

TAKES POISON DOSE AS HUSBAND ENTERS HER ROOM AT HOTEL

Mrs. D. W. Knight, of Macon, Tries to End Her Life at Piedmont Hotel After Domestic Difficulty.

CONDITION OF WOMAN GRAVE, SAY DOCTORS

Husband Shadowed Her From Macon to Atlanta. He Believes She Came Here to See Her Child.

Two closed cabs—one in pursuit of the other—drove from the union station last night to the Piedmont hotel, where the first cab drew up at the curb and deposited a becomingly attired young woman at the Luckie street entrance.

The occupant of the pursuing cab was a man, nicely dressed and apparently 25 years old. He stood outside the entrance while the woman registered, then stepped to the register book, examining it. Then he caught an elevator directly behind the woman whom he had shadowed.

A moment later the entire fourth floor of the hotel was started by frantic screams which came from room 456, to which the woman had been assigned. She had taken a dose of carbolic acid when her husband—the man who had shadowed her—confronted her in her doorway and snatched from her instant death when he slapped the vial of poison from her lips.

Pursued by Her Husband. She is Mrs. Rosa Knight, of 2108 Broadway, Macon. She registered at the hotel as Mrs. W. K. Harding. Domestic trouble was the cause. The death attempt followed her disappearance of five days and a dramatic pursuit by the husband when he shadowed her from Macon to this city.

She was carried to Grady hospital. The ambulance, driven by Frank Trammell, made a record run. Physicians say her chances are slim for recovery. Knight himself was badly burned about the face and hands, when the acid, knocked from the hands of his wife, splashed upon him. He was also given medical aid at Grady.

Monday afternoon he tracked her to the Lenox hotel, where she had left her management that his wife had left to catch an outgoing train for Atlanta. He rushed to the railway station, boarding the same train. Searching the coaches, he found her in a Pullman car.

He kept out of her sight throughout the journey, keeping an eye on her, however. In Atlanta he shadowed her through the crowds at the Union station and to the sidewalk, where she caught a cab. He also got a cab, instructing the driver to follow. When he found at the Piedmont that she had been assigned to room 456 he went directly to it.

The door was unlocked. He stepped in. The woman had opened her suitcase, which lay on a table, and was removing her hat and wraps. As his husband stepped in he stood motionless on the floor, watching over her face and arms and his. She screamed and swooned into his arms. Dr. W. C. Robinson, house physician of the Piedmont, was summoned. He called a city ambulance.

Chicago, March 9.—Miss Ellen Gay Starr, one of the founders of Hull house, was arrested today charged with disorderly conduct in connection with the picketing of a large restaurant. After her arrest she told why she had joined the girls who were walking up and down in front of the place.

"I had two purposes," she said, "to accompany the girls and protest against any unfair treatment they might receive and my interest in helping the working people of the city."

Price, commissioner of agriculture, and by Thomas S. Felder, attorney general, will be in the nature of a board of inquiry. The alleged violators will be given a chance to answer all charges, either personally or through their attorneys.

DYING STATEMENT FAILS TO PREVENT JAILING OF WOMAN

Rome, Ga. The inquest resulted in the holding of Luis Ballard, inmate of a tenebrous resort, where the shooting took place, and the grand jury will investigate the case.

WOMAN'S IDENTITY IS NOT SWALLOWED IN HER HUSBAND'S

Washington, March 9.—The supreme court today attacked the ancient legal fiction that woman's identity is swallowed up in that of her husband.

In England for centuries, it was pointed out, woman was prevented from acquiring a domicile for any purpose in a jurisdiction other than that of her husband, while only in recent years the United States had allowed a wife to establish a domicile in a jurisdiction other than that of her husband's for the purpose of suing for divorce.

The court today said the "fiction was vanishing" and decided that a wife may establish a new domicile to bring any kind of suit, in event her husband is disloyal to her. The immediate effect of this decision was to approve the judgment for $25,000 procured by Mrs. Katherine Ozton, of Fayetteville, W. Va., against Miss Margaret H. Williamson for the alienation of her husband's affections.

FRANK WILL USE ADDRESS BY TAFT

Thinks the Ex-President's Speech Has Application to His Own Case—Dorsey to Combat Affidavits.

It is probable that Leo Frank will issue a public statement soon in comment upon the expression of ex-President W. H. Taft, recently in Boston, in which the former executive declared that public clamor often convicts innocent men.

Another development Monday which attracted widespread attention was the publication exclusively by The Constitution of a series of material questions which had been submitted by the ex-president to Frank and which had each been answered by him. There were seventeen of these questions, each of which had occupied the public mind ever since the trial. Their answers by the prisoner were grasped with eager interest.

At the governor's request a citizens' committee deputized 500 men, 400 to do duty in Sacramento and 100 in Broderick. The sheriff and district attorney of Yolo county are in charge of the force in that county.

Part of the army is scattered about this city. The rest is disrupted, as its leaders are in jail, charged with vagrancy. In certain officers of the army, including "General" Kelley, submitted peacefully to arrest today after refusing to accept transportation back to San Francisco, whence they had come.

Food in small quantities was sent into the camp across the river by charitably-disposed persons at nightfall, and the unemployed, stimulated by hot coffee and bread, held a meeting and effected a reorganization. HEADS SMASHED, STOMACHS EMPTY, BODIES DRENCHED

Gen. Kelley's Army of the Unemployed That Started for Washington Gets Into Trouble at Sacramento.

ARMED DEPUTY SHERIFFS DROVE BACK THE ARMY

There Was Fierce Fighting Before the Unemployed Were Barred—Governor Refused to Use Troops.

Sacramento, Cal., March 9.—Suffering with bruised heads and empty stomachs, 1,000 members of the unemployed armies that have been in camped tonight on the Yolo county side of the Sacramento river, to which they were driven by Sacramento county officers today.

Not all were suffering from injuries, but all were hungry. Most of them were cold from the drenching given them by the city fire department in routing them from their Sacramento camp. They swore vengeance on Sacramento because of their forcible ejection, but as their only avenue of entrance to this city is guarded by several hundred armed deputy sheriffs, and the town of Broderick across the river is equally well guarded, civil authorities believe state troops will not be needed.

The unemployed were driven from the Southern Pacific right-of-way late today by deputy sheriffs armed with pickhandles and police armed with clubs. They at first refused to go, but streams of water played on them by firemen started them on the run.

In Second street they stopped to give battle and many heads were bruised by deputy sheriffs and police and the rioters were driven to Front street. Some were clubbed hard enough to necessitate treatment in the county hospital.

Attacked Street Cars. In passing Second street the unemployed attacked street cars, hurling stones and sticks through windows and forcing passengers to leap on the sidewalks. A stone thrown through the windshield of a physician's automobile hit him in the mouth. The army was driven down Front street to the bridge. One hundred broke away and hid in a saloon.

Part of the army is scattered about this city. The rest is disrupted, as its leaders are in jail, charged with vagrancy. In certain officers of the army, including "General" Kelley, submitted peacefully to arrest today after refusing to accept transportation back to San Francisco, whence they had come.

LECTURE ON HEALTH POSING AS BROTHER, HE STEALS A BRIDE AT SHORTER COLLEGE

Washington, March 9.—(Special.)—Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, who was paralyzed four years ago and considered then a doomed man, delivered his colleagues a health lecture today. "He lived not wisely, but too well, and killed himself eating."

Senator Tillman suffered a stroke of paralysis, twenty-one members of the senate, including Vice President Sherman, have died.

Senator Tillman said he felt better today and had been told he looked better and knew it was so, than he had in years. Senators should live more simply, eat less, walk more and practice moderation in smoking and drinking and their lives would be lengthened, he told.

Senator West, of Georgia, voted for the resolution. He said Senator Tillman's speech was unique and interesting. "Personally, I haven't used tobacco in twenty years," said Senator West in conversation. "I drink very sparingly, although I am not a teetotaler. I practice moderation in eating, and find I am better for it. My breakfast consists of a couple of eggs and toast and a cup of coffee. That is all I eat until night, when I enjoy a hearty supper."

TRYING TO SATISFY ANTI-HOME RULERS

Premier Asquith Announces Proposed Concessions to Ulster—Plan Coldly Received by the Unionists.

London, March 9.—The British government's plan for conciliation of the Ulster unionists in connection with the Irish home rule bill was laid before the house of commons today. It met with a cool reception from the unionists.

Premier Asquith's offer was that a poll should be taken of parliamentary electors of each Ulster county to decide whether they should be excluded from the operation of the bill for a period of six years. This undoubtedly would result in the exclusion from Irish home rule of the counties of Antrim, Armagh, Londonderry and Down.

The premier pointed out that the government had chosen the period of six years because it would give ample time to test the working of the Irish parliament and would give an opportunity to the electors of the United Kingdom to pronounce whether the exclusion of the counties of Ulster should come to an end after six years.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, immediately rose and objected to the six-year limit. He urged the dissolution of the imperial parliament and the same sort of referendum would be offered to the counties of Ulster. John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish nationalist party, said his party was willing to make great sacrifices for peace, but the premier had gone to the extreme limit of concessions.

In his speech the premier reviewed the home rule controversy fully. He pictured the difficulties of the situation and ineffectual attempts in the past to reach an agreement. "The negotiations for a compromise last autumn failed to result even in an approach to an agreement," said the premier, "but made all realize more than ever the difficulties of the situation. To meet Ulster's difficulties, we

WOODWARD IS NEUTRAL IN POLICE BOARD FIGHT

Will Vote for Pace, But Is Not Conducting Campaign for Him.

Strictly neutral will be Mayor James G. Woodward's attitude in the three-cornered contest for the chairmanship of the police board tonight. Persistent rumors that he is using his influence against Commissioner W. P. Fain and is urging the election of Robert T. Pace caused Mayor Woodward to make a statement Monday to the effect that the only part he will take in the fight will be to cast his vote for Pace.

"If Fain was running before the people for an office I would give him my personal support, even to the extent of helping his campaign fund," Mayor Woodward said. "But his race for chairmanship of the board is a different matter. When I cast my vote it won't be the vote of Woodward. It will be the vote of the people of Atlanta."

Verney Is Gaining. Mayor Woodward's positive declaration that he will support Commissioner Pace—the first he has made since the boom was started for the seventh warder—may change the looks of the situation. Verney, who has been practically eliminated by politicians, is said to have gained considerable strength, although it is known that he has only the votes of Commissioners Garner and Johnson.

Mayor Woodward and Police Commissioner Dixon were in conference for more than thirty minutes Monday afternoon. Both denied that the conference related to the fight in the police board. Commissioner Dixon is understood to be pledged to vote for Commissioner Fain.

Close observers of the situation expect the contest to be decided between Fain and Pace. Friends of Commissioner Fain declare that he controls the vote of Commissioners Eakin, Smith, King and Dixon. He will have the privilege of voting for himself, making his total five. On the other hand, Commissioner Pace's friends are certain of only Mayor Woodward, Commissioner W. A. Verney, and his own vote, making his total four.

Mayor Expects Fight. Mayor Woodward is certain that the election will not be made on the first ballot. He believes that on the second ballot there will be a change of votes from one candidate to the other. Commissioners who have pledged themselves to vote for one of the candidates will be free to vote for someone else after the first ballot.

Politicians are wondering today whether the battle between Fain and Pace will equal the famous "dead lock" which occurred over the contest between Commissioners English and Brotherton last year. Mayor Woodward presided at that meeting, and he says that more than 24 ballots were cast.

A western politician, well known on account of his baldness and ready wit, surprised his friends by appearing with a heavy growth of hair; many of his old friends did not know him and others thought he had a wig. On being asked how he did it, he made the following statement: "I attribute the remarkable growth of my hair to the use of the following simple recipe which any lady or gentleman can mix at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but removes dandruff, scalp humors and prevents the hair from falling out. It darkens streaked, faded, gray hair and makes the hair soft and glossy. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home."—(Adv.)

SPRING-LIKE DAY IS THE FORECAST OF VON HERRMANN

Following is the forecast for Tuesday, as given out by the weather bureau at Atlanta: March is usually a very changeable month, and peculiar conditions are likely to bring about pleasant weather. The weather map Monday morning, however, showing high atmospheric pressure south of the state, indicates a very pleasant, generally clear day at Atlanta Tuesday, although a few lazy, cumulus clouds may float from south to north during the day. The temperature will be quite comfortable, ranging about 38 degrees to 40 degrees Tuesday morning, and rising up to over 40 degrees during the day. The wind, therefore, will be light like in character, without precipitation or high, disagreeable winds.

Beware of ointments offered as "just as good as Resinol"

If you have any skin trouble, you want Resinol. You want it because you have known about it for years, because your friends and neighbors have used it successfully, and because you know that physicians have prescribed it for nineteen years in the treatment of eczema, rashes, ringworm, pimples and other distressing eruptions. You do not want a "substitute" or something that a dealer tells you is "just as good as Resinol." You do not want it because you know nothing of its value. It has nobody's endorsement and for all you can tell it never did anyone any good at all. If a dealer tries to force a "substitute" on you, it is for a very good reason of his own—read about it in the next column.

This is why they do it When a clerk tries to make you take a "substitute" for Resinol, or any other standard article, don't blame him. Blame his employer. The clerk probably would rather sell you the genuine Resinol, because he knows even better than you that doctors prescribe it and that it does heal skin troubles. Also, it is easier to give you what you want than to argue you into buying something you DON'T want. But because some cheaply-made imitation pays a few cents more profit, an unscrupulous dealer here and there gives a dealer's commission if they can force you to buy an inferior Resinol. However, look the fact that the imitation may do you more harm than good, or perhaps be just what you want. How do you feel about it? Almost every town has its "substituter," look out for him.

Most druggists sell Resinol gladly. Small jar 30c, large jar 50c. Resinol Soap 25c per cake. For trial size free, write to Dept. 48-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

GEORGIA AUTO OWNERS FORM STATE CLUB

Georgia automobile owners held a meeting at the Ansley hotel Monday at 10 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a state automobile club. There were representatives from Savannah, Macon, Columbus and Atlanta. Following are some of the objects of the club: To look after the interests of good roads between all leading centers and all county seats. To improve the laws on all paved roads and especially at dangerous curves and crossings. To safeguard the interests of all owners of motor-driven vehicles and prevent unjust legislation and taxation. To have the laws on all paved roads improved at the next legislature to tax automobiles from $2 to $20 per year according to the horse power. To enforce the laws against throwing glass in the streets and roads. To have laws to make the theft of automobiles a felony instead of a misdemeanor, and offering rewards for conviction of parties stealing automobiles. To organize with each city and county an organization of its own local club and club grounds for social purposes. To establish a permanent home for the automobile clubs of Georgia in some central location where meetings may be held, and as headquarters for the dissemination of news of interest to owners of motor-driven vehicles; issuing and distributing road maps and looking after the general welfare of members.

PREPARATIONS ARE MADE FOR STATE S. S. MEETING

The various railroads of the state have granted a special round trip rate from practically all points in the state to Milledgeville, where the State Sunday School convention will be held on April 14, 15 and 16. The program committee for this convention has prepared an unusually strong program, having secured in all more than thirty-five speakers. Not only will "Georgia's best" Sunday school workers be on the program, but some out-of-the-state workers of national reputation have been secured. Among the speakers will be Rev. E. D. Morgan, D. D., Macon, president of the Southern Baptist convention; John D. Walker, Sparta, N. C.; Dr. L. O. Bricker, Atlanta; Rev. J. R. Sevier, Augusta; W. Witham, Atlanta; and Mrs. Mary Harris, Macon. Special preparations are being made for the music which is to be under the direction of Professor E. O. Bessell, of Chicago, assisted by Professor Alvin W. LIVES ARE ENDANGERED IN EARLY MORNING FIRE

Narrowly escaping death Monday morning when fire destroyed their residence at 240 Courtland street, Mrs. John C. Pickard and her two children, Mary aged 5, and John, aged 20 months, rushed from the building when it became enveloped in flames. The fire was perhaps one of the hardest fought residence blazes in months. Several hours were required to subdue it, other hands being constantly engaged in the vicinity were constantly endangered. The loss is estimated somewhere in the neighborhood of $2,000. The loss is covered by insurance, however.

WILSON—CHESS—MASTER.

An Associated Press dispatch, undoubtedly inspired, portrays President Wilson as probably the most skillful, constructive and far-seeing diplomatic chess-player in contemporary history. With the candor which he could not have employed in an official message, the president opens his mind to the country, and shows to it a vista of possibilities stupendous in their world reach, their effect upon history and upon our part in it.

Our keeping faith with England in the matter of Panama canal tolls is the pivot upon which the whole situation turns in one direction toward national honor and progress; in the other, toward the veiled hostility of all Europe and a cramped international trade development.

It is not actual or imminent war. In its stead, the president presents a panorama appealing to every national ambition, every national scruple, every national sense of caution to be at peace with the world, that our energies may be released for the task of development.

The patriotic side alone is sufficient. There is the sordid element of self-interest if one cares to seek no higher level. In other words, and to use figures of speech, we may represent Wilson telling congress this little narrative: "Redeem our promise to England in the matter of Panama and England will be our impregnable friend. Already she has shown her friendly tendencies in withholding action on the Benton incident. Already her discouraging attitude toward her quasi-ally, Japan, has saved us possible embarrassment over the California incident. Where England leads, Europe follows. If we betray our pledge to England, there is no guarantee we may not have to face a trade and diplomatic war with all Europe. If we keep our pledge, we assure that the two great English-speaking nations shall unite in an unwritten compact to preserve the peace of the whole world."

THE SEASON TICKET SALE.

The official preliminary to Atlanta's annual season of grand opera got under way yesterday with the opening of the season ticket sale.

Company this year, from points of view of operas and of individual stars, are the most attractive yet presented outside of New York city.

To name the artists who will participate in the week of music would be to enumerate most of the men and women who hold top rank in the international world of vocal melody.

Another consideration is that Atlanta is the one place in America, outside of New York, where these stars may be heard in repertoire, with the orchestras, conductors and stage settings of the Metropolitan Opera company.

In view of the demand for choice season seats yesterday, those who expect to patronize each performance will do well to lose no time in clinching their selections.

The season ticket sale runs for a few days only. And at the present rate the local and out-of-town demand will quickly exhaust the more preferable locations.

TIME TO PLAY SAFETY.

The latest report from Mexico is that Villa has withdrawn his threat to execute the younger Terrazas, scion of the enormously wealthy Mexican family, in the event that the half-million dollar ransom demanded is not forthcoming.

It will be well for the future peace and reputation of Mexico, and for her amicable relations with the United States, if this delectable bandit-gang is serious in his promise to reform his policy of blood-hunt.

The embers from the ugly and apparently inexcusable Benton incident, still are smoldering. Provocation from other directions is not lacking. Little would be needed to start blazing a fire that would destroy not only Villa, but possibly that right of Mexico to settle her own troubles, a right insisted upon by President Wilson with such infinite patience and resource.

A limit comes to all tolerance, especially tolerance of practices that border on anarchy run to murder and chaos fast creeping into political and military insanity. The people of the United States have shown pretty conclusively that they are back of Wilson in his policy of "watchful waiting" and of the avoidance of intervention at all hazards save those of national and international dishonor.

But Villa and his nominal chief, Carranza not to mention the ruderous Huerta, may easily precipitate a crisis which will make the present position of this country wholly untenable. That would be bad for the United States. If any discretion still lingers in the republic to the south of us, now is the time for it to show its stern face and its restraining hand.

MILITANCY RESURGENS.

Americans who hold views of tolerance with regard to the mooted issue of woman suffrage will get no pleasure out of the revival of militant suffragism in England. The riot in London's Trafalgar square last Sunday came little short of the rowdy and violent scenes of the old days, when women clawed the faces of policemen and policemen were driven to semi-violence in handling hysterical women.

With the schism in the somewhat barking Paankhurst family, hope had kindled that the more aggressive suffragettes had given over the policy of coercion. Surely, it should have been borne in on them that they gained nothing by it, except to discredit their cause and push farther into the background its eventual fulfillment.

The Sunday shindy upsets this hope and creates the misgiving that England may face a revival of militancy in its most malignant and unhappy form.

At least we in America may be grateful that our own country is being spared such repellent and unnatural exhibitions. Sentiment for woman suffrage is marching steadily onward. But its path is not strewn with the mock-martyrdom of misguided women, fanatical but pitiful in their blind disregard of those qualities men still demand in woman, despite an age of materialism and economic equality.

SHEEP-KILLING DOGS.

A story comes to The Constitution from Chattooga county to the effect that dogs have been busy with the flocks of that county, slaughtering sheep in numbers. The sheep-killing dog has been and is the bane of the sheep industry in Georgia. More than once the legislature has thundered against the mongrel and passed laws looking to his extinction.

But against all these worthy efforts, the mongrel has survived and prospered and sheep have paid the penalty. Indeed, it has been shown in some cases that when it comes to the show-down, some Georgians are more enamored of the dog than of the sheep; of the parasite than of the dividend.

DAILY GRIST FROM THE STATE'S POLITICAL GRIND

HAS LONG PROMISED UNITED FRONT BY SOUTH GEORGIA COME AT LAST? Notwithstanding the lack of recent developments in the senatorial situation, interest is growing by leaps and bounds in south Georgia, the people of that section seeming to be awakened by the fact that now of all times their section is presented with the opportunity of representation in the senate of the United States.

The practically unanimous position of the press of south Georgia in endorsing Governor Stanton as the man to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Bacon, and its acknowledgment that to retain this senator that their section of a state must unite upon some one man, is significant.

Neither the daily nor the weekly press of south Georgia is taking very kindly to the proposition of its long claim for recognition being answered by candidates coming from another part of the state.

The great break between the two points above mentioned, where no seismograph was to be found, suggested that possibly the best and most favorable location for an instrument in this wide stretch of country would be at the Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta.

An instrument installed in that institution and placed under the care of the department of physics, it was claimed, would be not only of great scientific importance in interpreting earth tremors, but would, as seismographs in the United States, be a study of earthquake phenomena, in general.

In this connection, it might be stated that the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which met in Atlanta during the Christmas holidays, has long advocated the installation of a seismograph in the state of Georgia. This association at one time strongly urged congress to make a suitable appropriation to have seismographs installed in certain more important points and placed in the care of the United States bureau of geology.

What it is. Seismographs are instruments used for determining the place and the nature of earth's tremors, or earthquakes, which take place beneath the surface of the earth. They are of great variety, but all instruments consist of three essential parts: (1) The support attached to the earth; (2) the stationary mass or pendulum suspended from a fixed point above the earth; (3) the recording motion of the pendulum. The important factors recorded by such instruments are the exact time of transit of the earth wave, the direction of the wave, its direction of emergence and the amount of deflection.

Seismographs are necessarily more or less costly instruments, and their installation, workmanship and accuracy of adjustment of the parts, but excellent instruments can be had from both German and French manufacturers for only a few hundred dollars.

NEW SENATOR OVERWHELMED WITH TENDERS OF SUPPORT

Washington, March 9.—(Special).—The age-long silence of the Sphinx, the other in the world of being absolutely unbreakable on that which is being maintained by Georgia's new senator, Hon. W. S. West, in the matter of the announcement of his intentions with regard to the race for the unexpired term of Senator Bacon, which he now temporarily holds, but...

Belonged to south Georgia. The Gainesville Herald, one of the strongest political influences in north Georgia, has the following with reference to the senatorship: "Though we had not published any prediction, we had thought that the senatorship of Georgia would be appointed to succeed the late Senator Bacon—a man not living above the clouds. Bacon's home is in this county, and his political enemies, which we didn't think he had."

Belongs to south Georgia. This being a north Georgia view of the matter, it is interesting to know how south Georgia stands on the question. Governor Slaton showed where he stands in the matter of recognizing south Georgia, and future developments in that direction will depend largely upon the attitude of south Georgia in this matter.

JUDGE W. H. MOORE MAKING RACE FOR REPRESENTATION IN BEN HILL

GOV. ONEAL RENTS THEATER TO REPLY TO CHARGES AGAINST HIM

Montgomery, Ala., March 9.—(Special).—Charges made by ex-Governor B. E. Comer that the governor of Alabama may have shared in the division of the spoils of the Lacy steal "behind the capitol," that he betrayed the people in the state in the recent settlement of the railroad rate litigation, and all other accusations of the former governor, will be answered by the chief executive in a public speech at the Grand theater here on Monday night, March 16.

State Geologist Says Atlanta Should Possess Machine to Detect Quakes

Editor Constitution: The seismic shock which Atlanta experienced on last Thursday afternoon accentuates very forcibly the importance of making Atlanta a seismological station. This question was brought out by an article published in The Bulletin of the Seismological Society of America by Professor Andrew C. Lawson, of the University of California, in 1911.

The Georgia Tech. The great break between the two points above mentioned, where no seismograph was to be found, suggested that possibly the best and most favorable location for an instrument in this wide stretch of country would be at the Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta.

What it is. Seismographs are instruments used for determining the place and the nature of earth's tremors, or earthquakes, which take place beneath the surface of the earth. SLATON MEN IN CHEROKEE COUNTY CONFIDENT OF GOVERNOR'S STRENGTH. Canton, Ga., March 9.—(Special).—Friends of Governor Slaton in Cherokee county, are enthusiastic over the prospects of his being a candidate for the United States senate, and they believe that he can be elected to this office by a large majority.

TRADING AT HOME KEEPS THE POT BOILING

Editor Constitution: For the past fifty years the people of this country have been trying to correct their own financial mistakes by legislative enactments in the form of currency bills and makeshift legislation. Effort after effort has been made to correct, by artificial means, the mistake of an artificially made money center.

How did we do this? Simply by ignoring the basic law of progress by trading away from home. When we had bonds or other securities to sell we rushed to New York to sell them in such offering them to people at home in such nominations as the people could handle.

It occurs to me that it is time for the people of this country, when at the present time, to begin to plan to fix their securities at home and thus keep interest at home instead of permitting its use elsewhere to add to our financial ills.

WHAT NORWAY AND DENMARK DO TO COMBAT UNEMPLOYMENT

BY KATHERINE COMAN, Professor of Economics, Wellesley College. (This article, with its timely bearing on the problem of unemployment in this country, is based on first hand observation, and was first discussed in Europe during governmental pensions and social insurance.)

The first application on a national scale of government aid to voluntary insurance against unemployment was undertaken by the new kingdom of Norway. The year 1904 had brought serious industrial depression to Scandinavia, and the desperate endeavors to meet the necessities of the men chronically out of work led to the appointment of a commission. Its recommendations form the basis of the law passed by the Storting in 1906.

Norwegian Plan. The object of the law was to encourage and develop the efforts toward self-insurance already in operation among the principal trade unions. The statute provided that the state and the communes concerned reimburse one-fourth of all benefits paid from unemployment funds organized in accordance with certain prescriptions.

Benefits. As to the terms on which benefits may be paid, the law provides that the unemployment must be involuntary, i. e., it must not have been caused by strike or lockout or by drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The applicant must have reported to the nearest employment agency without being able to find suitable work and he may not be in receipt of aid from any other fund.

At Glut of "Reformers" And Pee-Wee Legislation Ken Shots Are Taken. Editor Constitution: On the 30th of January last, Hon. Edgar Montgomery Cullen, chief judge of the court of appeals of New York, resigned on account of his extreme age, delivered an address at Carnegie hall, New York, before the Bar association on the subject: "Whether Individual Liberty is Still to Obtain in America."

Earl Grey, America's Friend In Our Present Crisis In Mexico and Japan. Editor Constitution: Events along the border of Mexico are of tremendous import just now. Delicate international complications are not reassuring at present. Serious involvements seem imminent by reason of Governor Coahuila's unreasonable precipitations.

His Equipment. It was his official duty to break down the Malabe insurrections and bring order out of the frightful irregularities. He marched through revolutionary fires to comparative victory. These dreadful experiences would convey to his people a sympathetic understanding and fair consideration during the pending Mexican crises.

How did we do this? Simply by ignoring the basic law of progress by trading away from home. When we had bonds or other securities to sell we rushed to New York to sell them in such offering them to people at home in such nominations as the people could handle.

number of men belonging to the recognized unemployment funds amounts to 27,000, only one-half of the total number of union men in Norway. It is probable that the present industrial situation discourages thrift. Norway is very prosperous and labor much in demand so that unemployment is not a live issue.

The Danish law of 1907 also utilizes organized labor to promote this most difficult form of insurance. The trade unions had indeed, done much already in the nine years, between 1899 and 1907, the organized trades of Denmark spent $507,854 in employment benefits, and they lent all their influence in support of the bill of the state aid.

Workers Insured. Fully 11,000 persons and 60 per cent of the workmen in Denmark are now insured. (The proportion of insured persons is 100 per cent in Denmark and 28 per cent of the insurable women.) Practically all the industrial laborers, who are unionists and socialists to a man, are insured under the act.

Team Play. The success of the Danish system of unemployed insurance may be attributed in large measure to the spirit of team play, which obtains in all classes, and which renders individual selfishness and co-operation of state and commune with labor organizations acceptable to all classes.

It is just to conclude that the Danes have demonstrated two economic truths. First, that unemployment is the most frequent cause of pauperism, and second, that insurance is the most effective remedy for unemployment.

LABOR CHIEFS DOOMED TO SERVE IN THE PEN

U. S. Supreme Court Rejects Plea of Men Convicted in Dynamite Case.

Washington, March 9.—The final chapter in the iron workers' campaign to destroy "open shops" with dynamite and nitroglycerin was written today by the supreme court in refusing to review penitentiary sentences imposed on Frank H. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and twenty-three of the association's members.

Beautiful Performance Given By Pawlona and Company

Beautiful beyond the power of words to picture, one might as well try to catch and hold the fairy fire that flash on the surface of a soap bubble as to convey an adequate idea of the art of Anna Pawlona, who held one of the largest audiences of the season enthralled at the Atlanta theater last night.

Nor can one leave the theater and remember half the pleasures of the evening's performance. Certain features stand out sharp and distinct, but there is so much of sheer beauty that one is bewildered as he tries to recall it all. One wishes of all things that he had time for it all to return to him that he might at least attempt the feat.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair, soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, softness and irremovable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair, but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—sprouting out all over your scalp.

WOMAN COULD NOT SIT UP

Now Does Her Own Work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

Ironton, Ohio. "I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedies a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also. "I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks so healthy that even the doctor speaks of it. You can publish this letter if you like."

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Conditions styled "most deplorable" in report on West Virginia coal strike.

Washington, March 9.—The report of the senate subcommittee which investigated the West Virginia coal strike was filed today by Senator Swanson of Virginia chairman.

The report while characterizing conditions in the strike field as most deplorable explains that the resolution authorizing the investigation conferred on the committee no power to recommend remedial legislation.

The report was a general review and summary of the various reports of conditions in the Paint Creek and Cabin Creek fields in summing up the conclusions of the committee.

Among the contributing causes may be enumerated the failure of the operators in the Paint Creek district to enter into a binding contract with the United Mine workers.

The determination of the coal operators under no circumstances to recognize the miners as an organization and the refusal to form a union for the employment by the operators of many of whom were aggressive and arbitrary mine guards in the employment of the operators.

Having placed over two-thirds of these bonds, we offer, subject to prior sale, the unsold portion at 100 and interest, yielding 6%. We summarize from the letter of Frank K. Bull, President of the Company, copies of which may be had upon application: (1) The bonds are secured by a closed first mortgage on the real property of the Company, including the manufacturing plant at Racine, Wis., and valuable land and buildings in other cities. (2) Further secured by pledge with the Trustee of $12,000,000 of Notes received in the ordinary course of business in payment for agricultural implements. Only after $2,500,000 of the bonds have been paid can the Company withdraw notes against the payment of bonds, so that after two years the amount of notes will be at least 125% of bonds outstanding. (3) The Company's experience since its organization in the collection of the notes taken in its business similar to those deposited to secure these bonds, shows that 97% of the principal of such notes has been paid. (4) The Company obligates itself to keep net quick assets of not less than $18,000,000, or 150% of the total amount of bonds issued under this mortgage. (5) Earnings of the Company for the year 1913 applicable to the payment of interest on its debts were $2,002,278. (6) Proceeds of the sale of these bonds will be used for the sole purpose of securing the current loans of the Company. (7) This Company and its predecessor have been engaged in the manufacture of threshing machines and other farming implements for over seventy-two years, and have never had an unprofitable year. (8) The issue is followed by $12,150,000 7% Preferred Stock and $8,300,000 Common Stock. Pending the engraving of the definitive bonds, interim certificates of the First Trust & Savings Bank will be issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000, exchangeable for bonds when ready for delivery. Delivery will be made at any bank desired, express prepaid, payable in Chicago or New York funds at par. Orders may be telephoned or telegraphed at our expense. Potter, Choate & Prentice First Trust & Savings Bank 55 Wall Street, New York First National Bank Building, Chicago Orders for these bonds will also be received by ROBINSON-HUMPHREY-WARDLAW CO.
