RICH AND POOR FORGET SORROWS WHEN CHRISTMAS COMES KNOCKING

No Real "Sob Story" Can Be Written on the Birthday of Christianity, Says Ned McIntosh, Who Says He Has Tried It for Five Years.

IF THERE'S AN EMPTY STOCKING IN ATLANTA, THERE'S A HOLE IN IT

Charity Workers Report That Not a Single Family Is Left Uncared For—Even the Idle Rich Are Made Happy on This Day, Too.

By Ned McIntosh

I WANT you to write a general Christmas story, with plenty of sobbs in it. The empty stocking and all that stuff, you know.

Yes, I know. For five years regularly on Christmas eve, I have received those same instructions from my city editor.

For the two weeks preceding Christmas any year you will not be able to pick up a newspaper in which you can not find somewhere in it something about the tragedy of the poor little child that hangs up its stocking on Christmas eve believing implicitly that some time during the night Santa Claus will come down the chimney and fill it to the brim.

But I put myself on record as saying that I have never seen nor heard of a concrete example of an empty stocking on Christmas morning, and I challenge anybody to say that he ever heard of one.

It simply doesn't happen. Every man has in him too much of the milk of human kindness to permit such a thing.

The father or mother who would not go out and steal to fill a little chap's stocking never lived.

Christmas Story Minus Tears. And should some one come along who says, "Once I saw an empty stocking, and he finished the question he will tell you that he filled it."

That's the stuff that you and I are made of. Wherefore it behooves me to write a Christmas story without the trace of a tear in it.

"Merry Christmas" is the greeting that you will hear on all sides today—and merry Christmas it is.

This Christmas will find no empty stockings in Atlanta. Lovers too who lay awake all the night long last night because he could not wait for the morn when he might creep from his little white bed in his nightgown to find what old Santa had brought him.

Do you remember the keen excitement of the anticipation of Christmas morn? The times when you lay awake the long night through and were afraid to open your eyes lest old Santa should come down the chimney and give you anything?

Nobody Knew it But Col. and Mrs. Perry Arrived Last Night

They Were Married in Lavinia and Slipped Quietly Into Atlanta to Avoid the Rice.

Colonel and Mrs. Jesse G. Perry bride and groom of a few hours only arrived unexpectedly in the city last night on Southern train No. 11.

Colonel Perry, who, as everyone knows is private secretary to Governor Slaton had arranged matters very effectively in order to avoid all undue demonstrations. The wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride in Lavinia, Ga.

He knew that if his friends were informed as to the date on which he and Mrs. Perry were to arrive in Atlanta that there would certainly be somewhat of a demonstration. So he decided to steal a march on the enemy.

Young Boy Saves Train From Burning Bridge And Then Disappears

Athens, Ga., December 24.—(Special)—People here and along the line of the Seaboard Air Line are searching for an unknown little boy who saw a bridge on the railroad burning yesterday afternoon and ran for half a mile to flag down the approaching train from Atlanta before it rounded the curve and would be on the burned trestle and wrecked.

Pupil of Great Master Penniless in Atlanta

Have you heard him—the blind fiddler of Peachtree street? Not unless you have heard him in the last ten days for Piet van de Meer has been in town only that long.

Since books have been printed to read and since there have been stages for the presentation of plays the genius in rags the beggar on the streets whose voice was so divinely beautiful of the strains of whose violin were so enchanting, has ever been surrounded with a halo of glory peculiar to the type.

Piet van de Meer has studied under the greatest masters the world has ever produced and is himself a master. A master on the streets? you query with a condescending smile.

But why on the streets? At the most prosperous man in Atlanta if he remembers the time when he had but 30 cents between him and bankruptcy, and see whether he can say "No."

One of these men is Ysaye, perhaps the greatest master of the violin who ever lived. The other is his pupil, Piet van de Meer, who is now penniless and playing upon the streets of Atlanta.

POLICE HEARTS MELT AT TRAMP'S PLIGHT; RAISE $25 FOR HIM

He was ragged unshaven unkempt and his shoes were tattered. He told his name however Jimmie Shannon with a great show of pride and said that there weren't any three men in Atlanta who could handle a team of horses any more effectively than he.

Folks I'm hungry and sleepy and I'd like to get a scrap to eat and a place to sleep tonight.

The policeman pressed him for further information and so he said "I'm from Copperhill Tenn and I've been trying to hold a job there for the last three weeks. I'd have held it too if they had let me expect too much of a fellow. I started out last Monday to walk to Atlanta cause I'd heard so much of it. I hit town about 4 o'clock and I'm sore and all out of whack."

Others followed suit. Soon there were 25 in the palm of James Shannon and he was on his way to a barber shop up the street.

CIGARETTE STUMP TOSSED INTO XMAS TREE STARTS FIRE

Things were gloriously merry in the Manhattan Cafe last night about 10 o'clock when the Christmas eve celebration was at its zenith until some diner wondered whether or not a lighted cigarette would lodge in the befotching Christmas tree that adorned the cashier's desk.

He pitched the cigarette into the tree. The tree flared up into a blaze that extended all the way from the Christmas tree to the rear of the cafe.

Before the arrival of the department the guests of the Manhattan were able to escape. Decorations of the cafe were burned. No one, however was hurt. The damage is estimated at $300 or more.

Murderous Panic Seizes Little Ones and Parents While at Christmas Tree

Seven Hundred Souls, Striking Miners and Children, Were Crowded in a Hall at Calumet, Mich., When a False Cry of "Fire" Was Shouted and Death Began to Reap a Harvest.

CHILDREN WERE JAMMED IN HALLWAY AND THE LIFE TRAMPLED OUT OF THEM

When Panic Was Over the Corpses of the Little Ones Were Piled in Heaps—There Was a Fire Escape, but in the Mad Rush to Escape Few Thought of It—And Calumet Cries for Her Children on "Merry" Christmas Day.

Never morning wore to evening But some heart did break.—Tennyson

Calumet, Mich., December 24.—Four score persons, mostly children, were killed tonight at a Christmas celebration by copper mine strikers in an Italian hall because of a needless panic caused by a false alarm of fire.

There was a Christmas tree in the hall loaded with presents for the children of the strikers.

While several hundred miners and their wives looked on the children pressed eagerly toward the stage to receive Christmas presents. At this point a man put his head in at the door of the hall and yelled "Fire!"

The cry was taken up by those in the hall. Everyone started for the doors. The weaker were thrown to the floor, and those behind tried to climb over those ahead of them.

The stairway and other avenues of egress were blocked so effectually that those inside could not get out and those without could not get in to aid the panic-stricken crowd in the hall. It was some time before the panic subsided.

The alarm was spread outside the hall by a few persons who had been near the door and escaped unhurt.

CORPSES PILED IN NARROW STAIRWAY

A crowd soon assembled and the work of clearing the hall was begun. The principal exit was a narrow stairway at the back of the hall.

When this had been cleared of the bodies that filled it to the top and a quick accounting had been made, it was found that seventy-four corpses had been piled up besides the hall building. It is thought that a dozen others were carried away by friends.

ALL WERE KILLED; ONLY THREE HURT.

There was not much work for the many doctors who hurried to the scene as soon as the alarm was spread, for those who were not killed in the first rush were held upright and safe by the very force of the onrush toward the exit. Only three injured persons were taken to hospitals, and a few went home assisted by friends.

For many days the children of the copper mine strikers had waited expectantly for the Christmas tree exercises that had been arranged by the women's auxiliary of the Western Federation of Miners.

The entertainment was set for the early evening, and the hall, which is

ATLANTA SPIRIT MADE OGLETHORPE REALITY

All Classes and Races Together Insured Campaign's Success. Honor Roll of Workers.

No better illustration of the Atlanta Spirit has been witnessed in recent years than was displayed in the zeal with which the citizens of Atlanta of all classes, denominations and color responded to the call for Oglethorpe University and made the location of a great Presbyterian institution of learning in this city a success.

Interests demanding their attention, to give up for the time their private affairs and devote almost all of their spare time to the work of putting Oglethorpe over. This they did. With General Chairman Ivan P. Allan at their head and with the executive committee of which Captain James W. English is chairman at their backs they worked nobly and they succeeded. Only $25,000 Remains. There only remains $25,000 of the $250,000 pledged to be raised to make the university a certainty and, of course that will be forthcoming. Atlanta would not be Atlanta nor Atlanta her children say the leaders if they should allow a great project to fall through because of such a small sum as that.

Engineer Hansell was induced to make the above statement because of reports to the effect that one fourth of the sewage sent to the plant is being diverted into the creek untreated on account of alleged smallness and inadequacy of the filter beds.

ECZEMA ITCHED AND BURNED

On Face and Head. Was Very Disfigured. Hair Fell Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Falmouth Ky.—Two years ago I was troubled with skin and scalp troubles. I would have pimples that would break out and form sores on my face and head with terrible itching. The eczema on my face and head itched and burned and when I scratched it it made sores and I was very disfigured for the time being.

After trying several remedies without much benefit a friend that had been cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment told me and I decided to try them. I was afflicted about a year before I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using them three weeks I was getting better and in less than three months after using eight boxes of Cuticura Soap and five boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely cured of eczema. From the

Mitchell Sixes

Products of Long Experience

This company has been building popular priced sixes longer than any other concern in this country. Hence the Sixes we offer are the product of many years of experience and in no sense experiment.

The MITCHELL LITTLE SIX which was known as the Baby Six in 1912 is in our opinion the profoundly logical investment in the automobile market. It is not only the sensible compromise between big and little power and passenger capacity but it has everything that any high priced car can offer you.

The MITCHELL BIG SIX is the biggest and best car at the price that has ever been produced. It is built along the same lines as the Little Six save that it has 144 inch wheel base somewhat larger tires greater passenger capacity. Yet the quality of the two are identical. The equipment is precisely the same—the outward beauty similar. For a big family car the Big Six has no equal in America and there is nothing as good for less than $3,500 or $4,000. The price of the Mitchell Big Six is only $2,350.

The MITCHELL FOUR is intended for those who feel that they cannot afford either of the Sixes. It is the only four cylinder car we make. We build it to meet the demand of those persons who still like a four cylinder car of class at a popular price. It has the same equipment as the other two cars and sells for $1,595. We want you to look this car over minutely and then ask yourself if there is a four cylinder car it anywhere near the price that can compare with this one in my class.
