BY BRITT CRAIG.

Is a story that peers into the inner workings of the switch tower, that intensely interesting institution that guards the lives of the hordes of travelers that ride daily into Atlanta over the railroads. It reveals the intricate systems that operate the multitude of switches and the fearsome responsibility that rests upon the tower man in guiding the swift and roaring trains over their various paths.

Herald of Autumn Is Here In a Black Taffeta Gown

NO "SLIT" SKIRT—WHAT A PITY!

By Isma Dooly

She made her first appearance yesterday in her fall costume. It was too early, yet—but she had not asked anybody whether they liked it or not. It is her fall costume, and nobody need have anything like it if they don't care to. She wore a black taffeta gown. "Nothing new about the material," you say. That is true. But the fashion of that frock was something new. It had no suggestion of the "slit" skirt, the "bloomer" skirt, nor was there a suggestion of anything "enfantin" about it.

It was the most feminine, frivolous looking skirt I have seen for many days out of a picture. It is hard to describe. The bottom of the skirt was narrow, but it was narrowly full; that is there was drapery about it, adding grace where scantiness formerly had been. There were two or three overskirts or tunics if you prefer, of the same taffeta. It was scalloped—this tunic—and reached about the knee, and it was slightly draped, too, and stood out from the figure, accentuating the graceful narrowness of the lower skirt.

A MARVEL OF FEMINE EFFECT.

But the corsage—that was a marvel of feminine effect. There was a chemise of white shadow lace, the lace crossing surplice fashion over the bust, and the black taffeta waist opened back from this. There was a high Elizabethan collar of the white fabric which arose from the back, and there was a fall of sheers black lace which softened the taffeta folds of the corsage in front. The silk sleeve reached to the elbow. Here it was gathered in light and caught with a bow of black net, and from the elbow down was transparent sleeve of the net caught at the wrist with another bow of tulle.

And the hat—it was in shape very much like the hat of a woman of the crown of an of black velvet and the narrow brim which framed the face was lined with lace. The only trimming was a band of peacock blue ribbon drawn around the crown, and caught with a stringy little knot of flowers in soft colors.

THE BOUFFANTE DRESSERY.

She heard the comments made about her—that the underskirt was too narrow and that the tunic "trop bouffante," that her hat was "too close fitting;" and it was "too early" for her to appear in the "costume," but she cared not, and she answered not, for she was in a glass case, and protected from all the unkind things the world may have to say about the pretty, well dressed woman who knew she had been born and reared—yes, actually created—for the one office of heralding the "premiere crie" of fall fashion. She knew that when she left the creature had that made her in Paris that her message would be heard, acted upon, and that whatever people felt about her they had to take her. She represents the first law made and to be entered by this year's general assembly which meets each year in say Paris, and sends forth the laws which American women above all others so readily obey.

Black taffeta will hold its own, for the first smart costumes for early fall, with their soft textured cousins, the charming gowns, were given more than a welcome. The skirts will still present a narrowness around the bottom; there will be a bouffante drapery above. There will be the soft lace folds to accentuate the shape of the throat and neck, there will be lace softening everything, and there will be the hat—close fitting, first and foremost.

AND SHE HAS NOT COME TOO SOON.

This lady bringing the first message of fall fashions has not come too soon, especially in the first of the autumn leaf, that the world of women will gladly discard the pinks and blues of the summer flower, and reach out for the more somber hues.

The tulle and taffeta silk will be heard again, and the tendency will be to wrap it around the "feminine form divine."

The coats are longer than last year, but still cutaway in front, and the real autumn color will be seen in the shawls and finishing touches.

No, she is not in any of the windows. She is too precious and exclusive for that—this "first lady" of the fall season. You will have to look for her to find her, but don't worry, you will have plenty of time to see her for she has come to stay.

Why Don't You Have Home-Baked Crackers?

❑ No, you need not bake YOURSELF in the process.

❑ But you can have home-baked crackers and biscuits just the same, without the toil of mixing and stirring and watching and baking them. No loss of time, either.

❑ You can buy BLOCK'S.

Never better crackers and biscuits came out of the oven than those baked by BLOCK—here in Atlanta.

They're the best that money and science and skill can get together.

They get to you fresh. They are crispily, delicately, nuttily good and flavorsome. They have that snappy crunch that makes you want more.

Why buy crackers baked a thousand miles from where you live? Why let your biscuits journey over seas before they join the soup or the salad or the sweets upon your table?

Buy BLOCK'S—the kind that are baked every day just a few minutes from your home—the kind that have no superior.

BLOCK your grocer if he offers you the other kind.
