Rogers on the Stand. Other witnesses who testified for the state Wednesday were W. W. (Boots) Rogers, Grace Hicks, a sister-in-law of Rogers, who worked at the pencil factory and who first identified the body of Mary Phagan; Mrs. J. W. Coleman, mother of the dead girl, who was questioned for a short time, and J. M. Gantt, the discharged shipping clerk, who, for a time, was held in jail on suspicion.

Mr. Rogers made a good witness. He was accurate as to time, and the cross-questioning of Luther Rosser failed to confuse him. Rogers testified that to his best knowledge and belief Frank never saw the face of the dead girl in the undertaking establishment and that he could not have known who she was.

Grace Hicks told of identifying Mary Phagan by her hair and she did not know whether Frank was personally acquainted with the dead girl or not.

at the pencil factory for five years and that during that time she had spoken to Leo Frank just three times. Grace Hicks is a decidedly pretty girl of 17, and she told her story in a perfectly frank and straightforward manner.

J. M. Gantt testified that he had been discharged from the National Pencil factory for alleged shortage in the pay roll. He explained that one of the pay envelopes was short and that when he declined to make it good Frank discharged him.

The first witness put on the stand when court convened Wednesday was "Boots" Rogers, in whose machine police officers responded to Newt Lee's call to the factory where Mary Phagan's body was found.

Rogers took Detective John R. Black in his auto and went to Frank's house. At the door he said the ring was answered by Mrs. Frank, who was dressed in a heavy bath robe, and while they were talking to her Frank himself appeared from behind a portiere curtain in the hall and began to ask them what was the matter at the factory.

RESINOL SOAP IMPROVES YOUR SKIN AND HAIR

There are few so fortunate as to possess skin and hair health that is beyond improvement and to that great majority who do not, Resinol Soap has an especial mission. Ordinarily soaps can do little or nothing to overcome these defective conditions.

Detective Black Muddled By Keen Cross-Examination Of Attorneys for Defense

Detective John R. Black, the officer who went in Rogers' machine from the factory to Frank's residence on the Sunday morning that Mary Phagan's body was discovered, was next put up by the state. He took the stand at 11:45 o'clock, and was still there when court adjourned for lunch.

In answers to Solicitor Dorsey's questions he said he had been on the police force for six years and previous to that had worked as a cooper for the Atlanta Brewing and Ice company.

He had seen Frank before, he had seen Frank twice before and had talked to him once. He said that he saw him about two years ago when he and another officer went to the factory to get a negro, and that he had talked to him about eighteen months ago when he went on a similar visit.

Frank said Newt stuck to his story. He said he told the negro that it looked like he knew something, as no one was in the factory but him that day. He said he could get nothing out of him.

Frank said he did not know the name but would look on the pay roll at the factory and see if it was listed there. He then suggested going by the undertaker's to see if Frank could identify the dead girl.

Mrs. Coleman Is Recalled To Identify Mary's Handbag

Mrs. I. W. Coleman was recalled to the stand for only a moment's inter-rogation regarding the mesh handbag which she carried with her upon leaving home on the day of the tragedy.

Attorney Rosser asked: "What kind of bag did Mary carry with her that day?"

"A mesh bag."

The solicitor asked that she describe its size and shape. Her description was that of an ordinary mesh bag unadorned and manufactured of silver.

She also identified the handkerchief and parasol as having belonged to the slain child.

Judge Ross interrupting said: "I understand what you mean."

"Mr. Black, would Lee have had time to get to his home that night and day?"

"I don't know."

Did Frank ever tell you that Lee could have found time to get home, in view of the inaccuracy of his punches?"

Frank said he could.

What day did he say this?"

"I don't remember."

What did you do after Frank said the time slip showed that the watchman had time enough to get home during the night?"

"I don't remember."

How did you happen to go to Newt's home?"

"After Frank had told me about the time Newt would have had during the night."

Before or after you made the search of Lee's house were you told by Frank?"

"I don't remember."

Before or after Frank told you about the inaccurate slip?"

"Afterward."

Shirt Found Under Barrel.

The shirt was given to the witness for examination.

Where did you find this shirt, he was asked.

"Under an old clothes barrel at Newt Lee's home."

How did you get in the house?"

"A negro woman was there—we entered by a skeleton key."

Here Attorney Rosser took up the examination.

"Didn't you say you had had no conversation about the time slip on Monday?"

"No."

"When did you have these conversations—what time, I mean?"

"A long pause resulted on part of the witness. Judge Ross attempted to speak. Mr. Rosser interrupted and asked him time to answer, your honor."

"Alright," replied the judge. "I can't remember," was the detective's reply.

Admits Being Confused.

During a rigorous examination that shortly followed, the detective said to Attorney Rosser:

"I don't like to admit that I'm crossed up. Colonel Rosser, but you have got me in that kind of fix, and I don't know where I'm at."

The solicitor then took the question-

"What day did Frank tell you the Newt Lee slip was correct?"

"To the best of my knowledge it was Monday."

He was then called from the stand

Idle and Curious Throng Court Despite Big Force of Deputies

In spite of the largest force of deputies that has ever been brought together in Fulton county for a similar purpose, the greatest difficulty is being experienced in keeping out the idle and morbidly curious at the Leo M. Frank trial.

A glance around the room is sufficient to show that the deputies have been imposed on. Scores of professional looters—men who have had no visible means of support for years, and who could have no possible interest in the trial—through the room. Many women, who are in no way connected with the case either through friendship for Frank or the dead girl, arrive early in the morning and remain during the entire day. They display the keenest interest in every turn of the trial.

Wednesday when the bloody shirt which was found at Newt Lee's house was placed in evidence there was a craning of necks on the part of those women as if they could not bear to lose sight of one thread of the gruesome spectacle.

Deputies and county police on guard at the door have used little discretion in keeping out pretenders. In more than one instance reporters have had difficulty in getting in the room. Because one reporter who has been working on the trial since the first day insisted on his right to enter the room in order to do his work, a county policeman drew a "billy" and attempted to strike him.

Immediately on the heels of this incident a number of curiosity-seekers were allowed to enter the room

Daintily Dressed Girl Tells Of Daily Routine of Factory

Grace Hicks a sister-in-law of "Boots" Rogers, whom he carried to the factory the morning of April 27 to tell if the dead girl was an employee of the factory was put upon the witness stand by the state after Rogers had been excused.

She was a daintily dressed slender girl of 17, and declared that she has worked there for the past five years.

To the solicitor's questions she answered that she had known Mary Phagan for about a year at the pencil factory and that the dead girl had worked on the second floor.

"Did you see her on April 27?" Mr. Dorsey asked.

"Yes."

"Where?"

"At the undertaker's."

"Was she dead or alive?"

"Dead."

"How did you identify her, if you did?"

"I identified her by looking at her."

Miss Hicks was then made to describe in detail the undertaking establishment at the Mary Phagan and she declared that the girl was good looking, with brown hair and blue eyes, and that she knew her at once by her hair.

She also stated that Mary Phagan was well built, and then she was asked to tell of the routine of the factory.

Describe Office Plan.

"What did you do every day when you went to the factory?"

"I punched the clock and then went to the dressing room."

"How far was the clock from Frank's office?"

"About 18 feet," said the girl.

"How much of the twelve months had Mary Phagan worked?"

"Most of the time."

"Where was Mary's work place?"

"Next to the dressing room."

"Were you present and saw the place where the blood was dug up?"

"That was about two weeks afterward."

"How far was Mary's machine from the dressing room?"

"About ten feet."

"In going from the office to the clock, could a person pass Mary's machine?"

"Yes."

"How far was this?"

"About ten feet."

"Did you ever see Frank in the metal department?"

"I have seen him pass through."

"About how often during the day would Frank come back to the metal department?"

"About two or three times a day he would come back to see if the work was being done properly."

"When did Mary work last?"

"Monday, the metal had given out."

"Had the metal come Saturday?"

"No."

"Did Frank know when the metal was there?"

"I don't know."

"When was the regular pay day?"

"On Saturday, they paid off Friday of that week, though, I got a telephone message to come for my pay on Friday."

Shown Building Plans.

The cross-section of the building was then shown the witness and she was asked to point out where the metal was kept. She also pointed out Lemmie Quinn's dressing room, the register clock and Mary Phagan's machine.

Mr. Rosser then took up the cross-examination of the witness on behalf of the defense.

"Standing at the time clock you could not see into Frank's office, could you?" he asked.

"No, sir."

"Did you work there a year?"

"Five years."

"Who was your foreman?"

"Mr. Quinn."

In those five years how many times did you speak to Mr. Frank?"

"Three times."

"Did you ever see him speak to Mary Phagan?"

"No, sir."

"The floor back there is very dirty, isn't it?"

"Very dirty."

"Lot of white stuff around there?" queried Mr. Rosser, referring to the white substance which it was said had been found partially covering the alleged blood spots on the floor.

"Yes, sir."

"Was there any other girl in the factory who had hair like Mary Phagan?"

"Yes, Magnolia Kennedy's hair was almost like it."

"What was Mary's hair like, was it like these locks?" asked Mr. Rosser, poking one finger at the blond head of Attorney Reuben Arnold.

"Yes sir, very similar to that," replied the witness, and Mr. Arnold did his best not to appear to notice that his colleagues and opponents were smiling at him.

Fun at Attorneys' Expense.

Mr. Rosser amused everyone by pointing out the various lawyers on either side of the case and asking the girl witness if any of them had hair exactly the color of Magnolia Kennedy's tresses. She shook her head as he indicated each one.

"Did you ever see Frank have anything to do with the clock?" Mr. Rosser asked, returning to his usual serious way.

"No."

"Did you go on Friday to get your pay?"

"Yes."

"Did Frank pay you off?"

"No, sir."

"Did you see Magnolia Kennedy and Helen Ferguson while they were getting paid off?"

"Yes."

"Do you live on McDonough road?"

"Yes."

"Are the pencils in the factory ever colored?"

"Yes, sir."

"Ever red?"

"Yes, I think so."

TERRIBLE ITCHING WITH RINGWORM

On Children's Scalps. Hair Fell Out in Round Spots. Scratched Till Blood Came. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

1545 Atgouth St., Baltimore, Md.—

"My children were afflicted with what they called ringworm of the scalp contracted from a house-cat they were playing with. The ringworm formed on their scalps about the size of a silver dollar and their hair fell out, leaving a round scale or crust on their scalps. Their hair fell out in round spots. There was terrible itching and they scratched till the blood came. They were very fretful and could not sleep at night and they were very cross.

"They were treated for several months with no improvement whatsoever. Instead of improving they were getting worse and getting larger. I was told they would never have any hair and would always be bald. Then I began using Cuticura Soap in connection with Cuticura Ointment and the first week I could see the wonderful remedies were doing all they were claimed to do and in six weeks time they were entirely cured. They all have a beautiful growth of hair.

(Signed) Mrs. Sadie Pollock, Jan. 1, 1913

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough and oily skins, itching scaly scalps, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, that it is almost criminal not to use them. They do even more for skin-tormented infants and children. Although sold by dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each will be mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

IF TAX REFORM FAILS.

The duty of tax equalization is a duty of honor and it affects all Georgia. In the face of stern principle The Constitution is unwilling to admit that the general assembly may not prove equal to the situation.

The movement for a state board of tax equalization has received a check for the present in the house, though it seems that provision will be made for county boards of equalization. This will be good for as it goes, but it does not go far enough to meet conditions in Georgia.

If in any unhappy event, the proper sort of tax equalization should fall ultimately in the house, the senate will be justified in precipitating a crisis such as the unofficial settlement of that body seems to foreshadow.

By turning the appropriation bill back to the house for its revision to a basis of the state's income. The senate would be thoroughly justified in such a course. Under the constitution it cannot primarily handle legislation pertaining to expenditure or revenue.

The situation is not to be met, as The Constitution has many times emphasized, by further reductions in the appropriation bill. That would be like trying to cure a disease by chopping off what is left of the patient.

Such is the situation that confronts Georgia. Upon the patriotism of the general assembly depends whether it will be solved in an honorable and satisfactory way or develop into endless complications and embarrassment.

A GOOD PENAL REFORM.

Both senate and house penitentiary committees will report unanimously in favor of the introduction of the indeterminate sentence into the penal procedure of Georgia.

Chairman Davison, of the prison commission, who should be an authority on the subject, recently appeared before the senate committee and enthusiastically recommended the change. The bill, as amended, abolishes the rigid maximum sentences now imposed under the Georgia law.

Obviously the present system is too inflexible for either justice or efficiency. Each criminal case is a separate one and cannot be judged by rule of thumb. The indeterminate sentence allows each one to be handled on its particular merits.

Hillsborough county, Florida, of which Tampa is the county seat, has just voted $1,000,000 in bonds to build Hillsborough's quota of the brick highway which is to extend from Jacksonville to Tampa.

A HIGHWAY LESSON.

The highway between Macon, a city of approximately 60,000 population, and Atlanta, a city of approximately 200,000 population, is less than one hundred miles.

One would assume that, under these conditions, the counties intervening between these two places would be sufficiently awake to their interest to make this main-traveled boulevard as smooth as a floor.

Yet, what are the facts? These counties, with the command of free convict labor, an advantage denied to Florida, have, with the exception of Bibb and Fulton, spent practically nothing in bond issues on this highway.

The action of Hillsborough and the other Florida counties ought to act as an incentive to the counties lying between Bibb and Fulton in Georgia. For a total expenditure of much less than a million dollars they could provide a highway surpassed by none in the country.

Chicago has set an example which the large cities of the country will sooner or later follow in the adding of women to its police force. The council of that city has just authorized such a step and the chief is preparing to employ ten patrolwomen.

The World's Mysteries

FROM WHENCE CAME THE DEMOCRATIC ROOSTER? It is not many years ago that the rooster was used as the emblem of victory following a national or state campaign, and it was pretty generally adopted by the rural newspaper in a local campaign.

The rooster as a party emblem has been traced as far back as the "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too" campaign of 1840. In fact, that seems to have been the campaign for the origination of many political ideas in politics and for the boosting of a party.

There are probably very few democrats of national prominence today who have not seen the rooster as a party emblem.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS. By GEORGE FITCH. Author of "At Good Old Sticks."

Christopher Columbus was born somewhere between 1430 and 1450, near Genoa. Several towns claim the honor of being his birthplace and are a good deal more earnest about it than they were when Christopher was a barefoot boy, with a ragged jacket and a poor wool-comber for a father.

Columbus was given a careful education, mostly in mathematics and navigation, which, in the opinion of the neighbors, added his mind, for he soon conceived the idea that the world was round.

Columbus sailed from Palos, August 3, 1492, with 90 men, each of whom had carefully made his will, and after leaving the Canary Islands steered southwest into an unlimited supply of ocean which had never been navigated before.

One poor fellow, Tibbetts, a Maine boy, was captured and caught by the fish and carried out of sight toward the bottom. The water there is very clear and one can see down to a great depth, but not to the bottom.

Why He Had No Use for Law. Known everywhere as the canniest S. north of the Tweed, Sandy McCutte astonished a solicitor one day by walking in his office and squandering six-and-six-pence worth of money simply in order to make some trivial inquiry about the law of landlord and tenant.

Worth fighting, man? replied the solicitor. "Why, I'm almost prepared to guarantee a favorable verdict!"

"One of history's greatest men," said the man in the cartoon, "he went home in chains and died in poverty later on, without even a postmaster's comfort him."

Senate Committee Gives Governor Power to Treat With Copper Company

The resolution authorizing the governor to enter into agreement between the state and the Tennessee Copper company was reported yesterday afternoon by the general committee of the senate after a hearing of John D. Little and Howard McCormick representing the copper company and Thomas A. Brown, representing the citizens of Fannin county who have complained of the fumes coming from this concern's plants which it is claimed have been deleterious to the growth of crops in and around Ducktown.

A committee representing the citizens of Fannin county appeared before the committee to oppose the passage of any measure which tends to extend the time allowed the companies operating the plant by the supreme court of the United States to put an end to the cause of the farmers' complaint.

This committee from Fannin consists of R. W. Nichols, T. A. Brown, W. A. Daven and J. T. Medaris. The gentlemen presented to the senate committee a resolution adopted by the citizens of Fannin county last Monday.

The complaints of the citizens of Fannin and adjoining counties set forth in the resolution are that the Tennessee Copper and Iron company has for many years operated its plant and all its plants just across the state line in Tennessee from which fumes have been borne by air currents to the farms of these counties, killing the crops and trees and making the soil infertile. It is shown that the supreme court of the United States in May 1910 directed an injunction allowing the plant to continue its operation on the condition that it should erect structures to make further progress to the fumes. The companies were also placed under strict orders to limit the amount of fumes during the crop seasons.

The content of the resolution is that the companies have failed to comply with the injunction and have failed to comply with the terms of the contract with the state. The time limit after which the supreme court may grant a permanent injunction against these companies is the coming of October 1st. The resolution asks the state to allow an extension of this time limit but to not extend it for the farmers of that section.

The following bills were reported favorably by the general judiciary committee of the senate Wednesday afternoon.

Bill to put Jenkins county into the Augusta judicial circuit with referendum clause attached.

Authorizing governor to enter agreement with Tennessee Copper company.

Bill to provide for election by the people of U. S. senators.

$1,300 STILL DUE ON THE SILVER SERVICE FOR U. S. S. GEORGIA

A Georgia governor's word is good if it does take six years to make it so providing a resolution introduced in the house Wednesday morning in support of the legislature and further provided the state treasury department find itself able to cough up 1,300 iron men.

Representative John Y. Smith of Fulton county introduced a resolution asking the payment of $1,300 which has been due the Crankshaw Jewelry company of Atlanta, for a silver service presented by the state to the late U. S. S. Georgia.

The resolution states that the silver service was to have been paid for by the state according to that Governor Joseph M. Terrell gave the jewelry company his word that the bill would be paid.

William Gheesling the P. J. Bloom field undertaking attache who made the first examination and embalmed the body of Mary Phagan will probably be the first witness called to the stand in the Frank trial this morning.

He will be followed by Harry Scott, the Pinkerton detective who worked with Detective John Black in the murder investigation and who engineered the third degree which resulted in Jim Craven's confession.

Dr. Hurt county physician who made the medical examination upon the corpse and who it is rumored testified before the grand jury to the effect that no assault had been made upon the girl will likely be called this afternoon.

Recently a big fight will be waged upon Dr. Hurt's testimony as the defense in it stated has already made arrangements for an expert stenographer to take notes of his story.

Unless it is proven that the mother is an unfit person Judge J. T. Pendleton of the superior court believes that she should be given the custody of children. Judge Pendleton has presided over more divorce cases perhaps than any other magistrate in Fulton county in fact there are few in the entire state who have listened from the bench to more stories of matrimonial woes.

Judge Pendleton has decided views as to the proper custody of children in cases where couples become estranged. He emphatically declared recently that mothers should have first consideration provided however it is shown that they are capable of guardianship.

Judge Pendleton favors the principle of the bill introduced in the house by Representative J. Y. Smith of Fulton county and which was given a hearing before the general judiciary committee Wednesday afternoon.

CUSTIS NOTTINGHAM GIVEN MACON OFFICE

Senator Bacon's Choice Is Nominated to Succeed Harry Edwards

By John Corrigan, Jr. Washington, July 30.—(Special)—Custis Nottingham of Macon was today nominated by the president for postmaster at that city. He will succeed Harry Stillwell Edwards who has refused to resign despite demand of the postoffice department for his resignation.

There were several unusual factors in connection with this appointment contrary to the long established and invariable custom which permits a senator to name the postmaster in his home town. Representative Bartlett put forward William T. Morgan as a candidate against Mr. Nottingham.

Senator Smith declined to interfere in violation of senatorial custom and Representative Bartlett asserted that he did not seek to have him do so. Why he put up a friend merely to be slaughtered he did not explain.

Mr. Edwards in a public statement said that Senator Bacon had nominated Mr. Nottingham because the latter had charge of the senator's dairy interests and admitted that he was a good dairyman. Mr. Nottingham is a lawyer and has handled much legal business for Senator Bacon since the latter ceased to practice law which has brought them very close together.

No opposition to the confirmation of Mr. Nottingham is expected and Mr. Edwards' term will then automatically expire.

Another postmaster's nomination today was that of Gilbert B. Banks of Waynesboro.

Mothers Should Have Custody of Children, Says Judge Pendleton

Unless it is proven that the mother is an unfit person Judge J. T. Pendleton of the superior court believes that she should be given the custody of children. HABEAS CORPUS HALTS DEPUTY SHERIFF

A writ of habeas corpus was served yesterday on C. M. Mullis a Dodge county deputy sheriff, when he attempted to take into custody B. F. Mitchell, an Atlanta lumberman, on a misdemeanor charge. Mullis declared that he would take charge of Mitchell writ or no writ, but when he was confronted with the prospect of going to jail for contempt of court he promptly abandoned the idea and declared that he would be content to remain in the city until the writ is heard.

Attorney William M. Smith secured the writ in behalf of Mitchell who he claims is the victim of mistaken identity. Deputy Mullis declared that he was instructed to come to Atlanta and take charge of one B. F. Mitchell. He said that he did not know whether the Mitchell in whose behalf the writ was taken is the man wanted in Dodge county or not.

Rooms at University Club. On account of the large increase in the non-resident membership of the University club the transient facilities have been enlarged. Many of the out-of-town members put up at the club when in Atlanta rather than stay at the hotels. Rooms and bath can be had for $1.00 a day.

2,500 POSTAL VOTES FOR PUBLIC COMFORT. L. C. Green is conducting a Campaign to Secure Needed Improvement.

L. C. Green member of the park board is conducting a campaign in the interest of the establishment of a public comfort station. Commissioner Green has sent out 5,000 postal cards asking citizens for their opinions, and urges that if they favor the project to give it their support. He has received more than 2,500 favorable responses.

Councilman Sam Shepard of the third ward is making the fight for recognition of the project by council. He believes Atlanta should erect handsome buildings at some central point in the shopping district.

Dan Carey manager of the parks, has addressed letters to the mayors of twenty-two cities of over 100,000 population asking for information.

GLOVER TRANSFERRED TO RICHMOND OFFICE

H. W. B. Glover traffic manager of the Virginia Carolina Chemical company and the Southern Cotton Oil company will be transferred with his wife and child to the Richmond office of the former company at Richmond, Va. sometime after the middle of August.

Mr. Glover first located in Atlanta in 1892 as division freight and passenger agent for the Seaboard Air Line and was with other offices at Edgewood avenue adjoining the location where the Hurt building is now nearing completion. Mr. Glover remained in Atlanta until promotion called him to Norfolk, Va. where he was general freight agent and then traffic manager of the Seaboard Air Line until 1902. He was elected to his present position and returned to Atlanta in November 1902.

Although born in New York Mr. Glover has been identified with the shipping interests of the south all his business life first with the railroad and steamship and then with the industrial side of the proposition and has a great confidence that the wonderful development and growth he has witnessed there is but a beginning.

and ask for a certain kind of merchandise. This means hundreds of millions of single purchasing transactions yearly.

Of the thousands of products turned out by busy plants, a very small fraction of one per cent are known by name—and then only because of advertising.

Is your product among these, Mr. Manufacturer? While millions are spent every year in advertising the business of advertising is still in its infancy so far as most products and industries are concerned.

There are hundreds of manufacturers who do not know how to reach the public that will actually buy their products.

EUGENIC MARRIAGE MEASURE DEFEATED

Bill Providing for Application of Indeterminate Sentence Is Passed by Senate.

The marriage contract bill of Senator Hixon, written by Dr. E. L. Embury, of Villa Rica, was yesterday defeated in the senate by a vote of 19 to 18, when it was indefinitely postponed. This bill provides that parties contracting marriage shall have certificates from their family physicians showing that they are free from transmissible diseases of a serious nature. Considerable humor was instilled into the arguments of the senate.
Those senators speaking for the measure were Hixon, Richardson, Stark, McNeil and Converse. Against the bill were Senators Eikins, Harrell and Smith.
Senator Tarver's bill providing for the application of the indeterminate sentence in case of misdemeanors and the appointment of probation officers was passed unanimously.
The bill of Senator C. E. McGregor amending the constitution so as to allow counties seeking admission to the state to hold an election of all the qualified voters in the counties affected, and let the result of this vote determine the admission of the county, was defeated by a vote of 22 to 15. The vote was eight short of the requisite two-thirds constitutional majority, and Senator McGregor stated that he would move to reconsider the action of the senate today.

FINLEY WILL REMAIN WITH THE SOUTHERN

Rumor That He Would Resign to Go to Harriman Lines Unfounded.

By John Corliss, Jr.
Washington, July 30.—(Special).—The report that President W. W. Finley, of the Southern railroad, is to resign to accept the presidency of the Harriman lines is entirely unfounded. Mr. Finley sailed yesterday for Europe to be gone several weeks. He is going both for a rest and also for the purpose of looking into the matter of floating authorized securities of the Southern railroad with a view of making additional long contemplated improvements along the line—among which is the double tracking of the entire trunk line between Washington and Atlanta.
On account of the stress of the financial conditions the world over during the past few years most of the bond issue authorized by the Southern railroad have not as yet been sold, the management preferring not to put the sale on a bad market. With the apparent certainty of a peaceful settlement of the Balkan troubles, however, it is generally considered that brighter days are ahead and it is probable that while he is in Europe President Finley may open up negotiations for a sale of at least a part of the authorized bond issue in which event expensive improvements will be begun at an early date.
It is stated positively here by those who know and who are in close touch with President Finley that he has never for a moment considered resigning. Indeed, a very high official of the road had it from the mouth of President Finley himself before leaving that there was nothing in the rumor. He said that it is his ambition to serve as president of the railroad for at least a few years longer in order that important policies inaugurated by him may be carried to completion. This statement seems to be definite and authoritative.

A local bill providing for the removal of the county seat of Murray county from Spring Place to Chattahoochee was passed.
The following appointments of the governor were sent to the senate, and will doubtless be confirmed today:
E. P. DuPre, to be judge of the city court of Zebulon for a term of four years from August 12, 1913.
John F. Redding, to be solicitor of the city court of Zebulon for a term of four years from August 12, 1913.
A. M. Fouts, to be judge of the county court of Bartow for a term of four years from October 13, 1913.

JAMES ENGLAND DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

James Ross England, 62 years of age, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Morris Brien, Lansham and Gordon streets, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.
Mr. England for years was southern sales manager of the Cote Plano Manufacturing company, of Falls River, Mass., making his home at Dallas, Texas. He had been on the road for thirty years and was one of the most popular salesmen in the south. He had many friends in Atlanta. Besides Mrs. Brien he is survived by two sons.
The body is at Barclay & Brandon's funeral establishment, pending the announcement of funeral arrangements.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOW HAS A NEW HOME

The formal transfer of the Y. M. C. A. building, at Pryor street and Auburn avenue, to the Chamber of Commerce Realty company took place yesterday.
The deed conveying the property was signed by Captain J. W. English, chairman, and J. K. Ottley, secretary of the board of trustees of the Y. M. C. A.
At the same time was consummated a transaction by which a loan of $100,000 was placed upon the property by the New York Life Insurance company. This building was purchased from the Young Men's Christian association over a year ago by the Chamber of Commerce Realty company for the sum of $160,000.

MASONS PAY TRIBUTE TO ISAAC STEINHEIMER

Attended by an unusually large gathering of Atlanta's most prominent Masons since the funeral of Isaac Steinheimer, a resident of Atlanta since the sixties, was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, 779 West Peachtree, where he died unexpectedly last Monday night after an illness of less than a week.

Atlanta's prominent in every walk of life who had known Isaac Steinheimer since he came to Atlanta and with whom he had worked side by side in upbuilding the city of today from the ruins Sherman had left were present to show their respect and esteem for him.

ISAAC STEINHEIMER.

The funeral services were under direction of Atlanta lodge No. 59, F. & A. M., to which Mr. Steinheimer attached himself shortly after making Atlanta his home and of which he was one of its oldest members. Rabbi David Marx officiated. The interment in the family grounds at Wet View was largely attended.

COL. DIXON ELECTED CHATHAM'S SHERIFF BY 1,380 MAJORITY

Savannah, Ga., July 30.—(Special).—Colonel Merritt W. Dixon, administration candidate, defeated Robert Saussey by a majority of 1,380 votes in today's primary for sheriff of Chatham county. Colonel Dixon polled 2,500 votes and Mr. Saussey 924.
Colonel Dixon will be elected in the regular election Tuesday to succeed Pat Geason, who was temporarily named sheriff by the county commissioners when Captain Thomas F. Servey died. Geason was not a candidate today.

NO TIGHTS FOR GIRLS IN CHICAGO CABARETS

Chicago, July 30.—Cabaret performances here will be conducted under restrictions hereafter as the result of an ordinance passed by the city council tonight. The ordinance prohibits the wearing of lights by female entertainers, the mingling of performers with the diners and the dancing of patrons.

Mrs. Morris Mack and little daughters, Misses Agnes Rowley and Helen Louise, left July 29 for the seashore in Virginia.
Miss Louise Jones is in West Point.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 67

Our Wayward Girl

"The child is not dead, but sleepeth" ---Mark 5:39

A man came crying:
"My little daughter is at the point of death;
"I pray thee that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be made whole and live."
With him, went Jesus.
On the way, a woman touched Him.
She was healed.
But others came saying to Jairus:
"Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?"
Jesus said:
"Fear not, only believe."

And in the house He asked:
"Why make you a tumult and weep? The child is not dead, but sleepeth."
And they laughed Him to scorn.
But when He touched the girl and spoke, she rose and walked.
"She was twelve years old."
Worse than death may come to the daughters of men—even to yours and ours.
And some men and women would laugh in derision at the suggestion of their cure.
But not so with Christ, our Lord.
And, thank God, the centuries of His love have made the majority of mankind pitiful to the fallen: they no longer scorn and stone, if they only know.

Think of this!
Seventy-five girls—not hardened women of the street—but girls under sixteen, are in charge of one Georgia court. Many more—some even younger—are in the State.
"They are morally dead," say some.
Not so, we answer in Christ's name.
They only sleep.
You could wake the conscience of each one of them—
You could save them, and with them, many others, from worse than death, had Georgia a reformatory for girls, like other states.
They are being lost for the want of this.
Do not pass them by.

TO SAVE ONE MAN'S DAUGHTER FROM RUIN AND SHAME IS WORTH MORE THAN TO SAVE ALL OUR HOGS AND COWS FROM CHOLERA AND THE TICK.
And yet, Tuesday again the Appropriations Committee of the House recommended the appropriation of thousands of dollars for this and that.
WHILE CHAIRMAN CRAWFORD WHEATLEY, of Sumter, moved that the Jones and Mills bill establishing a reformatory for girls, be laid on the table until next year.

This would mean the destruction of many a girl—their loss for the want of a place in our state to handle delinquent girls; these cannot be put in the chaingang or with the women of the prison farm.
John Y. Smith, of Fulton, with C. F. Hollberg, of Coweta, saved the measure by suggesting that it lay over until this coming Thursday.
Chairman Wheatley agreed to this.
It was done.
The Penitentiary Committee has recommended that this bill do pass.
The Prison Commission has said that Georgia today cannot take care of her wayward and delinquent girls.

Confidently, we believe that the Committee on Appropriations will recommend the passage of the bill, carrying the appropriation of $30,000.00 ($45,000.00 less than was asked for) to build the reformatory for girls.
The need is urgent—far more so than the sickness of our hogs.
You can and will find a way to provide for these girls, even as you did for our beasts that are sick.
