

WAY IS PAVED TO TAKE CASE OF LEO M. FRANK BEFORE FEDERAL COURT

Through New Attorneys Claim Is Made That the Prisoner's Constitutional Rights Were Violated When He Was Not Brought Into Court to Hear Jury's Verdict.

DECLARES HIS LAWYERS HAD NO RIGHT TO WAIVE HIS PRESENCE IN COURT

Judge Ben Hill Fixes Hearing on Extraordinary Motion and on Petition of the New Attorneys for Next Wednesday Morning—Attorneys Make Statements.

In event the fight is lost in the courts of Georgia to save the life of Leo M. Frank, the way was paved yesterday to carry his case before the highest tribunal of our land—the United States supreme court in Washington.

This was made possible at 10 o'clock Thursday morning when Attorney John L. Tye, recently employed by Leo Frank, brought out before Judge Ben Hill during the retrial motion proceedings of the defense, the first constitutional rights issue of the Frank case.

Attorney Tye argued that the prisoner was unaware of the actions of his attorneys, L. Z. Rosser and Reuben R. Arnold, in waiving his appearance in the courtroom at the time the verdict was rendered last August. He declared that the defendant is constitutionally entitled to being present at such a time, and that counsel had no legal right to waive his presence on counsel's own initiative.

Asks Verdict Set Aside. Mr. Tye made a motion to set aside the verdict of the court on this particular ground. The motion was filed before Judge Hill, and will be argued next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time Judge Hill has set the date for the retrial hearing in his chambers in the old city hall building.

Attorney Tye's motion created a great surprise. The reading of his document preceded the filing of the motion for a new trial by Attorneys Arnold and Rosser on grounds of newly discovered evidence.

It was over a surprise that the firm of Tye, Peales & Jordan had been employed in the Frank defense. Members of Frank's committee yesterday afternoon in this concern had been employed only recently, and that it was brought into the case by Frank himself.

Mr. Tye's motion was based simply on the ground that the law insists that a defendant has no right—neither has counsel—to waive his presence at the time of a retrial. This announcement, however, that Frank knew nothing of the action of his lawyers in waiving his presence on the day the verdict of guilty was pronounced.

Frank was deprived of his legal right to be in court at the time the verdict was rendered, said Mr. Tye. It is a constitutional rights issue.

Stay of Execution. Following the filing of both motions, Judge Hill ruled that he would not serve on Solicitor Hugh Donay, which demands him to make a counter showing when the retrial motions come up to argument Wednesday, and which also, incidentally, stay the execution of Leo Frank which was scheduled for this morning between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock.

GIRL'S ASSAILANT SOUGHT BY POSSE

White Man Attacks Ten-Year-Old Child, Then Threatens to Kill Her if She Tells.

A dozen plain clothes policemen and detectives are scouring the western side of the city in search of a white man about 30 years of age, wearing a black suit of clothes, brown hat, and with a black mustache, who yesterday about sundown attacked a 10-year-old girl.

The crime was committed near the child's home in an old outhouse in a vacant lot on Marietta street, near the National Furniture company.

The girl stated that she called to her to come over to him, and that when she did so, he took her up in his arms and carried her into the empty house.

The squad of policemen and detectives who are working on the case are being assisted by a posse of citizens who live in the neighborhood of the young girl's home. Violence to the offender is probable if he happens to fall into the hands of the citizens.

The young girl did not tell her father until last night about 9 o'clock, stating that the man threatened to kill her if she told anyone of the affair. The police were immediately notified, and diligent search is being made.

TRADED ANOTHER CHILD FOR THE DUNBAR BOY

Girl Witness to Declare She Saw Tinker Make the Swap.

Opelousas, La., April 16.—The prosecution in the trial of W. C. Walters on the charge of kidnapping 5-year-old Robert Dunbar, will produce a witness who will swear to seeing Walters trade a boy for the child now in the possession of the Dunbars, according to a statement of District Attorney Garland here today. He said Miss Kate Collins, of Poplarville, Miss., saw the trade, and was close enough to identify both Walters and the boy.

This opens a wide range of possibilities in the case, chief of which is that the boy the Dunbars claim as their son really is Robert Dunbar, and that Bruce Anderson still is alive. Julia Anderson maintains the boy the Dunbars have is her son. If the testimony of Miss Collins is given as expected and substantiated, it will not effect the charge against Walters under the Louisiana law.

PELHAM POLICE CHIEF INDICTED FOR MURDER

The Indictment Grows Out of Shooting on Public Street Sunday Afternoon.

Pelham Ga., April 16.—(Special)—After an investigation lasting through Wednesday and today, the Mitchell county grand jury returned an indictment against Chief of Police D. C. Campbell, charging him with murder.

Campbell killed John Harrell on a street of Pelham, Sunday afternoon. Harrell was returning from a party, accompanied by Walters and Police Officer C. Haire and J. C. DeGratzen who were held on warrants charging murder.

As Campbell was wounded, it is not known whether the case will be tried at this time of court or not.

CHOATE SAYS PACT MEANT TO INCLUDE SHIPS OF AMERICA

Official Correspondence Shows Treaty Was Intended to Exclude Exemption of Any American Vessels.

TAFT'S ADDRESS USED BY REPEAL ADVOCATES

The Ex-President Says He Thought He Was Granting Subsidy When He Signed Panama Canal Act.

Washington, April 16.—Joseph H. Choate, American ambassador to Great Britain during the negotiation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, believes correspondence with the British government sent at that time precludes the idea that American coastwise shipping can be exempted from paying tolls through the Panama canal.

Former President Taft who signed the Panama canal act containing the exemption clause thought that in doing so he was granting a subsidy to American coastwise shipping and believes that unless congress reverses itself the United States will have to submit the question to arbitration.

These points, both welcomed by repeal advocates were brought out today at the hearing before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals. Senator Simmons introduced a transcript of an address delivered by Mr. Taft before the Canadian club at Ottawa last January, and Mr. Choate's views were submitted in a letter to Henry White secretary of the American embassy at London, while Mr. Choate was ambassador, accompanied by Walters and dressed by him to Secretary of State Hay explaining the progress of the negotiations.

Mr. Choate declared in a letter to the committee that his official correspondence established beyond question the intent of the parties in the negotiations, that the treaty should mean exactly what it says and excluded the possibility of the exemption of any kind of vessels of the United States and Great Britain is the constant theme.

In his speech Mr. Taft was quoted as saying: "We shall doubtless have."

SPLINTER IN FINGER CAUSES THE DEATH OF EATONTON MAN

Eatonton, Ga., April 16.—(Special)—After an illness of only a few days of tetanus, Leon D. Jones, of this city and formerly of Syracuse, N. Y. died last night at the home of his stepson C. M. A. Smith. The remains were carried to New York this morning for interment.

Several days ago Mr. Jones, who was 75 years of age, struck a splinter in his finger. It remains set in from the wound, after a few hours, and he died in a few days.

He was the son of Cornelius R. Jones, the inventor of the differential block tackle. Since coming to Eatonton, with his family, he had made many friends.

He is survived by one brother and a son, who reside in New York, and were here at his death; a stepson, C. W. A. Smith, and his family, who reside here.

There was a short funeral service at the home.

STATE UNION LABOR TO ENTER POLITICS AS ORGANIZED BODY

Resolution Calling for Political Organization Unanimously Passed by Annual Convention at Macon.

EX-GOVERNOR BROWN SUBJECT OF ATTACK

Organized Union Labor of State Will Fight Former Governor if He Enters Race for United States Senate.

Macon, Ga., April 16.—(Special)—The Georgia Federation of Labor, in annual convention here today, unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing the president of the federation to call a meeting of the delegations immediately after the convention adjourns for the purpose of organizing the state labor political association.

A resolution to this effect was introduced by Louis Marquardt, of Atlanta, chairman of the committee on president's message. It stated the object of the proposed association to be that of having labor legislation enacted and to get labor men in office wherever possible.

Though nothing was said in the resolution that would justify it, it was reported after today's meeting that one of the things that prompted the resolution was in order that an organized fight might be made against Joseph M. Brown if he announces for the United States senate.

The committee appointed at the last convention to make reply to former Governor Brown's alleged attack on organized labor reported today. The report was brief simply stating that the committee had made answer to the address by the ex-governor in a manner creditable to the movement and with honor and with dignity, the answer was printed and copies are available for all who want them.

The report ended by saying that "it is hoped that never again will the people of the state have their ears offended by such abuse."

Would Fight Brown's Candidacy. When an effort was made by E. P. Anderson, of Rome, to have $142,000 in what is known as the "Joe Brown fund" contributed to the striking textile workers at Rome, several delegates objected on the ground that "the money will be needed to fight Brown if he announces for the senate."

Other remarks uncomplimentary to the former governor were made by W. C. Puckett, of Atlanta, and C. C. Opre, of Macon.

President Marks declared, however, that "it is more important to aid the textile workers than it is to fight Joe Brown." Finally, the convention voted $100 to the textile workers.

The convention endorsed a number of legislative matters today, including the following: Bill pending for a barber's license law. Bill in congress providing that railroad firemen and roadmasters be required to stand efficiency tests. Fifty-four hour bill to be presented to coming legislature providing that no women or minors work more than 14 hours in any one week or more than 14 a day.

Gen. Huerta's Offer To Salute the Flag Accepted by Wilson

Formal Apology to United States for Arrest of Bluejackets Will Be Followed by Customary Return Salute to Mexican Tri-Color by America.

ALL ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT CRISIS IS ENDED

Time Not Yet Set for Firing Salute and Battleships Have Not Been Recalled—Large Naval Force Will Probably Be Kept in Mexican Waters.

Washington, April 16.—The United States government tonight accepted General Huerta's offer to salute the Stars and Stripes as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico a week ago today. The Huerta government's salute to the American flag will be answered with a salute to the tri-color of the Mexican nation.

This arrangement, the details of which were being finally arranged to night in an exchange of official messages between Washington and Mexico City, ended, in the view of all high administration officials, the crisis that had resulted in the dispatch of American war fleets to Mexican waters. Executive officers and congressmen breathed a sigh of relief that the tension had passed.

No time has been set for the firing of the salute, and, until the details are arranged, no further orders will be sent to the American fleets now proceeding south. It is practically certain, however, that while many of the vessels will be turned back, others will continue south, and a substantially increased naval force will be maintained in Mexican waters.

INJURED IN CRASH, OFFICER IS DYING

Policeman J. W. McWilliams, While Riding a Motorcycle, Strikes a Wagon. His Skull Is Fractured.

Police Officer J. Walter McWilliams Jr., while speeding out Plat Shoals road on his motorcycle last night about 7:30 o'clock, crashed into a wagon, striking the right front wheel. The officer was thrown over the handle bars of his machine, and his head struck the wheel fracturing the skull about two inches. His forehead was terribly lacerated. As a result of the accident he is in a dying condition at the Grady hospital. The motorcycle was completely demolished, the frame being bent double, and the front wheel shattered.

The wagon was driven by an uncle of McWilliams named J. F. Brown, of Reynoldstown.

The accident occurred near the corner of Flat Shoals road and South Moreland avenue. No orders to the American bluejackets were given until the final details of the salute have been arranged.

Less than forty-eight hours after President Wilson had ordered the Atlantic and Pacific fleets to Mexican waters and had informed General Huerta that unless a salute was fired to stone for repeated offenses against the flag of the United States there would be serious consequences, the answer came—a complete acceptance of the demand of the Washington government.

Immediately there was a change in the atmosphere of official Washington. As the storm clouds lifted and a wave of satisfaction spread through official quarters President Wilson arranged to go to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the week end, and Secretary Bryan.

WISSECTOR ON TRIAL FOR CRUELTY TO DOGS

Six Members of Pennsylvania School Under Indictment.

Philadelphia, April 16.—The trial of Dr. Joshua E. Sweet, a member of the faculty of the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, charged with cruelty to dogs after vivisection operations, was continued today in quarter sessions court here.

The prosecution was brought at the instance of the Woman's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. In addition to Dr. Sweet, five other physicians, members of the faculty, are under indictment. Witnesses testified that the accused had done nothing to alleviate the sufferings of dogs after they had been operated upon.

Counsel for Dr. Sweet, in opening the case of the defense, declared that vivisection possible known to science was done for the comfort of dogs that were operated on and that they were humanely asphyxiated when necessary. Dr. Sweet and Dr. R. M. Pearce, also under indictment, called in their own behalf, denied charges of wanton cruel treatment, poor food and neglect.

man of the foreign relations committee, visited the white house, he learned from Secretary Bryan of the proposal from General Huerta to yield to the American government. The Indiana senator, who had studied carefully all the possibilities in the situation, was quick to agree that the United States government could not refrain from answering the Mexican apologetic guns and, when questioned by senators at the capitol later, should there be a return salute was in accordance with international custom.

WOODWARD WELCOMES WATER AND LIGHT MEN

Two Hundred Delegates Assemble for Opening Session at the Piedmont Hotel.

The Tri-State Water and Light association of the Carolinas and Georgia opened its annual convention Thursday morning in the convention room of the Piedmont hotel with about 200 delegates in attendance. Mayor Woodward delivered the welcoming address, with response by W. F. Steglitz, chairman of Columbia, S. C. The convention was presided over by C. Schaeffer, Jr., and A. J. Sproules, president of the association, gave the annual address of the president, Joel Hunter, of Atlanta, spoke along the lines of accounting systems for water and light departments, and a talk upon watt-hour meters was made by L. W. Carnegy, of Atlanta. Forestry and Water Resources. The convention adjourned for lunch and reopened at 3 o'clock, when H. S. Graves, chief forester of the department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., spoke upon "Forestry and Water Resources." Mr. Graves said: "The problem of control of our water sources is one of the most important problems of internal development of the country. Streams are becoming more irregular every year and the use of water resources becoming more and more intensive. The value of property affected either by floods or by irregularities of flow, has become so great as to make the control of streams relatively of much greater importance than formerly. Even where actual floods have not increased in amount, the damage by them has increased. Measures must therefore be taken immediately which only a few years ago were not essential. The constantly increasing demand upon water resources through our greater industrial development demands that the river problem be vigorously attacked at once." This talk was followed by a scientific address of pronounced merit by M. F. Corbin, of Philadelphia, upon "Water and Its Purification for Industrial Purposes."

Methodist Leaders Coming For Old-Fashioned Revival

Bishop John C. Kilgo, one of the great leaders in southern Methodism, arrives in Atlanta today to be one of the principal speakers at the big old-fashioned revival which starts tonight at 7:45 o'clock at St. Paul's Methodist church. The revival, which will go back to the old Sam Jones days for its inspiration, will last for a week. It is hoped the church will be filled to the doors tonight to welcome Bishop Kilgo, who is the principal speaker for the evening. There will be a strong service to open the Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock, led by Professor Excell, the famous revival leader who will be here to take charge of the music throughout the revival. A large chorus choir has been organized among the Methodists, which will participate in all of the services. All Methodists, and, in fact, all the Protestant evangelical churches in Atlanta, are invited to the services and are urged to help make the revival a success. At the 11 o'clock service Saturday, Bishop Kilgo will preach and on Saturday night at 7:45, he will preach again. On Sunday there will be a Sunday school rally at 9 a. m., and preaching at the regular service at 11 o'clock, with Bishop Kilgo and other speakers. On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There will be a great mass meeting for men only, to be addressed by Bishop Kilgo. There will also be regular night services. Dr. Plato Durham, the noted pulpit orator, will arrive Monday morning from Charlotte to assist Dr. Fraser and Bishop Kilgo in the revival, and Dr. Charles L. Grant, pastor of St. Paul's church, New York, the largest Methodist church in the world, will be here early in the week. There will be a mass meeting at the city hall for next week's daily services will be announced Monday. A. A. the church will be held in St. Paul's church at the corner of Grant and Sidney streets. The Woodward avenue to Grant Park car will run right by the church, and the Georgia avenue to Grant Park pass within a short block of the church. The headquarters for Bishop Kilgo and the other out-of-town speakers will be the Madison hotel. Dr. Fraser is planning to model these meetings after the old Methodist revivals which accompanied the revival good throughout the south years ago, but which have been rather infrequent in this part of the country during the past few years. The object is not to confine the interest entirely to the Methodist church, but to bring to the meetings, which will be of interest and benefit to the entire community.

SERVANT REMEMBERED IN WILL OF DR. TODD

Benjamin Pleasant, an old family servant, was not forgotten in the will of Dr. James Scott Todd, which was filed for probate yesterday with the ordinary. Dr. Todd left him $1,000, which he is to receive in the income, with the provision that, at the testator's death, the principal be placed in the home for supernannuated ministers of the North Georgia Methodist conference. The will divides the remainder of Dr. Todd's fortune of $150,000, among his four children, Mrs. Louise Todd Wallace, James Scott Todd, Jr., James R. Todd and Henry W. Todd. From his daughter's share, $1,500 is to be taken and divided equally among the other three children. This, the will says, is in part justice to them for certain extra expenses incurred by the daughter during Dr. Todd's lifetime.

The boy was dragged by the car half a block, a number of horrified spectators witnessed the accident. Gibson was riding his bicycle, which hit the car, throwing him underneath the wheels.

L. C. Daniel, the young son of L. J. Daniel of Atlanta, who is attending college at Riverside Military academy at Gainesville, and who has been ill for some time with pneumonia, grew worse yesterday and his condition is critical. His father, who returned Thursday morning from a trip to Gainesville to see his son, returned to the bedside again Thursday afternoon and will likely remain until the crisis is passed.

2,312 CASES TREATED BY ATLANTA CHARITIES

The Associated Charities of Atlanta has rendered its eighth annual report, which shows that 2,312 cases and 6,479 individuals were helped by the organization during the past year and $7,232.18 was expended in doing so. ATHENS VISITED BY $45,000 FIRE

Athens, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—Fire originated at 7:30 tonight in the store of Eberhardt & Davis, damaged that business and the stock of M. Link & Son, next door, to the extent of about $40,000, estimated, with $5,000 loss on the building, which is owned by the Deupree estate. In the absence of the fire chief, the work of the department, against unusual fire, looked toward property in the big block valued at $500,000.

WARN PUBLIC TO KEEP OFF RAILROAD TRACKS

Chamber of Commerce Committee Shows 5,000 Trespassers Are Killed Annually.

The public safety committee of the chamber of commerce met in the office of the chamber Thursday afternoon and discussed matters regarding public safety. The committee decided to begin at once to educate the public in the dangers of trespassing on railroad tracks. Letters are being sent to every member of the chamber of commerce and other civic bodies of the state calling attention to the matter and asking that they agitate it in their various communities. It is said that out of 10,000 people killed annually by railroads, 5,000 are trespassers. The railroads are not responsible, nor hold liable, for deaths so caused, although they sometimes agree to pay burial expenses. Laws preventing such trespassing are now enforced in England and Germany. The bill to be introduced at the next legislature restricting "pistol toting" is the outcome of careful consideration on the part of the public safety committee. The committee on legislation of the chamber of commerce, Albert Howell, Jr., chairman, is at present drawing a bill on hydrophobia to be presented at the next legislature, which requires the muzzing of all dogs in Ware county for a given period of time. This bill was drawn by request of the public safety committee. Our observation is that it is mighty hard for a 19-year-old girl to have good teeth, two dimples and a growth at the same time.

BAGWELL GRADUATE SCORES HOME RUN IN FIRST GAME WITH SUCCESS

Geo. W. Hoffer, After Only Eight Weeks' Training at Bagwell Business College, "Makes Good" in the Major League of Business Life. The Manager Writes That His Work Is Entirely Satisfactory.

Every American boy knows instantly what it means when the captain says, "Play it safe." If you are going to make a "home run" to success—if you are going to "play it safe"—you must take the road which guarantees success. The hundreds of letters received by Bagwell Business College from the leading business houses giving their unqualified indorsement to the efficiency of its graduates are most conclusive evidence of the superiority of Bagwell methods and systems. Short-hand and typewriting, book-keeping, banking and modern office methods as taught by this institution have the way not only to immediate recognition in a paying situation, but to higher position, firm membership and the best that life affords. Skilled amanuenses, accountants and office assistants are in tremendous demand. The unskilled are a drug in the market. Atlanta business men are willing to pay large salaries to helpers that really help.

GEO. W. HOFFER.

Atlanta, Ga., April 9, 1914. Mr. J. C. Bagwell, President Bagwell Business College, Atlanta, Ga. Dear Sir—Mr. George W. Hoffer, the young man whom we secured from your college, has been doing our stenographic work for the past two or three weeks in a very satisfactory manner. You may be sure that we would not keep him if his work was not satisfactory, as we have no time to waste in bothering with slow stenographers or correcting the errors of faulty typewriting. Thanking you for your service in this connection, I am, Very truly yours, (Signed) W. A. RODGERS, Mgr. Bagwell College teaches business as no other school in this section teaches Style in clothes is like good breeding in a man—without these, clothes and men are just ordinary.

Like good breeding, style comes from within; it's not temporary, nor mere veneer. Only skilled designing makes it evident, and lasting through months of wear.

THE TIDE BEGINS TO RISE. The most significant real estate development in Atlanta in a year is the purchase of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose corner for $9,200 a front lot by the C. W. McClure Realty company. The price is top-notch for Atlanta real estate. The transaction was on a cash basis. No property exchanges or other considerations entered into it. The deal was not speculative.

A keynote feature is the record and character of the purchaser. C. W. McClure is not a plunger and does not trade on impulse. He is one of the most far-seeing and conservative business men in Atlanta. When he is willing to break all price precedents for Atlanta real estate. The transaction was on a cash basis. No property exchanges or other considerations entered into it. The deal was not speculative.

BE A SPORT! New Orleans, in addition to being picturesque and a charming place in which to live, is one of the best sporting towns in the world. Among the first requisites of the good sport is to be a "good loser." We fear the Crescent City is running badly off form with regard to the regional bank competition. We live in an age of facts. Facts and figures are what counted in the regional bank competition. And that is why Atlanta got the bank.

TOUCHING SOLICITUDE. A gently diverting feature in American politics today is disclosed in the complexion of the newspapers losing sleep over the possibility that congress may disregard the Panama canal tolls plank of the democratic platform. From the din these brethren raise, and the tears they lavish, the unsophisticated would jump to the conclusion that they have a special and holy commission to safeguard every plank of a tedious and somewhat arid platform. Alas, however, these self-appointed keepers of the democratic platform are mostly republican, bull moose or mugwump.

THE PROFIT IN PAINTING UP. The clean-up and paint-up crusade now being preached and practiced in Atlanta has the two distinct phases of actual monetary profit and of ethical uplift. The financial consideration arises in the fact that a house newly painted is a more valuable market asset than a dingy and unlovely house with the paint peeling off. The aesthetic and ethical sides lie in the beneficial effect of bright and harmonious colors upon the mind of the mature adult, and their greater effect upon the receptive mind of the growing child.

from the mental as well as the physical standpoints. And it is a city that advertises its character in definite terms to the casual visitor from the four quarters of the earth. These facts have concrete application in their bearing upon the horde of visitors to be expected during grand opera and Shriners' week. They are also of permanent pertinence, since once Atlanta has seen the intrinsic and moral values in cleaning up and painting up, the creed is likely to be a self-perpetuating one.

CONGRESS BACKS PRESIDENT. One of the most admirable traits of the American character is illustrated in the unanimity with which congressmen of every political complexion are backing the Mexican stand of President Wilson. During the prolonged and exasperating interchanges with Huerta there have been frequent criticisms of the president's policy. Now that the national dignity and honor are involved, and that matters seem nearing a crisis, all divergencies are forgotten and the president faces the situation strengthened with the consciousness that his hands are everywhere upheld.

Certainly no Latin-American country and no country in Europe can complain that the United States has not been patient enough in dealing with Mexico. It is a practical certainty that had the average European power been given the provocation visited on our own nation intervention would long ago have become a fact. And it is not assured that intervention would not have been without a selfish motive. As it is, the most carping critic and partisan cannot accuse the administration of any designs upon the territorial integrity of Mexico. We have waited, "watchfully," until Huerta has construed forbearance to be a weakness. It is time that he and the world were taught the distinction between constructive diplomacy and impotence to make a historic decision.

The press comment upon the president's determined attitude is almost universally of an approving and enthusiastic nature. The only exceptions come from those papers of nondescript or adjustable convictions, which now sneer unbelievably at the very course into which they have been systematically striving to drive the president by every trick known to venom, malice, misrepresentation and studied insults to American intelligence.

BE A SPORT! New Orleans, in addition to being picturesque and a charming place in which to live, is one of the best sporting towns in the world. Among the first requisites of the good sport is to be a "good loser." We fear the Crescent City is running badly off form with regard to the regional bank competition. We live in an age of facts. Just from Georgia. The Winning Word. The war talk, it seems, is a-ringing. Far over mountain and plain, But still a word thrills through the valleys and hills: "Steam up the Prosperity Train!"

It sings in the song of the rivers: "Still cups of sweetness to drain; The green fields will spread Every table with bread— Steam up the Prosperity Train!"

From the Moonshiner Belt. The Mountain Patriarch has these interesting items: "A revenue detective was run over by a railroad train. If he wishes in the moonshine boys will play the fiddle at his funeral." "There is a man in this county who mortgaged an acre of land for a barrel of high-bead."

DISTRACTING NOISES. WILSON SENDING WAR FLEET TO MEXICO. A cartoon showing a man in a top hat and military-style coat pointing towards a ship. The ship has a sign that says "WILSON SENDING WAR FLEET TO MEXICO".

The True Spirit. "Mollie is the gal with the true American spirit, said the proud Billville father. 'Why, what's she been a-doin' of now?' 'Well, 'tother day, whilst she wuz a-drivin' to town, the whip got lost in the river an' she jumped to the roadside an' grabbed a big biggen snake, used that snake fer a whip the whole way, a-gwine an' a-comin'!"

The Rain Song. Rain on de meeders twinklin' ter de skies, An' no evn' it's a-rainin' 'roun' de hill feller's eyes. Cheer up, honey—sun is bound ter rise An' peep tho' de winder in de mawnin'.

New Provincial Catechism. "Who made the earth?" "Why, the good Lord, of course." "Who owns it?" "The good Lord, of course." "Deacon Rockefeller?"

A Field Song. Climb, Mister Hot Sun, Ter de middle, of de sky, Sho' ter be a harvest An' rest-time by an' by.

How He Viewed It. "I done my part by the boys," said the proud parent. "I educated John to be a scholar an' Dick to make a livin'."

Free Music. No crowded, stuffin' dome for me— Uncertain songs and words, But a front seat on a fallen tree At a concert of the birds.

How One Author Gets Even. "It's great to be editor and proprietor of a magazine when a fellow's in the writing business himself," said the Fortunate One, "submit my own stuff to my own self, never enclosing return postage, as I pass on it myself, I order a fat check sent to myself, and have the poem or story placed ten pages from advertising matter!"

The New Orleans View And Uncle Sam's View As to the Federal Bank. AS NEW ORLEANS SEES IT. The following cartoon from The New Orleans Item seems to express sentiments typical in New Orleans as regards Atlanta's winning the regional bank.

A cartoon showing Uncle Sam and a man in a suit. Uncle Sam is holding a sign that says "I GUESS WE BOTH LOOK FUNNY". The man in the suit is holding a sign that says "N.O. BANKER".

AS UNCLE SAM SEES IT. There is a slight variance between the views of New Orleans and those of the government, as expressed in the regional bank committee's analysis, here quoted, of the respective financial standing of New Orleans and Atlanta:

Table with columns: CITY, Sept. 1904, Mch. 1914, Inc. Atlanta, $2,400,000, $3,200,000, 25% New Orleans, $2,500,000, $2,700,000, 8%.

COMMENT OF CONTEMPORARIES. "Gin Fizz." That's All! (From The Hattiesburg (Miss.) News) New Orleans, in our opinion, was the logical point for one of the regional banks to be located in the south; but did not get it.

"The Baby Act." (From The Pensacola Journal) New Orleans is making a ridiculous spectacle of herself in the federal reserve bank matter and her whole attitude is characteristically New Orleans. The Crescent City has always been more or less (mostly more) of a hog, and the idea of any other southern city getting anything, when even a remote reason existed for New Orleans wanting it, never sits well with that greedy river port.

GOVERNOR SLATON IS ADVOCATING NO ONE WHO IS RUNNING. Governor John M. Slaton, candidate for the United States senate, occupies the unique position in the great and glorious state of Georgia of advocating no one for governor or for any of the several fat political plums to be disposed of at the August primary. He writes himself regarding the candidacy of someone. He is running his own race, and has no connection whatever with the race of anyone else. And, what is more, he will have no connection with any other race. He is, to use the words of the late Alexander Stephens, "totin' his own skillet."

INTERESTING SITUATION ARISES IN BIBB COUNTY POLITICS. An interesting situation has arisen in the politics of Bibb county, and considerable gossip is going the rounds in regard to it. The name of Judge Nat E. Harris has been frequently mentioned as a possible or probable candidate for governor, and he has been warmly urged to make the race. Should he consent, he would, in all probability, be the last confederate veteran to enter such a contest in the state of Georgia.

ACTION OF COBB COUNTY COMMITTEE BRINGS STILL ANOTHER PROTEST. Against the action of the Cobb county executive committee in passing resolutions asking Governor Slaton to resign, in order that the Frank case might not come up for official action, the following is a copy of a recent date of the Cobb county committee: "While we are not prepared to espouse the candidacy of Governor Slaton for the senate, and have never been a part of his, we do not hesitate to condemn the action of the democratic executive committee of Cobb county in calling for the resignation of the governor, alleging that in their opinion he was holding on to the governorship so that he might be able to pardon."

RAINEY ANNOUNCES TO SUCCEED HIMSELF ON PRISON COMMISSION. E. L. Rainey will no doubt be nominated to succeed himself as prison commissioner. He was appointed to succeed the late Wiley Williams, of Columbus, and has made an excellent record. Mr. Rainey represented Terrell county in the legislature for five years, was superintendent for the second Georgia district of the last census, and served as a member of the board of trustees of the state sanitarium when appointed on the prison commission.

LEVEL CONVENTS IN PROGRESS. FOR CLAY COUNTY OFFICES. Rome Ga., April 16—(Special)—The entries for the Floyd county primary, which will be held on April 25 will close tomorrow, and all candidates whose names are to appear on the official ballot must enter and pay their expenses before that time. Levelly contests are in progress for many of the county offices. One candidate who, it appears, will have no opposition, however, is Judge W. J. Nunnally, one of the present Floyd county judges in the legislature. He is seeking the judgeship of the city court of Floyd county and will probably be unopposed Judge John H. Reese, who has held the position for the past four years, and going to the polls and losing the office at the expiration of his term, on October 1, 1915.

BIBB COUNTY VOTERS ASK THOMAS TO ENTER THE RACE. Nashville, Ga., April 16—(Special)—Polls are booming in Berrien county. There are 200 registered voters in the county. A strong endorsement of Judge Thomas for governor is being forwarded to Valdosta, urging him to become a candidate.

HON. J. L. BRITAIN ENDORSED BY THE OXNICE COUNTY BOARD. Watkinson, Ga., April 16—(Special)—The Oxonice county board of education has heartily endorsed Hon. M. L. Britain, state superintendent of education, for re-election to this important position. His administration of the affairs of that office is highly commended. The board at a recent meeting passed the following resolution unanimously: "Resolved, That we vote with gratitude the splendid efforts of Hon. M. L. Britain, state school superintendent, for the advancement of our schools and educational interests; in appreciation of his administration of the affairs of this important office, and assure him of our hearty support in the coming primary."

MIDDLE REGISTRATION BOOKS SHOW INCREASE OF 200 NAMES. Thomson, Ga., April 16—(Special)—McClure county's registration books closed April 15. The total registered voters, 279. About 200 more names are registered than ever before.

My duties have taken me practically all over the state, and I have studied with considerable interest the many problems which confront a prison commissioner. While the office brings responsibilities and duties that are sometimes onerous, I have become interested in the work, and, if the people will

The weather will probably remain fine for a day or two longer, unless somebody gets up a picnic.

The lovely luncheon table was perfect in all its appointments with the exquisite flowers forming the pretty centerpiece, the dear old peach-like bloom, in one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over this beautiful time and season are rarely seen. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restores that marvelous pinkish color and softness in a remarkable manner. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax, it being smeared on like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face may be treated by solving 1/2 oz powdered saxolite in 1/2 pt witch hazel will be found wonderfully efficacious. This causes the lax skin causing it to remain firm and smooth—(adv.)

Mrs. Charles McGehee entertained seventy-five ladies at a beautiful luncheon yesterday in compliment to her guests.

Mrs. McGehee was as lovely as the spring flowers surrounding her, and wore a taffeta gown in the soft shade coloring, the center of peach blossoms.

In the different apartments, where the guests were served in groups, there were spring flowers in all the delicacy of their color and perfume.

The trying hats of the season did not detract from the beauty of the ladies, who wear as gracefully the full panter skirts, as they did those narrower ones of last season.

Mrs. Ogeton wore a stylish toilet in all black, the short coat opening over a blouse of sheerest white lace.

Mrs. Willis Westmoreland's black moire silk suit was given a touch of color in blue velvet, and her hat upturned with blue, was given height in black paradise plumes.

Mrs. Don A. Pardee entertained the members of her bridge club yesterday at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Memorial Association. A meeting of the Ladies' Memorial association is called for this morning at 11 o'clock, at Carnegie library.

Mr. Joseph Gattin is rapidly recovering from the slight injuries received last Saturday in the jumping class entry in the pony show.

Miss Gertrude Jones, of Selma, Ala., will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Aver during one's visit.

Mr and Mrs. Charles A. Bowen have returned from the north.

Mrs. H. F. Mather and Mrs. Ralph Mills of Charlotte, N. C. will be the guests of Mrs. Sam Pegram opera week.

BROUGHTON AGAIN NAMED PRESIDENT Atlanta People on Roster of Officers of Sunday School Association—The Convention Comes to Close.

By Rev. Thomas M. Elliott. (Special.)—The city of Atlanta and the Atlanta Sunday school workers came off with flying colors in the Georgia Sunday School association convention, which came to a close here tonight.

A special instance of according honor to the Gate City occurred late last night, when pledges were being made by the counties of the state for the support of the association work for the coming year.

One of the leading other features of the convention today was the decision to send as delegates to the international convention to be held in Chicago in June 120 men and women from Georgia.

The details of the program for today made prominent the work of the organized counties of the state. Of the seventy-eight counties that have been organized in the past two years, seventeen of them have attained banner standard of perfection. The representatives of these banner counties were today honored by having presented to them for their counties, beautiful banners.

Addresses were made today and tonight by E. E. French, of Nashville; A. B. Caldwell, of Atlanta; Hammond Johnson, of Gainesville; W. L. Abbott, of Acworth; Dr. E. C. Dargan, of Macon; Dr. L. O. Bricker, of Atlanta; Rev. Henry B. May, of Atlanta; L. C. Pennington, of Eastman; Rev. W. R. Dillard, of Augusta.

The grand lodge, Knights of Honor, met at the Kimball yesterday and the following officers were elected for two years: Grand dictator, O. B. Ruston, Glenview; grand vice-dictator, R. S. Osborn, Hapeville; grand assistant dictator, J. H. Poute, Cartersville; grand reporter and treasurer, T. H. Shookler, Marietta; grand guardian, A. E. Shullifer, Atlanta; grand sentinel, S. R. Johnson, representative to the supreme lodge, L. S. Ledbetter, Cedar-town.

The Retail Credit company held a house warming in their new office in the Hestley building yesterday, which was attended by the officers, and about 200 of their friends, including many ladies.

The details of the program for today made prominent the work of the organized counties of the state. Of the seventy-eight counties that have been organized in the past two years, STEWARDS AND PASTOR DISCUSS LOCKER CLUBS Strict Secrecy Enjoined Upon All Attending Meeting at First Methodist.

Strict secrecy was enjoined upon all those who participated Thursday night in a special conference between the stewards of the First Methodist church and its pastor, Rev. E. J. Dwyer.

The meeting of the stewards lasted for two hours. The participants were invited to their refusal to tell what had occurred.

WIN AN AUTOMOBILE IN PRIZE CAMPAIGN Continued From Page One. To start, it costs nothing to be nominated for honors in this campaign.

Simple rules govern this contest, and all is done that can be done to place the contest in the hands of the reach of industrious, conscientious workers.

THE CONSTITUTION is doing its share toward helping you. Are you willing to do your part toward helping yourself? Do it now by accepting this opportunity today and send in your name.

Every energetic candidate who enters this race will receive an award. Cut out the nomination blank, which is found on the editorial page of this issue, fill in your name or that of a friend and send in today, and full particulars will be furnished you by return mail.

These cars were selected with special regard to their greatest value of the money invested.

As the first grand prize to be awarded is a $1000 touring car, the candidate for the largest number of votes in each division, regardless of district, will receive a $1000 touring car.

In each of the nine districts an award was selected, thought to be commensurate with the efforts of those who obtain the highest score in votes after the first of the second grand prize have been given out.

Dr. W. B. Summerville, superintendent of Grady hospital, spoke to the ad men yesterday at their weekly luncheon, on the need for a greater Grady hospital.

AT THE THEATERS. Otis Skinner in "Kismet." (At the Atlanta.) Klav & Erlanger and Harrison Grey Fiske's gorgeous production of Edward Knoblauch's Oriental drama, "Kismet."

"Smashing the Vice Trust." (At the Atlanta.) Hundreds of women are flocking to the Atlanta Vice Trust, and the night performance to see the spectacular and interesting white slave play, "Smashing the Vice Trust."

Keith Vaudeville. (At the Forsyth.) There will be but four more performances at the Forsyth this week ending the engagements of a group of vaudeville artists that have made up one of the cleverest and most successful vaudeville acts.

"Across the Desert." (At the Bijou.) There will be four more performances of "Across the Desert," the melodrama which has proved a big drawing card for the Bijou this week.
