

STOCKS OF DYNAMITE PUT UNDER HOUSTON BY FOOL WATCHMAN

After "Planting" Explosive, Jauch "Discovered" It and Caused Panic in Agricultural Department.

CRANK HOPED TO WIN PROMOTION FOR HEROISM

Dynamite Was "Planted" Directly Under Secretary Houston's Office—Jamming of Fuses Prevented Explosion.

Washington, June 2.—Several hundred clerks and officials fled in fright from their offices in the department of agriculture today when Daniel V. Jauch, a watchman, scurried through the corridors shouting that the building was about to be destroyed by dynamite.

Led by Jauch, several of the cooler headed department officials ran to the basement, where they found four sticks of dynamite on which the fuses had been burned out. Apparently an explosion had been averted because the fuses had been jammed so tightly into the detonation caps that the fire was extinguished.

Then came a hurried sequel. Jauch, who had suffered severe injuries to his head while serving as a soldier in the Philippines several years ago, was taken to a police station and subjected to rigid questioning. Later the police announced he had admitted that he himself placed the explosives. Department officials said they believed the watchman intended to "discover" the dynamite before it could do harm, hoping to win promotion for heroism. The dynamite had been placed directly beneath the office of Secretary Houston. The secretary was out of town, but immediately across the corridor from his office Assistant Secretary Galloway and several other officials were working.

Jauch has been employed for five years in the department. Frequently he has been under treatment of physicians at the Soldiers' Home and has been compelled to take several leaves of absence. The police said Jauch told them that he purchased the dynamite in Springfield, Ohio, his home town. He recently returned from there after a visit. Jauch's army record was not available here tonight. He told officials and fellows, under the impression that he had served as a private in the Philippines and it was said he drew a pension of $30 a month.

THAW CASE REACHES U. S. SUPREME COURT

Washington, June 2.—Harry K. Thaw's fight against being returned to Matteawan reached the supreme court today on an appeal from the decision of Judge Aitch of the first district court for New Hampshire, against Thaw's extradition on the demand of New York state officials. As soon as the case is formally docketed, probably at least in the afternoon, an appeal will be made for Thaw's release on bail, while his case is pending before the supreme court. Justice Holmes has been assigned to business arising in the New England states, and application for Thaw's release probably would be made to him. He has authority to grant the release with or without bail, to deny the release or to refer the application to the entire court.

HINDUS NOT ALLOWED TO SETTLE IN CANADA

Vancouver, B. C., June 2.—Gurdit Singh, the rich Hindu leader, and his 270 countrymen, who sought admission to Canada as British subjects, are about to sail back to Asia on the steamer Komagata, which brought them here. The Canadian immigration authorities adopted a policy of delay, under which the entire party of prospective immigrants would have lasted two or more years. Gurdit Singh will go back to India to protest to his countrymen there concerning the alleged intention to which British subjects who wear turbans are subjected on the west coast of Canada. He declares he hopes to stir up serious trouble for the British empire in India.

82,000 HANDS WANTED IN THE WHEAT COUNTRY

Washington, June 2.—Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma raisers of wheat need at least 82,000 more men to help in harvesting their crops and the commissioners of labor of those states have asked the United States War Department to have his department co-operate with them in obtaining the necessary workers. The men will be wanted by June 14 and the pay is estimated to range from $2 to $2.50 a day. The period of employment will be from three to six months. Various local organizations in the three states will arrange for distributing the men among the wheat farmers.

Huerta, His Defenders and Mexico City

Y. HUERTA AND HIS CABINET. 2. BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF MEXICO CITY.

Will Huerta resign or escape from the country? Will he be bottled up in Mexico City by Villa and Zapata? Will he force the United States into war and thus win the support of the rebels who are now fighting him? Huerta is here shown with his cabinet, and the city where he holds sway and toward which Villa is pushing, is also shown. What fate awaits Huerta? What fate awaits Mexico City?

CHAIRMEN SELECTED FOR TECH COMMITTEES

G. Grosvenor Dawe Speaks at Luncheon on Tuesday. The working committees of the campaign for "Greater Tech" were organized yesterday at the second luncheon meeting at the Piedmont hotel. Ten men were chosen as chairmen of the ten working committees and selected from the number of business men who have volunteered to lend their time the members of their individual committees.

The names of the chairmen of the committees follow: St. Elmo Massengale, Paul Norcross, John V. Smith, J. H. Van Harlingen, Clay Moore, L. W. Roberts, Jr., A. R. Colcord, J. S. Brodgers, W. M. Pambrugh, J. R. Whitman, S. A. Kysor, B. M. Hall and W. A. Hancock, Jr. The other committees were selected from a list of over one hundred business men who have volunteered to give their time and attention to the campaign. Additional working committees will be formed from time to time as the campaign progresses. The following finance committee was appointed by the executive committee: Chairman, J. T. Holleman, James S. Floyd and Brooks Morgan. The necessity for thorough organization has been stressed in the work of the campaign so far. More may be accomplished by effective organization, than by any other factor in the campaign.

GROSVENOR DAWE SPEAKS

G. Grosvenor Dawe, chief of the editorial division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, attended the luncheon on Tuesday, and made a short address to the committeemen present, endorsing heartily the movement. "In this movement, you gentlemen are striking at the basic weakness of the south today. Our boys are not trained to do things," he said. "There have been many urgings to find someone else who will do them, but you are teaching the boys of the south to do them. The mighty resources of the south cannot be translated into results by proxy. We have had too much proxy lately," he continued. "In 1911 when I first saw those boys at Georgia Tech working in the shops there and learning to do things with their hands; boys with good educations, fit to move in any society, that working spirit seemed to me to be a badge of the release of the south from her dependence upon others to do things for her. When I saw in The Constitution this morning the effort which is going to be made to enlarge the usefulness of that school it appealed to me that you business men of the south are striking at the bull's eye.

"The work which is being done by Tech, and other schools of her class in the south, means that the end is coming to the tendency in the south to lean back and beg God Almighty to send somebody to develop her mighty resources. "No section of the United States sends out a more thrilling challenge to men who are able to develop her latent resources. There is one thing lacking, that thing is what this campaign is aimed at, men who are able to develop those resources, and who are not afraid to soil their hands in doing it. "The losses to the south because we southerners didn't know the value of the resources here is appalling. The money which you are undertaking to raise to remedy these evils is a mere pittance compared to the results for good which it will bring about in the south. "In your campaign, you have solace in the fact that you are building a greater humanity, and teaching your boys to get the last ounce of results from the possibilities of the south. "The coal wasted in Birmingham through inefficiency, and before a

OLD ARMY GUN KILLS MULE RIDDEN BY BOY OVER A MILE AWAY

Dalton, Ga., June 2.—(Special.)—A most peculiar accident befell a mule ridden by a small son of Jack Lance. At the noon hour the animal was unhitched from the plow and mounted by the young man, when suddenly the mule reared, almost throwing the boy, and upon examination it was discovered that it had been shot through with a large caliber rifle, the bullet being visible underneath the skin. It subsequently developed that a neighbor, residing over a mile away, was practicing with an old army gun, and that it was a stray bullet from his gun which hit the mule, which later died. The owner of the gun has satisfactorily arranged matters with the owner of the mule, but states that no more will be awakened by his weapon of war and that it is for sale and is highly recommended for mule killing.

JUST ONE GUN SHY IN DANIELS' SALUTE; GUNNER ARRESTED

Annapolis, June 2.—Because he failed to count correctly, or in some other manner missed the number of guns being fired, when Secretary of the Navy Daniels was a visitor at Annapolis last Saturday, a chief gunner's mate at the naval academy is in the "brig" of the station ship Reina Mercedes. According to well-authenticated reports here today the gunner's mate, whose name is being withheld, had charge of the firing of the salute in honor of the arrival of the secretary, who came to witness the Army-Navy baseball game. Naval regulations call for nineteen guns as the salute to cabinet officers. The salute fired Saturday was one gun short.

SHOT FOR PROSECUTING KANSAS "BLIND TIGER"

Leavenworth, Kan., June 2.—J. K. Coddling, formerly warden of the state penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., and now an assistant attorney general in charge of the prosecution of illegal liquor sales, was shot and seriously wounded late today by Jake Weisman, an alleged "job" man. The shooting followed a raid made on Weisman's store, near here. Mr. Coddling is widely known as a temperance advocate.

CLASS RATES TO SOUTH HELD UNREASONABLE

Washington, June 2.—Class freight rates from Washington to points south, including the Carolinas, were held unreasonable today by the interstate commerce commission in that they exceed the aggregate of the intermediate rates. The proceedings were held open to permit the railroads to readjust. An application by the railroads to continue lower rates between eastern points and Richmond than are charged to Washington was denied. Moore Attacks Labor Leaders. During the debate on the Clayton measure, Representative Moore, republican, Pennsylvania, pointing to Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and other labor officials in the gallery, denounced Representative Moore's shouting first toward Mr. Murdock and then toward the galleries where the labor leaders have sat all through the labor exemption debate. "I have not voted to please our labor friends in the gallery. I would not have voted to exempt Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison nor would I have voted to exempt Rockefeller or Carnegie to make fish of one and fowl of the other."

Republican Leader Mann declared that the congressmen did not know how to vote on the labor amendments. Continued on Page Two.

LEGAL SANCTION GIVEN TO STRIKES

And Also to Primary Boycotts by Clayton Anti-Trust Measure—Use of Injunction Limited in Labor Disputes. Washington, June 2.—The Clayton anti-trust bill, second measure on the congressional anti-trust program, was completed in committee of the whole by the house today, and laid aside awaiting a final vote. The Clayton bill, placing the issue of railroad securities under control of the interstate commerce commission, was taken up immediately for general debate. Ten hours of general debate is allowed on the Rayburn bill under a special rule and house leaders will try to complete the final measure by the end of the week. When detailed consideration of the Rayburn bill is completed the three trust measures will be taken from the "committee of the whole" into the house for final vote. Provisions of Measure. As finally agreed on the Clayton bill contains provisions aimed against price discrimination; prohibiting arbitrary refusal to sell natural mineral products; forbidding sale or lease of goods conditional on the agreement of purchaser or lessee not to deal in competing products; making decrees in suits brought by the United States under the anti-trust laws conclusive evidence in private suits against the same defendants; prohibiting corporations from controlling competing concerns by stock ownership, and forbidding interlocking directorates in concerns under federal jurisdiction. The measure also limits the use of the injunction in labor disputes, legalizes strikes, primary boycotts, picketing and the peaceful assembling of strikers, and provides for trial by jury in cases of contempt of court committed outside of the presence of the court or not near enough to interfere with the administration of justice. The penalty section would impose a fine of $5,000 on corporations convicted of violating the law and a similar fine or imprisonment for one year as a penalty for directors, officers, agents or employees, who authorize, direct or do acts which result in violation of the law by the corporations.

Clarke were renominated for United States senator and governor respectively by the republicans of Iowa in a state-wide primary yesterday, by majorities estimated at from 50,000 to 40,000. Congressman Maurice Connolly, of Dubuque, continued to hold his lead over E. T. Meredith, of Des Moines, for the nomination of senator. The nomination of John T. Hamilton, of Cedar Rapids, for governor on the democratic ticket also appeared certain. S. H. Bashor was leading Casper Schenk in the race for the progressive nomination for senator. George C. White was the only candidate for the progressive nomination for governor.

FLETCHER WINS OVER STOCKTON

Florida Senator Renominated for a Second Term. Majority for Fletcher May Reach 10,000. Jacksonville, Fla., June 2.—Returns from today's primary in this state at midnight were sufficiently complete to indicate the election of Senator Duncan U. Fletcher over his opponent, John N. C. Stockton, by a majority which is indicated by early returns to be between 8,000 and 10,000 votes. In the first congressional district Stephen M. Sparkman, chairman of the national rivers and harbors committee of the house of representatives, has a safe lead over his two opponents, Allie J. Angle and J. Fred Deberry. His nomination has been conceded by Angle, who is second in the race. Claude L'Engle Defeated. In the second district Frank Clark is returned to congress by an overwhelming majority, and Emmett Wilson also swept his district, the third. In the fourth, after a spectacular fight, Claude L'Engle was defeated by J. W. Sears, of Kissimmee. There were five entrants in this race. United States Senator Dunbar U. Fletcher, from his headquarters at midnight, gave out the following statement: "From returns throughout the state the indications are that I will receive 65 per cent of the vote. My majority will be fully 8,000 or up, depending upon the total vote of the state." Friends of Senator Fletcher throughout the state, and especially in Jacksonville, are highly gratified with the results. John N. C. Stockton, the opposing candidate refused to give out a statement. Returns from Hillsborough county, which includes the city of Tampa, indicated that Senator Fletcher would have a majority of 1,000 votes there over Mr. Stockton. Other returns from practically every county in Florida indicated that Senator Fletcher had a majority of the total vote reported.

WILSON IS RENOMINATED

Today's primary was the first held under the new state law which provides for voters indicating both a first and second choice of candidates thus making unnecessary a second primary, as was the case previously when no candidate received a majority. Only democratic candidates qualified for today's primary. Pensacola, Fla., June 2.—Emmett Wilson, representative in congress from the third Florida district, was renominated as the democratic candidate in today's district primary. State Attorney John P. Stokes, of this city, who opposed him, conceded Mr. Wilson's nomination tonight. Complete returns are not yet available, but Mr. Wilson's majority will be large.

MUNGER OF DALLAS TURNS IN A "73"

Memphis, Tenn. June 2.—(Special.)—Only five of the thirteen Atlanta players entered here in the thirteenth annual championship meet of the Southern Golf association, qualified in the opening round of play today. These were G. W. Adair, 85; Perry Adair, 83; M. G. Blanton, 85; W. Rowan, 82; and C. V. Rainwater, 83. Among these, Perry Adair, the 17-year-old youth, created the most comment. Young Adair, by his good form, caused talk of a high place for him in this week's play. He appears to be an excellent medal player and will likely show well in match play, which begins tomorrow. Rowan is also demonstrating good form now, judging from his performance today.

Huerta States Terms On Which He'll Quit Presidency of Mexico

Dictator, Through His Delegates, Announces He Will Withdraw When Mexico Is Pacified, and if Government to Succeed Him Has Support of Public Opinion. NEITHER MISTAKEN PRIDE NOR PERSONAL INTEREST TO PREVENT HIS ACTION

REBELS BAN HUERTA AND ALL HIS WORKS

They Will Consider Nothing Coming From Dictator. No Proposal for Armistice to Be Entertained. Washington, June 2.—Upon being informed tonight that the Mexican delegates at Niagara Falls had announced the willingness of General Huerta to resign once Mexico is "politically pacified," the constitutionalist agency authorized this statement. "Anything coming from Huerta's side will not be taken into consideration." As to the note sent tonight by the South American mediators to Rafael Zubaran asking whether the constitutionalists are ready to discuss internal as well as international questions and to agree to an armistice, Senator Zubaran said it would be manifestly improper for him to discuss the matter pending the arrival of the commissioner. Earlier in the evening, before press dispatches telling of the latest developments at Niagara Falls had been received, members of the constitutionalist agency had retreated their declaration that no proposal for an armistice would be considered, and that no plan for a provisional government to be participated in by Huerta or his followers would be acceptable to the constitutionalists. Officials of the American government declined to comment on the news. Secretary Bryan said the statement of the Huerta delegates was "very interesting," but would not discuss it further.

Mediators Hail Statement as Indicating That Huerta Is Preparing to Resign, and Continue Their Plans for Formation of Neutral Government—The Mediators Send an Answer to Carranza's Note.

Niagara Falls, Ont. June 2.—General Huerta is preparing to resign. He today authorized by representatives at the mediation conference to announce to the world that neither mistaken pride nor personal interest would prevent his withdrawal when once Mexico is "politically pacified" and the government succeeding him is so constituted that it can count on the support of public opinion in Mexico. The Mexican delegates in their formal statement revealed that they had been instructed from the first to inform the mediators that General Huerta's personality would not be an obstacle toward reaching a peaceful settlement. They also stated that the internal situation in Mexico was "necessarily bound up with the international questions" and that this spirit had actuated them in coming to the mediation conference. Coincident with the announcement by the Mexican delegates of their position the mediators tonight sent by mail to Rafael Zubaran Carranza, representative of General Carranza in Washington, replying to the communication brought here Friday by Juan F. Urquid. QUESTIONS TO CARRANZA BY THE MEDIATORS. The mediators in effect asked General Carranza if the constitutionalists were willing to discuss internal as well as international questions and if they were ready to declare an armistice with the Huerta forces so that the "political pacification" to which the Huerta delegates referred in their statement might be speedily brought about. These acts—the issuance of the statement by the Mexicans and the making of a reply to Zubaran—broke the deadlock in the negotiations, the existence of which the mediators today formally denied. It nevertheless was authoritatively established that not until the mediators withdrew their original intention of ignoring the Zubaran note did the American delegates consent to discuss with a discussion of the general peace question, which substantial progress was made in today's conferences. The statement by the Mexicans, prepared two days ago, but not issued until General Huerta had telegraphed his complete approval today of the tentative plan for a new provisional government also carried the negotiations a long step forward. STATEMENT MADE FOR HUERTA. The complete statement follows: "In accordance with the instructions which the Mexican delegation has had since the beginning of the peace negotiations its members declared at the first full conference, that it is to say,

In the presence of the mediating plenipotentiaries and of the delegates of the United States of America, that President Huerta's personality is not an obstacle to the reaching of a satisfactory conclusion.

General Huerta is prepared to withdraw from the government on condition that, at the time of his withdrawal, Mexico shall be politically pacified and the government succeeding his shall be such as to count on the acquiescence of the governed and on the support of public opinion, which constitute the real basis for peace and stability in any country.

It has been said and is President Huerta's wish to place on record that neither mistakes nor personal interests will prevent his withdrawal, once the above named conditions are satisfied.

The Mexican government accepted the mediation of the south American powers, in a frank and open spirit and the Mexican delegation has been guided and will be guided in all its acts by perfect good faith.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT MUST BE PACIFIED.

"It should be unnecessary to say that President Huerta gave the Mexican delegation special instructions not to consent to anything which could hurt the government of the United States and to refuse a hearing in the deliberations of the conference to anything which might be construed as an imposition from the outside. For their own part, the delegates would not have accepted instructions of different nature on these points but they beg to state that hitherto they have had no occasion to refer to them. Thanks to the equitable tact of the mediating plenipotentiaries and to the circumstantial fact of the American delegation's position in the course of the negotiations on difficulties of an international character cannot be considered as submitting to an external influence, said pacification is necessarily bound up with the international question. It has been appreciated by the Mexican delegation and in setting forth the intentions of its government in the matter and in its endeavors to bring about the pacification it has been inspired by the knowledge that without it no satisfactory conclusion can be arrived at in the international question.

PREPARING TO FORM NEW GOVERNMENT

Just before the statement was issued the Mexican delegates had a long conference with the mediators. Afterwards they telegraphed General Huerta to send them the names of the men who will be satisfactory to him for places in the new provisional government to consist of two men chosen by Huerta two by the constitutionalists and a neutral provisional president selected by common agreement of all parties. The first four are to compose the cabinet, but are to be morally obligated by the terms of an agreement reached here to share equally the responsibility of a fair administration which will be expected not only to conduct a general election but to make a beginning on internal reforms.

It was just before the mediators, the Mexican delegates and the American representatives entered the banquet given for them tonight by the Associated Canadian clubs that typewritten copies of the position of General Huerta were given out. The American commissioners read it eagerly. The Mexican delegates expressed their gratification that they had been able to make the announcement and confirm press reports on the subject. The mediators made no comment but the effect of the statement on the attitude of the constitutionalists toward mediation was the subject of intense interest on all sides.

STRONG ARGUMENT AGAINST REBELS.

By such outstanding personalities and declaring themselves in favor of treating internal as well as international questions while not yielding their national sovereignty the Mexican delegates it was generally agreed here had launched a strong argument against the constitutionalist position. The general view was that if the Huerta representatives had found no opportunity in dealing here with the internal Mexican situation the world generally would not approve of technical objections to the same course which might be offered by General Carranza.

Whether an armistice could be arranged was another topic of interest. The mediators are known to feel that if the conditions are sincerely generous of restoring peace in Mexico they could arrange an armistice for ten days or two weeks, without ceasing military preparations. The mediators are of the opinion that the next two or three days will develop clearly whether the constitutionalists are really seeking peace.

The explicit statement from the Huerta delegates encouraged the three diplomats greatly in that it set before the world as practically accomplished one of the principal purposes of the dispute between the United States and the Huerta government. The elimination of Huerta, though never before publicly admitted, nevertheless has been privately considered here the fundamental aim of the conferences.

PUT RESPONSIBILITY UP TO THE REBELS.

The responsibility if the program should be upset now the mediators feel, will devolve on the constitutionalists. One of the three envoys said today that the mediators from the outset had recognized General Carranza as a factor in the international situation of the country. It was not until the invitation was withdrawn but ever since then a misunderstanding has existed about a telegram sent by General Carranza to the mediators which was discussed here so that he might instruct his delegates. This telegram was not answered by the mediators because they had made themselves sufficiently clear in a previous communication. Mr. Baughman, Friday by Mr. Zubaran expressed surprise that this inquiry by the constitutionalists had not been answered. The mediators it is under stood have in their note to Zubaran referred to the chief point in which they are concerned are a suspension of hostilities in the civil strife and the specific points which are well as international affairs. The Zubaran communication and its reply to the chief point has not been answered. The mediators it is under stood have in their note to Zubaran referred to the chief point in which they are concerned are a suspension of hostilities in the civil strife and the specific points which are well as international affairs. HUERTA IS CONFIDENT MEDIATION WILL WIN

Mexico City, June 2.—A semi official note relative to the mediation conference at Niagara Falls was published under a prominent heading in El Imperial today. It says:

"We can give the assurance that the peace conferences are on the good road and that the coalition between the mediators and delegates must be based on respect to our sovereignty and to the dignity of the Mexican nation. The public will know all in two or three days and our readers will then recognize that we speak the truth when we declare that our honor and dignity will be saved."

NOTHING TO MEDIATE WITH GENERAL HUERTA

Washington June 2.—Rafael Zubaran, a Cuban head of the Carranza agency here commented today upon Mexico City dispatches representing General Huerta as declaring that the constitutionalists enter the mediation proceedings so that Mexico's affairs might be settled by Mexicans.

The constitutionalists have nothing to mediate with Huerta said he and can only meet him at the point of the sword.

NO MUNITIONS LANDED BY JAPANESE STEAMER

Washington, June 2.—A report from the cruiser "Liberty" sent at 3 p. m. Monday says the Japanese steamer Seigo Maru arrived at Salina Cruz, Yucatan, on Sunday and was allowed without landing arms or ammunition. It is understood by Admiral Howard that the Japanese line declined to carry them.

until after consultation with Colonel Roosevelt.

"The colonel stands on the progressive platform," reported Mr. Murdock. Unlike the democrats and the republicans the progressives are not hogtied and they vote their individual views.

They do not know what their sentiments are returned Mr. Mann "until the gentleman from Kansas goes over to New York and asks Colonel Roosevelt what the gentleman from Kansas thinks."

Mr. Mann and Mr. Murdock got into a wordy exchange over talk of amalgamation of their parties.

Do you think asked Mr. Murdock, "that there is any chance of amalgamation between a set of men who want to go forward and a set of men who want to side step and dodge every thing?"

He said Mr. Mann had not consulted Colonel Roosevelt enough and that the colonel could not be justly accused of dodging anything. He asserted that the gentleman from Yale referred to by Mr. Mann and the republican leader of the house and the reactionary at the other end of the capital had blocked anti-trust legislation.

There has been talk of amalgamation of the progressive and the so-called progressives are coming back into the republican party. It is not amalgamation but whatever the outcome Mr. Murdock will be left out in the cold for repudiating the republican party which elected him to Congress.

During the debate tonight Representative Haver of Mississippi asked Will the bill prevent railroad corporations from being looted and plundered like the New York, New Haven and Hartford?

That is exactly one of the things we are after replied Representative Bayburn. He added that he did not believe the things done in the New Haven case could have been possible had this measure been in effect.

NEW YORK MOOSE MEN BALKING AT WHITMAN

New York June 2.—In my opinion said Theodore Douglas Robinson New York state progressive chairman in a statement issued today the progressives of New York state have no intention of nominating Charles S. Whitman for governor.

Mr. Robinson's statement was called forth by Mr. Whitman's formal announcement last night that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for governor on the declaration of Charles H. Duell Jr. a Roosevelt leader that a movement was on foot to elect the New York ticket headed by the progressive party.

Mr. Duell said today that while he had no objection to the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt that he would support a movement to clean up New York. He meant to say that the colonel had committed himself definitely to Whitman. He thought it possible that the name of a non-partisan mass meeting in Syracuse next month.

JOHNSON TO LOSE JOB AS RECORDER OF DEEDS

Washington, June 2.—(Special.)—President Wilson is expected to send to the senate within the next two or three days, a nomination to fill the office of recorder of deeds, now held by Henry Lincoln Johnson, the colored lawyer of Atlanta.

Johnson has been retained in office during fifteen months of the present administration partly owing to the difficulty in agreeing upon whether a white democrat should be given the position, or whether it should continue to be a sop to the colored voters in doubtful states who voted the democratic ticket last time.

Apprehension is felt among southern democrats that the president expects to name another negro. They will bitterly oppose confirmation.

Robbers Loot Bank.

Champaign, Ill., June 2.—Five robbers entered the village of Mahomet early today in an automobile. While four stood guard the other blew open the safe in Bussey's bank and took $200 in currency. In a few minutes the party sped out of town with the villagers too terrified to offer resist.

Pursuit was taken up by deputy sheriffs in an automobile but the trail was lost near Monticello.

BROUGHT FROM BOSTON ON CHARGE OF FORGERY

Rome, Ga., June 2.—(Special)—T. V. McCollister, a young white man from Bartow county, has been brought back from Boston, Mass., and is now in the county jail on a charge of forgery.

TO THE PUBLIC: Statements have appeared in the news columns during the past few days so unwarranted in fact that we deem it proper to state the following: The average number of persons employed by us regularly is 1,400. We now have in our employ 1,360. The number of employees who went out on strike are 78, about five per cent. of the total. The people now in our employ desire to work. Those on strike, 78, aided by strangers, are endeavoring to prevent, by usual methods, the 1,360 who wish to work. Our weekly pay-roll amounts to the sum of $11,500.00 per week; the average wages are $8.50 per week, per person. The fines per week do not exceed the sum of $10.00 out of a pay-roll of $11,500.00 per week. It costs this Company more to audit the fines than the amount so received, but it is at times necessary to impose slight fines to insure proper performance of duties. This Company has always anticipated legislation as to hours of labor, and age of employment. Since 1881, during panic as well as prosperity, it has run without cessation. It has no commissary, and has always paid its employees in cash. The striking employees, we think, are misled by persons who are not employees, and some of these strangers have never been in our employment, and are not citizens of this state. We have in our employ 14 minors between the ages of 12 and 14, and 50 minors between the age of 14 and 16, all of whom have strictly complied with the law covering the employment of minors. We do not believe this community can be benefited by having misstatements spread broadcast, hence we furnish the facts. Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills

REXALL DRUGGISTS OPEN CONVENTION

Delegates Are Given Welcome by Judge John C. Hart and by Mayor James G. Woodward.

Up to the minutes methods are written all over the twelfth Rexall Druggists' convention, which opened in the Auditorium-Armory yesterday. The members of the convention—and a goodly number of them—are stamped with youth and energy. The attractive decorations and exhibits in the Auditorium are the last thing in the world that would make one think of bottles and doctors and sickrooms and similar outhouses necessary, but not altogether agreeable, things.

The convention opened Tuesday morning in that hall, when the visitors were welcomed by Judge John C. Hart, state tax commissioner, on behalf of Georgia, and by Mayor James G. Woodward, on behalf of Atlanta.

In his speech Mayor Woodward expressed a hope, which many of the Rexall people will make Atlanta their general distributing point for the southeast.

Support for Prediction.

After his speech one of the leading members of the convention predicted that Atlanta would be used for that purpose in the near future. Already the Rexall people have a cigar depot here.

The principal address of the morning session was made by Louis P. Liggett, of Boston, president of the United Drug company.

President Liggett was very sanguine of financial and business conditions and forecasted an era of unprecedented prosperity to begin within the next six months.

President Liggett laid special emphasis upon the value of polite service and absolute fairness as the two first requisites of success in the retail drug service prevails in the south to a greater extent than anywhere, with the exception, perhaps of London, where the Rexall people have just opened stores.

The total business of the United Drug company in 1913, he said, was more than $78,000,000, an increase of 29.2 per cent. The rubber goods sold by the Rexall men during the year he said, had extended over three miles if laid end to end and the tape used in wrapping parcels would reach 1,288,419 yards.

While expenses have been increasing steadily, President Liggett pointed out that the Rexall stores have been able to reduce the prices on their goods all the time.

The afternoon session was taken up with addresses by many of the leading delegates to the convention, those speeches being largely shop talk. Among the afternoon speakers were the following:

Speakers in Afternoon.

Edgar M. Trahern, of Ballington, Ky. C. H. Rothington, of Jonesboro, Ind. George Hall, of Boston, head of the perfume department, of E. J. King, Jr. of Atlanta. H. H. McKenzie, of Atlanta manager of Mr. Elkins store. E. W. Bertram, of Boston, head of the Florida sales department. A. H. Lathrop, of Houston, Texas. D. H. Heine, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Bernard Hill, of Rome, Ga.

The afternoon session adjourned at 6 o'clock, and the entire convention attended the Forsyth theater Tuesday night.

The Rexall men are here from all parts of the country. On the register at the Auditorium is found the name of W. C. McConagle, from as far away as Honolulu, Hawaii.

And the Rexall men are in Atlanta for a good time as well as work. It would not be surprising if it were found that a wholesome life of work and pleasure is largely responsible for the remarkable success of the Rexall people.

The festivities started off Monday afternoon with a barbecue which was tendered to the officers and department heads and their ladies by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Elkin, Jr. at East Lake. There were about seventy-five present and they had a bully good time. Among the features of the afternoon at East Lake were a riding contest on a trick pony, and a baseball game. President Liggett was one of the pitchers and James C. McCormick starred on the second sack.

A Word about McCormick.

And just a word about this McCormick man. He hails from Boston and holds the Rexall championship for stylish clothes. He brought three trunks of clothes with him, and was seen in the Auditorium lobby Tuesday with not less than four different suits adorning his person at different times. And, surely, Solomon in all his glory was not at any time arrayed as he!

In fact, there is a formidable array of celebrities with the Rexall people. For instance, there is Tom "Bethlehem" Taylor and "U. S." Isaac, both of Louisville who are recognized Rexall exponents of the national pastime—indoor variety.

Mention of sessions with the past boards also serves to introduce a story of one Bill that was circulating about the Auditorium Tuesday.

Of course, there is more of his name than just "Bill," but he is from a married reporter to mention names in a story like this.

The grand dawn of Tuesday was just breaking when Bill, so the story goes, with shoes in one hand was cautiously opening the door to his room. Inside, he breathed a sigh of relief when he found Mrs. Bill still asleep. He began undressing and had almost got away with it when Mrs. Bill roused up.

William, she said, and Bill's friends say that there is

HIS FOURTH ATTEMPT TO SUICIDE SUCCEEDS

John H. King Drinks Carbohc Acid in Room at the Neal Hotel.

John H. King, insurance agent, who, during the past month had attempted suicide three times, succeeded Tuesday morning in the fourth attempt when he drank carbohc acid in a room at the Neal hotel, at 48 1/2 Decatur street, where he registered a week ago for apparently this purpose.

For the past eighteen months King has boarded at the house of P. F. Smith, at 38 Capital avenue, and was known as "Uncle Jack" King. He formerly lived in Dublin, Ireland.

Finally he went to the Neal hotel, where for the past week he has spent the nights and according to J. E. Barry, clerk at the hotel acted most of the time as though drinking. The Smiths declare they did not know that King had spent the nights away from their boarding house.

Barry says King left the hotel soon in the morning, but returned about 11 o'clock and, writing a note, he placed it on the hotel desk and went to his room. Shortly afterwards he called Harry, who went to his room and found him sitting on the bed, much in pain. In his hand was an empty glass while on the floor was a small empty bottle labeled "Carbohc acid."

The clerk telephoned the Grady hospital, but when the ambulance arrived King was dead. The note found on the desk bore no address but read as follows:

Well sister I have not seen you in seven years I love you and the children, which I am bringing to you all. Remember this Your brother, John. "Not tired of living but among strangers and travelers."

Wish to give you papers signed by me. On the back of the paper the note was written on was the address, John H. King, Dublin, Ireland.

The body is being taken to the morgue where Coroner Paul Donohoe held an inquest Tuesday afternoon and returned a verdict of suicide. The body will be sent to Louisville, Ky. where it has two brothers, Jerry and Michael King.

NOAMI LAMB IS SHOT As Loaded Pistol Explodes in Trunk

Macon, Ga. June 2.—(Special)—A loaded pistol concealed in a trunk with her arm clasped across her heart, Naomi Lamb, of Danville, today at the Southern railway depot as she alighted from a Macon, Dublin and Savannah train.

A negro woman's trunk was thrown from the baggage car on to a truck as Miss Lamb walked by. Suddenly she was seen to fall to the ground with her arm clasped across her heart. Several men ran to her assistance and it was found that she had been shot through the left arm.

For some time no one could account for the bullet, no one having heard a pistol discharge. After a while, however, smoke began to issue from the old trunk and an investigation disclosed a pistol on the inside. The gun was of the 32-caliber variety and a most deadly weapon. Miss Lamb was carried to a local hospital, where she received medical treatment. She is not dangerously hurt.

TWO DISTRICTS ENJOIN MITCHELL COUNTY BOARD

Pelham, Ga. June 2.—(Special)—A temporary injunction has been granted by Judge E. E. Cox restraining the county commissioners from moving the county seat from the Mitchell county seat to the Camilla public road leading to the Dougherty county line. The injunction was brought by citizens of those two districts. A hearing will be held before Judge Cox Saturday. It was planned several weeks ago by the commissioners to put the entire working force of the county on this road and put it in first-class shape and it is understood that all the other gangs have been moved and began work yesterday.

LYING ON STRETCHER, HE VOTED FOR BONDS

Augusta, Ga. June 2.—(Special)—The election for the authorization of $750,000 bonds for the completion of the levee and the city hospitals came near being unanimous. Outside of the Fourth and Fifth wards only eleven votes were cast against the bonds and even in the two wards named where any possible opposition was expected to develop, there were but 33 negative ballots.

An impressive feature of the day was the manner in which Fireman Peter Drost cast his vote. He was injured seriously some time ago in response to a fire call and has since been in the hospital. But he had made up his mind to vote for the improvement bonds and he made where he was carried to the polling place in an ambulance and lying on a stretcher, cast his ballot for the bond issue. The result of the election will insure the completion of the great improvement program being carried on by the city of Augusta.

JOINT DEBATE USELESS, DECLARES T. S. FELDER

Declines Hardwick's Challenge to Discuss Issues of the Senate Race.

Macon, Ga. June 2.—(Special)—Thomas S. Felder, candidate for the United States senate today wrote Congressman Hardwick, declining the latter's invitation for a joint debate between all of the candidates on the issues of the senatorial campaign.

He says "Frankly I do not see any good result to be accomplished by a joint discussion between any two or more of the five gentlemen now in the senatorial race."

"The democratic party of Georgia is in my opinion to be likened to one big family which for the best interests of all our people should be kept as free as possible from internal dissensions and bitterness."

"It seems therefore that upon reflection you will agree with me that in the interest of the great organization of which all the candidates are members each of us had best conduct his individual speaking campaign."

"In my opinion any joint discussion however carefully planned and guarded, involves a risk of party harmony without any compensating benefit."

Chinaman Arrested On Charge of Using U. S. Mails to Defraud

Tom Y. Young, a Chinaman claiming to be a physician and in charge of the Oriental Herb company at 55 Houston street, was arrested yesterday on a federal warrant following an indictment returned by the federal grand jury Tuesday in which he was charged with using the United States mails to defraud. He was held for trial in the sum of $1,000. He had no trouble in making the bond.

Shortly after coming to Atlanta, Young located at 55 Houston street, and within a short time converted the house into a veritable Oriental palace, using it both for offices and residence.

Through the newspapers and with clever and inviting advertising cards and other schemes also using the mails for that purpose, Dr. Young advertised that his herb medicines would cure many chronic troubles of disease, that many lives given up by attending physicians had been saved and the sick restored to health by his medicines.

Eventually complaints against the doctor reached the postoffice department and were turned over to Postoffice Inspector E. B. Smith of Washington, D. C. The inspector wrote Dr. Young the correspondence ending in an assurance of the restoration of the patient's health. Complying with his part of the contract, Inspector Smith sent through the mails to Dr. Young the amount asked. Then Inspector Smith came to Atlanta and when the grand jury was reconvened Monday, related his story to that body.

COMMENCEMENT ENDS AT HOLMES INSTITUTE

The commencement exercises of the Holmes institute took place in the institute chapel last night at 8 o'clock. The exercises by the students and the songs were the best in the history of the school. The baccalaureate address was delivered by Professor J. L. Wheeler. He said that the Holmes institute was doing more to lessen crime in the city and make good law-abiding citizens with its limited means than any institution in the city and state. The closing speech was made by Archie Gray, one of the trustees of the school.

EXHIBIT FOR GEORGIA AT BIG BOSTON SHOW

State Chamber to Head Movement for Exhibition of Agricultural Products.

The Georgia Chamber of Commerce has received an invitation from the state of Massachusetts, the city of Boston and the large commercial organizations of Massachusetts, as well as from the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's clubs, through their commissioner, Albert R. Rogers, of Boston, who is now in Atlanta, to participate in a great domestic science and pure food exposition to be held in Boston October 5 to 31 of this year.

This exposition will be the first of its kind ever held in America and the largest ever held in the world.

There are three departments in the exposition. The first is pure food not only in packing and the contents of the package, but largely in the handling. The second department is domestic science, which contains everything relating to the home. This is directly in the charge of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's clubs. The third department is called "Back to the Farm," and is going to be one of the most interesting and beneficial of all these departments. There has recently been in New England a tremendously popular "back to the farm" movement. New England, with its rock lands, has looked with envy upon those states whose soil is as fertile as Georgia's, and the sons of the farmers of New England and men in the overcrowded cities are going by thousands into other states seeking land for agricultural purposes. The majority of New England home-seekers and farm-seekers are now going west or to Florida and Cuba.

At a meeting of the officials of this great exposition some little time ago it was voted to invite the republic of Cuba to participate as the only foreign country because of its port connections with Boston and the large amount of money invested by New Englanders there.

Albert R. Rogers was appointed as commissioner to Cuba to present this invitation to President Menocal of the republic of Cuba in addition to this, Mr. Rogers was commissioned to visit and invite the states of Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana. These three states are the only ones of the United States to be invited because of the advantages they afford in the opportunity presented for investment in agricultural lands.

Visit of Atlanta Ad Men.

Mr. Rogers says that these invitations were extended largely through the result of the Ad Men's club which convened in Boston two years ago. The ad men of Atlanta brought with them a car of Georgia's luscious watermelons and to the astonishment of the Bostonians, they had a watermelon eating on the famous Boston Commons. Never was there a like scene in Boston before, according to Mr. Rogers, and never were such melons eaten before.

It is the intention of the state chamber to send out letters to all the counties inviting them to join in a splendid exhibit of Georgia's agricultural products. The last location in the entire exposition building for such an exhibit has been allotted to Georgia, and Secretary-Manager Albert M. Smith of the Georgia State Chamber, is asking the various local chambers throughout the state to immediately notify him how much space they will occupy. While the exhibit will be put on as a state exhibit, each local chamber in the various counties will make their own individual exhibits.

Petition for a Receiver.

The moving creditors are J. Schoeman, of Baltimore, asserting a debt of $618. L. & C. No group of words that could be written and here set down to describe to you the Chickering piano could tell so much as the one word Chickering.

Just as a Whistler means an etching, just as a Rembrandt means a painting—so a Chickering means a piano. Such a distinction is never an accident, never undeserved.

Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead of removing the complexion by surgical means, however as the underlying cuts is too thin too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary remedies will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new youthful skin appears, a skin soft and delicately tinted as a baby's. No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of medicated wax of the druggist. Spread this in thin layers before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed. An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in half a pint of water. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and permanent results. Dr. R. MacKenzie in Popular Medicine (adv.)

AKERMAN LOSES AGAIN.

There are only two federal district attorneys for Georgia.
 Alexander Akerman, a hidebound republican, offensively partisan, holds the office for the southern district of Georgia, nearly two years after the election of a democratic administration.

The excuse given for retaining him in office as against a score of good south Georgia democrats, able lawyers than he, has been his alleged indispensability in prosecuting the government's case against the so-called "naval stores trust."

The federal court at Savannah has, for the second time, handed down a decision throwing the prosecution out, thus placing its disapproval upon each of the contentions of Akerman and acquitting each of the four defendants. If the government was predestined to lose this case, why was it not just as well for a democratic district attorney to have lost it as a republican?

We know the case is lost by Akerman. We do not know that it would have been lost by a democratic district attorney.

What gain has there been, then, in retaining Akerman against the protests of all south Georgia?

Isn't it time for the department of justice to wake up to the fact that it hasn't been giving the southern district of Georgia, and its democratic population, a square deal?

If there is or ever has been, a republican who deserves no consideration from a democratic administration, it is Akerman, an offensively partisan, rock ribbed republican.

If the only count against Akerman were rank partisanship that would be bad enough. That is the smallest part of it.

He has been so personally offensive, pettily obnoxious and systematically tyrannical that it is no wonder he is resented by the average Georgia jury.

He has lost no opportunity to bait business, and the best proof of his malice is that not one of his important prosecutions has "stuck."

He is today the most cordially despised prosecuting official that has represented the federal government in Georgia since reconstruction.

This is the federal prosecuting attorney who, nearly two years after a democratic administration is chosen, is retained in office, though his district teems with democrats who are infinitely better lawyers than he.

What is the matter with our senators, with our congressional delegation, that they do not blister the authorities with protests against this narrow, malignant, inefficient and veneful partisan? Every day he remains in office is an indictment against our delegation in congress. Will the Georgia members never wake up to that fact?

THE MAYOR IS RIGHT.

Mayor Woodward is in favor of women having representation on city boards. He does not believe the membership of the boards should be increased from twelve to seventeen, as contemplated in the charter amendment adding women members, but increasing the size of the boards. He thinks a membership of twelve is ample for a city board. As terms of members expire, he would have no objection to the election of women, but he would not increase the size of the boards. That is why he vetoed the amendment in its present shape. When the amendment is modified to admit women and yet to restrict the membership to twelve, he will approve it. On the principle of representation for women he is favorable. But he says some means must be found to give them representation without making the boards unwieldy.

The mayor is right. One of the deficiencies in the municipal machinery against which the people of Atlanta have been most decidedly in protest is the clumsiness of the boards and the difficulty of getting things done by them.

Increasing the size of the boards from twelve to seventeen members would simply intensify this condition, obstruct board work and complicate a situation already difficult enough.

The remedy, as the mayor points out, is to leave the charter size of the boards at twelve members, as at present, but qualify women for service.

The plan has the advantage of simplicity and of ultimately affording the women of the city representation in the city's deliberative machinery to which they are entitled.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS.

The flaws in Atlanta's fire fighting facilities pointed out by the committee on fire prevention of the National Board of Fire Underwriters will convey nothing new to the citizen who has kept fairly well informed as to municipal conditions. Time and again The Constitution has pointed out the need for additions to the waterworks plant and for more engine houses in the outlying districts. The committee emphasizes these deficiencies, while intimating that Chief Cummings has done the best he can with the limited means at his disposal.

The trouble is, the inadequate fire department is only an illustration of the insufficient municipal facilities that constitute a problem in Atlanta. The city has totally outgrown its municipal clothes and is bursting at the seams. Whether with regard to sewage and sanitary facilities, fire fighting facilities, water facilities, imperfect street contours and grades, a cramped school system, an inadequate public hospital service or whatnot, the note everywhere is insufficiency.

The Constitution has had these conditions in mind while pleading, at regular intervals, that Atlanta put its idle credit to work. The work of rehabilitation cannot be much longer delayed. Postponement means additional expense, further deterioration. The insufficient fire department is only the symptom of a general disease. Deferring treatment of the whole situation is folly.

YOU CAN'T BLAME CARRANZA.

It is not surprising that representatives of Carranza have manifested a reluctance toward entering the mediation negotiations at Niagara, and that they also express astonishment at the rather minor importance the mediators appear to attach to the constitutionalists.

Already the armies of the constitutionalists, under Villa, have broken the backbone of Huerta's power. That fact speaks in the acquiescence of Huerta in the mediation processes. If anything were needed to confirm the claims of Carranza, it is furnished by the attitude of Huerta. Carranza is probably right, too, when he says that if railroad communication with Mexico City were in fact his armies would be in possession of the capital within a week.

In the face of these conditions, the constitutionalists would be shallow reasoners and unnatural beings if they mildly fell in with the mediation program, and ran the risk of forfeiting the fruits of their hard campaigns against the Huertistas. Right now they dominate the situation. So far as outward appearances go, they will occupy all of Mexico within a short while and there is no reason to believe they cannot make a better job of governing it than Huerta.

The mediators will have to take cognizance of this situation, if they are to make headway. Huerta now is a decidedly subordinate figure. Carranza and Villa, not to forget the persistent Zapata, are the individuals upon whom most pressure must be brought to bear.

"I must preserve my dignity," says Huerta. If he consumes as many gallons as they say he does, it must be pretty well "pickled" now.

The river the Colonel is preparing to navigate at home has more salt in it than that Brazilian stream.

"I'm here for a rest," says Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, as he gives out twenty interviews a day.

Villa has parted with his mustache, but still looks fierce enough to hang Huerta.

Like his party, the Colonel has thinned down.

The Carranza way is to transform the Dove of Peace into a hot tamale.

Huerta would have us believe that he doesn't care how Niagara Falls.

The Colonel says the Elephant must eat out of his hand, but Professor Bill says it isn't hungry enough for that.

It's hot enough in Vera Cruz to make the boys fighting mad.

And after all, they may have to mediate the mediators.

 A pupil was called upon to explain why he persisted in shooting beans at a sedate professor who lectured recently before a class in which the boy sat. Praying Against Each Other
 There's no hope in sight says The Adams Enterprise: Two of the most pious brethren in the community have been at loggerheads of late and while one prays for the other, prays for 'em, and we reckon Providence is so confused the angels themselves dunno what to recommend!

Tobacco and Personal Liberty.

Editor Constitution: You seemed in your Sunday's editorial to be somewhat surprised at the recent action of the Southern Presbyterians. I am a Presbyterian and I am against the use of tobacco. But our southern friends are really belated in their movement. More than twenty years ago a resolution was introduced in one of the northern conferences prohibiting the use of tobacco against the use of tobacco. An amendment was offered that this resolution should only apply to new applicants and not to those who were already in. A brother stated on the floor that this amendment was backed up by authority, for the Good Book says: "He that is filthy, let him be filthy still."
 When we have legislated tobacco out of existence we'll next get rid of the coffee favorite of our friends and several other unhealthy things and then how happy we will be!

But we are forgetting in the meantime that we are fast reducing this republican government of ours to a government of the people by the people for the people into one of the most despotic monarchies the sun ever shone on. At our present rate of speed on the paternalistic course we'll soon be through dust in the eyes of Russia. It is only the question of a few years when, what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink, or whether ye shall be clothed will all be regulated by law.

There is to essay in the current issue of The American Law Review by Hon. Edgar M. Cullen, ex-justice of the New York court of appeals, on "The Decline of Personal Liberty in America." I wish every reader would read this review and think before him and would thoroughly digest it.

His closing paragraph gives us much food for thought. He says: "I do not complain of democracy. On the contrary, I am a devotee of it. My liberty and rendered miserable. I am sufficient of a utilitarian to desire that my misery shall contribute to the happiness of the greatest number. But I protest against being used as a means to the end of other people's liberty. To those, if there are any such at this date who share these views I have but this to say, that the only way in which our own conduct can be secured against the inroads of the worst sort of tyranny is to be alert to protect the conduct of others and to condemn violations of private rights equally whether the violation is of our rights or of those of others."

From the Muse of the Moozers.

Editor Constitution: I notice in Monday's paper you say in reference to the Colonel clearing the decks.
 If there is to be any amalgamation between the progressive bull moose and the G. O. P. elephant it will be the elephant that is amalgamated. Right you are! Why not? The moose is a bigger thing than the elephant. Politically speaking. At three months of age the moose party polled 4,000,000 and odd votes while the elephant, born in 1858 now nearly three score years old, polled only something over 2,000,000.
 The moose party beat the G. O. P. and elected the solemn Wilson a minority candidate.
 Add the moose vote and the elephant vote in the last presidential election and the result was Wilson's vote by more than a million. Catch on!
 The majority of the American people are for policies, not parties. They stand for men and measures.
 It is the best sign of the political times when Roosevelt wiped out the republican party he slew the greatest enemy the south ever had.
 If present conditions hold until November the republican party will be every element of disaffection in the country. And in 1916, too!

The Handicap of Uncertainty.

Editor Constitution: I read with a great deal of pleasure your editorial in Saturday's paper, "Give Business a Chance, and I endorse it most heartily."
 In my opinion just as soon as the lack of confidence, due to the uncertainty of congressional action, is removed, the revival of business activity will be realized. The administration would do well to heed your advice but even if they do not if those in charge are mindful of party prestige, realize that the people are not so easily deceived, and I do not believe that they will run the risk of further disturbing business by continuing the uncertainty that has already too long handicapped business.

What Mexico Is Costing Us.

(From Leslie.)
 If any one thinks that thirteen months of President Wilson's policy of "watchful waiting" in the Mexican situation has been entirely without expense to the United States let him pry into the accounts of the war and navy departments. At present the cost of maintaining our fleets in the Mexican ports and on the frontier and the cost of the internment of Mexican refugees averages more than $10,000 a day.
 Of these outlays the biggest is that for the army starting in the fifteen months of the preparation of the camps. The border camps has totaled approximately $50,000. The maintenance of four transports in connection with these expeditions has cost $600,000. The preparation of the camps totaled $125,000. This has been in addition to the pay and subsistence of the troops themselves. The number of the soldiers engaged in the actual work of patrolling the frontier lines has been gradually increasing until at present it totals 6,800. The expense of their maintenance on the border is figured by war department statisticians at approximately $4,000,000. The 11,000 troops of the second division engaged at Vera Cruz are ready for instant call have cost $7,145,000, a neat total for the war department of more than $12,500,000. In addition to this our "hospitality" to the refugees who are held in the stockades at Ft. Huachuca and for whose entertainment the state department is trying to compel the Huerta government to pay has cost $225,000 and is still costing us $2,500 every day. Then there has been an expense of $300,000 to bring American citizens out of Mexico.
 But the biggest dollar sign that figures in the present status is the pile of claims for damages that are being filed at the state department by Mexicans whose property is being despoiled in Mexico. Unofficial estimates declare that these have reached the $300,000,000 mark.

DAILY GRIST
 STATES' POLITICAL GRIND

HUGH DORSEY WILL MAKE STATEMENT BY SUNDAY, JUNE FOURTEENTH.

It can be stated with certainty that Senator Hugh M. Dorsey will give out a statement by June 14 regarding the effort of his friends to induce him to run for governor. Just what this statement will contain it is impossible to state at this time but he has decided to make a statement and has set June 14 as the day.

Mr. Dorsey will be very busy with his legal duties all this week and will be unable to give the matter any consideration but it will be comparatively easy for him to be able to go over the situation with his friends in this city and other parts of a state.

THERE WILL BE NO LACK OF BLATANT POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS THIS YEAR.

Those carping critics who were loudly complaining that there was a lack of interest in politics despite the major effort of the few who thought there was not enough ginger in the campaign are beginning to realize that they reckoned without their betters. From this time on as the mercury starts to rise the political tide will begin to rise and is expected to grow more and more heated until August 1.

The very mention of politics will cause the average citizen to shuck his coat and build an electric fan. It is going to be so hot that you can't get a paper in your hand without a storage plant by comparison. There will be charges and counter charges and communications and recriminations and challenges and talkfests and letter and card wars until the average citizen will be glad to get any explanation that don't explain and denials and counter denials until the very air is lurid.

Witness just two evidences: First, the fact that Governor Hoke Smith thought it a pretty good policy to go serenely on his way conducting the affairs of the office to which he was elected and incidentally sending out letters to his friends asking for their support. Second, the fact that Governor Hoke Smith has organized one of the largest campaign committees ever formed in this state. Then after Mr. Felder and Mr. Hardwick had attacked him vigorously in speeches he addressed a communication to the people of Georgia in which he came back with a vengeance which seemed to take these gentlemen completely by surprise. They hurried into print to reply and they replied at length. They had sought a fight and they got it—a fight which will know no let or stay until after August 1.

These two evidences show that Governor Hoke Smith would sit idly by and let his opponents push the fight were he not surprised to see him wading into the camp of the enemy and becoming the aggressor.

His opponent, Hugh Dorsey, has a good fighter who could be depended on when the occasion arose. It was the first sign of a campaign which will pass into history as one of the warmest ever known.

And the Joe Brown incident. Little Joe Brown was a member of the state senate and business up in Marietta. He was writing cards on the labor situation and saving not one word about politics. Other folks were talking about politics. Suddenly Little Joe Brown was elected to the senate and he was going the rounds elected to state that he would not oppose Governor Hoke Smith for the senate—that he had never entertained any such notion. Scarcely had the article appeared in print than the state senate and loyal supporter J. R. Smith wrote one of the most remarkable communications which has ever appeared in the papers of the state. Plainly he was sure on Little Joe.

The situation was simply this: Mr. Smith thought Mr. Brown would oppose Governor Hoke Smith and so stated. The former governor had no intention of so doing and so stated. All there was to it except the rumors it raised.

A little thing to kick up a fuss about you say? Yes but it only goes to show just how hot things are going to be.

J. RANDOLPH ANDERSON OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN IN MARIETTA.

J. Randolph Anderson candidate for governor will open his campaign in Marietta, Ga. June 6. The situation in Marietta and Cobb county is rather peculiar. Should Hugh Dorsey decide to run there is little question that he would sweep the county according to all reports. Mr. Anderson also is very strong in Cobb as he has a farm in that county and has spent his summers there for the past ten years. Colonel Nat L. Harris of Macon has great strength in the county and the situation is simply this: Mr. Anderson of the railroad commission is a resident of Marietta and there is no more popular man in the community.

HUGH DORSEY COULD BE ELECTED GOVERNOR OF COBB COUNTY.

Speaking of Cobb county one of Hugh Dorsey's strong supporters assured him some days ago that Mr. Anderson also is very strong in Cobb county and that he would be elected coroner of Cobb county without opposition.

That said Mr. Dorsey is the most gratifying piece of news I have received. I would not have anything about Cobb county politics will tell you just how strong a statement that is.

R. O. COCHRAN PAYS ENTRY FEE TO BE IN SENATORIAL RACE TO XIAX.

R. O. Cochran candidate for the senate against Hoke Smith has written the following:
 I have mailed today to the secretary of the democratic executive committee a check to cover my entrance fee of $250 as a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Hoke Smith.
 Any position for which all the people of Georgia are to vote. I probably am the first candidate to pay my entrance fee.

And in this connection I want to say that I have no views on concerns all religious moral and political questions. If elected to the United States senate I will endeavor to serve all the people of Georgia alike and will always be in favor of laws and business interests of all of the people of this country and especially those of our south land.

MANY CANDIDATES WILL GATHER TODAY AT FORT GAINES BARBECUE.

One of the most interesting meetings of the state campaign held so far took place today at Fort Gaines where a number of candidates will address the voters of several counties at a monster barbecue to be held at that place.

Those who have been announced as speakers are Judge Nat E. Harris of Macon, candidate for the United States senate. John R. Cooper also candidate for the United States senate and Thomas E. Watson Besides these there probably be a number of other political addresses.

An interesting feature of the occasion is the fact that Mr. Felder in going to Fort Gaines will go to the home county of a man whose opposition to him has been outspoken for many years and whose influence in Clay and surrounding counties has had a marked effect on the result of political contests in the past. This is none other than Hon. Emmet R. Shaw one of the most picturesque political figures in Georgia for many years. Mr. Shaw has a reputation for talking right out in meeting and Mr. Felder's invasion of his own home county may

SLATON HERE TO CARRY PICKENS.

Reports from Pickens say that it has the largest registered vote on record in the neighborhood of 10,000 and is a very strong place for the republican party.

The best posted political wisecracker give it their best judgment that Governor Hoke Smith will get practically all the votes in the county. His majority in this county in his race for the governorship in 1904 was very little less being said politically of an other race than that of a voter to the unadvised term of the late Senator J. Cantelero. I think he has no peers in the state. He is very little said of local affairs. He is a politician generally thought of as a politician. He is a politician. He is a politician. He is a politician.

The district is composed of Pickens, Oconee and Union. It is a very strong place for the republican party.

THEBENS CONDUCTING QUERE CAMPAIGN FOR U. S. SENATE.

James G. Thebens (Special) Judge, U. S. District Court, is a candidate for the unexpired term of the U. S. senate. He is a lawyer conducting a quiet but persistent campaign. He states that he is gaining ground daily and appears optimistic as to his chances.

Following the backing of F. H. Watson, Ronnie people read the issue of the last issue of The Jeffersonian in which Hutchens candidate was vigorously endorsed.

Additional interest has been given to the race for representation from seven counties by the statement of Dr. W. A. Hines of Cave Spring a physician and former mayor of that place that he will probably be in the race. He is the only announced candidate in the race of the U. S. senate and justice of the peace of the U. S. senate district. Three other probable entries are John W. Balle former solicitor general of the home circuit. Bever Watson one of the members of the present delegation from the county and Judge George P. Anderson who was one of the representatives in 1911-1912.

MASSINGALE CONTINUES TO FIGHT FOR DORSEY AS NEXT GOVERNOR.

Hon. T. E. Massingale, veteran legislator from Warren county, continues to urge Hugh M. Dorsey to announce a campaign for governor. Editor Constitution: I predict that Hugh Dorsey will be elected by the biggest majority ever known in any county running for governor in Georgia. The common people are going to go for a man who is a lawyer and a politician. He is a man who is a lawyer and a politician. He is a man who is a lawyer and a politician.

His announcement will take like a prairie fire on a dry day. He has had some political experience and the political rather than party points of view and he has not said he was a candidate for governor. He is a man who is a lawyer and a politician.

THE HYENA.

By GEORGE FITCH.
 Author of "At Good Old Slawh."

The hyena is what Nature has whined upon the unfortunate African as a substitute for the dog. There is a great deal of hyena love in the world but there has not been enough to encourage anyone to write some of it on the hyena. He is a clever, disliked and his character is ascribed with impunity. He is a cross between a wolf, a dog and a rendering works and has jaw strong enough to masticate a Kappie with ease. He is as large as a large dog, but very strong in the chest and forelegs. His Nature used up most of her material at this point and hunched him off with short weak hind legs. He also equipped him with an odor which would have the stank extreme if popular in Africa by comparison.

The hyena has long coarse hair and a stiff mane. He wears the hair along his back pompadour and has stout claws which he uses in lieu of a steam shovel. The hyena can dig a hole in the ground faster than a well drilling outfit and when a native dies in a sorrowful relatives are not satisfied until they have put a stone which is a little larger than the stoutest hyena over his grave.

The hyena spends his days hiding in caves and the ruined buildings of an ancient civilization which lived out below cost in Africa several thousand years ago. By night he roams in packs waiting for a victim has just died and making remarks to each other from one hill to another. The hyena has a long built in smile and talks in a horrible chuckle which sounds like a high protest at depicting hard times during a free trade administration. One of the favorite amusements of the African hunter is to steal softly up to an uproarious hunt by mounting a tree with a huge gun and to make him laugh out of the other side of his mouth.

Hyenas can be tamed and made into very affectionate domestic animals with no evil habits except that of eating children occasionally. However there is not a very active market for them and the man with a tame hyena usually has to throw in a farm with him in order to find a purchaser.

Breaking the Jinx.

THE UPSIDE-DOWN standing of the Crackers is evidently having a good effect. The jinx has been rattled thus far and the Crackers have won two games in a row something that they have accomplished but little this season.

An Even Break.

TUESDAY'S victory gives the Crackers an even break on the road trip. Three wins and three losses. That's about the average for the team.

Maybe It's Turning.

IT'S A LONG LANE, etc. is an old saying. Maybe the Crackers reached the end of the lane this week. It looks like some of the cracks that the other fellows have been getting have been coming to our boys.

Two Today

BY WINNING Tuesday the Crackers scored their first second straight victory since they played the Billikens last early part of May in Atlanta.

Playing Regularly

WE PREDICTED when it was announced during the winter that Kid Ebeloff had been signed by the Brooklyn Dodgers that he would not be long until he was playing regularly at shortstop.

Fulfilling Hope

THE BRAVES of Boston did not impress us when they were here this spring and we had a feeling that unless Stallings was able to get an outfield that could hit he was destined to be out of the team.

Putting for Him

BUCK HERZOG has the Cincinnati Reds playing absolutely the best brand of baseball. The Cincinnati Reds are unworked in several seasons. We are pulling for him.

The Right Thing

THE CHATTAHOOGA team has come along with the consent of the other teams in the league they are going to play. It is a good thing.

A Wise Move

CHARLEY SOMERS, owner of the Cleveland American League team and the New Orleans Southern League team pulled a good one when he decided to keep Johnny Dobbie at New Orleans.

OTTO JORDAN has gone back to the Georgia State League this time with Brunswick and as was the case when he went to Valdosta he got the town wild about him and his ball club.

FAZEBOTH, the young catcher who balked at playing with Atlanta, has joined the Cardinals. We should worry. Three looks mighty good to us from a distance.

CRACKERS PLAY

Flanagan's Pinch Hit Wins Pitchers' Battle in Eleventh; Perryman Hurls Fine Game

By Bradley Alley. Montgomery Ala. June 2.—(Special) Atlanta was the deciding game of the season for the Crackers in their eleventh inning of hard fought ball.

Perryman saved the game for him self in the fifth inning when he hit for two bases scoring two runners and Wolchonek came in for his share of the honor of winning the game by pulling in Hollander's drive to right center in the sixth inning which would easily have gone to the score board and been good for a home run had the Cracker center fielder not been there.

It was one of the greatest catches ever seen on the ball diamond. Perryman Long also caught and his catches on three occasions were nothing short of robbery.

Great Hurling. The game started off with both Perryman and Lively hurling remarkable ball. Perryman pitched the first three batters on either side until Montgomery was at the bat in the fourth inning. A base on balls sent the first runner to first.

Atlanta bunched a couple of hits together with a fielders choice and a single to right field. The Cracker pitcher was hit for two bases in the fifth and after that it was not until the eleventh inning that the game was decided.
