

TARIFF REVISION THROUGH HOUSE; NOW UP TO SENATE

Underwood Measure, Redeeming Party's Platform Pledge, Receives Great Majority.

BATTLE IN THE SENATE PROMISES TO BE BITTER

Republicans Senators, However, Admit Measure Will Go Through Practically in the Same Form.

Washington, May 9.—The Underwood tariff bill, proclaimed by the democratic party as the answer to its platform pledge to revise the tariff downward was passed by the house late today. The vote was 281 to 139, five yeas voting against the bill and 144 Republicans voting for it. Four progressives supported the bill and fourteen opposed it, while one independent progressive joined with the majority.

When Speaker Clark announced the vote in loud tones that revealed his satisfaction in the arrival of the day he long had sought, exuberant demonstrators hoisted a stuffed democratic donkey over the heads of their colleagues in the rear of the chamber, a faint ripple of applause followed and the saved fell on the floor in the history of President Wilson's extra session of congress.

With the bill, after a month's consideration, on its way to the senate, there was such a rush of representatives for their homes tonight. In the house adjournment will be taken three days at a time beginning next week until June 1. In the meantime, the senate finance committee will study the bill while the house ways and means committee will organize committees preparatory to the transaction of business next month.

Republicans and progressives, led respectively by Henry C. Mann and Murdock, protested to the last against the measure, the lowest tariff bill ever written, and proclaiming as the democratic avalanche bowled them over the first chapter in the history of the tariff commission plan.

Five Democrats Opposed.

Republicans who voted for the bill were Cary and Stafford, of Wisconsin Democrats who opposed it were Broussard, Dupre, Leary and Morgan of Louisiana, on account of the schedule reducing sugar 25 per cent and sending it to the free list in three years, and C. B. Smith, of New York.

Progressives who voted for the bill were Kelley and Ripley, of Pennsylvania, Nolan, of California, and Bryan, of Washington. Kent, of California, formerly a republican, but now an independent progressive, also voted for the bill.

Progressive Leader Murdock and thirteen of his progressive followers voted with the minority. Representative Copley, a progressive did not vote answering present to his name. In the final consideration of the measure Minority Leader Mann made a lengthy speech on a point of order by Mr Underwood to rule out provision for a tariff board in the motion by Representative Payne of New York to commit the bill. Speaker Clark sustained the point of order. Mann appealed from the chair and a roll call was taken on Mr Underwood's motion to table the appeal, the democrats winning 143. Progressive Leader Murdock also moved to recommit with instructions to provide for a non-partisan tariff commission, but he failed to get a roll call and then the Payne motion to recommit.

SHRINERS LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

All of the Big Party Are Confident That Atlanta Will Be the Next Convention City.

Two hundred Atlanta Shriners leave tonight at 10 o'clock over the Southern railroad for Dallas, where they are going to capture the Shrine convention for the Gate City in 1914.

Nothing is lacking to get the big contract for the convention, which is at hand more than $75,000 raised in one day, is one of the big drawing cards. Never before in the history of "Shrines" has such a large amount been raised in such a short time.

Shriners all over the country have been made aware of the enormous bid which has been made for the next convention, and nearly half have promised their support for Atlanta.

Forrest Adair, potentate of Yaarab Temple in his racketeering contracts showing that 55 per cent of the rooms in Atlanta's twenty-four big hotels have been signed up for convention week and will assign thousands of men for the next year while in Dallas.

It is true that O. K. Houck is boasting Memphis—but Atlanta has already left Memphis in the background. Memphis raised $60,000 in about four weeks, Atlanta raised $75,000 in one day. And in addition to the enormous pull that Atlanta will have a number of other cities have signified their intention of pulling for Atlanta for 1914.

Special Train for Shriners.

When the Southern train pulls out tonight a special section, containing several Pullman sleepers, a Pullman dining car and a Pullman tourist car for the Shriner's crack drum corps, will be attached.

The latter, an independent organization formed by the temple for shrine conventions and ceremonials, will make great inroads in the ranks and white trousers are among the most expert in their line in the country, and will "blow Atlanta's horn" in more ways than one while away.

On the trip to Dallas short side trips will be made at Birmingham, Ala.; Meridian, Miss; and Shreveport, La. Yaarab Temple's four officials are Forrest Adair, John A. Hynds, W. A. Green, and L. C. H. Hutchison, the latter of Jonesboro.

The Arab patrol, forty strong, will carry their dress and fatigue suits. These are as follows:

- Captain J. O. Simmons, First Lieutenant H. C. Ashford, Second Lieutenant J. E. Van der Veer, First Sergeant C. W. Ferguson, Quartermaster H. H. Milner and Patrolmen Albert Akers, E. Barber, J. Barnes, J. P. W. Benson, F. M. Brotherton, M. E. Argard, R. A. Burnett, G. I. Butler, A. B. Chapman, R. E. Church, Frank Cundell, E. E. Cunningham, J. C. Deavours, George Freeman, L. H. Gelsker, H. H. Green, J. L. Grice, J. H. H. H. McGee, M. N. Milton, T. J. Milton, R. S. Osborn, Charles E. Quarles, A. R. Rogers, Louis Stahl, S. R. Sumner, J. G. Teasley, John Terrell, E. T. Timm, J. Tompkins, J. Uchurch, D. W. W. Woods, J. C. Wright and Cliff Lochridge.

Shriners who will go independently are Fred Houser, J. C. Greenfield, S. L. Dickey, W. R. Joyner, R. G. Martin, J. Jacobus, Fred Patterson, Graham Phelan, J. Lee Barnes, Ben Coley, J. F. Carson, Fred Van der Pool, J. F. Wall, George Beck, Jesse E. Couch and James Kempton.

On Thursday May 15, the majority of the shriners will leave for their homes, and make early preparation for the biggest convention yet which will be held in the Gate City in 1914.

ATLANTA LAW SCHOOL IN NATIONAL CONTEST

Students of the Atlanta Law school have accepted the invitation to compete in the national oratorical contest Leonard J. Grossman, of the senior class who won the interstate oratorical championship for Illinois last year, called upon to outline the details of the oratory contest and the first Georgia state championship which will be held next spring.

Following this report a local organization was effected. L. J. Grossman was chosen chairman of the contest, and permanent officers were elected to outline the details of the contest next year. The election of president resulted in a spirited contest between M. J. Woods, of Ellaville, Ga., and R. E. Lee, of Atlanta. The vote was in favor of Mr. Woods, who was declared president. Mr. Lee was then unanimously elected vice president, and J. R. McClelland secretary-treasurer.

Calls for the Whites.

Lawrenceville, Ga., May 8.—The board of county commissioners has awarded the contract for the erection of four new cells in the county jail, to be placed on top of those already in the prison, and to be used for white prisoners only. Heretofore, the blacks occupied the same cells. They will contain six bunks each, with a wide corridor and steel stairway, and equipped with standard toilet facilities.

200 LIVES ARE LOST WHEN THE REBELS DYNAMITE TRAIN

Soldiers of Huerta Traveling to Relief Are Besieged. Guaymas Are Blown Up. Only 50 Escape Death.

JAPANESE OFFER AID TO MEXICAN REBELS

Four Hundred Well Armed Subjects of Mikado Want to Fight Huerta—Offer of Japs Refused by Rebels.

WASHINGTON IS UNJUST, SAYS PRESIDENT HUERTA

Mexico City, May 8.—Claims against Mexico need expect no settlement so long as the American government withholds recognition of the republic. While practically all pending claims have been accepted in principle, they will remain in statu quo.

President Huerta called American Ambassador Wilson to the palace today and, after expressing personal and official resentment at the attitude of the administration at Washington, made this declaration:

He drew attention to the accomplished and prospective recognition by other nations, and said his attitude was the only one compatible with public opinion and national dignity.

President Huerta declared that a loan had been practically arranged, that the nation was solvent and that Washington was unjust.

Nogales, Ariz., May 8.—Two hundred lives are reported lost in the train disaster at Den, near the Sinaloa-Sonora border.

State troop leaders declare the train carrying 250 federal soldiers was not dynamited by stealth. It was the insurgents fired into the train, exploding a car of dynamite which the federals were conveying to Guaymas.

Only fifty of the passengers are reported to have escaped death and others were wounded. The troops were moving from San Blas, in northern Sinaloa to Alamos below Guaymas, from which point the insurgents feared they would proceed to reinforce the garrison defending the Gulf port.

Japs Offer Aid Rebels.

Douglas, Ariz., May 8.—Four hundred Japanese residents of Sonora state have offered their services in arms to L. I. Posqueira, the insurgent governor, according to a telegram received here today.

The offer was refused by the governor explaining that the struggle was one in which Mexicans only should participate.

Fifteen Japanese formed the committee which called on the governor yesterday at Hermosillo, the state capital. They said the four hundred Japanese were already armed. They composed, they asserted, all residents of the state, mostly farmers and mechanics. They offered to furnish their own ammunition for a time.

The governor thanked the committee for its interest in the welfare of Mexico, he said, but declined the offer on the grounds of alienage of the proffered troops.

Rebels Surround Parral.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—Americans arrived here today report that Parral foreign mining center of Southern Chihuahua state, is surrounded by nearly 4,000 constitutionalists and that skirmishes with the federal outposts occur daily.

Parral is defended by more than 1,600 soldiers and much artillery. The insurgents expect to force surrender within the thirty days food supply of the city has exhausted.

Another strong force of insurgents is reported moving from the southern part of the state against Chihuahua City. The state capital. The Mexican Central Railway has been destroyed far to the west.

The federal column, reported moving north from Torreon.

Wilson Watching Mexico Events.

Washington, May 8.—Intimations came from the White House today that President Wilson was carefully watching the course of events in Mexico and that the United States government at present was waiting to see if the announced program of the Huerta government to hold bond elections would materialize before determining the question of recognition.

Administration officials say the United States thus far has treated with the defacto government only on business of the fifth country and that the United States has had no dealings with the constitutionalists in the north.

MACON CLUBS INDICTED.

Charged With Running "Tippling Houses" on Sunday.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special)—Officers of the Elks lodge, Owls, Cherokees and Idlehour clubs were today indicted by the Fifth county grand jury in the charge of keeping tippling houses open on Sunday. All operate buffets in connection with the clubs. The offense is alleged to have been committed March 3.

The grand jury has no objection to the clubs kept open on Sunday, and the clubs are glad of an opportunity to test the law in that regard.

Against Change of Name.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., May 8.—The Episcopalian church today invited the delegates to the general convention in New York city to vote against any change in the name of the church organization. The clerical delegates elected to the general convention are Stewart McQueen, of Montgomery, E. Pennington, of Mobile, Selma, Matthew Brewster, of Mobile. The lay delegates are W. W. Screws, W. H. Taylor, Montgomery, Robert Jamison, D. M. Dronzan, Birmingham.

Ere Morgan Sailed to Death He Pledged Woodrow Wilson Money and Influence if Needed

New York, May 8.—"When you see Mr. Wilson tell him for me that if ever there should come a time when he thinks any influence or resources that I have can be used for the country, these are wholly at his disposal."

These are the last words of a Pierpont Morgan spoken to Colonel Harvey Harve, the day before Mr. Morgan sailed for Europe, never to return alive, were related tonight in an address by Col. Harve before a gathering of bankers and other representative men at a dinner of the trust companies of America.

Mr. Morgan was a republican and, in the words of Colonel Harve, not only regarded the political views advanced by Mr. Wilson, with honest apprehension, but never considered the democratic party fully capable of governing this nation.

In his message to the committee at Washington, Colonel Harve said, "I measured the depth of the man's patriotism."

Because of contrary proclivities of my own as to Mr. Wilson, I frankly did not seek opportunities to discuss public affairs with Mr. Morgan during the past few years," said Col. Harve. "As you all know when he thought he was right in his judgment he was unaccustomed to betray any lack of positiveness and there were times when his direct faculty, so closely approached the dynamic in operation that one of prudent disposition was inclined to be wary."

"But the election had taken place, the inevitable had happened, and Mr. Wilson had become his president as much as mine—perhaps, in fact, a little more. Anyhow there was no constraint upon our conversation when I saw him for the last time in his library on the day before he went away. He was optimistic as ever regarding the country and I naturally spoke hopefully of the prospects of the incoming administration."

Curious Episode.

"Then followed this curious episode. Suddenly turning those piercing eyes upon me Mr. Morgan said, 'Do you remember the American speech you made in London?' I remembered very well. It was not a speech—only a few succinct remarks at the close of a private dinner in reply to an unannounced avowant who had mistakenly thought to curry favor with Mr. Morgan by speaking contemptuously of Mr. Bryan, who, on the preceding day, as it happened, I had introduced to him at a reception."

"And do you recall," he asked, "those lines from Scott that you quoted when that man—I can hear now, the emphasis upon those two words—'when that man had left the room?'"

"I did, of course, and began to repeat, 'Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said—'"

"Who never to himself hath said—' I hesitated for an instant and the succeeding words came from the big arm chair with odd distinctness: 'This is my own, my native land.'"

"Then very quietly Mr. Morgan asked if I could recall the remaining lines and I quoted imperfectly: 'Whose heart hath never within him burn'd'."

As home his footsteps he hath turn'd From wandering on a foreign strand? If such there breathe, go, mark him well."

"Half a minute, gentlemen, is a long time, but for fully that period I should say, Mr. Morgan sat perfectly still. Then, unconsciously beating time upon the arm of his chair as he used to do in church, he repeated as if soliloquizing give: 'Who never to himself hath said, 'This is my own, my native land.'"

The Message to Wilson.

"And rising with difficulty from his chair, for he was then quite feeble, he said, with the emphasis that only quietude can give: 'When you see Mr. Wilson tell him for me that if ever there should come a time when he thinks any influence or resources that I have can be used for the country, they are wholly at his disposal.'"

"Barring the usual leave taking, those were the last words I heard from the lips of Mr. Morgan. They were the words of a true patriot, of a great, a very great American, spoken from the depths of a passionately loyal heart. Surely I can do no better than to leave them with you to remember, to cherish and to feel as long as you all shall live in this, our native land."

Referring to Mr. Morgan's testimony before the Duffo committee at Washington, Colonel Harve said: "Although mentally as strong as ever, physically he was sadly broken when summoned to Washington. At his age and in his condition, it was the greatest ordeal of his life, but it was for the best, as he himself came to realize."

"I hated to go he said to me, with characteristic simplicity the day before he sailed away. 'I hated to go, but I am glad I went. I think I did some good.'"

"It was a comprehensive utterance in his usual few words—a revelation, too, of his innermost thought and aspiration. I had spoken of the favorable impression that had been created by his testimony, he had evinced the keenest appreciation."

"Yes," he had said, 'I am convinced that what you say is true. I think they know me better now I hope so.'"

"No sensitive man, no human man—and Mr. Morgan was most sensitive and most human—could have failed to be touched by the multitude of friendly expressions which had come to him from all sections of the country."

FRANK AND LEE ORDERED HELD BY CORONER'S JURY FOR MARY PHAGAN MURDER

Sensational Statements Made at Inquest by Two Women, One of Whom Had Been an Employee, Who Declared That Frank Had Been Guilty of Improper Conduct Toward His Feminine Employees and Had Made Proposals to Them in the Factory.

EVIDENCE IN BAFFLING MYSTERY THUS FAR, IS CIRCUMSTANTIAL, IS ADMISSION MADE BY DETECTIVES

Frank and Lee Both Go on Stand Again and Are Closely Questioned in Regard to New Lines of Evidence and Forced to Reiterate Testimony Formerly Made to Coroner's Jury. They Will Remain in Jail Pending Action of the Grand Jury.

Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the National Pencil factory, and Newt Lee, the negro night watchman, suspects in the Mary Phagan murder, were ordered by the coroner's jury to be held under charges of murder for further investigation by the Fulton grand jury.

With this verdict the inquest closed at 6.28 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Frank and the negro will be held in the Tower until action is taken by the grand jury and solicitor general. The decision was reached within twenty minutes, after the jury had retired.

Although much important testimony was delivered at the inquest, probably the most significant was the admission made by Detective Harry Scott, of the Pinkertons, and Detective John Black, of headquarters, both of whom declared in answer to questions that they so far had obtained no conclusive evidence or clues in the baffling mystery, and that their only success had been attained in the forging of a chain of circumstantial evidence.

Testimony was drawn from a number of women and young girls who told of alleged undue familiarity of the suspected factory superintendent with them and other female employees of the plant. The boldest statement of this character was made by Nellie Pettis, a young sister-in-law of Mrs. Lillie Mae Pettis, an employee of the factory.

She declared that on one occasion, four weeks ago, when she had gone to Frank's office to obtain her sister's pay envelope, the superintendent had made an open proposal, and had even intimated the offer of money.

LAWLESS REPORTS DENIED BY MAYOR

Officials of Milltown Send Communications to Governor Brown and The Constitution.

A telegram to Governor Brown and a communication to The Constitution received yesterday morning, give another side to the (fish-pond) dispute at Milltown, in Berrien county.

The telegram is from J. J. Knight, and he states that the reports of lawlessness at Milltown are "absolutely untrue," and that affidavits can be furnished to substantiate the statement.

The letter to The Constitution is from William M. Pafford, the mayor of Milltown, who says that the statements made by Warden M. F. Boleclair are untrue. Mayor Pafford makes a full statement about the fishing rights in the Milltown pond.

Upon receipt of the telegram, Governor Brown took occasion to say that there has not been the least intimation to him about sending troops to Berrien county and that he has not remotely considered any such idea. He says that nobody has asked him for troops, and that if such a thing was done it would not be considered unless there was a demand from the officials, who would have to show him that they were unable to enforce the law and preserve the peace.

The telegram to Governor Brown was as follows:
"Milltown, Ga., May 8, 1913.—Via Valdosta, Ga.—Governor Joseph M. Brown, Atlanta, Ga.: Newspaper reports Milltown lawlessness absolutely untrue. Can furnish affidavits by as good men as Georgia has that Deputy Warden Boleclair stated privately and repeatedly that he was misled and would not have taken warrants had he known facts. Perfect order here; suggestion sending troops resented."
(Signed) J. J. KNIGHT.

The letter to The Constitution from Mayor Pafford, of Milltown, follows:
Mayor Pafford's Statement.
"Editor Constitution: In the article appearing in today's issue of The Constitution entitled, 'Deputy Warden Says Fishermen Threatened His Life,' many misrepresentations of facts concerning the prosecution of twenty citizens for fishing in Banks' pond appear, and in justice to the parties concerned, I would like to explain some of the circumstances and facts pertaining to the case that the public may arrive at the proper verdict."

"In the first place, the evidence furnished the same department (which inspired Mr. Mercer to proclaim that his wardens have been intimidated, their lives threatened and that the local authorities (referring, probably, to the sheriff of Berrien county and the collector of the city notes) are too much in sympathy with the lawless fishers to give any assistance," is absolutely untrue.

"The efficiency of these two officers and their prompt service in executing the business of their office has never been questioned or criticized to this extent before, even through their long continuance in office, and if they refuse to assist Mr. Mercer's wardens or anyone else to prosecute, persecute, humiliate and disgrace a people who are exercising their property rights and privileges under the law, they are to be commended.

Puts It Up to Legislature.
"The Georgia legislature will first have to enact a law authorizing Mr. Mercer and his wardens to stop the fishing on certain sections of Banks' pond, which he threatens to do, at the expense of every cent of his department," for section 7 of the same law privileges a person to fish, with permission from the owner of the land, which all those twenty citizens who were arrested on the 3d instant, claim to have had—not from the owners of Banks' estate, but from the real owners of the land, as the law prescribes.

"The Banks estate owns comparatively a very small part of the land which the water covers. They were privileged to back to water on a part of the remainder for the purpose of operating machinery, which they have ceased to do for about fifteen years.

"Now is it not absurd that Mr. Mercer should confer with the Governor in regard to the suspension of these officials who failed to help him intimidate the people to agree that they were their property rights or regard for legal privilege, there stood a good for money which must be appeased, and a spirit to predominate which must first be satisfied?"

"In regard to the warden sent about a month ago, a Mr. Fevy from Ben Hill county, drove through on a buggy and spent the night near the home of one of Berrien county's best citizens, and in conversation with folks there and with the people on our streets the next day he learned secretly that these officials who failed to help him intimidate were not the real violators of the law. Before our people knew his business he had apprehended the real violators (all of whom are connected with Mr. Boleclair in this prosecution) and proceeded to swear out warrants for netting and trapping illegally against the parties, yet Mr. Mercer says he was intimidated."

No Threat of Violence Made.
"In regard to the 200 or 300 whom Mr. Boleclair says threatened his life, even surrounded him and made all sorts of threats, I will say that there were no threats of violence by these people. They were about fifty who attended the trial to learn the law regulating the fishing privilege.

"Mr. Boleclair stated to several citizens here that he was misinformed as to the true condition of affairs; that the whole thing had been misrepresented to him, and that these people whom he had arrested had a legal right to fish, and that they were fishing with hook and line—and that was a mistake when he gets back to Atlanta he says the splendid chance of advertising his wardenship and proceeds to put the state game warden on duty to ascertain whether the command is strong enough to prohibit a few citizens at Milltown from fishing on their own land with hook and line.

"No, there was no reason for Mr. M. F. Boleclair becoming alarmed, unless it was that the people would know the real object of the prosecution. To him only a few appeared to be a host, and the cooling of a babe the curses of a mob bent on vengeance."
—W. M. PAFFORD.

SHRINERS CRUELLY EXTRACT L GOPHER GREGG'S GOAT

Last night at 11 o'clock the telephone bell in the local room broke sharply into the chorus of rattling typewriters. The night city grabbed the hand phone to his bosom. "Sounds like they've solved the Phagan mystery," he gloated. "Hello!" he bawled into the receiver.

A faint fluttering voice like the last notes in the ensemble of the "Misereere" said something inarticulate. "Speak up!" demanded the impatient night city. "Who's there?"

"Who? It's me, and you recognize me—Gregg—Looie Gregg," came the meek answer. "Well, what's it all about?"

"Gregg" snapped the man on the deck. Ordinarily a query so energetic would have drawn battle from Lewis Gregg, the gopher-art and good-fellow, quick with his tongue as with his pen. But evidently all the fight had been taken out of him.

"They're putting me through the Shrine as a member and I've wanted you to leave word for the boss not to expect me in the morning. I'd like to come and you know, old man, I've often been at my desk when I was threatened with the buck again and springing receiver and other deadly complaints, but now—"

The voice broke off abruptly. Then a wall of agony. Then a wail of agony as though of the impact of a barrel stave against a round, immovable body. A grunt. Get out of here and back to the room," bellowed suspiciously like Forcat Adair. Then a click! Then silence!

Dread Anticipation.
Even so, dear reader, last night the dread and the dread-loving returned and mild-mannered Lewis Gregg, premier cartoonist and originator of the gopher, into a full-fledged Shriner. They may still be transforming him, for all we can prove to the contrary.

Mr. Gregg approached the cannon's mouth with his eyes open. Several weeks ago he let out boastfully and with a confident demeanor that he'd be a Shriner and back to the gadsdod air until some Shrine trends took him to one side. "See here, bo," said they in substance, "you're going to have some young time initiation night. For a long time the boys have been laying for an specimen like you. They're tired of molyocodde initiations. They're going to return to the third degree kind tonight, and you're the goat because you're husky enough to stand it."

Gregg is husky. His altitude is in the neighborhood of 6 feet. Around the equator he is so sizable that he's put several tailor's tapes out of business. His shoulders are enormous and he's got a big ox and lusty as a Bulgarian brigadier, he offered just the sort of target for Shriner joviality.

Off to the Wars!
To the terror on terror it was added. He was to be initiated as a hoodliver would begin at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, whereas formerly 8 o'clock in the evening had been ample time. Of course he knew that there was an unusual large class of applicants for the Shrine and that a few hours he soothed himself with the theory that that fact accounted for the shift in hours. Suddenly he was called to the phone. "Say, Lewis," said a friend's voice, with the soliloquy accent on strong, "hope you're feeling good so they showed up initiation hour three hours tonight, so they'll have plenty of time to work on you. Ar—"

He got no farther. Gregg stumbled out of the booth and draped himself across his drawing board.

Why prolong the agony? He left the building at 4:33 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His knees were seen to knock together as he reached Broad street. He turned in all directions with a scarlet look as he rounded the corner. He was swallowed up by the big buildings. Then to the lodge room—and so far as we know he is still there.

They say today you can't buy either arnica or liniment in any of the uptown drug stores.

Fifty-four barefooted pilgrims crossed the burning sands last night, and were initiated into Yaarab temple, of the nobles of the Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine.

Forrest Adair, potentate of Yaarab temple, was in charge of the ordeal at the Auditorium-Armory, and until fast past the witching hour midnight the poor victims were passed through one test after another, to prove their worth and right to wear the red fez with the tantalizing tassel.

What really happened will never be told the barbarians of the outer world. The burning sands which were crossed, the red-hot plowshares trod, the tea-cold water baths and the methods thereof were veiled in mystery. But this morning there are fifty-four prominent business and professional men who swear by the red fez, all that it stands for. "Atlanta in 1914."

She Failed to Live on $5 a Week And Ended Struggle With Poison

South Farmington, Mass., May 8.—The story of a brave but unsuccessful struggle for existence on a weekly wage of $5, was told at the Union Avenue hospital today with the announcement that Helen M. Goodridge, 18 years old, died last night from poison, self-administered. She took poison yesterday and was removed to the hospital in a dying condition.

In an ante-mortem statement the girl said she had been obliged to support herself since she was 14 years old. Recently she came here from Upton, Mass., where she had worked in a hat factory. She obtained employment here in the paper box and crepe paper factory of the Dennison Manufacturing company.

Her earnings were insufficient, she said, for her support; she had "been half starved for weeks" and chose to end her life rather than to continue what seemed to her a hopeless struggle.

Miss Goodridge bore a perfect reputation, according to acquaintances. Among the effects found in her room at a lodging house was a letter addressed to her mother in Philadelphia, and a Bible which had been presented to her as a reward by the Sunday school which she attended.

The superintendent at the Dennison factory said the girl had been at work only a short time, and like all unskilled helpers, was started at $5 a week.

OLD GUARD PROMISED ROYAL ENTERTAINMENT

The Old Guard will be royally entertained on their coming trip through the east, and Colonel J. F. Burke of the Old Guard of the Gate City Guard, is daily receiving formal announcements of the ceremonies and receptions with which they will be welcomed.

President and Mrs. Wilson will greet the Old Guard in Washington, where a notable reception is being planned. In Baltimore the Fifth Maryland regiment will have charge of the entertainment. In Philadelphia the State Fencibles will meet the Atlantians.

The Seventh regiment will meet the Old Guard at the depot in New York, and will act as a guard of honor from the train to the hotel. On Sunday the whole battalion will attend religious services in a body, and receptions, sight-seeing tours and banquet will crowd every minute of the Atlantians in New York.

The Second Coast artillery will be on hand to welcome the Old Guard in Boston. Under escort of the Boston Light Infantry they will march to the soldiers' monument, which the Boston soldiers will decorate with flowers. The Georgians will place a floral wreath on the monument.

The ladies in the party will be entertained royally in Boston, and after a trip to Lexington and Concord, memorial exercises will be held in old Tremont Temple. Before they leave Boston the Old Guard will be the guests of honor at an elaborate banquet given by the G. A. R.

TWO EVENTS PLANNED AT ATLANTA THEATER

Atlanta's society set and all followers of theatricals are interested in two events planned at the Atlanta theater for tonight and tomorrow afternoon. Tonight is to be Society Night in honor of Miss Agnes Tinsley Harrison, the local beauty who made her debut with the Billy Long company this week in "The Girl from Out Yonder."

Many friends, former schoolmates and associates of Miss Harrison will attend the performance to pay their respects and good wishes to the bright young woman.

Tomorrow afternoon Miss Long and her associates of the stock company will hold a public reception on the stage after the matinee performance. Miss Long received on Wednesday of last week and met hundreds of Atlantians. Tomorrow she will meet other hundreds following the performance. She has won many friends by her unique idea of receiving those interested in theatricals and who she did not hold a reception early this week many wrote asking that she do so Saturday.

WOMAN'S HANDKERCHIEF BROUGHT TO OFFICERS

The detectives are investigating today a cleverly planned Phagan case brought to Atlanta Thursday by W. A. Smith, of Jonesboro, an employee of the Central of Georgia railroad, which was to the effect that he had just completed a thirty-hour chase, covering a trip of more than 100 miles, after two men who talked and acted suspiciously in his presence at the Jonesboro station Tuesday afternoon.

The men, he said, escaped and the only tangible evidence which Smith showed the detectives was a lady's blood-stained handkerchief with a hole—apparently chewed—in the middle of it. Mary Phagan's mother was unable to identify it as the property of her daughter.

Smith, who came to Atlanta with Constable J. M. Archer, of Jonesboro, stated that on last Tuesday night he was standing in the Jonesboro station and overheard a part of a conversation between two strange men about the Phagan case, and his suspicion was aroused. He looked for an officer, but he could not find one, and as the men were boarding a southbound Central train he made up his mind to shadow them.

When the rain pulled into Barnesville the men got off and Smith followed them. While in their wake here, Smith found the bloody handkerchief. The men hired a buggy to Barnesville and proceeded to Jonesboro, where he related his experience to Constable Archer.

JURY IS DEADLOCKED IN THE SHEDD CASE

Augusta, Ga., May 8.—The case of Marshall Shedd, being tried for the murder of Miles and Collins, which was submitted to the jury last night, is still undetermined. Today the jury announced that it appeared impossible to agree upon a verdict. They were admonished by the court that it was their business to find a verdict and send back for further deliberation.

Juror A. M. Clark was tonight taken from the jury room and removed to a hotel on account of illness.

That Touch of Pasteurine

The Best Part of the Shave

Welcome to this new comfort in the shave. It is the finishing touch that makes you forget the razor that pulled, the burning sting of a tender skin, the hide you lost, and those "bleeding blunders"—cuts. In fact your shave gets to be almost a necessary pleasure when you wind up with

Pasteurine
The Cleansing, Soothing, Healing Antiseptic

After the razor has done its work and you've washed and dried your face, apply PASTEURINE—pure or diluted with cool water. It quickly heals those tiny skin abrasions and bleeding cuts and destroys possible germ infection. PASTEURINE hardens the too-tender skin and eradicates unsightly blemishes of the complexion. PASTEURINE allays razor irritation and prevents that "itchy stiffness" of the skin. It makes your face feel cool, comfortable and flexible.

CHILD IMPERSONATOR TO ENTERTAIN BOYS

Miss Mary Roberta Steadwell, of Nashville, a prominent impersonator who has appeared before a number of the large universities, has been secured by the S. V. D. fraternity of Atlanta to deliver several of her child impersonations at the best feast which this fraternity will give to the new boys of the city in the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday evening.

Miss Steadwell is quite prominent socially in Nashville and elsewhere, and when in Atlanta will be entertained by a number of the society matrons. The S. V. D. boys feel that they have been singularly fortunate in securing her for this one night, as she has never before appeared before an Atlanta audience.

Miss Steadwell, who is a graduate of the Vanderbilt university school of expression, and has studied in the north and east, was heard in Nashville a few days ago in "Everywoman," and according to the newspaper notices, scored quite a number of public successes. Her selection here at the "feast" will be entirely child impersonations and other pieces which will appeal to the average boy.

Celebrates Birthday.

The eighty-ninth birthday of H. A. McLarin, of Fairburn, Ga., was celebrated by sixty children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who met with him at Grant park last Tuesday. The event was a happy one and will long be remembered by those who joined in the festivities. Mr. McLarin, who was born in Campbell county, where he has lived all his life, is a veteran of the Civil war, and for four years he saw service under the Stars and Bars.

PANAMA CANAL DISPUTE SHOULD BE ARBITRATED

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 8.—Theodore Roosevelt, in his address to the United States and Great Britain "agrees in advance" to arbitrate any question which might arise between them. So he told the international conference who are arranging the centenary celebration of the signing of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, which was signed during Colonel Roosevelt's administration.

Although it was said he did not specifically mention the Panama canal dispute, members of the foreign delegation said he unmistakably had in mind arbitration or any other method that would not produce friction. War between these two countries was, and must be, inconceivable.

"Mr. Roosevelt gave first the toast to the king and emperor of the British empire, and the toast of peace, with justice and righteousness, between the nations and within the borders of each nation—a toast most heartily drunk by all present."

About twenty-five members of the conference were present, motoring here from New York, whether they returned in the late afternoon. Lord Wearvale and Andrew Carnegie sat at the host's right and on his left were Sir George H. D'Almeida, of Australia, Colonel Roosevelt entertained his guests in a khaki riding suit and spurred boots.

Sheriff Bennett Dead.

Vienna, Ga., May 8.—Sheriff Bennett, of Dooly county, died here early this morning from bullet wounds inflicted Wednesday last by Oscar Blow, whom he was attempting to arrest for murder. Blow was shot and killed by the sheriff after the latter had been hit by several bullets. A few hours previously Blow had shot to death P. V. Sangster, a neighbor with whom he engaged in a pistol duel to settle a long-standing quarrel.

Boy Burned to Death.

Marion, Ga., May 8.—A 4-year-old son of A. J. Ellis, of this city, was burned to death at Roberts, Ga., today when the home in which he was living was destroyed by fire. The child was playing with matches on a second floor. His 18-year-old sister heard screams and on rushing the stairway found that she was out of her hands.

Three ways to buy clothes

YOU buy your clothes in one of three ways. Which do you think is the best way?

1. You may go to a custom-tailor and have them "made-to-order." You have delays; "try-ons"; you don't know what you're going to get; and if he's a cheap tailor—$25, $30, $40—you don't get very much.
2. You may pick out a piece of cloth from a book of samples; send your specifications away somewhere; and wait. If the suit "makes up" as you expected, if it is trimmed as you hoped, if it fits as you want it to, you're lucky.
3. You may go to a dealer in our clothes; see them ready, not merely a piece of cloth; see how they look on you, not in an illustration or on a dummy figure; see the linings and trimmings, not merely words about them; see how the suit fits, before you buy, not after; see if it's becoming to you, not just guess at it; and take only a few minutes of your time.

This third way is right; you pay less than in 1; and get more value than in 2. As a demonstration of it, ask any dealer in our goods to show you one of our suits at $25.

THE GREEKS.

The Greeks of Atlanta are justified in resenting the reports that inadvertently identify them as a race with the Mary Phagan murder. As a nation they are among the most law-abiding and peaceable people in the world.

Use of the phrase, "Mediterranean style," in referring to the Phagan outrage, is unwarranted. There is no style in murder, save that of murder itself, and crimes just as horrible occur away from the Mediterranean as on its borders.

While newspaper references to Greeks with regard to the Phagan case do not, of course, intend specifically to lay the entire race under suspicion, it is natural that a proud and law-respecting people should resent the inevitable imputation.

PETTY BUSINESS.

The city authorities generally are asking Atlanta to rejoice with them because only a six months' growth of values indicates the finance committee will, next month, have an additional $250,000 income at its disposal.

Now read a communication published on this page from John L. Tye. He tells of the plague of dust that is threatening life and producing loss and discomfort throughout the city.

Here is a city whose income increases by leaps and bounds. Yet it cannot spare a few dollars for sprinklers to keep down dust that threatens the health and damages the property of its citizens.

Taxpayers in every part of the city have a right to demand that the city put sprinklers at work to safeguard the health of themselves and their children, and to prevent their household goods from being ruined.

Atlanta is still subscribing to a contemptible, petty policy. Protesting citizens should pound away until it is corrected.

AN UNJUST DISCRIMINATION.

A communication from W. T. Wycks, published elsewhere, inspires increasing wonder that the federal house of representatives should have put itself in the attitude of penalizing thrift, as it appears to have done by the tax laid upon mutual insurance companies in the income tax feature of the tariff bill.

As The Constitution has shown, fraternal insurance and mutual savings banks are exempt under the bill.

After deducting the necessary operating expenses, the entire net profits of the mutual companies are pro-rated into dividends. Hundreds of thousands of people in this country with incomes considerably less than $4,000, which is the exemption under the income tax bill, patronize these institutions.

The discrimination is not only unfair, but will, if enforced, work hardship, as indicated by Mr. Wyck's personal experience. If congress is going to exempt the policyholders in fraternal concerns and depositors in mutual savings banks—both are entitled to it—it should also exempt policyholders in mutual life insurance companies, and the senate should so amend the bill.

THE BERRIEN AFFAIR.

The Constitution presents elsewhere today the other side of the Berrien county fisheries controversy, regarding which so much of a sensational nature has recently been published.

All Georgians who believe in fair play should familiarize themselves with the other side of the case. The Constitution has itself never been disposed to summarily indict the people of Berrien county. They are among the best in the state, from the standpoints of respect for law and order and that restraint that always goes with good citizenship.

It gives us pleasure to present the other side of this much-discussed affair. There should be no snap judgments, nor impulsive accusations where a people noted for integrity and orderly conduct are concerned.

TO UNBOTTLE ALASKA.

Former Secretary of the Interior Fisher talked straight from the shoulder the other day to the senate territories committee in condemnation of the government's present restrictive policy toward Alaska.

No one can accuse Mr. Fisher of being a spokesman for the "interests," whose prospective deprivations in Alaska have made the more ultra type of conservationists see things at night. In fact, Mr. Fisher is himself a conservationist of the Pinchot school.

Congress has, as a matter of fact, consistently neglected Alaska. It has been either indifferent or fearful that whatever action it took would be misconstrued by the conservationist. The territory has paid the penalty. The hosts of hardy Americans who have gone there with the intention of making the territory their homes and growing up with the country, have labored against all sorts of handicaps.

We have not yet awakened to the potential wealth of this great distant part of the nation. Congress has been negligent. It is to be hoped an aggressive and broad-minded policy will be one of the achievements of the present administration.

IF SPAIN JOINED FRANCE.

The visit of King Alphonso of Spain to Paris has revived European gossip relative to an approaching political understanding between France and Spain. The young Spanish monarch has been received with the utmost cordiality by the French.

Should Spain sign an offensive and defensive treaty with France, or even enter into a so-called "gentleman's agreement," the effect upon European politics would be decided. As it is now, the continent is divided into two groups of powers.

Now, should Spain link her fortunes with those of France, she evidently would become an outright or implied party to the triple entente. The nice balance of power in Europe would, therefore, be upset and diplomatists would have to devise a new set of calculations.

One thing the world would have to be thankful for, and that is that such action on part of Spain would give the peace party in Europe the ascendancy. For the present at least neither France nor England nor Russia want war, and their pacific attitude has largely influenced Austria and Germany throughout the recent disquieting events.

"Now, I am introducing a floor polish that will be a boon to every housewife. It will make your house look like a ball room. It is composed of—"

"Never mind what it's composed of," interrupted Mrs. Curfew. "I don't want to hear any rigmoroses about barka and buds and healing herbs and other wholesome ingredients, and when I want a floor polish I'll go to the hardware store for it."

"It was so worried and excited that I had bought gallon can of the man's floor polish before I realized it and so the next day I applied it to the floors in strict accordance with the directions on the can."

"The upstairs rooms smelled of sulphur for three days after it and I swept up a disupstunt of dark blue language on the stairs. I managed to get his legs out of the door with great difficulty, and helped him to his feet, and then we both sat down without premeditation in the middle of the sitting room and I began to realize that his observation was at least timely."

The World's Mysteries

How Large Was Xerxes' Army?

A vast amount of nonsense has been written about armies and wars of ancient times, and present-day historians find great difficulty in modifying their stories to fit what might be considered a safe and sane estimate of what these wars really amounted to.

An excellent example of this is the account of the Persian army of Xerxes, which most historians greatly overestimate. Commonly computed at 5,000,000, the best evidence goes to show that camp followers and all did not much exceed one-fifth that number.

It would not have been possible under the circumstances, to have handled such an unusually large force at that early period. They would have been entirely unnecessary to accomplish the objects for which Xerxes had set out, and it would not have been possible to control or feed them.

Coal miners are a brave man with broad shoulders, who sticks a lamp into his cap and goes down in among the ribs of the planet in order to excavate coal enough to keep the world warm next winter.

Coal mining is as uncomfortable as riding back and forth on the New York subway. The coal miner does not have to hang from a strap, but he must lie on his side and cut out tons and tons of coal with a pick.

Coal miners and New York business men have a good deal in common. Both work about six hours a day and both travel the last quarter of a mile to their jobs in elevators.

Capacity

By George Matthew Adams

Your Capacity is the stored up Power that you have available for your Everday/Doing as well as for the various Emergencies of your Life. Also, Capacity is the Valuation chalked up as your Real Assets which you add alone know as your own Capacity is Possibility.

Many a man has turned away from his employ many a worker whose Capacity is took no time to investigate, but which later had to be reckoned with in Competition. When the late Marshall Field discovered unusual Capacity in a worker, he recognized it and later joined it to his business in the shape of a Partner.

Study yourself as you would a masterful piece of machinery, for you are the most wonderful Handiwork that has ever been put together. Each day should find you more familiar with your Abilities and Capacity than the day before.

I am a hard working man with a family of six, and my income is just about one-fourth of the $4,000 limit mentioned in the bill, so you will see that I have not much to spare for life insurance, and yet I cannot think of dying and leaving nothing with which to educate my children.

Several years ago, realizing the necessity of some protection in case of death, I took a policy in a fraternal order because it was cheap, and which was all right as long as it lasted. I then took a policy in a strong mutual company because the premiums are reduced every year by dividends, giving me my insurance at cost.

Now I agree with you that it is unjust and unfair to lay a tax on these companies, which is obliged to come out of the policy holder, as there is no capital stock, and it will bear directly on men like me who are least able to pay and who are most in need of insurance for their families.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO BUILD GOOD ROADS

United States to Spend $500,000 This Year on Experimental Highways.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—(Special.) The Federal government will this year spend $500,000 on experimental good roads. It is the largest amount ever appropriated for such a purpose since Henry Clay got through the appropriation for the Cumberland road.

Before many years a good roads bill will be passed by congress with the same frequency as a river and harbor bill or a public buildings bill, according to the enthusiastic advocates of improved highways.

While a commission was at work framing a comprehensive scheme for co-operation between the national and local governments in building new arteries of commerce, there was included in the post office appropriation bill a half million for experimental road building.

The postmaster general and secretary of agriculture have finally agreed upon a plan for spending this money. It provides for the government defraying one-third of the cost of the work done, the state to pay one-third, and the county to pay one-third.

The states have been divided under this plan into eight groups, each group of similar physical characteristics and one of each of these eight states has been selected for the experimental and demonstration work provided for in that provision of the bill.

Both the postmaster general and the secretary of agriculture are very anxious to begin this work as soon as possible, so that they may file a report based upon the data obtained recommending a comprehensive scheme for state and federal co-operation for the construction of roads at the beginning of the next session of congress.

Senator Bourne's committee has already outlined a comprehensive plan.

and have a bill which they will "suggest" to congress, which would involve the consent of all the states to the plan. It is proposed that a billion dollars in government bonds be sold at par, bearing three per cent interest, and each state put into the federal treasury as collateral for its proportion of the bonds, bearing 4 per cent. The proportion of funds allowed each state is based upon the taxable property, area, population and mileage of roads in the state. This plan simply proposes to utilize the superior credit of the national government for the purpose of road building—the government paying 3 per cent interest, while the states pay four. The excess of one per cent interest paid by the states would go toward creating a sinking fund, which would eventually take up the bonds of the states.

It is hardly probable that the congress will be willing to go into a plan of this nature until there was a full test of public sentiment upon the subject, and, of course, all the state legislatures would have to act upon and there would have to be a long campaign of education to get the idea fully grasped by the public mind.

Under Senator Bourne's plan, Georgia would get $2,500,000, putting up 4 per cent bonds as collateral.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED TO THE UNDERWORLD

Lieut. Gov. O'Hara Says Attack on His Morality Is Plan to Ruin Him.

Chicago, May 8.—The missing register of the Hotel Sherman in this city, which figures in a secret affidavit attacking the morality of Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, chairman of the vice commission, was found today.

The affidavit was presented by Deputy Sheriff Richard M. Sullivan, but it was made by another person, whose identity is obscure, so far as the public is concerned. It was produced upon the insistence of the lieutenant governor, who declares that it is part of a conspiracy formed in the underworld by persons whose incomes were threatened by his crusade against vice.

The affidavit is said to state that last January O'Hara and a prominent young woman of Springfield registered at the Hotel Sherman as "T. D. Duncan and wife." A Springfield millionaire and another woman said to have registered as "J. J. Miller and wife," were alleged to have shared the "Duncan" suite. A handwriting expert will compare the signature of "Duncan" with that of O'Hara.

Later it was learned that the affidavit was signed by Maud Robinson, of Springfield.

Harry Gibbons, a court bailiff, said today that he was with O'Hara in Chicago on the night of January 17, when "Duncan" and "Miller" registered at the Hotel Sherman.

"O'Hara and I went to the cafe of the Hotel Sherman," said Gibbons. "There we met Tom Vredenberg, of Springfield, and two of his girlfriends. O'Hara was afraid some one might try to make the party the nucleus of a 'frame-up' and asked me to stick along. We went to another cafe later. We left at midnight. Vredenberg and the girls crossed the street toward the hotel and O'Hara, who said he was going to the Press club, started in that direction. I went home."

Gibbons said that O'Hara met Vredenberg through renting a house from him at Springfield.

At Springfield O'Hara told friends of the dinner party saying he had an unquestionable alibi.

Comparison of the handwriting of "Duncan" and "Miller" by an expert this afternoon showed no similarity to that of O'Hara's.

Investigation Is Ordered. Springfield, Ill., May 8.—The senate today empowered Senators Eitelson, Jones, O'Connor and Bailey to investigate the affidavit against O'Hara by Deputy Sheriff Sullivan, made by a Springfield woman and reflecting on the morality of Lieutenant Governor O'Hara. The committee has the power to administer oaths and subpoena witnesses.

The resolution was adopted after the senate had heard the testimony of an investigator for the vice commission regarding conversation with Deputy Sheriff Sullivan.

The investigator testified to a conversation he had with Sullivan on the night of April 28 in the Leland hotel. He said Sullivan told him that Vredenberg had better stay away from Springfield; if not, he would produce an affidavit that would put the commission out of business and make the state minus a lieutenant governor.

"GIFT DRAWINGS" BRANDED LOTTERIES. Kansas City, May 8.—"Grand gift drawing contests" used by merchants of Windsor, Mo., to draw county shoppers on market days, were today branded lotteries, illegal under federal statutes, by Judge Van Valkenburgh in the federal court. The court fined the Livingston Trading company, Windsor, $500 for promoting such a drawing.

Under the drawing scheme shoppers at Windsor stores were given numbered tickets with each purchase. At evening the tickets were placed in a barrel and the drawing made. Holders of lucky numbers took away with them varieties of objects ranging from $20 gold pieces to thimbles and bed-room slippers.

WIFE COULDN'T FACE HUSBAND'S CHARGES

San Francisco, May 8.—Mrs. Bessie C. Merriam suffered a complete nervous collapse last night, and was unable to appear in court today when the divorce suit brought against her by her husband, Captain H. C. Merriam, U. S. A., was called for a further hearing. An attorney told the court she was unconscious late last night.

Captain Merriam affirmed his willingness to abide by a suggestion of Judge Graham that the original suit be withdrawn and Mrs. Merriam file an amended answer, bringing herself a suit charging desertion, which would not be contested.

This suggestion, made with a view to suppressing further unfavorable publicity which would work unnecessary wrong to Charlotte, the 10-year-old daughter of the couple, was agreeable to counsel for the defendant, but he could not formally acquiesce until she was in better health. The case was continued until next Tuesday.

Captain Merriam had charged his wife with misconduct at Jackson Barracks, Louisiana, naming Clarence Murphy, then a major on the staff of the governor of Louisiana.

HOW WILSON VIEWS EXEMPTION CLAUSE

Washington, May 8.—President Wilson let it be known today that when the anti-trust bill is passed he will make a statement concerning the provision in it exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecution under a fund appropriated for enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The president will sign the bill, according to prominent democratic members of congress, who have talked with him about it, but will point out they declare that substantive law and the question of whether labor unions are immune from prosecution under the anti-trust laws are not affected by the provisions of the appropriation bill, as regarded as practically certain that in the December session of congress an effort will be made to revise the anti-trust laws and some democratic leaders believe the proposed exemption merely postpones until then a definite understanding of how far the anti-trust laws affect labor combinations.

"DOLLAR DIPLOMACY" ATTACKED BY BRYAN

Secretary Throws Light on the Naming of Miller to Arbitrate Ecuador Railway Tangle.

By John Corrigan, Jr. Washington, May 8.—(Special.)—William J. Bryan, secretary of state, in the current issue of The Commonwealth throws further light upon the Guayaquil and Quito railroad tangle, which James A. L. Miller, of Macon, Ga., has been appointed to arbitrate.

Mr. Bryan in this article deals with the reasons why Henry L. James, a former official of the state department, was forced to relinquish the position of arbitrator. He says James' appointment was responsible for "irritation which is prejudicing American interests in Ecuador."

Some surprise has been expressed that Mr. Bryan should have refused to give the Washington correspondents the inside facts of this case and should then publish them in his own paper.

In conclusion he says: "The decision reached by the president in this case is hailed with joy not only in Ecuador, but throughout Central and South America because it is a promise that the moral force of this government will not be used to compel acquiescence in methods that are repugnant to our own principles of jurisprudence."

"The harvest is ripe and President Wilson is seeking to extend and enlarge the area of American activity. He has rightly decided that honesty has a commercial value and that justice is business asset of importance. He expects to make the American capitalist favored throughout those countries which are only partly developed and he expects to do it by compelling American investors to be honest and fair abroad as they are at home."

GLOVER TO BE CALLED BEFORE BAR OF HOUSE

Washington, May 8.—The question of proceeding against Charles C. Glover, Washington banker, on a charge of having obtained the privileges of the house will be taken up tomorrow. Mr. Glover is charged with having assaulted Representative Sims, of Tennessee, in a public square for remarks concerning Mr. Glover which the Representative made on the floor of the house.

As the house adjourned tonight after passing the tariff bill, Representative Underwood announced that the report of a special committee appointed to investigate the charges would be called up tomorrow by the chairman, Representative Davis, of West Virginia. The report finds that Mr. Glover, in assaulting Mr. Sims, committed an affront to the privileges of the house, since under the constitution a member of congress cannot be called to account outside of congress for statements made in debate on the floor, recommends the arrest of Mr. Glover and urges that the house take up the question of punishing him.

It is generally believed that before the bar of the house and reprimanded, although in at least one similar case the house ordered an offender imprisoned for assaulting a member.

HOSIERY MEN ATTACK DOWNWARD REVISION

Philadelphia, May 8.—"Downward revision of the tariff was condemned by several speakers at the closing session today of the annual convention of the National Association of Hosiery and Underwear Manufacturers.

F. H. Weisbarmer, of Hagerstown, Md., said things had come to a stage where the manufacturers must do something to counteract measures now proposed which would make it difficult for the manufacturer to earn a legitimate profit. He declared the minimum wage would add to the cost of production and compel manufacturers to discharge those who could not earn the minimum wage.

"Girls," he said, "seldom expect to remain in the factory permanently, and, in consequence, it takes six months to a year for a new employee to turn out the maximum of production."

Resolutions were adopted calling upon congress to adopt 1-cent letter postage.

FRIEDMANN RETARDS TUBERCULOSIS FIGHT

Washington, May 8.—"One of the adverse factors that are retarding the prevention of the white plague" was the characterization applied to Dr. F. F. Friedmann's tuberculosis vaccine by President Homer Folks in his opening address today at the meeting of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis.

"Not like the series of events," said the speaker, "which followed the announcement of the Friedmann 'cure' in Berlin, has hitherto occurred in the tuberculosis campaign. Only those who have been engaged from day to day in inducing state and local authorities to appropriate funds can appreciate how vastly more difficult this task has been made in the last few months by the extremely effective press agents of Dr. Friedmann."

"Thus far it has not been evident to me as a layman that any of those who have had to do with the subject in this country have won much credit."

BAPTIST TABERNACLE TO SELECT PASTOR

Committee Will Meet to Choose Successor to Dr. MacArthur, Who Resigned.

A new pastor for the Baptist Tabernacle will be selected at next Wednesday evening's meeting of the committee on pulpit supply, of which A. C. Boatman is chairman.

Since Dr. Robert S. MacFarland resigned from the pastorate of this church there has been no regular pastor, and as a result the attendance is said to have fallen off considerably. The committee has its eyes on several men of international reputation, and one of these will be called after Wednesday's meeting. According to Mr. Boatman, the man to fill this position must be a born leader of men, a man who will exert a strong influence on the life of the masses in Atlanta and will at all times be ready to take up the fight against the march of evil. While men in all sections of the city are being considered, it is probable that the man selected will be from the north or east. As the salary is $5,000 or more per year, there will be little trouble in getting the right man.

When this man is picked it is hoped that he will remain with the Tabernacle as long as his usefulness lasts. "This church is a church of the masses," said Mr. Boatman yesterday. "It stands between political and moral wrong and the masses of the city of Atlanta. It has always been ready to fight for civic betterment, and the man we select will be a man who will lead in the fight for cleaner and better living. He will be a man who will lead masses, a man who will be of genuine service to Atlanta."

BOYS TO AID PROGRESS.

Junior Order of Chamber of Commerce to Be Organized.

A committee of fifty members of the chamber of commerce will meet Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to organize a junior order of the chamber. The instilling of civic patriotism and the Atlanta spirit in the young America will be the object of the order, and as it has made a success in a great number of other cities, it is thought that such will be of great advantage to Atlanta.

It is the intention of the chamber to take in all boys over a certain age in the city of Atlanta, and train them up in civic and commercial pride, in order that when they become older they may be of service to the city, and active members of the chamber itself.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

ONE day, when Mr. Jones returned with what his weekly toil had earned, he found his little wife in tears and mood not suited to her years. It seemed the cook had bade "adieu," likewise the washerwoman, too.

At first within the House of Jones there followed sad despondent moans. No hopeful word could reconcile, no honied kiss inspire a smile. "I never knew before" said she, "how horrid household cares could be."

"Upon my word I'm up at six and working still as midnight ticks. I scrub and run and wash and shine to keep the little things in line, and yet around me here and there I see undone another share. I almost feel as if I'd like to join the other ones on Strike. Some morning try it—get a mop; go through from cellar to the top, and I will venture you must see, the greater burdens fall on me."

Now Mr. Jones was passing wise and later, sprang a glad surprise. Through friends who praised the "GOLD DUST WAY," he brought a package home one day.

From tears to sunshine, Wiley now has found the good of "Knowing How" and striking servants fail to stir, the placid calm content of her.

the syrup with the RED LABEL, fine. It has the smoothest of sugary flavor and rich color. It makes candies, fudge, cakes and cookies that just melt in one's mouth. It goes great with griddle-cakes and it will make your good muffins, waffles and biscuits better. Try it and see if this isn't so. Ten cents and up, according to size. Velva in the green can, too, at your grocer's. Send for the book of Velva recipes. No charge.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mme. D'Alille.

"A simple and reliable remedy for skin eruptions, chaps, cold sores, pimples and eczema is Mother's Salve. It is healing, cooling, soothing and antiseptic in action. It should be in every family medicine cabinet.

"Just worrying about hair falling out won't help any woman. A few minutes' work is better than hours of worry. Faded and brittle hair, falling hair and baldness are caused by a parasite that destroys the life of the hair. Mother's Shampoo removes these parasites, leaves the scalp healthy and clean and makes the hair fine and fluffy. Enough for several months can be bought at any drug store for 25c.

"Spotted, sallow and muddy looking complexions, together with skin eruptions often present in the spring, require a cleansing treatment instead of face powder. An ideal complexion beautifier is easily made at home by dissolving an original package of may-stone in a half pint of witch hazel. It makes the skin soft, fair and lovely.

"To remove superfluous hair on face or forearms make a paste with a little water and powdered delatone, cover the hairs for two minutes, then remove and wash the skin. Delatone does not discolor the skin and is safe and sure."

TWENTY-FIVE MURDERS ASCRIBED TO ONE MAN

Moore Used an Ax to Kill His Victims—He Is Now in Prison.

Leavenworth, Kan., May 8.—Twenty-five murders committed with an ax in Missouri, Kansas, Colorado and Iowa, are ascribed to Henry Lee Moore, now serving a life term in the Missouri penitentiary, according to a theory announced today by M. W. McClaughery, agent of the department of Justice. Moore went to the penitentiary at Jefferson City after being convicted of the murder of his mother and grandmother at Columbia, Mo., last December.

PROBE WILL BE MADE OF "TAXICAB GRAFT"

New York, May 8.—Reports of "taxicab graft" received at the district attorney's office will be called to the attention of the present grand jury. Books of one of the largest of the New York taxicab companies were produced at the district attorney's office today to show that annual passes had been issued to aldermen and other city officials. The grand jury will be asked to determine whether these passes had anything to do with the recent failure to get an ordinance for taxicab reform through the board of aldermen.

One of the aims of the proposed ordinance is to abolish the private taxicab stands maintained by hotels and restaurants in the public streets. The cab companies are said to pay half a million dollars for these stand privileges annually.

CLAIRVOYANT TRUST TO FEEL THE PROBE

Chicago, May 8.—Grand jury investigation of the so-called clairvoyant trust is expected to begin when the May grand jury is sworn in next Monday. The announcement was made after State's Attorney Loyne had returned to the city with Joseph H. Ryan, brought here from Lunk, Wyo., on charges of swindling.

The state's attorney, it is said, has evidence that politicians promised the clairvoyants protection here and that money was paid some members of the police force by the clairvoyants. More than 100 complaints from victims have been received by the state's attorney since the arrest of Ryan was made public.

Trenton, N. J., May 8.—Former United States Senator Frank O. Briggs died tonight at his home in this city. He had been ill for several months and lapsed into a state of coma this morning, from which he never rallied. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Mr. Briggs was born in Concord, N. H., in 1851, and was graduated from West Point Military academy afterward serving as second lieutenant in the infantry. Besides serving a term in the United States senate, he was former state treasurer and mayor of Trenton. His term in the senate ended March 4 last.

AWFUL THOUGHTS QUICKLY BANISHED

Thought, at Times, That She Would Die—Saves Herself, Also Young Girl Whose Troubles Were Similar to Hers.

Clarksville, Tenn.—Mrs. H. L. Mason, of this place, writes: "I want to write you a few lines in regard to your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Before my marriage I lived in Evansville, Ind. I suffered very much with womanly trouble. I thought, at times, that I would nearly die with pains in my stomach, and backache.

I saw your medicine advertised, and sent and got a bottle. The first bottle helped me, and I haven't been bothered with any of my old trouble since.

After my marriage, I lived in Mt. Vernon, Ind., and one of my neighbor's girls suffered like I did. I told them to give her Cardui, the woman's tonic, as it would help her, and it certainly did, right away.

I will surely recommend Cardui to all women, for I think it is a good medicine for all kinds of womanly trouble."

If you are suffering from any of the ailments peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc., we urge you to give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

It should surely do for you, what it has done for thousands of others, in the past half century, who suffered with similar troubles.

Begin taking Cardui today. Your druggist sells it.

TROLLEY CARS ARRIVE FOR ALBANY'S NEW LINE

Albany, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Albany sat up and took notice yesterday afternoon when a string of four flat cars, on which were loaded four trolley cars for Albany's new street railway system, were pushed by a switch engine through Washington street to a point just beyond Broad, and there left standing.

It was the first shipment of rolling stock for the Albany Transit company's lines, and it was tremendously interesting to the people of this community. A crowd quickly gathered about the cars, from one of which the canvas tarpaulin covering it had been removed that the admiring throng might see just how it looked.

The cars are of the "day-as-you-enter" type, and each will seat thirty passengers comfortably. Albany thinks she will be able to make it necessary to use the hand brakes often. She is quite certain that this will be the case on the day fixed for the formal opening of the line—May 15.

Trailers are thought to be now en route, and it is believed they will reach Albany in time for opening day. It will be made a sort of red-letter day occasion by the community, and many out-of-town parties will be here. A game of South Atlantic league ball has been transferred from Columbus to Albany for the occasion, and there will be a sort of half-holiday, beginning at 3 o'clock. Everybody who can find standing room on the trolleys will be ridden free up to 2 o'clock, after that hour it will be strictly a nickel a ride for all sorts, classes and conditions of people.

The new street railway system has been built with Albany money, and Albany money only for bonding debt. It will be issued and no loans floated in this respect it is regarded as a unique street railway system, so far as Georgia is concerned.

HIGH SCHOOLS MEET AT BRUNSWICK TODAY

Brunswick, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the Eleventh District High School association will convene in Brunswick tomorrow, and considerable interest is being manifested in the contest, which is to be held during the day. The program has just been completed and it will keep the visiting pupils busy during their short stay in the city.

At 11 o'clock in the morning the declaration contest will be held at the Grand Opera house. Representatives from the following schools will appear: Valdosta, Waycross, Jessup, Baxley, Sparks, Dunn-Bell, and Brunswick. The speakers in the contest are chosen on account of their individual merits as speakers, and represent the best talent of their respective schools.

The athletic events will occur on the beach at St. Simons island. There will consist of relay races, hundred-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 200-yard dash, hurdle race, long jump, high jump and shot-put. The beach is admirably adapted to the purpose, and the visitors will be given an opportunity to see the ocean. The boat will leave Brunswick at 2 p. m., and the contest will begin immediately upon the arrival of the steamer.

Following the final exercises will be held at the opera house. At this time it will be decided as to who is the best musician in the high schools of the eleventh district, and also who is to bear the palm as winner in elocution.

BIG STORES TO GIVE HALF HOLIDAY SOON

Employees in Atlanta's big department stores will be given a half holiday on Saturdays, beginning June 7, and lasting for the entire summer. This is an earlier date for Saturday closing than local stores have ever had before, and a later date has been set for ending the holiday, as the six leading merchants have agreed not to resume business on Saturday afternoons until September 13.

The following dry goods stores have entered into the agreement: J. M. High company, Keely company, Chamberlain-Johnson-DuBose company, J. P. Allen, Davison-Paxon-Stokes company, and M. Rich Bros. company.

OFFICERS OF FIFTH GUESTS AT G. M. A. CAMP

The officers of the Fifth regiment, national guard of Georgia, were the guests of the Georgia Military academy cadets at their camp near Lake Wood Thursday afternoon, and their inspection of the camp brought forth encomiums of praise. At 5 o'clock supper was spread for the officers and cadets.

Thursday night was ex-cadet evening and many former students of the College Park school joined the army officers and undergrads in the dance, which lasted until "lights out" was sounded at 10 o'clock.

ESCAPED PRISONER KILLED BY POSSE

Soperton, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—W. J. Radney, a farmer, who was convicted of burglarizing a meat market here Wednesday night, was shot to death Thursday morning by a member of a posse, who claims that the killing was an accident. Radney is alleged to have been killed by a shot from a gun in the hands of Lee Keen, of the posse.

The posse, which was formed to rearrest Radney, consisted of Mayor Lamar Holmes, Lee Keen, J. W. Hart and Town Marshal Wade. Radney was found about four miles from town.

SHRINERS TO KNOW ALL ABOUT ATLANTA HOTELS

If Atlanta does not get the Shriners' convention for 1914, it will not be the fault of Fred Bonner, secretary of the Atlanta convention bureau, who has just compiled a neat and attractive pamphlet on Atlanta hotels which will be extensively distributed at Dallas.

This pamphlet states that there is $7,702,000 worth of hotels in the Gate City, containing 2,888 rooms, and 1,446 baths.

The booklet contains further information on Atlanta, showing that the population is no more than 177,000, and "growing every minute."

SILVA GETS 2 YEARS FOR CHORUS GIRL'S DEATH

Savannah, Ga., May 8.—Isaac Silva, who was tried in the superior court on Monday for causing the death of Marietta Leonard, a chorus girl, by giving her an injection of morphine, was convicted today of involuntary manslaughter in the commission of an unlawful act. Judge Walter J. Bland sentenced Silva to two years in the penitentiary.

REAL NAMES ARE KNOWN IN "MRS. ELLIS" AFFAIR

Scandal Is Hinted At in Mysterious "Fall" of Woman From Train Near Cordele.

Cordele, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Refusing stoutly to discuss the affair at any time, the woman who gives her name as Mrs. W. H. Ellis has shed no light on the mysterious circumstances surrounding what is now firmly believed by officials of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railway to have been an attempt at suicide by jumping from the sleeper of a train on this road at Ross, Tuesday morning, while it was running 40 miles an hour.

It is learned that the officials have acquainted themselves with the fact that the woman has given a fictitious name and that they know her real name and that of the man who held the ticket to the berth occupied by her.

Unless forced to do so by the woman filing suit, the railroad company will not attempt to develop a scandal, according to a statement of Colonel J. G. Jones, division counsel for the road, who refused to divulge the names of the parties. To relate themselves of the blame of the alleged attempted suicide is as far as they will carry the case, in the event the woman will sign papers to this effect, which she has agreed to do. The personal effects of the so-called Mrs. Ellis, which were left on the train, were delivered to her today at the sanitarium here, where she is still seriously ill.

Listen to This. "ROBE signs with Atlanta; may land first base job." This is the head in the New Orleans Daily States announcing the purchase of the veteran by the Crackers. The story says, in part: "Belief is advanced locally that George will eventually succeed Joe Agler, first baseman, who doesn't seem able to hit the ball." Don't make us laugh, our lips are cracked.

Reason It Out. THE BILLIKENS made three changes in their line-up against the Crackers yesterday. Cotton Knapp, formerly of New Orleans, was at short. Joe Kutina, former Brownsie was at first and Snyder, a pitcher, was in the box.

Losing Streak Is Broken; Billikens Drubbed 7 to 3; Long and Smith Hit Homers

Montgomery, Ala., May 8.—(Special.) Mad over the drubbings handed them by the Mobile Gulls, Billy Smith's Crackers took it out on Pitcher Snyder, the Billikens' new hurler, today, and walked away with the first contest of the series, 7 to 3.

Price got better as the game progressed, while Snyder, who was proving an enigma to the Atlanta batsmen in the early innings, was easily subdued toward the end of the fray.

It was really the southpaw's big stick that packed his own game on ice, for with the score standing tied and two Crackers on the bases in the sixth inning, he shot a clean single to center field, sending in two runs, which proved sufficient to win.

Long's Great Catch. A wonderful running catch up against the left-field fence by Tommy Long was the fielding play of the day. He left with the crack of Gribbens' bat, and brought down the flying sphere as it was going over his right shoulder.

Wares opened the Billikens' third with a triple to right center. Jantzen was retired, but Elwert walked, and Sloan singled, sending Wares home.

Snyder was pitching good balls for the locals, but in the sixth inning things broke badly for him.

LEADS JACKETS AGAINST GEORGIA TODAY

CAPTAIN "FAX" MONTAGUE OF TECH

Tech Captain's Statement.

It must be remembered that despite compiled from previous games, it is little consequence when Georgia meets Tech. Certainly does this year is all in favor of the Red and Black, but such has been the case many times in the past. Tech has even gone so far as to turn things around completely.

They have two much better pitchers than Tech can boast of and are heavier hitters. Georgia has a decided edge on Tech in these two departments of the game, but I doubt if they excel in fielding or base running.

It is to be admitted that in Morris and Corley they have two of the best college pitchers in the South. These two men are not to be looked upon lightly, but it is safe to say that they will not succeed against any one or two-hit game against us.

The scores in these games will not be as large as some of the fans think. I believe that the Athens outfield has been largely responsible for the heavy hitting of the Georgia team, it is true that they certainly have their eye on the ball, but they would hardly get as many extra bases if it was not for their sloping outer garden.

I believe that we will play our best ball of the year against our greatest rivals. At any rate, they must not count the series won until it is over. We are far from licked before the series begins.

Great Tech-Georgia Series Starts at Athens Today; Red and Black Favorites

Athens, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—The batteries for today's game: For Tech, Pitts and Attridge; for Georgia, Corley and Hutchen.

When the umpire makes this announcement Friday afternoon, the capacity of Sanford field in this city will be tested. Every seat will be taken, and even standing room will be at a premium.

The great Georgia-Tech series of games will be on a series that, to the rival schools, students, alumni and the baseball fans of Georgia is the most important series of the year.

Georgia rules the favorite, and justly so. The Red and Black contingent has made a wonderful record. They have played twenty-two games in all, winning seventeen, losing four and tying one.

Michigan won two games from Georgia and tied the third. Clemson and Auburn won a game each from the Athenians. The former broke even in a series of two games, while Auburn dropped the other two games of the three games played.

On the other hand, Tech has won only one series this year, the last one played with the Sawnee Tigers; but in this series the Jackets struck their true form for the first time this season.

They are going to play a rushing, taking-every-long-chance attack, with the hope of throwing the Georgians up in the air and thus discounting their superior hitting ability.

Few bets have been made, the Jacket supporters sensibly refusing to back their team, except when offered big odds. The bets that have been made have, as a general thing, been on the side of the score, how many games Georgia will win, or the comparative number of hits and runs the teams will make per game and for the series.

The Jackets are hopeful. They are taking here tonight, and when kicked by the Georgia fans grimly replied: "Wait until you have won the games before chipping. We admit you have the edge, but we will not admit we are licked until the games are over."

It would be the irony of fate to have the Jackets administer a trouncing to the Georgians. But baseball is baseball, and stranger things have happened in the great national pastime.

There are only two men on the team batting over .300, and three others are batting slightly above .200.

Chappelle Reports To Crackers Today; Furchner Pitches

Bailey Has Rejoined Team. Brady Not Fined—Graham—Only Man Whom Smith Disciplined in Mobile.

By BILLY SMITH (Manager Atlanta Baseball Team.) Montgomery, Ala., May 8.—(Special.) I have signed Al Furchner only on trial, and I will send him in against the Mobile club tomorrow. He is here to show me something I will send him back to Mike Finn.

Bill Chappelle has wired me that he will join us here Friday, and he will probably be given a chance to show what he has in one of the games of the present series.

Bill was wild to join my club, and with the good hitting behind him that this club can show, he ought to win 60 per cent of his games. I believe that he will make us a valuable man.

I have not decided who I will let go in the event I decide to keep both Chappelle and Furchner. The men that show me the best form will be kept. There will be more changes if they still go bad.

Likey Musser. I have a lot of confidence in Musser. I believe he will come around again. Wildness has been his only fault. As soon as he corrects this there will be no trouble in his regaining the stride that made him look like a million dollars the first part of the season.

The report that I fined King Brady is wrong. He is taking the best of care of himself, and working hard. If every player on the team worked as hard as this fellow, the wrinkles would rapidly leave my brow.

Graham was the only player who was fined at Mobile. Price and Weaver were fined during the stay of the team in Nashville.

Bailey Back Again. Bailey reported here this morning, but he will not play in the Tech game, unless it is to bat for some one in a pinch. He is still limping some, and I am not going to take any chance with him. I am going to get him cured good before I let him go back into harness.

Weaver is beginning to show some good form again. The soreness is leaving his arm a little with each succeeding inning, and before the next couple of days have passed, he ought to be himself once more.

Dodgers 2, Cubs 1. Brooklyn, N. Y., May 8.—Brooklyn defeated Chicago today, largely through Manager Evers' errors, two of his three misplays paving the way for Brooklyn's two runs. Both pitchers were effective, three hits each being all that Evers and Rucker allowed. Chicago's solitary run was scored by Schulte on a hit by pitcher, a steal, Miller's wild throw and an out. Brooklyn's first tally came in the third, when Miller's sacrifice fly, Evers' fumble and was forced by Cutchaw. The latter stole second and counted on an out and Wheeler's scratch hit. Daubert scored the winning run on an error by Evers, a steal, Wheeler's infield hit, Miller's sacrifice fly. The game ended sensationally when Miller ran toward the grandstand for Archer's foul and doubled up Chelan stealing.

Sheekard started the rally with a triple and singles by O'Leary followed, putting three runs over the plate. In the home team's final effort, Walsh and Dolan, acting as pinch hitters, each singled. Captain running for the first time, Sallo, who had taken Harmon's place in the eighth inning, was succeeded on the rubber by Ferritt, who hit Duskert, filling the bases. The best play of the game was a sacrifice fly by Manager Dooin, of Philadelphia, disputed Umpire Klem's decisions on called balls in the second inning and was sent to the club house.

St. Louis 200 000 000—5 12 2; Philadelphia 200 000 100—4 8 2. Batteries: Sallee, Ferritt and McLean; Wingo, Chalmers and Kilbiter. Time, 1:55. Umpires, Klem and Orth.

Reds 4, Giants 0. New York, May 8.—George Johnson, Cincinnati's crack pitcher, shut out New York here today. He held the locals to six scattered hits and permitted by two men to get past first base. Johnson has won four of the five victories scored by Cincinnati to date. The visitors supported their Indian manager and made four runs in three plays. Bates' hitting beat New York. He tripled in the first and scored on Tinker's single. In the eighth his Neither side scored in the first inning. Welchence opened the second for Atlanta with a single, but was thrown out stealing. Smith smashed the first ball pitched to him to the scoreboard in deep center field for the circuit.

Cleveland, O., May 8.—Cleveland again won from Boston today 3 to 2, in a pitchers' battle between Gregg and Bedion. Each pitcher had one ineffective inning. In the third, a pass and two singles scored Boston's two runs. In the sixth Cleveland scored three runs on three singles, a base on balls and Ball's error. Only three hits were made off Gregg, who fanned nine batters. Shortstop Wagner got back into the game today.

Cleveland 000 008 000—3 7 0; Boston 002 000 000—2 3 1. Batteries: Gregg and Carisch; Bedion and Cady. Time, 1:40. Umpires, Connelly and Greevy.

Detroit, Mich., May 8.—Pitcher Jean Dubuc, rushed into the game in the first inning as the fielding, bounced a long single off the left field wall, scoring two runs which were enough to defeat the visitors today. The final count was Detroit 3, New York 1. Hall, Baker, and right fielder Gibson, New York scorers until the ninth. In this inning Hartzell doubled, advanced on Chase's single and scored on Sweeney's sacrifice fly. Cobb was reported ill to players in right field. Gibson, catcher, started the game but was removed to allow Dubuc to bat for him. The pitcher then played the position until Louden, an infielder, replaced him in the ninth.

New York 000 000 001—1 7 1; Detroit 000 001 000—3 8 1. Batteries: McConnell, Schulz and Sweeney; Hall and Stanga. Time, 1:35. Umpires, Dineen and Hart.

Chicago, Ill., May 8.—Chicago played a batting game today, driving the Athletics of the Washington pitchers of the mound and winning 10 to 5. Groom opened for the visitors, but weakened in the fourth inning and was relieved by Gallia, who retired to allow Schaefer to bat for him. Boehling took up the pitching in the sixth inning and retired when Gallia, who has been out of the game several days on account of an injury, batted for him. Cashion finished the game.

Russell pitched for the locals and not a runner reached first base until the fifth, when Morrison drew a pass. However, in the sixth inning, with one out, three singles, a triple and an infield out gave Washington four runs. A single, an error and a sacrifice fly gave the visitors their fifth run.

Washington 000 004 001—5 7 3; Chicago 200 311 000—10 13 1. Batteries: Groom, Gallia, Boehling, Cashion and Williams and Henry; Russell and Schalk. Time, 2:05. Umpires, Evans and Hildebrand.

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—The Philadelphia team won its sixth straight game today, beating St. Louis 6 to 3. Although Hamilton pitched a good game, errors by the locals at critical stages allowed Philadelphia to pile up 6 runs. Agnew made two costly errors at the plate on perfect throws from the outfield by Johnston who had the runners beat by a good margin. Philadelphia scored the fourth run in the sixth inning, singles by Oldring and Collins and Baker's double. St. Louis scored in the first after two were out on Williams' single and Pratt's double.

With the bases full in the third, Pratt's single drove in two more runs for St. Louis. Philadelphia tied the score in the fifth when Agnew dropped Johnson's assist, allowing Barry to score.

In the eighth Philadelphia bunched four singles with errors by Brief and Agnew, scoring three runs.

AUBURN OUTLASTS CLEMSON TIGERS

Ezell and Davis Lock Horns in Pitchers' Battle—Former Proves Steadier.

Auburn, Ala., May 8.—(Special.)—With Davis on the mound twirling sensational ball, Auburn won the first game of the series from Clemson here this afternoon—9 to 3.

Ezell, Clemson's premier pitcher, started with a ruck, pitching no-run no-hit ball until the fifth inning, striking out ten out of the first seventeen men before him.

He weakened in the sixth and the Auburn team scored three runs by bunting a single and two two-base hits with an error.

With the score tied in the sixth inning Auburn went ahead in the seventh, scoring two runs on a hit and a wild throw to second.

In order to clinch the game in the eighth Harris singled, Davenport followed with an infield hit, but Harris was thrown out overrunning third.

Locke was safe on a muff by Overton, and Davenport scored on Williams' two-bagger; Graydon hit safely, scoring Locke and Williams, and scored a ninth run later on Louisville's drive on second.

Davis was steady in the pinches, and not a deserved run was scored off his delivery. The three runs Clemson made were the results of errors of his teammates.

After the fourth the Auburn team settled down, and Clemson never threatened, except in the sixth, when Davis ended their chances by striking out two men.

Graydon scored the lone putout credited to the outfielders of both teams, the pinch hitting of the Auburn team.

O'CONNOR ROASTED WHEN HE FILES SUIT
St. Louis, May 8.—The St. Louis American club, in an answer filed in the circuit court today to the suit of Jack O'Connor, former manager of the local team, for $2,000 alleged to be due him, accuses O'Connor of unprofessional conduct.

The answer charges that in the doubleheader game between Cleveland and St. Louis here October 3, 1910, O'Connor instructed third baseman Cordeiro to play so far back of his regular and ordinary position as to allow LaJoie to make base hits that otherwise he could not have made.

The ball club denies that it had a contract with O'Connor for the season 1911, as O'Connor claims, and insists that even if it had such a contract he had forfeited it by his conduct in the LaJoie matter.

From Atlanta to Toxaway in an automobile a sightseeing tour, cannot be beat, according to C. A. Wood, lessee of the Georgian Terrace, who has just returned from an automobile trip to the North Carolina town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood left here Saturday morning over the National Highway, and reached Greenville, S. C., at night, having completed the 180-mile journey in about twelve hours.

From Greenville to Toxaway they followed the Greenville-Ashville highway, reaching Hendersonville, N. C., early Sunday morning, and arriving at Toxaway at noon. The return trip was made this week, and Mr. and Mrs. Wood arrived in Atlanta enthusiastic over the "auto hike." They have aroused the admiration and interest of local motor enthusiasts who have had that trip in contemplation.

Chase of Dress Fads by Women Causes High Cost of Living

Des Moines, Iowa, May 8.—The pursuit of American women for the varying fads of dress and their acceptance of designs from the European fashion centers as mandates in technique of dress, are directly responsible for the high cost of living in this country today, declared Professor Walter Sargent, of the School of Education of the University of Chicago, in an address today before the convention of the Western Drawing and Manual Training association.

This understanding was reached in conferences which Secretary Bryan had late today with President Wilson at the white house, and with Ambassador Chinda at the state department.

Secretary Bryan had to hurry away to Baltimore to attend a dinner there and he talked with Ambassador Chinda only a few minutes, arranging to meet him at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow, immediately after which by special arrangement the president and the cabinet will meet, one hour earlier than usual to discuss the Japanese protest.

Afterward Mr. Bryan will confer again with Ambassador Chinda, explaining the attitude of the administration.

This was a busy day for Secretary Bryan on his return from Sacramento, but he gave most of his time to the California situation, discussing it at length with John Bassett Moore, counselor of the department.

It is believed here the referendum movement being urged by Theodore Tilton, a prominent democrat in San Francisco, may have the effect of postponing the entire question of a period long enough for the United States and Japan to arrive at an understanding, or perhaps negotiate a new treaty covering disputed points.

While Secretary Bryan declined to discuss the referendum, and white house officials were equally reticent, it is known that friends of the administration have told the president there would be no difficulty in getting sufficient signers in California to compel a referendum at the polls on the art-tariff bill.

In the meantime, it is expected the president or Secretary Bryan will advise Governor Johnson of the attitude of the federal government. The gov-

WIMBERLY IS OPPOSED TO JURY EXEMPTIONS

Claims Present Law Keeps Many of Best People of the State From Jury Duty.

Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Hon. Minter Wimberly, one of the members of the legislature from Bibb county, wants the jury laws of the state revised so that there will be fewer exemptions. His chief complaint is against the selling of jury exemptions by the military companies at $50 each. He says that for this reason many of the best people of the county never serve on juries.

Mr. Wimberly is considering the advisability of introducing a bill at the coming session to bring about the change he desires. It is probable that such legislation will meet with considerable opposition. In view of the fact that it is from the sale of jury exemptions that the military companies are able to maintain their high state of efficiency.

Macon Women Quarrel.
Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—When Mrs. Beatrice Isaf, who resides on Oak street, told Recorder Daly this morning that Mrs. W. M. Sneed, her neighbor, had pointed a pistol at her during a dispute about the tearing down of a fence separating the two yards, Recorder Daly bound Mrs. Sneed over to the city court. She was not required to furnish bond.

Mrs. Sneed denies that she drew a pistol on Mrs. Isaf and in this she is backed up by her boarder, Mrs. Florence Wade. The latter admitted there had been a dispute about the fence but that no pistol was drawn.

Yardmaster Greer Injured.
Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—David A. Greer, yardmaster for the M. D. & S. railroad, is at the Williams sanitarium suffering from serious injuries received when he was caught and crushed between two freight cars in the yard yesterday morning. His left shoulder was badly bruised and his chest crushed.

The yardmaster was in the act of coupling two freight cars together when in some manner he was caught between the coupling. When released it was thought he had been fatally hurt, but now it is believed he has a good chance to recover.

Two Stillies Destroyed.
Macon, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Deputy Internal Revenue Collector J. C. Hinton today raided two illicit distilleries in Pike county, and made four arrests, three white men and a negro. The first raid was on the place of Bruce Smith, Harry Kendall, a negro, was caught, but a white man whom the deputy identified as Smith, fled. He was later arrested. Both were bound over to the United States jury under bonds of $300.

A short time after that raid the deputy flushed another "still," this time on the place of Walter J. Reeves, near Zebulon. Twenty-three barrels of beer were found ready for fermentation. Reeves and Roy Caldwell were arrested, waived commitment, and were held to the grand jury under bonds of $250 each.

RECEIVERSHIP SUIT TO LAST ANOTHER WEEK

The parallel cases of E. E. Skipper, et al. and Matthew Delaney, et al. against the Guarantee Trust and Banking company, petitioning for the appointment of a receiver for the banking company, occupied the attention of Fulton superior court on Thursday.

This was the second day's hearing and was without a great amount of progress. The hearing will probably extend into next week before its conclusion.

She Killed Her Babies.

Philadelphia, May 8.—Mrs. Mary Kulasa, 24 years of age, crept from her bed today, got a butcher knife and cut her two infant daughters' throats without arousing her sleeping husband. At the police station the woman hysterically cried she had slain the babies for religious reasons.

Eight Little Girls Raise Funds By Entertainment And Bring Presents to Sick Children in Hospital

Atlanta's youngest social workers organize to aid in children's ward, Grady hospital. In the center is Harriett Rhodes, president; and the members around her are as follows: Elizabeth Rhodes, Sarah Smith, Grace Ogden, Elizabeth Ogden, Virginia Farrow, Eleanor Gay and Araminta Edwards.

Impelled by the desire to help the suffering eight of Atlanta's north side children under Miss Harriett Rhodes, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rhodes, have organized themselves into the Junior Aid Society of the children's ward of the Grady hospital.

They rendered their first service when they called at the children's ward, bringing books, little dainties and toys to the little sick ones there. The gifts were bought with money the eight workers made themselves. They gave an entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rhodes to which they charged 5 cents admittance. With the $2.60 thus realized they bought the gifts they brought to the children. They will continue this work during the summer months for the sick, and their example will doubtless prove an inspiring one to the children of other neighborhoods during the vacation months.

The members of the club are Miss Harriett Rhodes, Miss Elizabeth Rhodes, Miss Sarah Smith, Miss Grace and Elizabeth Ogden, Miss Virginia Farrow, Miss Eleanor Gay and Miss Araminta Edwards.

The Railroad Young Men's Christian association has been running a thirty days' membership campaign, which comes to a close with a justification at the rooms, 311-2 West Alabama street, Friday night. Three teams have been in the field and have worked most industriously. As a result more than 300 names have been enrolled.

The captain of the winning team is to receive a gold watch. The second prize is a solid gold fob and the third a solid gold seal ring.

The leaders have been J. W. Whitaker, yardmaster of the Southern railway; L. M. Hunter, traveling freeman, Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway; and W. T. Hamilton, yard foreman, Atlanta Joint Terminal company.

"COSMOPOLITAN SHARES TO GO ABOVE PAR SOON"

The shares of the new Cosmopolitan Life Insurance company will go above par at the end of a year, according to William A. Wright, insurance commissioner.

"The stockholders of this company are fortunate in having such a man as I. O. Wynn as president," he said. "It is such men as he who have made Atlanta what it is. It would have been a calamity if the old Cosmopolitan had been allowed to go to pieces. I am glad to see that such a successful start has been made."

CONTRACTORS HOLD UP WORK ON BUILDING

The Mackie-Crawford Construction company on Thursday filed a petition at the Fulton county court house to enjoin Mrs. Mary W. Potts and the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company from doing further construction work upon the concrete building, in course of construction at the southwest corner of Peachtree and Linden streets, pending the payment of $4,483, which the Mackie-Crawford company claims is due them for construction of the concrete frame work of the building and minor work.

The Mackie-Crawford company sets forth that they did the work at the instruction of A. N. Canton, the supervising architect, and Mrs. Potts' agent, and payment of $4,483 remainder has been refused. Further work upon the building declares the petitioners, will conceal the work they have done and render proof of their work difficult.

Shortly after the closing of their contract for the work, the Mackie-Crawford company claims that Mrs. Potts transferred the Peachtree and Linden street property by warranty deed to the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, to secure a loan of $100,000.

BROOKLET FIGHT HARD TO FORM EAST BULLOCH

Statesboro, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—"I intend to make it my business to see all the people in the proposed territory within the next few days," said F. G. Waters, one of the leading citizens of Brooklet today.

A committee has been appointed to canvass the five militia districts which Brooklet is trying to form into the new county of East Bulloch. I am on the committee, and have seen many of the people in these districts, and in every instance their hearty approval has been obtained."

Brooklet, unlike the other towns around Statesboro, which are trying to get out of some of this county's rich soil, is asking for no territory from any other county, but wants a division of Bulloch county, making one east and one west Bulloch county—Statesboro remaining in West Bulloch. They claim it is only a "split" division, and are making their fight on this basis. Brooklet is situated in one of the richest sections of the state, and it and the surrounding territory are developing rapidly. It is true that a large number of people in the proposed territory favor the creation of East Bulloch. A systematic fight has been planned by the citizens of Brooklet.

CHANGING LIGHT BULB CAUSES MAN'S DEATH

Thomasville, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Heart failure, superinduced by a slight electric shock, was what physicians reported as the cause of the death of young Malcolm Jones, formerly of Meigs, but lately employed in business in this city, and whose funeral took place in Meigs today.

Young Jones was an employee of the Carolina company of this city, at their plant here, and while trying to change an electric bulb while working at the late hour Tuesday night, he received an electric shock and his death resulted a short time afterwards. The shock in itself is said to have been entirely too slight to have caused the young man's death, and an examination by physicians showed that the heart was in a condition that the shock, combined probably with fright, resulted in death.

Mr. Jones was about 19 years of age, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Meigs, and nephew of Mayor Wilkes, of that city.

METER IS PREPARING FOR GREAT BARBECUE

Information coming from the company, 10,000 people are expected on that day, and preparations have been made for their entertainment and welfare, plans for 150 heaves, sheep and other carcasses having been made. Meter is making a fight for the creation of Gander county, with that town the capital.

SOCIAL CONDITIONS TO BE INVESTIGATED

A preliminary survey of the city of Atlanta will be started by the Russell Sage foundation on June 9. Two expert investigators will come to the city, and make a great survey from every angle.

The housing of the poor, the condition of the streets, the work and progress of the churches, the amount of immorality, and, in fact, everything pertaining to the life of Atlantans will be investigated.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the committee on social services, of which R. L. Foreman is chairman, will meet in the committee chambers of the chamber of commerce to discuss the work.

Some Life Preservers

Since science has demonstrated that flies and mosquitoes are the most frequent conveyors of contagion and deadly diseases, screen doors and windows have truly preserved many lives by aiding us to avoid these pests. In these days of stock doors and adjustable windows, the cost of screening a residence is so comparatively small that it is almost unbelievable that anyone would do without them.

We carry a most complete line of Screen Doors and Windows in all stock sizes. Our doors range in price from a plain pine door, stained, at $1.00 each, to the finest solid oak frame door, with copper wire and grills, at $10.00 each.

Adjustable wood frame Windows, 25c to 65c each

Adjustable metal frame Windows, 35c to 75c each

We are prepared also to furnish special sizes of Doors and Windows to order.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL OF THE MARKETS

COTTON VERY STEADY AT CLOSE OF SESSION

Market Advanced Early, Then Eased Off and Rallied Late in Day.

New York, May 8.—After an early advance, the cotton market eased off under private reports of scattering showers or rains in the eastern belt, but sellers were not aggressive, and the market rallied in the late trading, with the close very steady, net 8 points higher to 2 points lower. The opening was steady at an advance of 4 to 8 points, in response to relatively firm cables, and during the first few minutes, on more optimistic foreign trade advices, and overnight complaints of drought in the cotton belt. Official weather reports showed no rain of consequence in the belt and the official forecast was for continued clear days or local rains in the coast, but a low barometer west of the belt led to private predictions that rains would reach eastern sections within the next two or three days. Moreover, during the middle of the morning, indicating scattering showers or rains in the Atlantic which seemed to relieve drought apprehensions to some extent, and during the middle of the day, with most of the active months selling off to a net decline of from 2 to 5 points. Covering by old shorts, and buying attributed to early to trade interests, checked the decline, and the market steadied up in the last hour on reports that the eastern belt rains had not been general enough to do much good, and exports of about 1,000 bales from the local stock. Old crop positions were relatively steady on the advance, with July showing the maximum gain at the close. Private crop reports were somewhat more conflicting than yesterday, there being more favorable advices from east of the river, and local bears claimed that more in to be feared from a wet March, but selling continued to be restricted by reports of a good demand from the continent for new crop positions in Liverpool, and continued uncertainty as to the new crop output of the United States.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 8.—The sales of wide print goods in the market here today have reached 400,000 pieces, and are generally brisk. Men's wear agents are letting out spot goods in quantities, and the market is being insured in sales sent in by the mills.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 8.—The cotton market declined on the advance of the cotton in New York, and opinion was not strong. It was much of a waiting market, the market being held by the weather reports concerning new crop conditions. The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 5 points, and during the first few minutes, on more optimistic foreign trade advices, and overnight complaints of drought in the cotton belt. Official weather reports showed no rain of consequence in the belt and the official forecast was for continued clear days or local rains in the coast, but a low barometer west of the belt led to private predictions that rains would reach eastern sections within the next two or three days. STOCKS AT STANDSTILL; MOVEMENTS NARROW

None of the Leading Issues Moved a Point Either Way.

New York, May 8.—Speculation drifted back into a lethargic condition today and movements of figures were narrow and meaningless. The sharp fluctuations earlier in the week seemed to have exhausted the resources of traders, for the time being, and on neither side of the market was there a disposition to take the initiative.

In the face of yesterday's brisk rally, bear traders made no attempt to operate extensively. At the same time, the market reflected the lack of buying power, the recent upturn apparently having been little more than demonstrations against the short interest. Under these conditions the market approached a state of deadlock today. None of the leading speculative stocks moved a point above or below yesterday's close.

This apathetic condition was illustrated by the market's singular lack of responsiveness to two important developments. The government report showing an improvement over the previous estimates, themselves highly satisfactory, and an indicated winter wheat crop of 51,000,000 bushels, compared with an indicated yield of this crop of 57,000,000 bushels. Publication of this report fell flat as a stock market influence.

The monthly figures of the copper producers, the second development, revealed a shrinkage in stock of nearly 200,000,000 pounds. Although a decline had been predicted, the amount was much in excess of estimates, bringing down the stocks of the metal to a level not advanced since last September. A slight advance in Amalgamated occurred after the appearance of the figures, but otherwise the showing passed unnoticed in the market.

There were few weak features. Canadian Pacific was pressed more than two points, on selling from Montreal, Chesapeake & Ohio, regarding which there has been talk of a possible reorganization, declined 1-4, the coupon fours 1-2, and Panama three's, 1-8 on call.

Bonds were irregular, but there was an undertone of firmness. Total sales, par value, $1,750,000. United States bonds registered at 100-1/4, the coupon fours 1-2, and Panama three's, 1-8 on call.

Foreign Finances.

London, May 8.—The weekly statement of the bank of England shows the following: Total reserves decreased 250,000.

Other securities decreased 1,023,000. Government securities decreased 1,000. The proportion of the bank's reserves to liabilities this week is 48.90 per cent; last week it was 48.75 per cent.

Paris, May 8.—The weekly statement of the bank of France shows the following changes: Treasury deposits increased 2,650,000. General deposits increased 2,650,000. Bills discounted decreased 187,625,000. Advances increased 23,550,000.

London, May 8.—Three per cent rates, 85 francs 7/8; 4 per cent, 85 francs 1/2. The proportion of the bank's reserves to liabilities this week is 48.90 per cent; last week it was 48.75 per cent.

Tigers Heavy Fined.

Brunswick, Ga., May 8.—(Special.) Whiskey sellers who have been convicted in the district court during the present week have received heavy fines and sentences. Two or three have been sentenced to serve twelve months in the chain gang or pay a fine of $700.
