

VANDERBILT LOST, METHODISTS PLAN NEW UNIVERSITY

Adoption of Majority Report of Special Committee Makes Probable the Establishment of Another Institution.

CHANCELLOR KIRKLAND ATTACKED BY SPEAKERS

He's Blamed for the Situation at Vanderbilt—The Vote on Report Was Close. 153 For to 134 Against.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 16.—The establishment of the Methodist Episcopal church south of a new university to replace Vanderbilt university has come a strong probability here tonight with the adoption by the general conference of the church of the majority report of the committee of fifteen after oratory both for and against the report had been plentiful in morning afternoon and night sessions.

The final vote on the motion to adopt the majority report taken at 11 o'clock resulted:

Ayes 153, nays 134. The vote came after a motion to substitute the minority report had been lost by a vote of 151 against the substitution and 140 for it. A motion to reconsider was then entered and the conference adjourned until 9 o'clock Monday morning.

The final vote came tonight after an entire day of oratorical battles. In fact, the entire day was devoted to the reports of the committee, and the special order of the day, and were discussed by a large number of delegates both lay and clerical.

For the first time since the general conference began ten days ago an afternoon session was held. When it came apparent that a final vote could not be reached during the afternoon a night session also the first of its kind since the conference began was arranged for.

Delegates Worn and Tired. The delegates were worn and tired when the last roll call was taken but almost every one stuck by his post until adjournment.

At tonight's session, Bishop E. D. Moulton of San Antonio, Texas, presided. Among those speaking in favor of the majority report, previous to the final vote, were Dr. T. F. Durban, Winston Salem, N. C.; Dr. Bascom Anthony, Wrightsville, Ga.; and D. H. Lanebaugh, Muskogee, Okla. For the minority report at the night session speeches were made by Dr. W. F. T. Lett, dean of Vanderbilt university, Nashville, Tenn.; H. Snyder, Spartanburg, S. C.; and Dr. W. A. Christian, Richmond, Va.

Following the close of the speeches tonight a call for the previous question was sustained on an aye and aye vote and the roll call on the vote regarding the substitution of the minority report was then taken.

Oratory was plentiful throughout the day. In the various speeches Chancellor J. H. Kirkland and the board of trust of Vanderbilt were severely arraigned as having betrayed the trust placed in them by the church. The action of the college, the bishops in connection with the university since the last general conference was unanimously approved and plans were proposed for the consideration of the conference.

Vanderbilt Fight Rests. The conference showed its desire to hurry action on the Vanderbilt case at the morning session when at the completion of the reading of the minutes of the previous session G. H. Lanebaugh, chairman of the special committee sought to have the committee reports made the order of the day. After a brief discussion the conference voted to sit at 10 o'clock on the afternoon of the 16th to hear from several fraternal delegates from the Tennessee and Canadian Methodist churches.

With the report of No. 1 of the committee approving the work of the bishops in the past four years unanimously adopted the recommendations of the committee were brought before the conference by a motion to substitute the minority for the majority report. The majority report was adopted and the minority report was rejected. He declared both reports were adroit in not overstepping the bounds of propriety the majority report providing that the conference must face the facts while the minority ignored these facts and suggested that the church continue the relations as they were supposed to exist before the decision of the Tennessee supreme court.

The majority report he said, points out a definite plan of action. The case, he asserted, could not be taken to the federal court, as it had been adjudicated in the state courts and he did not believe that any member of the church cared to again go through the state courts after their recent experience.

He Attacks Kirkland. Dr. Lamar claimed that the majority report says to the eight patronizing conferences. We have given you Vanderbilt university with a clear and unclouded title but we now return it to you with a cloud not because of any fault of ours but because our representatives on the board of trust have been untrue to their trust. He said it was right that the conference should pay the expense of defending the rights of the annual conferences should they desire to test the question in the courts.

The conditions at Vanderbilt, Dr. Lamar said, are impossible for cooperation. Dr. Lamar criticized the administration of the university in caustic terms. He alluded to Chancellor J. H. Kirkland.

YAARAB TEMPLE TO HONOR ADAIR

Nobles Will Show Appreciation of Potentate's Work by Banquet and by Gift Purchased by Them.

Yaarab temple is going to make demonstration of its appreciation of the magnificent work of Potentate Forrest Adair in securing the Shrine meeting for Atlanta and in directing the arrangements for the entertainment of the Shriner who came to Atlanta.

First they are going to give Mr. Adair a banquet which promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in the south.

At that banquet Mr. Adair is going to be presented with a gift to be purchased with subscriptions coming from the nobles of Yaarab temple.

Committee Named. A special committee has been named to take charge of the arrangements for the banquet and to receive subscriptions to the fund for the purchase of a suitable testimonial of the appreciation of the members of Yaarab temple of Mr. Adair's untiring efforts in behalf of the great gathering just over.

This committee is composed of Fred and J. Eason, John A. Hynds, W. A. Foster and J. Greenfield.

The committee has already set the date for the monster banquet for next Monday night. In the meantime it is expected that every noble in the city will contribute to the fund being raised a limit of $2 having been placed for each individual subscription.

The following letter has been sent to every member of Yaarab temple by the committee:

Letter to Members. My Dear Noble: Atlanta made good on its Shrine convention and there is glory enough for one and all. It was a very successful one.

But Atlanta could not have accomplished all that was done without the magnificent leadership and untiring devotion of our beloved potentate, Forrest Adair, and it is befitting that Yaarab temple should show its appreciation to Noble Adair in some tangible manner.

The committee has already suggested that we give Mr. Adair a banquet at a very early date presenting him at the same time with a suitably testimonial of some description.

The gift must be voluntary—must come from the hearts of the nobles. Please make your offering at once writing check payable to Treasurer J. S. Floyd, and mailing same under the enclosed addressable envelope.

Secretary J. C. Greenfield, Masonic temple, 200 N. Peach street, Atlanta, Ga., will be reaching him tomorrow morning the 20th as the committee having matters in charge have arranged for a banquet Monday night, the 21st.

It has been suggested that each noble be asked to make a voluntary offering of $2. We do not wish any amount larger than this but if one has a larger sum, please check it over to the committee. The fund will be sufficient for the dinner and the present also but let us do it now and the fragrance of the convention is still with us.

AMERICAN MISSIONS RAISED TO EMBASSIES

Washington, May 16.—American diplomatic missions to Argentina, Chile and today were elevated in rank from legations to embassies when President Wilson in the presence of the Argentine and Chilean ministers to the United States, Romulo S. Naon and Eduardo Suarez respectively, and prominent officials, signed the two bills passed by congress for that purpose.

To Minister Naon he presented the gold pen with which he signed the Argentine bill and to Minister Suarez the one he used in signing the Chilean bill. The two South American nations will reciprocate by raising their diplomatic missions to the United States to embassies.

After signing the bills the president turned to the two South American diplomats.

Let me say gentlemen how gratifying it is to me that it should fall within my time that this long deserved recognition of the full rank and equality of your two countries should have been accorded. It affords me great personal pleasure and I want to look forward if I may to closer and closer relations with our sister republics and to hope that you and we are glad to be associated with.

1,100 Men Made Idle.

Cincinnati, May 16.—Eleven hundred men were thrown out of employ ment here today when twenty planing mills closed their plants and it is estimated that between 5,000 and 6,000 men including carpenters, painters, painters and members of various other affiliated trades will be forced to stop work by next Tuesday because of an inability to obtain building material. The mill owners state the plants were closed on account of a recent strike of carpenters which had so tied up work that they had very few orders.

THOMAS TO OFFER FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Formal Announcement of the South Georgia Man May Be Expected at Any Time.

Valdosta, Ga., May 16.—(Sp. Cl.)—Judge W. L. Thomas of Valdosta will probably be in the race for governor of Georgia this year.

While this statement does not come from him, the wisest political judges and best informed men in south Georgia believe that the pressure brought to bear on Judge Thomas will prove irresistible and that he will make the race in response to the unanimous demand from south Georgia.

Judge Thomas has only one more of the regular spring terms of court to hold in his circuit after which his definite announcement may be expected. During the past week tenders of the nearest support have come to him from every section of the state.

Many of the ablest speakers and strongest men in Georgia have volunteered to take the stump in his behalf and once his campaign is launched it will be possibly the most vigorous in the history of Georgia politics. He would set the race with between three and four months. Georgia counties lined up solidly for him and he is of too broad mold to base his campaign on ordinary sectional lines. He cannot be inensible of the loyal support of his home people.

A gratifying feature of his reports which have come to Judge Thomas friends within the past week and a factor which will no doubt have much weight in his decision is the remarkable fact, which he has expected, that candidates in middle and north Georgia. Reports indicate that he would carry many counties in the northern portion of the state in which the people believe the time has come to extend south Georgia a measure of consideration.

MONEY APPROPRIATED FOR EMBASSY HOMES

Washington, May 16.—The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill aggregating $ 800,000 was passed by the house today. It provides for the acquisition of new sites and buildings in Tokio at $30,000 in Bern, Switzerland, $110,000 and in Mexico City at $13,000. During the debate on the Mexico City embassy Representative Wingo of Arkansas protested it would be a waste of money.

Is there any man here who believes we are going to need a building in Mexico City for many years? he asked. We may patch up peace now but the history of Mexico shows what Mexico's history for hundreds of years has been one of strife, revolution, anarchy and despotism. I do not want war. I hope it can be averted but I am not chastising any illusions that we may have permanent peace in Mexico until we take possession of that country. I hope for peace, but expect ultimately we will have war.

HARRIS ENTERS GOVERNOR'S RACE

Will Resign From State Committee and Will Quit Place as the Director of Census.

By John Corrigan Jr. Washington, May 16.—(Special.)—William J. Harris, director of the census today issued his formal announcement for governor. He will resign his present position as director of the census in order to make the race.

He says he does not understand this federal position he occupies as more important than that of governor of Georgia though the salary is greater and it means a financial sacrifice to give it up to make the race for governor.

He pays his respects to Tom Watson calling him a character of the first order and saying the latter is a democratic premier taking part in a democratic primary.

Formal Announcement. The man in the race which Mr. Harris is running is based on the issue of the Western and Atlantic rail. He says a railroad attorney would be elected governor now and a new lease of the state would be given. His formal announcement will be made in a few days as an act of the democratic primary to be held August 1. He will send in his resignation as director of the census to the secretary of the census.

I shall make my own election at my home (editorial) within the next few days. My contest for the governor's honor will be held in the heart of the state. I have had such important duties to perform as he will have during the next few months in the leaving of the Western and Atlantic railroads as the director of the common schools will be open will depend upon the amount of money received from this property. Already three candidates have announced for governor and they have all pledged to handle the leasing of the state's railroad the most important question which will come before the people of Georgia for the next twelve to fifteen years.

It will be a sad day for the railroads and for Georgia if the late legislative session of the railroads attempt to do the nomination of the next governor by putting out a candidate in every section of the state in order to deadlock the state convention so as to defeat one or another of the candidates who makes the fight for the school children of the state. I sincerely hope this may not be true. I believe in electing the governor by the people and in developing the state's resources, that our employes are among my best friends, that the people of Georgia are most friendly to the railroad, but they must try to name the next governor.

Cannot Be Ladone. A law can be enacted repealed or amended at a session of the legislature but when the state railroad property is leased for twenty five or fifty years it can be done by no other means. I do not believe in the state for the state's resources, that our employes are among my best friends, that the people of Georgia are most friendly to the railroad, but they must try to name the next governor.

Embassy Dinner Not Ceremonial. The dinner at the Spanish embassy was not ceremonial and served chiefly for the formation of acquaintance. There was only one formal toast proposed by the Spanish ambassador to the success of the mediation. He said:

It is the earnest wish of Spain that the great work which has come to a successful issue. The noble task of the mediation deserves the greatest credit and I am confident that the result of their work will be handed down to posterity as one of the great endeavors in the interest of humanity and peace that ever has been attempted and that it is my earnest hope that the noble mediation efforts will meet with the success that they deserve.

Ambassador Riano then speaking in Spanish said:

As for your representatives, I wish to say that the blood of the United States with the mother country by the closest bonds of blood friendship. I need not tell you how cordial my greeting and welcome I offer you. I am desirous of contributing as far as depends on me to the happy outcome of the mission which with such high regard you have undertaken.

The ambassador continued in English saying:

Gentlemen, I ask you to raise your glasses and drink with me to the success of the mediation.

After a Commemorative. Frederick W. Johnson, typical wittily spoke of the Spanish mission as a personage in whom all eyes are fixed. He said that the Spanish mission could take a common place and Senator Rabun the first Mexican delegate, thanked Ambassador Riano for his hospitality and kind wishes for the success of the conference.

By common accord, the topic of the conference was a matter of discussion at the hour of the conference. The saloon afterwards delegates and mediators chatted less controversial topics for informal discussion.

HUERTA'S ENVOYS ARE ENTERTAINED BY UNITED STATES

Delegates to the Mediation Conference Reach Washington and Accept Hospitality of State Department

Washington, May 16.—The arrival here late today of the three Huerta delegates to the mediation conference to be held at Niagara Falls, N. Y., was a tangible evidence of the success of efforts to induce Huerta to cease the Mexican civil war.

The Huerta delegates, who arrived here at 10 o'clock, were met by the Mexican consul, who with them at the hotel.

The Mexican delegates were accompanied by the American ambassador, who with them at the hotel.

HUERTA PRESSED ABOUT PARKS.

Meanwhile urgent representations made to the Huerta government through the Brazilian minister at Mexico City, as to the reported execution of Private Samuel Parks, an American soldier, who strayed through the Mexican lines, was partly relieved by a message from Mexican Foreign Minister Ruiz, to Spanish Ambassador Riano, stating that the disappearance of Parks would be investigated immediately. Beyond the Secretary Bryan had no information on Parks' disappearance.

Reports that Parks was summarily executed and his body mutilated have not been confirmed.

Official reports today showed the constitutionalists were rapidly extending their field of occupation. Consul Canada, at Vera Cruz, reported them in possession of Tuxpam and the state department also received word that constitutionalists had also occupied the town of Minicova. Admiral Howard reported the federals were likely to evacuate the port of Guaymas.

Tampico was reported by Admiral Mayo to be resuming its normal condition, with foreign properties protected and the constitutionalist commander General Gonzales exchanging informal calls with the American and British admirals.

Puerto Mexico has become the center of the interest with the arrival of the Mexican gunboats and the possibility of some move they may make. Three American ships are watching them. The Chester having joined the other American ships today.

Puerto Mexico now is about the only important eastern port controlled by Huerta.

DELEGATES ACCEPT U S HOSPITALITY.

Little excitement but considerable confusion attended the arrival in Washington of the three Mexican delegates. Prior to their arrival there was considerable speculation as to whether they would accept the hospitality of the American government. C. M. Cook, social secretary of the state department, was at the station to extend the state department's invitation.

Spanish Ambassador Riano and Counselor Walls of the Spanish embassy representatives of the mediators ing South American nations, and the remaining officials of the abandoned Mexican embassy, were in the official group that greeted the delegates.

The tall, spare form of Emilio Rabasa, head of the Mexican mission, first appeared as he descended the steps of the building. He was greeted by Ambassador Riano, who presented Mr. Cook and the representatives of Brazil, Argentina and Chile.

Delegado Rodriguez, bowed under his 72 years was assisted from the train by an attaché. The third delegate, Luis Elguero, another attaché followed. Four daughters of Mr. Rabasa, a daughter and son of Mr. Rodriguez and the wife of Mr. Delcampo an attaché joined the party. Rafael Rodriguez, another son of the peace delegate had come from New York to greet his father. The wife and mother in law of Military Attaché Avales, of the abandoned Mexican legation were on hand to meet the women of the Mexican party.

A general round of embracing and kissing among the Mexicans followed interspersed with official introductions all around.

While embraces and kisses and introductions went on to the accompaniment of snapping cameras Mr. Cook and Spanish Ambassador Riano endeavored to make plans for the entertainment of the delegates. The latter accepted the proffer of hospitality by the state department and the throng strung out toward the automobile entrance of the station.

Senors Rabasa and Rodriguez were smilingly appreciative of the courtesies tendered them and said their trip had been a pleasant one. They firmly declined to be drawn into any discussion of their mission or to venture an opinion on the prospects for success in the mediation.

At 5:30 p. m. the three Mexican delegates under the auspices of Ambassador Riano made an official call on the mediators assembled to meet them at the Argentine legation.

It is understood the delegates will spend only a few days in Washington leaving Sunday afternoon for New York and proceeding from New York direct to Niagara Falls.

REBELS MAY ATTACK VERA CRUZ FEDERALS.

That the Mexican constitutionalist army, which left Tuxpam with a view to attacking the federal troops on the side of Vera Cruz, is reported in official circles tonight. Such a move, it was pointed out, probably would prevent any possibility of trouble between the American forces and Huerta's troops.

Tuxpam is about 125 miles north of Vera Cruz and it was said the rebel army would have little difficulty making the march in secret force to defeat the federals there. The rebel army near Tuxpam is said to be of considerable strength.

On information received from constitutionalists it was reported that this movement would take place in the next few days and might be consummated before the expected capture of Saltillo and San Luis Potosi by General Villa's army.

John and was a caller at the white house tonight but did not see Mr. Wilson. He said he expected to leave for his home in Minnesota soon.

HE SAW EXECUTION OF PRIVATE PARKS.

Huerta Deserter Reaches Vera Cruz and Tells Gen. Funston How the American Soldier Was Killed.

Vera Cruz, May 16.—Additional confirmation of the execution of Private Samuel Parks, twenty eighth infantry was received today. One of Huerta's conscripts who had deserted brought into the American lines said he was an eye witness of the execution of Parks and agreed to relate the facts so far as he knew them to the American general in command. If in return he would be given work or otherwise cared for.

Reports from Mexico City brought in by the refugees describe President Huerta as enjoying daily rides and his frequent appearances at the cafes and restaurants accompanied by only one or two aides and intimate friends.

On the fact of this apparent nonchalant behavior rumors of Huerta's flight are circulated here daily. They are not taken seriously by most of those acquainted with Huerta's views.

Rebels Aided by Storm.

A heavy rainstorm flooding trenches and blowing torrents into the faces of the federal's contributed much to their defeat at Tampico according to Americans who have come here from that port. The constitutionalists took advantage of this and poured a terrific fire into them forcing the bulk of the outposts into the town. Immediately the federals began entraining before evacuating destroying a large quantity of ammunition.

The constitutionalists came into the town shouting in the air and shouting Viva Carranza Viva Wilson.

There was little actual disorder and little looting. The two water supply and light connections were restored, police guarded the town and ammunitions were seized. Several persons engaged in looting were shot.

During the early part of the action the federals raided the Southern hotel taking all arms and money found. The German consul R. Everbusch accompanied by the American vice consul, Thomas H. Bevan proceeded through the residential district and placed German seals on all the houses. These were not touched. The refugees know of no cases of private houses having been looted.

Tampico is quiet the stores have been reopened and Americans are returning.

Should Huerta Blockade.

With Tampico occupied it is expected that that part of Mexico will cease almost immediately. The center of constitutionalist operations except for the part the port will play as a base for supplies.

Should President Huerta blockade there will be plenty for his two gun boats on the coast. The Cadiz, Matamoros, the constitutionalists now have in their possession three ports north of Vera Cruz. They hold the land cargoes either at Matamoros or Tuxpam.

In the west of Tampico the only federals are those who evacuated Tampico and they appear to be in a hopeless position. They are confronted by large forces who for many weeks have been controlling the region south and east of Coahuila.

With this band disposed of the constitutionalists will have absolute control westward to the line of the Rio Grande from Saltillo south to San Luis Potosi.

It is not known what the federals are in a position to do anything but act on the defensive at either of these places against attacks by the combined constitutionalist armies.

Both Sides Lack Ammunition.

It is not regarded by military men as difficult for the constitutionalists to hold in the event of an advance to the rear in any direction but they are not inclined to regard a sweeping advance by the constitutionalists into the southlands as a simple matter. The constitutionalists are known to be short of ammunition and their forces heretofore have not been such as to warrant the belief that they will move quickly and strike the federal forces on Saltillo and San Luis Potosi. They will encounter many obstacles because of the nature of the country and it is thought that Huerta will urge his men to a stubborn resistance. It is realized, however, that the morale of Huerta's army is growing worse and it is known that he too is short of ammunition.

Spartanburg S. C. May 16.—Thomas J. Carter, principal of the Textile Industrial institute here, received a telegram tonight from Robert Kanning, counsel for the state department in forming his article on behalf of Miss May Cunningham, a Methodist missionary at San Luis Potosi, Mexico which is threatened with attack by the constitutionalists. Indian Motorcycle, with cradle spring frame.

He had no mechanical difficulty whatever, and from the Pacific to the Atlantic his motor never skipped.

Baker's ride included a 1027 mile desert stretch of sand and cactus, the negotiation of stupendous mountain trails, and dashes through roads in their worst possible condition.

At the finish Baker stated:

"I could not have possibly cut the coast-to-coast record practically in half if I had not had under me the superb mechanical equipment of the Indian.

"By reason of the cradle spring frame absorbing all road shocks and vibrations, my endurance was trebled and I was also enabled to make speed over rough surfaces that no rigid frame machine could have stood.

"And when I came to Blackcanon Pass, Arizona, the two speed gave an exhibition that surprised even an old motorcyclist like myself. That two speed took me up a rise of 7000 feet in 9 miles, without a minute's hesitation or trouble. This was the supreme test of the two speed, and how it did come across!

"I especially wish to emphasize that the Indian I used was a stock machine, which I never rode until three hours before I started on my run."

Baker's ride was made under the official auspices of the F. A. M., which checked and verified his time.

The previous transcontinental motorcycle record was 20 days, 9 hours and 1 minute.

2700 Indian dealers will supply you with the exact counterpart of the machine that Baker rode in his record-breaking trip.

Crackers on Eight-Game Road Trip

BILLY SMITH'S 1914 ATLANTA CRACKERS

Crackers Kick Away Another They Had Won

Perryman Weakens Toward the Close and Some Boots Give Billkens a 4-to-4 Tie Count.

By Dick Jemison. The Crackers kicked away another ball game yesterday that they already had in their win bags.

They did not kick it away completely, as the Billkens were able to get only a 4-to-4 tie.

But they got this tie by pounding Perryman's curves in the stand-up session for four hits and three runs, and of course by a couple of horrible boots.

Perryman was sailing along under raps up until the stretch stanza arrived. He weakened perceptibly and his support aided in handing the Billkens a tie.

Black started off poorly at the start, but improved as the game progressed, starting off by impeding rather than by closing innings by some good pinch pitching.

Loosely Played Game. The game was another one of those loosely played affairs, with no particular features aside from the hitting of several members of both teams.

Jennings, Long, Welchance and Kircher got two blows apiece for the Crackers, while Dunn got one. Efrid and Billkens got one or more hits but Jant-kens.

One feature that we must not overlook was a peculiar injury to Harry Welchance, when he dropped the only fly ball we have ever seen him drop in three years.

Welchance smashed a tendon on the middle finger of his left hand when he struck the point of the dirt on the ball as he judged its flight. The finger is bent back on the first joint and will probably never be the same.

How much an accident could happen to an outfielder is beyond one, and Welchance is at a loss to explain it himself.

Kircher gave a splendid exhibition of base running when he scored from second base on an attempted double play by the Billkens, the batter beating the relay the first and Kircher beating the return throw home.

How They Scored. The Crackers broke the ice with a tally in the opening round. Efrid pitched and was hit by a pitched ball. Jennings sacrificed him down, and he tallied on Long's single to center.

In the second Kircher hit a home run on Knaupp's error. Dunn singled, Perryman sacrificed both up a base and Kircher hit a home run. Kircher counted. On the attempted double steal Dunn tallied when Knaupp dropped Knaupp's return throw.

The Billkens got one in the third. Welchance dropped Black's fly ball in the sixth. Eibel led off with a base on balls. Kircher singled. Attempting to sacrifice, Dunn fouled Eibel, who forced Dunn at second. Perryman beat the relay to first and Kircher tallied on the play.

The Billkens tied up the game in the seventh. Knaupp singled and Kircher scored Black with a single to right. Holland scored with a single when Flanagan let the ball get by him, and tallied when Jennings messed up Baker's sharp tap.

Crackers in Mobile Today; Play Eight Games on Road; Play Gulls at Home May 25

By Dick Jemison. Billy Smith and his Crackers caught a fast flying rattler yesterday afternoon for Mobile, where they open up a four game series with the Mobile Gulls this afternoon.

This will be the locals' first visit to Gullville in the field. An Atlanta Crackers game that they have played with the Gulls this season.

The series between these teams will be considerably interesting and the victors will be considered the team that will battle with the Lookouts for the pennant.

The Crackers will present a more formidable attack than the Pelis and as good a defense. If the local twirlers come around as they are expected to, the locals return home again the following Monday, playing three games with the Mobile Gulls and then taking to Birmingham and Montgomery before returning to the local lot again.

There is no wottier form of sport in the world than track athletics. In almost any athletic game we can name, there is, first, a great deal of trickery and juggling. These are almost wholly absent in such athletic games as tennis, distance running, high or broad jumping, pole vaulting, hammer throwing, shot putting and the like.

RIVERSIDE PLAYS G. M. C. FOR TITLE

Prep Teams Battle at Milledgeville on Monday and Tuesday—G. M. C. Favorite.

Milledgeville, Ga., May 16.—(Special.) The prep school baseball title of the state of Georgia will be decided in this city on Monday and Tuesday.

The Riverside Military academy will come here on those days for a return engagement of two games with the Georgia Military college.

G. M. C. visited Gainesville in the earlier part of the season and won a quarter and tied a game with Riverside. Since then both teams have been playing much improved ball, and the series that starts here Monday will be hard fought.

G. M. C. rules as the favorite, since their easy victories over the Gordon team here last Monday and Tuesday.

Walter Clark is also said to be extraordinarily fast.

In the relay race, five teams are certain to start, and this will be one of the most spectacular events of Saturday afternoon. In this race, each team enters four men and each man runs a quarter of a mile in the race, but in the case it has grown exceedingly popular.

Three College Marks Fell At Meridian Saturday; Louisiana State Winner

Meridian, Miss., May 16.—Three Southern Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic association records were broken and one equaled in the nineteenth annual field and track meet which Louisiana state university athletes won here today with a total of 34 points.

The Mississippi Aggies took second place with 30 points; Tulane third, with 24; Vanderbilt got 17, and the others trailed far in the rear.

The victory of L. S. U. is attributed largely to Dutton, who won the shot-put, the discus throw and the hammer event. Until the weight events were reached, the Mississippi Aggies seemed to have the call, as two running events were taken by Noble and in the 220-yard dash, he equaled the record of 22 and one-fifth seconds.

Robinson took the only first for Georgia Tech, and in doing it, increased the running high jump record of five feet 11 inches by two inches.

Chester of Vanderbilt scored one of his college's two wins when he captured the 220-yard hurdle, doing it in twenty-six seconds. The previous record was 27.4.

The other record to fall was that of the mile relay, which L. S. U. won, but which did not count in its aggregate score. The team did the distance in 3 minutes 30 seconds, eclipsing one-fifth of a second off the record.

Summary: 100-yard dash—Noble, Aggies, first; 200, Aggies, second; Coleman, Tulane, third; Upton, L. S. U., fourth, time, 10. Half mile run—Atkins, Vanderbilt, first; Elliott, Aggies, second; Stone, Tulane, third; Brown, Tulane, fourth, time, 22:5. 220-yard dash—Noble, A. & M., first.

Additional chairs have been installed, the hall has been changed around somewhat and an enjoyable afternoon is promised all that attend.

Yellow Jackets Manage to Grab Off Final Game

Bryant Holds the Red and Black Safely Throughout, While His Teammates Hit Corley Timely.

And the Yellow Jacket game ended after dropping the bases three games with the University of Georgia. Tech managed to take the last contest from the Red and Black yesterday afternoon.

There was an even larger crowd out to witness the battle between the time-honored rivals than there was on the preceding day.

The game was a typical Tech-Georgia one, as some of the plays unworked well and others were duplicated unless it be when the two schools meet again next year.

The victory of the two teams was out in full force Tech's honor was the more determined of the two as the Crackers followed were out to prevent Georgia from making a clean sweep of the series.

The Georgia fellows stuck to their ten, however, not giving up the game until Corley ended the contest in the ninth inning. The out scores each gave the other a cheer immediately preceding the score.

With the ending of yesterday's game also ended the career of one of the greatest athletes in Georgia. Bryant, who have ever trod upon either a southern gridiron or diamond, Bob played on both football and baseball teams during his four years at Georgia Tech.

The famous band of the Atlanta school accompanied the students to the game. The band was considered by the Tech rooters as to which could outlast the other. Both bands exhibited good spirit but during the contest air of the opposition was before the contest started.

There was never a dull moment during the entire nine innings of the game. Time after time the players of both teams worked hard to get runners to their feet by making plays that seemed impossible.

The youngest Bryant for the Jackets and the veteran Corley for the Red and Black were pitted against each other in the first inning. Bryant had a shade the better of the pitched duel.

Georgia, as usual, got the jump on their opponents in the initial stand by pushing their only score of the game over the platter.

The Georgia team played the slouder game of the two in the field. They made but three errors to five for the Yellow and White Jackets.

Both teams played some great stunts in the field. Pound continued his glazy work of the previous game, making some very difficult catches, in the eighth, with Torbett on second, he made a try-out over the fence.

Today's great question among tire users is—What is the proper price? All-Weather Treads. You can get four Goodyears, with All-Weather Treads, for what some charge for three.

Are They Worth It? Are they better tires? They can't be. We have tried for years to improve these tires—have spent $100,000 yearly on research and experiment.

Do they lessen trouble? That is unthinkable. Not one contains our No-Rim-Cut feature, which has ended rim-cutting entirely.

Not one does what we do to prevent loose treads. Our method is patented.

TRAVERS AND QUIMET LOSE FOURSOME MATCH

Sandwich, England, May 16.—Jerome D. Travers, N. J., amateur champion of the United States, and Francis Quimet, the open golf champion of the United States, today lost to Harold H. Hilton and Michael Scott by three holes up and two to play, in a foursome over the Sandwich course. Their defeat was due to Quimet, who apparently is getting stale. He was weak throughout. Travers never made a mistake. The match was followed by a great rally.

Varsity eight in the junior collegiate race, and another victory by the same crew in the first eight-oared shell event, featured the twelfth annual regatta of the American Rowing association over the Henley course on the Schuylkill river today. In the first race Harvard crossed the line half a length ahead of Yale. The race was a battle between Yale and Pennsylvania for second place, and after the Blue gained the position, Annapolis was fourth and Princeton fifth. An hour and forty minutes later the same Harvard eight beat out the Union Boat club, of Boston, by about four feet. Annapolis varsity was third and Syracuse university was nosed out by Yale for fourth position. Ex-Captain John B. Kelley, of the Vesper Boat club, this city, won easily from Paul Wilsington, of the Union Boat club, of Boston, in the single match in 3:03, beating the former record of 3:05.

TRAVERS IS PICKED AS AMERICAN HOPE

Sandwich, England, May 16.—Jerome D. Travers, amateur champion of the United States, stands an excellent chance of repeating the feat of Walter J. Travis ten years ago in carrying off the British amateur championship if he is able to do as well next week as he did today in a foursome over the Sandwich course. Although Travers and Francis Quimet, the open golf champion of the United States, lost to Harold H. Hilton and Michael Scott by three holes up and two to play, their defeat was due to the extremely poor showing of Quimet, who apparently is getting stale. He was weak throughout, getting no distance from the tee and finding a number of bunkers, while his putting was feeble. Travers never made a mistake.

WEDNESDAY WEEK IS AD MEN'S DAY AT PONCE DE LEON

The Ad Men's committee, under the direction of Julian Boehm, will actively go to work to sell tickets for the game and bring out a record mid-week crowd.

Think of the Significance of Overland Success

Low price alone could never have made Overland success. There is something else—an intangible spirit that finds concrete expression in the wonderful car which would be worth while at twice the price. It is the spirit that animates and pervades the entire Willys-Overland organization—"nothing but the highest quality, and the production of that quality on such a mammoth scale that it can profitably be sold at a low price."

This is the basis on which the Overland car has kept pace and often led the whole automobile industry, matching improvement with improvement, and all with a narrow margin of profit. This is the reason you can get this roomy, electrically lighted five-passenger automobile for $950.

Visitors to the Willys-Overland plant no longer wonder at the car. They find ample explanation in the 96 acres of mammoth buildings—the 4,000,000 feet of floor space—the wonderful automatic machinery that only stupendous production could justify—and the climax is reached when at noon they witness 10,000 enthusiastic, skilled, specialized workers depart for lunch. Actuating all this is a corps of clear-eyed, far-seeing executives all inspired by the spirit of the Overland organization.

What Does This Mean to You?

Just the car we have been describing here. This handsome, large, easy-riding, economical touring car—this Overland—$950. Does it merit investigation before you buy? We will leave that to you.

Mitchell Little Six Fully Equipped $1,895

The Mitchell Little Six at $1,895, is definite confirmation of the fact that high-priced cars are too high-priced. There is nothing you can ask in any car—no matter how high the price—that is not embodied in the Little Six. There is no other car now before the public that offers so much car—so much quality—so much comfort and satisfaction for so little money.

No sane business man who is familiar with the inflexible rule of values, can overlook this Little Six or fail to be impressed by its sterling character. Your chance to buy for $1,895, a high-class six-cylinder car fully equipped with conveniences that likewise bear the hall-mark of class, from a concern that has behind it the proud record of eighty years of faithful service to the American public, is decidedly unusual and we feel that you will think it over seriously when this announcement strikes your eye.

This is not the era of high-priced cars. True, they will always have a following among those persons to whom money means nothing, but the bulk of the people ask for a high-class, low-cost car that will preserve their pride and fill their practical wants. This in brief is the Mitchell Little Six. Observe the equipment which is included in the price of $1,895.

Electric self-starter and generator—electric lights—electric horn—electric magnetic exploring lamp—speedometer—mohair top and dust envelope—fifty quick-action side curtains—quick-action rain vision wind-shield—Bair bow holders—dismountable rim with case extra—double extra tire carriers—license plate bracket—pump—jack—and complete set of tools.

Fox and Walker Are Leading Southern League Pitchers

Although Holmes of Memphis, has won two games and lost none and leads the Southern league twirlers, he is not the real leader.

Fox, of Chattanooga, and Walker, of New Orleans, are the real leaders, with five victories and one defeat a percentage of 533 each. Doscher leads the Cracker twirlers with three wins and one defeat.

Black, of Montgomery, has worked the most twirling seven-seven in runs and participating in parts of ten games. He has also allowed the most runs and hits.

Walker has fanned the most batters—fifty-five Black, of Montgomery, has walked the most men—twenty-six.

Here are the twirlers and their records up to and including the games played Tuesday, May 12.

GUS CASTLE ON A VISIT TO MOTORCYCLE FACTORY

Gus Castle, manager of the southern branch of the Harley-Davidson Motor Company, left yesterday for the factory at Milwaukee, Wis.

The demand and sales of the Harley-Davidson motorcycles in the seven southern states under the control of Mr. Castle have been so large that they have passed all expectations of the home office. In fact, the sales of the Harley-Davidson all over the country and in foreign countries have been tremendous.

The entire output of the factory, which will be over 20,000 machines, will be sold here before the close of the present season.

Mr. Castle has been called to talk over the matter of 1915 business with the factory to make arrangements for a larger sale of 1915 models.

During the past week quite a number of out-of-town visitors, brought in by the Studebaker, made their headquarters at the Harley-Davidson Motor Company branch on Peachtree street and Mr. Castle closed quite a number of nice contracts, which he is carrying with him to the factory.

The window display, especially decorated for the Shriners, attracted a world of attention.

It showed a Shriners in the desert with his Harley-Davidson motorcycle crossing the hot sands with the inscription on the canvas, "You see them everywhere, meaning of course, Shriners and Harley-Davidson."

Mr. Castle expects to be gone about ten days.

Visits Atlanta Branch

L. J. OLLIER, Sales manager of the Studebaker corporation.

One of the most interesting visitors this week on Auto row for some time was L. J. Ollier, sales manager of the Studebaker Corporation of Detroit. This was the first visit of Mr. Ollier to Atlanta in a great many years, and he was greatly impressed with the rapid growth of the city and remarked at the progressive spirit that seemed to ring in his country, especially so on the Pacific coast where he looked after the interest of the Studebaker company for a great many years.

Mr. Ollier gave a very interesting address about the wonderful sales and expansion of his company and its future in the automobile world.

Mr. Ollier left last night along with Mr. Beeson and will visit several of the southern dealers before returning to his home in Detroit.

TRANSCONTINENTAL RECORD IS SMASHED

Covering 415 miles during his final dash, Erwin G. Baker, of Indian-apolis, "old warhorse" of racing fame reached New York city hall at midnight Thursday night, exactly eleven days, eleven hours and eighteen minutes after leaving the city hall, San Diego, Cal. Baker was mounted on a 1914 stock two-speed Indian motorcycle, and his record not only shatters the former coast-to-coast motorcycle record held by Volney Davis also on an Indian, by eight days, twenty-one hours and forty-three minutes, but it also eclipses the fastest automobile record of fifteen and a half days, although the auto record was made by a 60-horsepower car driven by retired drivers.

Baker's performance is the most remarkable feat that has yet been achieved by the driver of a gas propelled vehicle. It is almost beyond belief that human endurance could withstand the tremendous strain resulting from eleven and a half days of fast riding over all conditions of road. His total mileage approximates 3,500 miles, or a daily average of over 300 miles in spite of the fact that he encountered rain and snow in the Sierras and had to cross five hundred miles of continuous sand in the deserts of Arizona. On his second dash out he lost four hours by running out of gas in the midst of the desert, causing him to walk into the nearest town and carry fuel back to his machine. There is little possibility of this record being reduced for a number of years.

Baker is well remembered in Atlanta by those who saw him start on his tour across Cuba and Panama in the spring of 1913, standing 4 1/2 feet five in height and weighing over two hundred pounds he looks more like a football player than a motorcycle racer. He is one of the foremost racers in the motorcycle game today holding track records in every section of the country. He has been especially successful in long distance events.

VICTORY IS SECURED FOR CENTRAL PLAN

Baptists Vote to Reconsider Report on Boards—Next Convention to Houston. Modern Literature Hit.

Nashville, Tenn., May 16.—After a two days' debate advocates of centralizing the three important boards of the Southern Baptist convention were today considered a victory when the delegates today voted to refer for reconsideration the portion of the efficiency commission's report recommending that the boards be maintained as at present. As now constituted they are the foreign mission board at Richmond, Va., the home mission board at Atlanta, Ga., and the Sunday school board at Nashville.

Before entering into consideration of the efficiency commission's report today the convention formally was presented with the new building of the Sunday school board here and decided upon Houston, Texas, as the next meeting place in May 1915. The present exercises were featured by President Lansing Burrows' address, in which he excoriated present-day literature and drama.

Modern Literature Denounced.— "What God the creator of mind and inspirer of thought, has intended to make men wise unto salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus," Dr. Burrows declared, "the flesh cannot receive, which they may be lured to destruction. Having a delirious interest in reading, we are easy prey to the designing. Thus all the hateful dogmas and religiously propagated, socialism, as represented by one of its leaders, puts nine-tenths of its income into literature, choosing the Sabbath day for its distribution into the homes of the people. The adherents of an hysterical substitute for soul-saving in the guise of a body-healing publish a daily journal of no more propriety than the most immoderate cheap magazines present attractive pictures of undraped forms, and even the advertisements reveal women in corsets and undergarments. And God's people fill their center tables, around which gather their unsuspecting children, with seductive influences as one of our own Christian leaders has expressed it, the weakest place in our denominational life is that occasioned by our lack of making adequate provision for the masses of the people with the right kind of religious literature."

Best Seller Worst Seller.— After recounting the great achievements of the Sunday school board, he said: "And now we stand before the door of opportunity. The indomitable industry of the destroyer of human souls prevails in corsets and undergarments. His most audacious attack is now upon the literature of the age. The three past generations have cultivated the reading habit. Men have grown sturdily mentally. The novel and the dramatist have the strongest influence upon the present generation.

They present to us the vast metropolis of New York, with its great white walls, blatant with its vulgar extravagance, reeking with the odors of its sensuality, crowded with the shouts of its chorus girls and its sordid spendthrifts, the masses of Christless, narrow-browed and self-centered worshippers of Mammon and of lust, and they tell us this is life.

"There is no more provincial place on the continent than New York; no place to see life, but life shrouded in the heart of passion with men here of noble manhood and lofty purpose, and women pictured as ox-eyed and tinted with porphyry, who dream of more than sin, and who regard pimples as their direct enemy. Of their books, the best seller is the most smelly, the odors of their dramas revolve about the seventh commandment. Let them picture the scarlet woman and the married rake, and they will attract millions of readers not speculators.

Dr. Burrows said there are men who would teach children the deeper mysteries of life and being, and refuse them the book of God. The church's opportunity is the publication in the new building of clean, sober, uplifting literature.

The convention also approved the report of the nomination committee selecting officers for the various boards.

The Efficiency Debate.— When discussion of the efficiency commission's report was resumed to "TIZ" FIXES ACHING, SWOLLEN, SORE FEET

"TIZ" Comforts Tired, Sweaty, Calloused Feet and Corns. Can't Beat "TIZ."

"Ah! Boys, 'TIZ' is the thing!"

"TIZ" is the only remedy in the world that takes away the most painful exudations which puff up the feet and cause tender, sore, swollen, burning feet. This Past Imperial Potentate Thinks Atlanta Shrine Meeting Best of 26 He Has Attended High compliment was paid to Atlanta and to Potentate Forrest Adair for the manner in which this day welcomed the recent Shrine meeting by A. B. McGaffey, of Denver, fourth oldest imperial potentate in the country, and who has missed only one Shrine meeting in the past twenty-seven years.

"I have not missed a Shrine meeting during the past twenty-four years," declared Mr. McGaffey yesterday, "and I can truthfully say that of all these meetings there has not been a single one which could in my estimation compare in any way with the one which has just come to an end.

"Never before have the Shriners of the nation received such a royal welcome, nor been more lavishly entertained so comfortably and as we were in Atlanta last week.

"We know that we were coming to a section of the country famed for its hospitality and to a city noted for its cosmopolitanism, but never in our keenest anticipations did we imagine that there would be such a combination of the two as we found awaiting us at the shrine. This is a good thing, and the commission's action was made to have a sort of 'homey' feeling that was very welcome after our long journey to the south. And when we got into the heart of the city day, Dr. E. C. Dargatzis, of Macon, Ga., chairman of the commission, explained the action of the commission in making the recommendations. "I think," he said, "that because the report was not revolutionary we haven't given the matter the consideration it deserves. It is a result of repeated deliberations by our committees and of the report of F. C. McConnell, of Waco, Texas, another of our delegates, who referred the matter for reconsideration, was the next speaker.

"Mr. McConnell stated, 'but we believe there should be progress. The only three great Christian bodies—the Baptists, the Catholics and the Federals. We are the only one of these great upheavals, a Christian 'catholicism.'

"The speaker asserted that there was need for action in this 'great crisis.' He assured his hearers that his recommendation was not a radical one, being unfavorable to the present members of the three boards, but expressed the belief that the present system needed changing to a central organization. 'I do not want to be quoted as saying that I do not want to see the report if it is because of the great work that is being done for something more—something better.'

Several expressions of opinion were offered from the floor. The report was terminated by a motion to consider the remainder of the report and the subject of the efficiency commission. There was little opposition to the rest of the report which, with a few amendments, was adopted.

For Reconsideration.— After the adoption of the bulk of the report Mr. McConnell reintroduced the subject of the efficiency commission for reconsideration. The personal of this commission is to be the same as the old body with the addition of F. C. McConnell, Dr. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, N. C., and Dr. W. W. McCall, of Atlanta. The recommendations of the report mentioned recommended that the three boards now instituted be dissolved and the best interests of the Southern Baptist convention and church be maintained at their present location.

This commission is to receive suggestions from the general assembly and report to the 1915 convention. It is empowered to investigate the centralization plan, the consolidation of the two mission journals into one great journal and any other matters of efficiency that may be deemed pertinent.

In accordance with the report of the nominating committee all the presidents of the foreign mission board at Atlanta, the home mission board at Atlanta, the Sunday school board here, and the Baptist Young People's Union, at Louisville, were elected.

Headquarters for Laymen.— The convention decided to change the headquarters of the laymen's movement to the city of Chattanooga, Tenn., and to place Dr. J. T. Henderson, of Bristol, Tenn., in charge as corresponding secretary. The change was proposed in a report submitted by Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, Md., and was adopted. As a reason for the move, it was stated a more central southern location was desirable. Dr. Henderson is president of the internorm college, at Bristol, Va.-Tenn., and it was stated that the route leading to that position to accept the new office.

COLOUIT FARMERS COULD FEED CITY WITH THEIR CROPS

Colquitt county, with a double hand-spring, has leaped into the spotlight which the Georgia Chamber of Commerce has been playing over the state since the late fall. It is the only county in Georgia that has the resources and possibilities of Georgia, preparatory to co-operating with the people for development. Through that organization Colquitt county will begin shipping in the next few days a large and diversified quantity of garden truck of a value of more than $250,000.

Most of the vegetables are approaching maturity and are in splendid condition; about 300 acres of cucumbers will be ready for shipment about the first of June, the same number of acres of string beans were planted; shipments are beginning from 50 acres of cabbage, and over 1,000 acres of cantaloupes were planted.

More than 1,200 sweet corn cobs and potatoes will yield 400 to 500 carloads of the better grades, which can be shipped profitably.

Colquitt county promises to contribute to the state more than 3,000 acres of watermelons. Colquitt county is running almost the race for the distinction of being the county producing the most peaches. The fruit crop will be the largest possible for the farmers to get the highest prices consistent with the market. It is being packed in a packing house at a cost of $200,000.

That the raising of truck and market garden crops is being pursued in Colquitt county is proven by the fact that the timber was removed under the supervision of Federal Farm Demonstration Agent Tucker, while the product will be marketed through the County Produce federation, assisted by the Moultry Chamber of Commerce, which is being organized and is being shipped to the markets that will give the best returns.

The flowering of civilization is the finished man—the man of sense, of grace, of complete and unshakable power—the gentleman.—Emerson.

OF RAIL BONDS ISSUES

Rayburn Measure Is Favorably Reported to House by Judge Adamson.

Washington, May 16.—The Rayburn bill for Federal control of railroad stock and bond issues, one of the trio of anti-trust measures that constitute the legislative program for the remainder of the session, was today reported favorably to the house by the interstate commerce committee. The report, prepared by Chairman Adamson, analyzed the purpose of the act, and declared that it would accomplish, declared the personal punishment provided was the only way to deal with malefactors, and struck boldly at what the report called "the great evil of the country, the exploitation of speculators who use the power of their positions to wreck the careers and make large gains."

Wreckers Are Denounced.— "The man who unblushingly will take advantage of the power afforded by his position in the financial world," said the report, "to wreck the facilities of the country, to charge its public duties, besides bunting innocent investors out of hundreds of millions of dollars and embarrassing honest business men, is a public enemy, and the most severe human punishment, and the committee has left such punishment to the courts, and makes gains."

Plenty of Competent Men.— "It has been represented to us that the railroads are in a state of chaos, that the men who are in charge of them are incompetent, that it is a matter of public safety that the government should undertake to deal with the directors of railroad companies, we then almost immediately demand to prohibit interlocking directorates of carriers, whether they be railroads or not, and whether the undoubted benefits of the proposed bill are a general impression that most of the wreck and ruin of railroads and consequent damage to the public interest has been due to the machinations of men who managed different corporations and who were consolidated into a system, without some or all of the carriers involved.

MEASURE TO REGULATE PIPE LINES FOR OIL

Washington, May 16.—Oil pipe lines carrying oil for considerable distances have been the cause of much concern, and therefore should be dealt with by law, as a commerce matter, under the interstate commerce law, declared Attorney General C. J. West, of Oklahoma, before the interstate commerce committee today.

Bills to carry this project into effect are pending before committees of both houses of congress.

We want to place everything under interstate commerce if we can, and the sole question is one of the proper law on the subject," suggested Chairman Adamson of the interstate commerce committee.

JAMES SANATORIUM 692 ALABAMA AVE. MEMPHIS, TENN.

A Private Sanatorium for the Treatment of Drug Addictions, Alcoholism, Nervous Diseases, Tobacco and Cigarettes.

PATIENTS' TESTIMONIALS.

Having needed relief from Morphine, Whiskey and Tobacco, they are loud in their praise of the James Treatment. Read their testimonials: CURED OF DRUG HABIT. I wish to thank you for the great benefit your remedy has been to me. I have gained 12 pounds weight since taking your treatment for my drug habit, and never felt better in my life. I have no desire for either drugs or alcohol since taking your treatment, and feel fully 10 years younger than I did before beginning treatment. Hoping that this testimonial may lead some one else to try your wonderful remedy. C. H. CLIBURN, Station A, Gulfport, Miss.

NEVER WANTS A DRINK.

"Yours to hand asking permission to use my testimonial. In reply, beg to say this will be perfectly agreeable to me. I took your treatment according to directions. I didn't take any whiskey at all, although I kept it in the store. I was around and handled it, giving my friends a drink, and after the third or fourth day I felt all sorts of whiskey. It seemed to make me sick to look at it, much less taste it. I kept whiskey around just to see if I could lose all desire. Now I can go through a drinking party and never think of taking it. I am sure I have been cured by the treatment, and take pleasure in recommending it. A man who has made up his mind he wants to quit and will stick to that, and follow the directions, will find himself cured before he knows it. I have been drinking whiskey, beer, wine and everything that is like whiskey all my life and to excess for 12 to 15 years, allowing it to ruin my business and health, but I feel like a new man now. Wishing you much success, I am yours very respectfully. H. V. THORNTON, Thornton, Miss."

CURED OF TOBACCO HABIT.

"I took your home treatment for tobacco in November, 1904, and it cured me. I am now in perfect health. Up to the time I quit using tobacco I suffered all the time with indigestion. Since I took your cure I have been feeling fine. Since I wanted tobacco since, and have gained 25 pounds. W. F. MCINSTRY, Somerville, Tenn."

We Have With Us Today Two Blackfeet Indians

Big Chief Medicine Owl and the Blackfeet initiate J. Edgar McKee.

Almost any old body can be an Indian. All that is necessary is to get your skin full of old Georgia "moonshine" and beat up a couple of policemen. But, to be a regular Indian—one with a tribal degree—and the trimmings well, that's a different matter. Atlanta has two regularly initiated Indians. They are braves of the Blackfeet tribe. Jake D. Gortatowsky, managing editor of The Constitution, known as Bear Child, is one, and the other is John Edgar McKee, of Yarrab temple, known as Ma-No-Stac, or Indian Chief.

Now He Is Indian.

John Edgar came to his title because he was appointed by Colonel Burton Smith as special guide to Medicine Owl and his tribe of Blackfeet Indians from the Glacier park national reservation. John Edgar made the best little guide you ever saw. There was nothing in Atlanta that Medicine Owl and his braves and squaws did not give the once-over. It was with becoming dignity, therefore, that Medicine Owl, after a powwow with his council, decided to confer the tribal degree on John Edgar as a mark of appreciation for courtesies shown, and also as a mark of honor and esteem. "Ugh, white man heap big injun. Him Big Chief," granted Medicine Owl, after the council, or powwow, terminated. And immediately plans were set on foot to pull off the ceremonial conferring the tribal degree of chiefdom on John Edgar.

With all the solemnities of a regular Masonic initiation, minus the rough stuff, John Edgar was made Indian Chief of the Blackfeet, Friday morning. The ceremony was pulled off in one of the Pullmans of the Great Northern road over which the Indians traveled to Atlanta. White Quiver, the stalwart young brave, the finest dancer in the tribe, led the "Tas-i-mni" dance, or the Friends' dance.

Business and Pleasure ARE COMBINED BY DAME

C. S. Dame, who has been attending the Shrine convalescence, is a member of the St. Paul temple, is combining business with pleasure, prolonging his stay in Atlanta until next week. He is general manager of the Metal Shelter company, with main offices in New York, but branches are maintained in all the principal cities. In addition to the three factories now operated by the company in New York, St. Paul and Memphis, Mr. Dame states that his company will probably erect another factory in Atlanta in the near future, as a southern distributing depot.

Swann, of this city, and had a number of relatives in other parts of the state. The funeral arrangements will be announced later. Interment will be in the family cemetery at Savannah.

GEORGIA CHAMBER WARMLY PRAISED BY STATE BANKERS

Officials of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce were much gratified at the general endorsement of the work of the organization at the recent meeting in Atlanta of the State Bankers' association. Practically every speech made at the sessions of the convention, included some reference to the state chamber, and J. G. Traylor, of the Stock Yards National Bank of Chicago, one of the most prominent financial men of the country, was especially complimentary in remarks about the work being done by the organization. At its closing session the association passed the following resolution, commending the state chamber: "Be it resolved, That the splendid work of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce in encouraging the increase of food crops and the establishment of industries in south Georgia, is earnestly commended, and that we urge the people of Georgia to give this organization their support and co-operation."

At the free organ recital at the Auditorium-Assembly Sunday afternoon, the vested choir of All Saints church, under the direction of William E. Arnold, will assist Dr. Edwin A. Kraft, city organist, in the rendition of the program. The hour for the recital will be 4 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock, as previously announced. The recital this afternoon will be the first under the auspices of the Atlanta Music Festival association since the series was interrupted by the preparations for the Shrine's convention.

DEAN WOOFER-NAMED ON RESEARCH PARTY

Georgia Educator Is Honored by the Government—Three Months in New Zealand.

Athens, Ga., May 16.—(Special).—Dr. Thomas J. Wofter, dean of the Peabody school of education at the University of Georgia, member of the state board of education, president of the alumni association of Peabody Teachers' college, and superintendent of the summer school of the University of Georgia, has been named by Dr. P. P. Claxton, head of the department of education of the federal government, to spend November, December and January next on a trip of research work to New Zealand, where, in a marvelously short time, wonders in progress, political, civic and educational, have been performed. It is more than likely that Dr. Wofter will arrange to take the special work. It comes as a distinction to him and to the university of the state. The doctor's bill may be both robbery and pillage.

Look at Me I am Well.

"I cannot say too much for Peruna. It has entirely cured me of my trouble. My eye lids were red, nearly all the time. My eyes were especially sensitive to light. Catarrh was my trouble. I had had my eyes treated and took a great deal of medicine, but nothing seemed to help me until I tried Peruna. I tried Peruna when my family need it. Always find it very good; it helps wonderfully. You can use my testimonial anywhere you wish to." So says Mrs. C. Skahan, No. 614 S. Leavitt St., Chicago, Ill.

BALLOT RECOUNT BEGINS TUESDAY

Extraordinary Precautions Will Be Taken by the Members of the Subcommittee.

In accordance with the decision of the county executive committee, Albert D. Thomson, chairman of the subcommittee, yesterday issued a call for a meeting to be held Tuesday at 10 o'clock, at which time the committee will begin a recount of the ballots cast in the last election for T. J. Hightower, Jr., and Charles G. Turner, candidates for county commissioners from the county-at-large.

The handling of the ballots and the actual count will be made by the subcommittee. This committee is composed of Albert D. Thomson, chairman; J. O. Cochran, secretary; George M. Hope and Albert Howell.

Will Limit Those Present.
No persons but the candidates themselves, their chosen representatives, members of the committee and Joseph Shearer, city hall custodian, will be allowed to enter the room in which the count will be made. The committee has also decided not to allow the candidates nor their representatives to handle any of the ballots, and to eliminate any possibility of unfairness or fraud in the recount, the committee has determined not to allow any member of the committee to use a pencil in making the count.

Ballots which the committee declare to be improperly filled out will be thrown out. The committee will not hear objections or complaints from the candidates or their representatives, and any exceptions or complaints to be made while the recount is in progress must be made in proper form and filed with the executive committee at the same time the report of the subcommittee is being filed.

Most extraordinary precautions have been taken by the subcommittee to prevent contests. Rules drafted by the subcommittee have been sanctioned by the general committee. It is understood that Messrs. Hightower and Turner, the contesting candidates, have agreed to abide by the rules of the subcommittee.

Count Ninth Ward Box.
The ninth ward, precinct "A," box will be counted by the committee, as it is with the fit count. Turner contested the right of the subcommittee to include the ninth ward in the recount on the ground that it was left at the city hall unguarded for a considerable length of time, and that during the time it was unguarded it was possible for someone to tamper with the ballots.

The general committee decided to count the box along with the boxes from every precinct in the county, and hear Turner's complaint after the recounted vote is compiled and the totals approved.

DORSEY READY TO ARGUE MOVE TO UPSET VERDICT

Hearing on Frank Case Motion, Is Scheduled to Come Up Wednesday.

It was announced yesterday that Solicitor Dorsey would be able to go on with the John L. Tye motion to upset the Leo Frank verdict next week, and that the motion would be given complete hearing before the week was over.

It is scheduled to come up next Wednesday. There are prospects, however, of it being postponed until Saturday. Much interest is being centered on this phase of the case, as it is considered the most formidable stronghold of the defense. Frank's attorneys expect evidence that the convicted man will be freed by this motion, which alleges that it was illegal to render the verdict without Frank's presence in court.

The grand jury will take up the perjury and bribery investigation this week. The venire of thirty-six members was drawn yesterday, and Judge Ben Hill's charge will be delivered Monday morning. It was stated in the solicitor's office yesterday, however, that the investigation would hardly be put forth until later in the week on account of work upon the Tye motion counter-showing.

The first cases to come before the grand jury will be the perjury charges. Solicitor Dorsey will present the body with the numerous rebuttals of testimony, some of which rebuttals have been denied, and will seek to prosecute all who have recanted their trial evidence.

The C. B. Itagadale episode, in which the minister alleges he was bribed to make a false affidavit in the Frank case, will be started before the grand jury the middle of the week, it is said. The venire from which the grand jury will be chosen contains the following names:

St. Elmo Massengale, Henry Lewis, H. W. B. Gabe, George E. Gabe, A. H. H. Taylor, C. E. Caverly, J. A. Perdue, R. J. Rice, G. S. Pryor, Guy Mitchell, W. G. Peary, J. Merriman, E. F. Burdette, J. E. Carlton, G. L. Walker, John A. Minor, C. B. Walker, R. M. Otterly, George Winship, Jr., J. J. Harvey, E. W. Williams, E. E. Rivers, R. A. Sims, E. T. Luckie, Lloyd B. Parks and W. H. Adkins.

SANITARY DEPARTMENT PRAISED BY WITHAM

W. S. Witham, the Atlanta banker, has written Sanitary Chief John Jensen, of the board of health, a letter complimenting the department in the highest terms on the efficient manner in which the streets of the city were kept clean during Shrine week. "It came down town a 7 o'clock Thursday morning," says the letter, "and I was astonished to find the streets perfectly clean. I don't know you did it when 100,000 people on the streets Wednesday night did it in his honor. Chief Jensen says that it is not often the street cleaning department gets complimented for the way it does, and when such a letter as was written by Mr. Witham is forthcoming it deserves a place. The street department was handicapped to a great extent by the crowds on the streets throughout the night and early morning hours. The street sweeping had to be done between 2:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock every morning. In the outgoing districts, the sweepers were busy during the early hours of the night."

BY MISTAKE CORONER TAKES POISON DOSE

Brunswick, Ga., May 16.—(Special).—C. A. H. Jennings, Glynn county's well-known coroner, came very near losing his life when he took a large dose of iodine through mistake. Just before retiring the coroner went to his medicine chest and secured what he thought was the medicine his physician had prescribed for him. He took a large dose of it and almost instantly realized that he had taken the wrong medicine and, looking at the bottle, he discovered that it was iodine. In a very few minutes three physicians arrived and the poisonous drug was pumped from Jennings' stomach and he soon recovered.

Alfred C. Newell Selected State Chairman for Slaton Senate Campaign Committee

ALFRED NEWELL, Who will act as chairman of Governor Slaton's campaign committee in his race for the United States senate.

Announcement was made yesterday of the selection of Alfred C. Newell to be state chairman of the John M. Slaton campaign committee in his race for senator.

This organization starts in with the unprecedented membership of 3,500, from all parts of the state. This was increased immediately to 10,000, and from this time on it is proposed to wage an active campaign. In view of the fact that the official duties of Governor Slaton will hold him at the state capitol, his campaign will be conducted by his hosts of friends, led by Mr. Newell.

Mr. Newell's acceptance is regarded by Governor Slaton as unusually fortunate, as his campaign chairman will bring sound business judgment and experience, reinforced by many years of active newspaper work along political lines. He is a middle Georgia man, with large family connections throughout southwest Georgia. Prior to his entrance into the insurance business he was a well-known newspaper man. After leaving the University of Georgia he became associated with the Constitution, on which he worked as a reporter for several years. Later on he entered the journalistic field of New York city, with Robert Adamson, also a Constitution graduate, and did New York city politics for The Brooklyn Eagle. When Pomeroy Burton, now head of Lord Nordcitt's publications in London, left The Eagle and came to the New York World, both Mr. Adamson and Mr. Newell made the change with him. Mr. Newell's special work being Tammany politics, on which assignment he was engaged as special writer for three years.

Mr. Newell married Miss Ellen Hillyer, daughter of Judge George Hillyer, now state railroad commissioner. Seven years ago he returned to Atlanta, where he has built up a successful general agency for a large eastern life insurance company. He is the son of the late Captain T. F. Newell, prominent for years in the affairs of central and south Georgia. His grandfather, General Alfred H. Colquitt, was for more than twenty ing of the state committee. None of them accuse him of doing anything objectionable. They don't even say that he was a state chairman merely to show to what extremities the meager opposition to the governor has to go for excuse. Even most of those who are opposing him for one irrelevant reason or another admit frankly that he is a man to man basis the best one for the place.

Will Not Play Politics. "His campaign will be taken direct to the people and a large message by the people themselves. No politics will be played. No man who has been in such conspicuous position as Governor Slaton could have pleased all the politicians. But the politicians no longer elect people to office. The people perform that duty. And it is our purpose to deal with the voters direct. Our work will be open and above board. No promises will be made in tracks and none will be used. In this campaign every friend of Governor Slaton's will be as important as anyone else."

Although his election is as certain as anything political could be, no pains were taken to make his election as overwhelming as was his election as governor. And the work will be done not by any selected group, but by the friends of the governor scattered far and wide throughout the state.

"We know of very few people who did not give their vote for Governor Slaton. We know of a great many who opposed him two years ago who are now for him."

Wounded in Vera Cruz, Calmes Is Improving; Expects to Fight Again

Fred Calmes, of Americus, Ga., among the first wounded in the United States' occupation of Vera Cruz, is now on the hospital ship Solace, and is rapidly improving. According to a letter which has just been received from him by his brother, James Calmes, of 308 Whitehall street, Atlanta, he expects to be out by May 30, and ready to fight for his country again.

His letter to his brother gives a very vivid description of the street fighting in Vera Cruz. Says the letter: "I am getting along nicely. I suppose you know I was wounded at Vera Cruz, but I know that I got at least six 'spicks' before one got me. The bullet hit me in my right groin, coming out through my hip.

"I was in the street as we could not get hit, but the 'spicks' in the buildings fired on us. We started to retreat, returning fire, and just as soon as I fell I saw a dumpcart in the street loaded with trash, and I lay under this. They certainly did try to hit me, for bullets fell all around the cart. I was in the cart until the ship and turned loose our big guns upon the city. The buildings and the 'spicks' fell all kinds of ways.

"I was shot on April 22, and hope I will be able to go out again about May 30.

"I don't know what we are going to do, but I do know that we are called on to go to the front again. I would do as I have already done—my best for my country for this time, but will write every week. Devotedly, your brother, FRED CALMES.

Mr. Calmes is but 17 years old. He enlisted in Atlanta last summer.

Women Photographers Send a Fine Exhibit To Carnegie Library

Carnegie library has another interesting exhibit, which was opened to the public on Saturday. The exhibit consists of photographs of the Women's Federation of Photographers' Associations of America, which will hold its convention in Atlanta June 15-20.

The pictures came to the library as the result of a visit which Mrs. P. G. Locher, president of the Women's association, paid to the library early in the spring. She offered the exhibit, which consists of such high-grade work as that of the most noted women photographers of the country, including Alice Broughton of New York, Reineke of Kansas City, Gertrude of St. Louis, Eennie Meiser of Richmond, Ind., Sara Price of Philadelphia, Knapp of Knoxville, Jane Dudley of Massachusetts, Williams of Evansville, Ind.; Fowles' studio of Washington, Helmer Lerski of New York and many others.

The studies are many of child life, with several interesting pictures of artistic line, in which most natural poses are shown.

On a table near the pictures are to be seen the negatives of the library's books on photography.

BIBLE DRAMA LAST PART BEGINS THIS AFTERNOON

Part IV. of the photo-drama of Creation, now showing at the Auditorium, must be seen to be appreciated. Many agree that it caps the climax of the most beautiful drama they have seen in the history of the past nineteen centuries. It shows the relationship between the Creator and the creature that was in the past. It connects the simplicity of the days of Jesus and the apostles with the day of the present status of ecclesiasticism. It gives glimpses of the persecutions of the past and the Christians of the present. It shows the responsibility of all the crimes that have been committed since the light on the door of Satan, claiming that through ignorance and superstition he deludes the masses. It is a grand thing to do things which none of them would do today.

The drama is shown daily at 3 and 8 p. m. All seats free. Creation will not be shown Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 19, 20 and 21, owing to the fact that another entertainment being there at that time.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES HAVE NOT BEEN FILED

Thirteen Candidates in Primary Have Not Complied With the Law.

According to information gathered from the office of the clerk of the superior court, thirteen candidates who participated in the recent county democratic primary have failed to file a report of their campaign expenses. The law requires that each candidate, whether he be a victor or loser, must file a report within ten days after the primary. The election was held on May 12, and in accordance with the law it is likely that the county committee will order the negligent candidates to show cause.

The statements thus far filed with the clerk of the court are as follows: Wheeler Mangum, sheriff, $2,700; Andy P. Stewart, tax collector, $1,500; W. H. Abbott, $1,400.70; Tull C. Waters, $1,045.00.

Dr. W. L. Gilbert, who ran ahead of the seven candidates in the race for commissioner from the county at large, spent only $457.50, according to his statement.

Because they were unopposed, and because their only expense was the entrance fee paid to the executive committee, Arnold Broyles, clerk of court, Robert L. Culbertson, C. A. Roberts and Paul Donahue were not required to file a statement; nevertheless they are required also to make a statement.

American who failed to make statements up to date are Captain W. M. Mayo and L. O. Wright, candidates for sheriff, Charles L. Branan, defeated candidate for sheriff, and J. H. Turner, elected tax collector; W. F. Wesley, defeated candidate for the same position.

There is a contest on before the executive committee between Hightower and Turner, and there is some question as to whether they can be required to make a statement until the committee decides the controversy.

The Muller Company builds the highest grade bank fixture work or equal to any in America, and has done some of the largest and handsomest work throughout the entire South.

Mr. Muller has been a resident of Atlanta for 25 years, and has been in business in this city for 30 years, and is determined to make this bank the finest piece of work known to the present age, on account of it being his home town, and he will make it a sample piece of work.

Their factory is located on Lakewood Avenue and Southern Road, Atlanta, Ga. The public is invited to visit their fine equipped factory and see the fine work done there.—(adv.)

Injured by Automobile Which Was Rushing Boy To the Grady Hospital

J. T. Stephens, of Lakewood Heights, an aged Confederate veteran, narrowly escaped death Saturday about noon at the corner of Forsyth and Mitchell streets when he was run over by an automobile which was rushing an injured boy to the Grady hospital.

L. E. Whetter, head of the Whetter Manufacturing company, of No. 116 West Mitchell street, was carrying his boy, Ernest, 15 years old, who had just cut his hand on a wood lathe in his father's factory, to the hospital. He stopped and placed the old veteran in his machine and drove both the Grady. Stephens was knocked down and suffered contusions on his right leg, a bruised head, a lacerated scalp and possible internal injuries.

The hospital physicians stated that the condition of the veteran would not prove serious if no internal injuries developed.

Asks $30,000 Damages. Asserting that he had been injured for life by the negligence of the Western and Atlantic Railway company, for which he was working as locomotive engineer, June 1, 1912, C. A. Kitchens, resident of the state, yesterday filed suit against that railway corporation for $30,000 in the federal court for the northern district of Georgia. The suit was originally brought in the state court at Dalton, Whitefield county, where the plaintiff declares he received his injuries.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing or cathartic in the kidney region. Severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and lean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Epsom salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act like a well-oiled machine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it is a well-known fact that it does not cause any kidney trouble while it is in your system.

Coffee Finds Its Place.

The Literary Digest, of March, 28, 1914, quoting the New York World, says:

"Cocain and its allied intoxicants appear to be about the cheapest things in the market. They are seemingly cheaper than whiskey, cheaper than beer, cheaper in proportion to effects than tea or coffee."

The best teaching of today is distinctly against the use of coffee, tea and other drugs, and drug-bearing beverages—especially among the young. It is well established that headache, nervousness, indigestion, sleeplessness, and other aches and pains are commonly caused by coffee drinking.

People are becoming alive to this fact and thousands have quit coffee and now use

POSTUM A pure food-drink.

Made of whole wheat and a small per cent of molasses, Postum is a rich, flavoury beverage much resembling high-grade Java in taste, but is absolutely free from the coffee-drug, caffeine, or any other harmful substance.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

DON'T KNOCK BUT BOOST, SAYS DEAN TO HARRIS

Prominent Gainesville Man Replies to Reference to Him in Letter of W. J. Harris.

Hon. H. H. Dean, of Gainesville, has issued a public letter replying to references made to him in a statement published last Sunday from Hon. William J. Harris, and also to allegations concerning him made in a recently published communication from Mr. J. Brown.

Mr. Dean calls on Mr. Harris to 'stop knocking and be a booster,' and declares that he (Harris) reminds him of a 'knollposter—a fellow overhauling hankering for office without any hope of getting it or any capacity to fill it.'

The letter of Mr. Dean is as follows:

Editorial:—Mr. Harris, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, in a late issue of your paper attempts to reply to my card in support of the county unit rule, and while practically admitting that the state of Georgia is against him threatens to go before the people in his effort to destroy the county unit rule, the heritage of the small counties, and turn over the control of the state to the largest cities. There he thinks, can be more easily manipulated.

The state of Georgia has overwhelming majorities in favor of the county unit rule, whereby the entire state has an equitable representation in the election of her senators, governors and statehouse officials in strict accord with the constitutional provisions of the state.

It is a disgrace to fear a deadlock, when no such thing has happened in the state since the two-thirds rule was abolished over 20 years ago.

When Mr. Harris shall have heard from the people, he will find that the people are as unanimous for the county unit rule as he found the executive committee of his own party of that body.

Harris Supporters Scarce.

I have made diligent inquiry throughout the state, and have found that Harris supporters are scarce. In fact, I have not yet succeeded in finding one single supporter of Mr. Harris. This plan in his hands will fail.

As another plank in his platform he opens an attack against the railroad attorneys. He has evidently dug up some of the left-over anti-railroad literature from the campaign of 1906 and by reproducing it hopes to cause demagogues to throw the state into a second case of hysteria and to elect a governor's chair on a wave of prejudice.

He does not realize that the state of Georgia is the owner of one of the largest and most valuable railroads in the state and that it is vastly to the interest of every citizen of the state to re lease this road in the near future to the very best advantage.

Time to Boost, Not Knock.

This is no time to knock the railroads and reduce the revenue of the state by raising prejudices against them nor to drive out capital seeking investment, nor drive off railroad corporations anticipating making bids for the leasing of the Western and Atlantic railroad. The result of the famous campaign of 1906 was to bankrupt nearly all of the railroads and to contribute to the panic of 1907.

If there ever was a time in the history of Georgia that railroads needed boosting, now is the time.

With returning prosperity with a valuable railroad on our hands to re lease with strong hopes of doubling the rental and securing at the same time the double tracking of the Western and Atlantic railroad. Besides obtaining a fair and reasonable rental for the property in Atlanta and Macon (Atlanta not required for railroad purposes with everybody uniting and boosting the property to the full value), since Harris the knocker, in his Trojan horse attempt to scatter a second case of hysteria which, if successful will drive off capital seeking investment in the bidding and depreciate the value of the state's only great asset and leave our children without the necessary funds for their education.

I say to Mr. Harris stop knocking and be a booster. Turn the railroads out and secure the good far places for your Georgia democratic friends as you would do for your own appointment.

What has our meat has our Caesar fed upon that he has grown so great? What has he ever done to show ability to direct the affairs of the state?

He admits that he did not have experience enough to sign a bill, and whether a written and properly signed proxy could be voted and had to refer it to the proper authority.

Mr. Harris replies to a very marked degree the letter of Hon. J. W. Harris, defining the position of his own party in the election of 1906, and a fellow overhauling hankering for office without any hope of getting it, or any capacity to fill it.

Grieved at the unfortunate accident which occurred at his home during the Shrine convention when W. H. Smith, of Calhoun, Ga., entered the residence of J. J. Edwards by mistake, and was shot and killed, Mr. Edwards has written the following card to the public:

To the Public:

In behalf of the relatives and friends of Mr. W. H. Smith, of Calhoun, Ga., who unfortunately met his death in my home on Wednesday morning, the 13th inst., at the residence of Mrs. E. T. RUNS OVER NEGRO GIRL; TAKES HER TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. E. T. Harwick, of 90 Pearl street, while driving her automobile out Edgewood avenue near the corner of Fort street last night about 8 o'clock, ran over a little negro girl, wrenching the child's knee. Mrs. Harwick immediately jumped out of her car and with the little girl's mother, rushed the child to the Grady hospital.

After the doctors at the hospital had treated the child's knee, Mrs. Harwick drove over to police station and told Night Chief Lett that she wished to surrender herself, and make a report of the accident.

The girl's mother who witnessed the accident, stated that her child was to blame and no case was made against Mrs. Harwick.

Coker Must Pay Fine Of $50 Imposed by Hall County Court

The supreme court has handed down a decision to the effect that a municipal officer has no authority to serve a warrant outside of his own municipality, thereby affirming the judgment of the Hall county superior court in imposing a fine of $50 on Eugene Coker, the Atlanta detective, who was recently convicted in Gainesville on the charge of false imprisonment. Coker must pay the fine.

Coker, under direction of Chief Beavers, took out a warrant before a local justice of the peace, charging H. H. Groggs, of Hall county, of perjury. He went to Gainesville, served the warrant and sought to bring Groggs back to Atlanta. The Hall county grand jury indicted Coker.

IF SKIN ITCHES AND BREAKS OUT APPLY SULPHUR

Get Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Eczema Eruptions Right Up.

For years, common bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections, by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasitocidal but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin.

The moment you apply it to an itching or broken out skin the itching stops and the scaling begins to fall. It is not a common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt and remarkable results, even in aggravated eczema that it is a never ending source of amazement to its users.

While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subdue the angry itching and irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which should be applied to the irritated or inflamed parts, like the ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the eruption is accompanied with itching.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alterative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case—

33 S. B. Keyser, W. Va.

"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the liver had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless. Only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good. So he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alterative. It was no bed from November 1908 until February 25, 1909 and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever. (Abbreviated.)

(Signed) MRS. H. K. BRILEY.

Eckman's Alterative is most efficacious in rheumatism, catarrh and neuralgia, and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Sold by all leading Drug Stores. Write Eckman Laboratory Philadelphia Pa. for booklet of recoveries.

Market Ready to Jump In Either Direction

Stock Traders Are Awaiting Developments in Mexico, Politics and the Rate Case.

New York, May 16.—(Special)—The stock market showed but small change, though stocks held firm as a whole despite the large gold exports, which had not been expected. The tendency of traders is to await developments in Mexico, politics and the rate case. Sentiment is so mixed that when anything develops it might be found that there were either all bulls or all bears in the market, depending upon the importance of the news to either position. In a word, it is believed that holders of securities are ready to unload on bad news or accumulate on good. The present tendency of the majority of traders seems to be to only support the market to avoid too heavy breaks, but not to stop moderate declines, and to take profits whenever any are possible without striving to bring about a large recovery. Foreign selling of American stocks resulted from poor conditions abroad, but all news was readily absorbed. Little attention has been given so far this year to the excellent, in fact the wonderful grain crop prospects, but it is believed that the market is being regarded much longer, and that there will be considerable attention paid to the wheat harvesting starts in June. The difficulties of one year in getting satisfactory terms for retiring or extending maturing obligations proved a depressing factor to a small extent, but the quick sale of notes of another year which were checked for a few weeks offset the former. The greatest uncertainty at present in the financial and business world is as to the probable extent and effects of pending legislation at Washington. Much of the proposed new laws are disapproved by financial interests, and it is believed that there will be a period of weakness in the market until the interstate trade commission bill, the anti-trust bill and the legislation regulating stock and bond issues of railroads become laws as at present proposed.

Supply of Gold. In view of the fact that the supply of gold bars was at a very low point, the engagement of a large amount of gold for Berlin and Paris, with some of it to go to Russia, has caused a surprise in the money market. Foreign exchange conditions were very favorable to the gold movement, however, and it is believed that there should be further large exports of gold. It will be necessary, however, for foreigners engaging gold here to take coin unless the supply of bars is increased, and the premium on coin would offset any profit there might be due to exchange rates. Russia has an insatiable desire, if not actual need, to build up her gold reserves, and it is believed that even with the premium that country will take gold coin from here while exchange is so high. There is about $65,000,000 in gold coin in the local sub-treasury. European government banks have increased their gold supply by nearly $300,000,000 during the last year, but still the competition for the yellow metal continues. Banks in this country have large supplies of idle funds, with buying of good grade bonds about the only use being made of it now. Rates for wire and call money continue very easy.

The prospects of saving Missouri Pacific from receivership are considered good, as it is reported that many of the larger holders of the $25,000,000 notes maturing June 1 have agreed to an extension for one year. The note-holders have until May 25 to deposit their notes in agreement to the extension, and a definite amount has been set, the total to be deposited to be left to the judgment of the directors as to whether it is sufficient or not for purposes of going ahead with the extension. If the extension is decided on, additional collateral will be put behind the notes. Dissenting holders who are not paid on June 1 will have to give sixty days' notice before they can apply for a receivership, so that the market conditions have softened, but these consumers have been buying for some time. Copper metal is firm at about 11 1/4 cents a pound, with no prospect of a rise. Conditions in the brass trade are not much improved, but these consumers have been buying for some time. The price of tin has been about 11 1/4 cents a pound, with no prospect of a rise. Cotton advanced moderately as a result of bad weather conditions in many sections of the belt, but the stronger tone was offset by poor conditions in the trade. Europe was a good buyer, but the pressure was not so great as in former sessions. The worst reports have come from Texas, but in several other sections in the belt the outlook is bright for a good crop. Noting has been done.

closed as yet to give any definite basis for estimates of the size of the new crop, and while it is known that planting has been a larger scale than last year, there is nothing to show how much damage has been done. There is a good prospect of support in the speculative market. There were reports of damage to winter wheat, but nothing of serious moment. Short covering supplied much of the demand. Corn was strong on reports of bad weather in the Argentine republic, also that seeding operations had been delayed in the country by too much moisture.

Investigators Report On Rock Island Road

The Startling Statement Is Made That 20,000 of the Road's Freight Cars Are Only Junk.

New York, May 16.—(Special)—If the original report just made by E. W. McKenna to the Rock Island bondholders' protective committee stands, William H. Moore, D. C. Reid and Frank E. Hine must plead guilty of forcing Rock Island in the class with New Haven, Frisco, and Alton. From 1902 until October of 1913, Rock Island was completely in the hands of the three men named. McKenna, who is vice president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, was employed by the Rock Island bondholders' committee to make a close inspection, report on the condition of the road, and if possible cars should be scrapped and $15,000,000 spent for new ones, and that deferred maintenance to track and equipment call for an additional expenditure of $8,896,159. What any expert accountant or railroad man understands McKenna to mean is that instead of having a profit and loss surplus of $13,604,851, as reported on June 30 last, the old Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway really had a deficit of $10,291,308. All 4000, Rock Island owns 40,783 freight cars. According to the McKenna report, half of the company's total freight equipment should be scrapped. To a practical railroad man that statement is absolutely startling. McKenna's charge that Rock Island has $8,896,159 of deferred maintenance is equally as sensational. If McKenna's report is correct, Rock Island's profit and loss surplus on June 30 last was overstated by $23,896,159, or the sum of the $15,000,000 needed to replace worn-out freight cars and the $8,896,159 needed for "deferred maintenance."

Illustration Given. For the sake of illustration, take a factory that has $1,000,000 worth of machinery whose life is ten years. Instead of setting aside $100,000 from earnings each year to replace the machinery, paid out in dividends all of its earnings over and above running expenses were paid out for ten years, or two things would happen to that factory; either the doors would be closed, or else $1,000,000 would be borrowed to buy new machinery. If the factory would have adopted the McKenna plan, it would have set aside $100,000 from earnings each year to replace the machinery, paid out in dividends all of its earnings over and above running expenses for ten years, or two things would happen to that factory; either the doors would be closed, or else $1,000,000 would be borrowed to buy new machinery. Comment by Folk. The committee of the interstate commerce commission, who is conducting the inquiry into New Haven on orders from the senate, had in mind just such transactions as when it was described in Rock Island when in placing Charles S. Mellen on the witness stand this week, he said: "It is not a question of immunity, but of the truth shall be suppressed. Mellen, as a witness, telling the truth, would be a thousand times more valuable to the public than Mellen could possibly be as a defendant. The great question before the American people today is to secure honesty in the management of the railway systems of the country. The subject has been brought to light in this investigation, and the further disclosures that Mr. Mellen and other witnesses can make, should be of immense value, and result in the public that will also be to be just as grave a crime to plunder the public through a corporation as it is now personally to rob an individual." Some of the congressmen and senators who are opposed to the bill now being considered making the interstate commerce commission responsible for the use of the railroads make of this charge by the senate of new securities, would be surprised to learn how many railroad men there are here in New York who favor the proposed legislation. In discussing the subject with the head of the New Haven and Rock Island disclosures, the head of one well-known railway system said: "I am good and tired of having my friends urge me about the crooked railroads. I am for government regulation of new securities. Railroads that are honestly managed will not object to telling what they propose to do with the proceeds of bond and stock issues. It is about time to put a check on the ones that are not honestly managed."

Crimson Clover in Corn. (W. E. MERRY, writer.) A correspondent, who does not sign his name but who, by his lives and here is not entitled to a reply, wants to know how to grow crimson clover successfully by sowing among corn at last winter. Now there are two parts of this country where it is known with success, but in most of the south that will be too late, and you had better sow now in the corn and cut and shock the corn at maturity, and then disk down the rows and sow the crimson clover in the rows. Some one wants an intelligent reply, he should sign his name to his letter and tell where he lives, for it is not that I use no one's name in the paper.

TAXICAB COMPANIES USE "NOBBY TREAD" Tires in Favor in the Cities of Many Parts of the World. It is a far cry from Stockholm, Sweden, to San Francisco, Cal., not so far, however, but that both cities have found a common ground on which they have arrived at the same decision, that is, to use "Nobby Tread" tires on their city transportation systems. In the Swedish capital, Zookelad & Co. are the principal taxicab operators, and their cars can be seen at all times and in all sections of Stockholm, in service transporting residents and visitors to their various destinations. It is a significant fact, that this company, in an splendid position to judge the merits of motor cars and their accessories, after thorough and exhaustive tests on various makes of tires, adopted the United States "Nobby Tread," and during 1913 purchased many thousands of dollars worth of tires from the United States Tire company.

San Francisco, a city 8,000 or 10,000 miles away from Stockholm, another company, and that the largest in the world, has also arrived at the same conclusion in respect to the tire equipment with which their taxis should be provided. The result of their tests has a contract to use only "Nobby Tread" on all their machines. In the United States, the use of low "Taxicab" service uses "Nobby Treads" exclusively on the four wheels. The fact that the "Nobby Tread" tires are rapidly adopted by "Nobby Treads" is a fact that is of great interest and concern when it buys cars of equipment, is influenced primarily by the factors of safety, reliability and the engineers of the United States Tire company, and when in need of any thing in the way of tires for their taxicabs, they are bought on a basis of merit first—the price consideration coming second. "Users of motor cars and accessories have found, by past experience, that while the first cost of a tire is a factor which gives eminent satisfaction, that it pays to buy that car or article right from the start. The experience of these two big taxicab companies is a valuable lesson in that it shows the value of the reliability of the "Nobby Tread" tires, whether they are used in Sweden, Africa, Asia or America, and that the taxicab companies who demand the best service out of their cars and equipment, and upon whom the public has a right to expect a recommendation that should not be lightly overlooked, are now turning to seeking the best in this line for their cars.

DECLINE QUICKLY CANCELLED, HOWEVER, WHEN NEW YORK MARKET FALLS TO LEVEL OF LONDON.

New York, May 16.—The most direct influence brought to bear upon the stock market was from abroad. Unsettled conditions in London, which in turn was attributed to unsatisfactory financial conditions in several European countries, depressed sharply in London. Speculation here was lifeless, and at the opening the list followed the decline in London.

The lower range of the market was cancelled, however, when New York market fell to level of London. The movement thereafter was narrow and variable, with a majority of slight losses at the end.

RITCHIE CAN GIVE WELSH A LICKING

Jim Corbett Does Not Believe Welsh Can Outbox the Champion—He Gives Good Reasons.

By James J. Corbett.

(Former Heavyweight Champion of the World.)

New York, May 15.—(Special.)—Jim Corbett, a veteran hand at the game of boxing, has expressed his opinion on the new boxing club at Coney Island, a Brooklyn suburb near Coney Island. Corbett will stage a splendid card for his opening attraction, he was Freddy Welsh and Jack Britton in the star parts. Probably a better matched pair could hardly be found, unless Paddy Moran and Tommy Burns were included for the clever Britton.

Boxing fans are favorably impressed with Welsh's business like methods in creating a demand for a bout between Ritchie and himself. He surely is going right about it to land the match.

In the few months the English champion has disposed of two of the leading aspirants of the lightweight division in the persons of Joe Rivers and Leach Cross and a clean cut victory over Britton has established his rights to a match with Ritchie beyond all question. While Welsh will be compelled to concede Freddy's claims to a contest for the world's lightweight title.

Not that Ritchie in my opinion is average in boxing, but he is a money and, if Welsh demonstrates his eligibility for the match, Welsh can be depended upon to appear in person, the promoter who comes to the front with the highest bid.

Ritchie Not Ducking

I was reading an article the other day by a local sports expert in the opinion advanced that Ritchie will hardly consent to a ten round bout with Welsh should the latter's proposition be accepted. True Welsh is a more polished performer than the American champion but the latter proved several years ago when he had had little experience in the ring that he was capable of giving Freddy a good fight. It is not to be expected that Ritchie will be able to take care of himself even in a short bout with the clever Britton.

There are those who are reckoned on in trying to do a winner of a ten round bout between the two champions. Freddy is a money maker. Welsh make a runaway sure thing of it in a short bout should he win. GERMANY'S UNEASY IN REGARD TO RUSSIA

Tone of Press Shows There Is Anxiety Over Possibility of Trade War.

Berlin, May 16.—It is not only a possible military opponent that Germany is uneasy about Russia. The tone of the press daily shows that there is much anxiety over the possibility of a trade war, as well as much uneasiness over what is believed to be a growth of anti-German sentiment in the big empire on the east.

In some of Russia's recent steps Germany observers believe they see a combination of military and trade purposes. One of these is the prohibition of the export of horses destined to keep the Russian army in the field.

GENOVA'S HOLY GRAIL BROKEN BEYOND REPAIR

Believed That Some One Accidentally Struck the Famous Vessel.

Rome, May 16.—Both religious devotees and art lovers have learned with regret that the recent report of the breaking of the Holy Grail beyond repair in the cathedral of Genoa is true, although authentic explanations of the accident are still lacking.

One expert who ascribed the break to the cathedral is popularly suspected of shielding someone who accidentally broke the vessel.

While it is doubtful that his claim is really the story of a sacred vessel so much legendary to pieces of knight hood days as when it has been accepted as such by a large number of Catholics.

With a day's touring in front of him, J. L. Koerber, a Beaumont, Texas garage, slipped the motor placed in the tank of his car and went into the building for the key to the pump.

While engaged in a job with the garage man, Mr. Koerber heard loud snoring from outside. He glanced out the window and saw his car rambling away alone down the street at a dignified but increasing rate of speed.

He dashed to the door and started in pursuit, arriving just in time to see the car from behind as it crossed a crowded crossing.

THE BRIDE

TO-DAY'S sketch illustrates some novel and attractive ideas for the bride and her attendants. The bridal gown is simple in design, as it should be, of soft ivory white satin. The skirt draped in the new Greek fashion. A tiny jacket of the satin, finished with a folded bertha of duchess lace, worn over a tulle underblouse. The bouquet of white dove orchids has a shower of narrow satin ribbons knotted here and there with orange blossoms.

The little Watteau shepherdess bridesmaids, while they are extremely picturesque, are also in the height of fashion, with their pointed bodices and bouffant panniers of black and white striped satin. And the short skirts of yellow taffetas, rather full around the bottom, slightly tucked up in front. Gathered net fichus, fastened with bunches of yellow daisies. Little tip-tilted hats, circled with the daisies and black crooks topped with great bunches of them.

The mother's gown is of gray taffeta, with a bustle drapery, edged with knife-pleating. The high-flaring collar of taffeta is dignified and becoming. The guimpe is of plaited white chiffon, and the girdle vest of tango yellow duvetyne.

For the Bride's Trousseau

THE colored lingerie dress will be exceedingly popular this summer, and the wise bride will include one in her trousseau. All shades of yellow from the palest to the tange shades are the rage.

On the left is a very simply made gown trimmed with bands and ruffles of the material. Black satin forms the girdle of this charming little dress. The hat of green milan straw is also trimmed with a black satin bow filling the bandeau at the smartly turned up brim. A yellow rose at the side gives the needed touch of color.

The gown in the centre is made of both plain and embroidered crepe. The embroidered crepe forms the waist and the puffed tunic, under which are two rather full shadow lace ruffles. The distinctive note in this gown is the arrangement of the girdle of cherry colored ribbon, which is draped from under the tunic. The parasol is of black and white striped taffeta, lined with cherry red chiffon. The black chapeau is a charming selection.

The suit shown at the right, of moire taffeta, is simplicity itself. The old gold vest of the bolero jacket ending in two tassels of gold is fastened with a silk ornament of the moire. Organdy collar and cuffs add a distinctly dainty touch. The smart hat very well carries out the color scheme of the costume.

Club Women to Celebrate Peace Day

The Atlanta Woman's club has made a move in the right direction in planning an enlightening program and urging an enthusiastic attendance on "Peace Day" celebration, May 18.

Mr. Norman Angel, the English peace advocate, who has written several books on war that have attracted attention throughout Europe, has founded a new school of thought, called by his admirers, "Norman Angelism."

"All democratic governments are, or ought to be, expressions of public opinion. It is in that way that the public gets about what it deserves in the matter of government."

So, public opinion, educated to believe in the importance of world peace, enlightened as to the methods by which effective rules could be enforced for its preservation, is the ambitious and worthy end we have in view in calling together organized womanhood to celebrate "Peace Day."

Albany Prepares for Convention

The Chautauqua Edition of The Albany Herald contained, among its many interesting features a splendid Club Woman's Section.

This is what Mrs. Fitzpatrick has to say why she is glad the State Convention of Clubs is to be held in Albany this year and why Albany should be glad.

"When the invitation came to our convention in Cuthbert last October from the mayor, the city council, the chamber of commerce and the Woman's club of Albany that we hold our next annual convention in that hospitable city, we were glad, and accepted with unusual enthusiasm, for all know the splendid capabilities of Albany."

"The next district meeting will be held in Albany this year and why Albany should be glad."

"Then, to Albany friends I would say, I believe you will welcome us because we are what we are, and stand for the things we stand for, and do the things that we have done and are doing for humanity—the great things that need to be done."

"Our convention will be, perhaps the largest in our history and our program the most interesting. Arrangements are already being made to provide some of the most brilliant speakers in the country, and we will bring to this convention subjects of great moment interesting reports and vital recommendations."

"Albany will be in the thoughts and on the lips of the 20,000 Georgia club women for months to come, and I am sure our meeting together will be a mutual and lasting pleasure to all."

The Herald says "Of all the conventions Albany has ever had the pleasure of entertaining, and they have been many, it is but just to say that for none has the desire been keener than for the meeting of the Georgia club women in October. Not merely will the keys of the city be turned over to Albany's distinguished guests, but the very city itself, the club women of Albany, with the assistance of every other Albanian, are planning to make this the greatest convention the club women of Georgia have ever held."

"The approaching meeting has added zest to the already active and efficient work which was being done by the local club women, and has heightened the enthusiasm of their club work."

"Certainly Albany's reputation for never doing things by halves will be more than sustained when the club women meet just so soon as the club women of Georgia honored Albany last year at Cuthbert by selecting it as the next place of meeting the Albany club women began the plans for the big gathering."

"Upon these plans they have been working with their usual energy and ability so that the success of the meeting is assured."

"The club women of Albany will not lack funds to provide the entertainment which they are planning for their distinguished visitors, nor will they lack any assistance which the cooperation of every man woman and child in the city could give."

"The reception of the Albany club women will be one of the leading features for the entertainment of the visitors. The D. A. R. luncheon will be another notable feature of the convention, and the U. D. C. luncheon will be no less enjoyable. Selection is yet to be made from the numerous other entertainments which have been offered by local organizations and in the private homes of Albany's hospitable people."

Endowment Fund Not a Tax, But An Opportunity For Good

Club sister, please don't think of the endowment fund as a tax, even a tax that is self imposed. Think of it as an opportunity that has come to us all to do our part, great or small for the good of the race—an opportunity to reach out our hands and because of the many hands that are clasped together to teach those who are most distant separated by miles or by conditions.

Let me tell you a story I read the other day which begins in the dear old way. Once upon a time a little seed was planted. The sun shone on it, the showers fell upon it and the seed grew to be a power in the land. The fruit was for nourishing and for healing and to give life to the people, but all about it closing it in on every side, stood a great wall.

Years ago there came together women with the desire for service and the love of humanity in their hearts. They had the religion of practical kindness, the religion of love, hope, helpfulness, the religion of willing service perfect trust, joyous fruits and universal good will and there was established the organization that has grown to be a power in the land. General Federation of Women's Clubs. Beyond the hopes even the dreams of its founders it has grown but today it is hampered. It is shut out of new paths, its efficiency is gravely impaired by lack of money. Although

"When the invitation came to our convention in Cuthbert last October from the mayor, the city council, the chamber of commerce and the Woman's club of Albany that we hold our next annual convention in that hospitable city, we were glad, and accepted with unusual enthusiasm, for all know the splendid capabilities of Albany."

"The next district meeting will be held in Albany this year and why Albany should be glad."

"Then, to Albany friends I would say, I believe you will welcome us because we are what we are, and stand for the things we stand for, and do the things that we have done and are doing for humanity—the great things that need to be done."

"Our convention will be, perhaps the largest in our history and our program the most interesting. Arrangements are already being made to provide some of the most brilliant speakers in the country, and we will bring to this convention subjects of great moment interesting reports and vital recommendations."

"Albany will be in the thoughts and on the lips of the 20,000 Georgia club women for months to come, and I am sure our meeting together will be a mutual and lasting pleasure to all."

The Herald says "Of all the conventions Albany has ever had the pleasure of entertaining, and they have been many, it is but just to say that for none has the desire been keener than for the meeting of the Georgia club women in October. Not merely will the keys of the city be turned over to Albany's distinguished guests, but the very city itself, the club women of Albany, with the assistance of every other Albanian, are planning to make this the greatest convention the club women of Georgia have ever held."

"The approaching meeting has added zest to the already active and efficient work which was being done by the local club women, and has heightened the enthusiasm of their club work."

"Certainly Albany's reputation for never doing things by halves will be more than sustained when the club women meet just so soon as the club women of Georgia honored Albany last year at Cuthbert by selecting it as the next place of meeting the Albany club women began the plans for the big gathering."

"Upon these plans they have been working with their usual energy and ability so that the success of the meeting is assured."

"The club women of Albany will not lack funds to provide the entertainment which they are planning for their distinguished visitors, nor will they lack any assistance which the cooperation of every man woman and child in the city could give."

"The reception of the Albany club women will be one of the leading features for the entertainment of the visitors. The D. A. R. luncheon will be another notable feature of the convention, and the U. D. C. luncheon will be no less enjoyable. Selection is yet to be made from the numerous other entertainments which have been offered by local organizations and in the private homes of Albany's hospitable people."

Endowment Fund Not a Tax, But An Opportunity For Good

Club sister, please don't think of the endowment fund as a tax, even a tax that is self imposed. Think of it as an opportunity that has come to us all to do our part, great or small for the good of the race—an opportunity to reach out our hands and because of the many hands that are clasped together to teach those who are most distant separated by miles or by conditions.

Let me tell you a story I read the other day which begins in the dear old way. Once upon a time a little seed was planted. The sun shone on it, the showers fell upon it and the seed grew to be a power in the land. The fruit was for nourishing and for healing and to give life to the people, but all about it closing it in on every side, stood a great wall.

Years ago there came together women with the desire for service and the love of humanity in their hearts. They had the religion of practical kindness, the religion of love, hope, helpfulness, the religion of willing service perfect trust, joyous fruits and universal good will and there was established the organization that has grown to be a power in the land. General Federation of Women's Clubs. Beyond the hopes even the dreams of its founders it has grown but today it is hampered. It is shut out of new paths, its efficiency is gravely impaired by lack of money. Although

BOOK REVIEWS IN TABLOID

"The Life of Robert Toombs." By Ulrich Bonnell Phillips, Ph. D. Professor of American History in the University of Michigan. (The Macmillan Company, New York.)

Professor Phillips, the author of this comprehensive and in every way adequate life of Robert Toombs, is a Georgian, a graduate of the State University and was for some time a member of the faculty. At present he is professor of American history in the University of Michigan. He has published a number of notable historical, biographical and biographical monographs and essays on subjects pertaining to the history of the South, its political and social conditions, having for years made a close study of these themes, especially of the life of the people north of Mason and Dixon's line in the periods before and during the war between the states and subsequent thereto. Incidentally, Professor Phillips says, "The ante-bellum South is the most interesting theme in the history of this continent. In his life of Toombs, the author has given us a very scholarly and satisfying work. We notice that the review of the book, which has been seen and recognized and emphasized its historical importance. It has been well done, and the record shows the individual life, consequently the life of such an outstanding and representative American as Robert Toombs, Georgia, furnishes us literature with a very generous page of history. The author has made painstaking research in the best historical sources, geographical sources for its subject matter. The results of these researches are fully and ably set forth in his comments and interpretations bear the stamp of sincerity, proving an unbiased mind and a determination to hold the scales of justice with a steady and impartial hand. His citations are concise and appropriate with extraneous interference. Such was Toombs when he was elected congressman in 1834, and such he remained throughout the years of his public service.

Robert Toombs entered Congress in 1835, to join the group of famous southern leaders who eventually figured so largely in the great national crisis of the antebellum period. He pursued a course as a whole like his intimate colleague, Stephens. Being an expert financier, this element of his fertile mind, together with his abhorrence of extravagance, and the illegal use of the public exchequer, soon made him known as a "water-dog" of the treasury. In 1840, Alexander H. Stephens wrote to Toombs in the house, on January 8, full and the galleries crowded. He commanded entire and close attention. He added full fifteen cubits to his stature as a statesman and a man of talents in the opinion of the people and the great men of the nation. During the last two years in the house Toombs devoted himself to non-sectional and non-partisan subjects, especially to the financial matters of common and the maintenance of the national government. But it was in the senate, which he entered in 1845, that he showed his true greatness. In that splendid arena he displayed his complete mastery of the height of his abilities as a practical statesman. Griffin Wife Is Named As Probation Officer to Watch Wayward Hubby

Griffin, Ga., May 16.—Judge Robert T. Daniel, presiding officer of the Flint River circuit and a resident of this city, gave a new deal for the woman of Georgia and opened a unique violation of the new probation law in a case tried before him this week. The case was that of a wife-beating, and the evidence showed that the husband would occasionally, in an intoxicated condition, slap his wife. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the court sentenced the husband to be confined in the penitentiary for the day before sentence was passed. That the wife loved the husband, and the husband loved the wife, and that the children of the family needed the protection of the father, could not be disputed. In the interim of adjournment of court the wife and husband had an opportunity to get together, which they did and reconciled. When brought before the judge for sentence the happily reunited couple informed the court what had transpired, and the wife pleaded for mercy for her husband. The judge, in a problem before Judge Daniel, which he solved with a wisdom like unto that of Solomon. He discerned that the man was not able to pay a fine and support his family, and he ordered that the husband be allowed to return to his children. Happily for the judge the legislature enacted a law that allowed the husband to be placed in the penitentiary for a probation officer, and then appointed the wife as the probation officer.

After mature deliberation the judge decided to sentence the husband to twelve months work under a probation officer, and then appointed the wife as the probation officer. The husband complies strictly with the law for that term, he is to be discharged from service, but if he fails to keep his faith, the wife as probation officer is to bring him into court. Thus Dan Cupid assumes a new role in Georgia, and the outcome of his maneuvers in this instance is awaited with interest in Spalding county.

The bird has four feet, each of which is fastened to the backbone by joints similar to those of a human hand. The bird is a cross between a Brown Leghorn and a White Wyandotte, and is covered with long, shaggy hair, rather than down or feathers. Other than the feet and legs and hair the chick is made up like ordinary chickens.

Recipes for Wrinkles and Bad Complexions
Of all the beauty recipes that have been published, here are two that have successfully stood the test of time: Wrinkle Remover—One ounce of dried saxolite, dissolved in a pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. It brings instantaneous results. Face Peeler—Pure mercerized wax, applied at night like cold cream, only not rubbed in, wash off in the morning. It causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in tiny, almost invisible flakes, a little each day, until the fresh young under-skin is wholly in evidence. The beautiful rose-tinted complexion thus obtained is not to be compared with one made over with cosmetics. If the old skin is marred with freckles, pimples or other blemishes, these defects are of course discarded with the skin itself. An ounce of the wax is sufficient in any case. The ingredients named are inexpensive and can be found in any drug store.—(Adv.)

TURN GRAY HAIR DARK WITH Q-BAN

Not Greasy or Messy—Harmless—Darkens Naturally and Evenly.

That old-time hair remedy, Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer, for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair, is the best treatment for gray hair, and folks are using it to keep their hair a good, dark, even color, which is quite desirable, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied, as Q-Ban darkens the hair so evenly and naturally. Simply rub Q-Ban, like a shampoo, on the hair and scalp on retiring, and the gray disappears, but what delights everybody with Q-Ban is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which makes the hair so attractive and fascinating; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair. Q-Ban is not sticky or messy—delightful to use, harmless and sure to darken your gray hair. Make a personal trial of Q-Ban and see for yourself. In the Social Whirl

By Isma Dooly

WHILE "society," in the sense of the gay ones who entertain, were a part of the crowd the early part of Shriners' week, there were a number of beautiful formal entertainments the latter part of the week.

The beauty and brilliancy of the ladies of the party has been a subject of enthusiastic comment. Colonel Willis Ragan entertained in compliment to them Tuesday evening. They were among the most attractive women at the garden party given by Governor and Mrs. Slaton Wednesday afternoon, and the same evening they were the guests of a small dinner at the Capital City club.

her trip abroad and she was being cordially welcomed. Her toilet was most becoming in soft white satin brocade in gold and trimmed in gold-threaded lace. The tulle corsage was finished with a broad garle of the brocade, finish being given in a gold lisse rose. Mrs. Hearst wore a dancing gown of white satin, the corsage of tulle sparkling with jeweled trimmings. She wore the now modish "Queen Louise" scarf of tulle. Mrs. Garry's handsome gown was of rose satin and she wore a string of superb pearls. Mrs. Slaton wore a charming toilet of apricot satin and chiffon embroidered in a design of flowers and brilliants.

Friday night Governor and Mrs. Slaton entertained a party of twenty at dinner in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Hearst and Judge and Mrs. Gary. Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson entertained at a tea dance at their home on West Peachtree in compliment to Miss Goodrich and Miss Bliss, inviting a number of the young dancing set to meet them. Colonel John Temple Graves entertained for the Hearst party last evening.

A GARDEN PARTY. Mrs. Slaton's garden party Wednesday afternoon was one of the largest entertainments yet undertaken by an Atlanta hostess. Fifteen hundred guests were received by Mrs. Slaton, and nearly every one of these appreciative ladies said goodbye to her before departing. Notwithstanding this hospitable incident, Mrs. Slaton presided at a dinner party a few hours afterward with all ease and graciousness. The garden party presented a scene of unusual beauty, the park to the far side of the entrance grounds being all green now, in the foliage of the trees. The orchestra was stationed to the right of the house, and in the rear, there was the garden bloom with Paul Neyron roses, and those of other varieties.

The refreshments were served on flower-decked tables on different parts of the lawn and the toilets of the receiving party and visitors added distinctly to the picturesqueness of the occasion.

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO GUESTS. Is Atlanta more strenuously hospitable than any other nineteenth century city?

This question is prompted by the number of guests coming to Atlanta who declare they cannot keep up with the social calendar. The program for a guest visiting here for opera, for instance, is about this: Opera Monday night; supper afterwards at Capital City club, Tuesday, a breakfast party somewhere at 12 o'clock; matinee at 2, tea at 5 o'clock, somewhere, dinner-dance, Piedmont Driving club, Wednesday morning guest has engagement to see old friend calling at 10 o'clock, has luncheon engagement at 2 o'clock, and tea-dance at Driving club at 5 o'clock, dinner, the opera, supper afterward at club, dance in Terrace grill after that, Thursday, breakfast 11 o'clock, matinee at 2 o'clock, dance at Country club, dinner-dance at Capital City club, etc.

During the past week, two ballets visiting Atlanta filled engagements as follows: Luncheon at 1 o'clock, tea-dance following, dinner party at 8 o'clock, dance following, supper 2 o'clock in the morning. The next day they had a luncheon, tea and dinner engagement, after dinner went to the Country club for a dance, and after that a supper. The week's program was that full, and yet the admirers of these young people felt that they wished to show their appreciation of them and that was the only way.

It would seem, however, that such a program would tax the strongest constitution. One entertainment by day and one in the evening should suffice, and hostesses who have guests would be doing their guests a real kindness sometimes, if they protected them against an excess of hospitality. Especially in warm weather should this course of events be modified.

AN AWFUL QUESTION. Not alone the bromide person, but even those who hold themselves among the commonplace in all things have the hopeless habit of asking in the way of greeting: "How do you feel today?"

This proves a most unfortunate manner of greeting at all times, but especially during the social stress and strain of the past week, when nobody felt particularly well in the morning. It is almost an irritating salutation in this case, while it brings on an awful situation when the chronic complainer is asked, "How do you feel?"

It brings out an inventory of every ailment to which the human anatomy is heir. To ask such a one "how he or she feels" is as bad as giving them the medical dictionary with the detailed account of the symptoms of the diseases defined. Everybody remembers the effect of that, as described in the story "Three Men in a Boat." They went out on a pleasure trip, with no book but a medical dictionary on board. Before they returned they discovered they (the three men) had every disease recorded except "housemaid's knee."

Three men in a boat are not comparable to three women who get together anywhere and greet each other with the "How do you feel this morning?" They can put the medical dictionary out of business, and in one short moment discuss ailments enough to make the well person feel that death, after all, is not the worst thing that can happen. The self-made invalid, or the person who has the mania of telling how he or she feels, is the most depressing of all others. Not merely, therefore, should the question, "How do you feel?" be cast out of society because of its commonplace tone, but because it has a bad influence on the very disposition—the very spirit of people.

In the Social Whirl

By Isma Dooly

ALL in the "psychology of the crowd," the "spirit of democracy" or "naturally temperamental expression," Atlanta has proven in the last few weeks that she needs a more established system of public recreation. There was public demonstration of this during the last few weeks.

Recalling the week of opera, there were almost as many people who went to the direction of the Auditorium to see the people who were going to opera as there were people actually attending the opera. Many stood on the outside by the hour to catch what they could of the glorious music within, all too dear to be bought by them.

They waited, many of them, until the opera was over and they watched the gay crowd awaiting their machines to be whisked off for more pleasure, and then they went home humming what they recalled of the music they had heard. They talked of the prospects of opera for next year, and were that much a part of it.

Then came the Shriners' convention, and these same people, with many more, came to town and made the crowd. The splendor of the music reached them in their far-off little homes and bungalows in the outskirts and whole families came into the center of town, beginning last Sunday night, to see the illuminations and just to "be of the crowd." Whole families came, the mother, the father, "Bud," the oldest son, and "Sis." Little Emily, the delicate sister, was held by the hand of the mother, while the other hand clasped the baby, and the smallest brother carried the yellow dog, which could not have been left at home to be run over by the automobiles passing. "Grandma" was out, too, scarcely able to stand up under the pushing, surging crowd, but grandma wanted to see the crowd. They all grew tired, and would have given anything to have gone somewhere and seated themselves for some nice refreshments, where maybe a band of music could have come and played.

So they just stood around in the crowd until they could not stand any longer. The cars were crowded that were in their direction of town, so they all walked home. They were joyous over the time they had, and the next night they went back again, and the "crowd" each night thus caught all Atlanta.

Machine after machine filled with gay people were parked on the sidewalk, and homes on the principal streets showed lights burning far into the night, as leaving the crowd the well-to-do went home to talk and bat and drink over what they had seen in the crowd; or they went to the clubs and talked it over.

For three nights "the crowd" repeated itself, and the music of the bands gave joy to the tired man, the aged woman, and the hungry-hearted boy or girl who had never heard such before.

Bolton-Mullally.

The wedding of Miss Edith Elene Bolton, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Kelley Bolton, to Mr. Mandeville Mullally was celebrated May 8, at 4 p. m., at the Osborne apartments, New York city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Lubbok, pastor of the Zion and St. Timothy Protestant Episcopal church.

Miss Louise Harkness, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and William T. Mullally, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. James Rodgers and Edward Sawyer. Mrs. James O. Rodgers and Mrs. Edwin V. Hale, of Cleveland, were matrons of honor. Elina Delavan, Carolyn Rodgers and Dorothy Clark, of Cleveland, were flower girls. The bride was given away by her brother, Dr. F. R. Bolton.

The decorations for the wedding were white and green. The double apartment was decked with apple blossoms, lilies, daisies, hydrangeas and similar.

Miss Bolton was married in a white gown, with a corsage of rose point lace trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and blue and white roses. Her veil was of white tulle with an edge of rose point, decorated with orange blossoms.

Mrs. Thomas Kelley Bolton is a daughter of Mr. B. H. Hale, banker and politician, and Mrs. Mary E. Hale. He is a member of the Yale club, the Graduates' club and the Pelham Country club. His two brothers, Thomas and Wilbur, were also at Yale, in the classes of 1882 and 1892.

Chickering Pianos

There are names in every language that stand for something definite—that bring up a picture as effectively as a long description. Hercules and Samson—these mean strength. Napoleon stands for military genius. He who reflects fashion is called a Beau Brummel. People have come to see a symbol in the name

The very sound of the word suggests the sturdiness of a house of musical genius and craftsmanship, dating back to the workshop in which Jonas Chickering made his first piano.

The leader always, recognized by musical authorities through the decades, this noble instrument represents today, as ever, the highest development of a piano. You will find that your ambition to possess a Chickering will not be discouraged by any undue stringency of our terms. Won't you come in and spend half an hour of music with us today?

THE NEED FOR EQUAL PRICES IN COMPETITION

Protected Price Plan Would Insure the Guarantee of a Better Public Service.

When congress 24 years ago enacted the Sherman law it acted as the champion of the small merchant, said Mr. Howland in The Journal of Commerce. It proposed that he should be relieved from the crushing power of the trusts and enjoy a fair chance for a living profit and the right to exist.

The error of course was that it made no effort to eliminate the causes of the unfair competition. So long as quantity prices remained and buyers were bound to possess advantages over their small competitors.

In an address at the opposition which has been displayed to the proposition because I fail to see in the Sherman law or in the spirit of the Sherman law or to the best fundamentals of fair competition. Evidently the average public—and much of the mercantile world—is totally unacquainted with the immense revolution in business which has come about during the past 25 or 30 years and therefore labors under a misconception of the whole question of competitive truth.

The rights of a specialized product are exactly parallel to those of the rights of an individual in human competitive fields. The specialty is more than a commodity; it is a commodity plus personality. It has a reputation for quality—or the opposite—It is known to the consuming public and is already in demand when it reaches the merchant's store. It is wrapped up in every package of the advertised specialty is a little of the valuable element which makes it call salability. This alone gives the specialty a value for the merchant which no undifferentiated product can have. He prefers to sell that type of merchandise—it takes less effort in sales, less time in advertising, and more repeated sales and he knows at all times what he is handling.

But the Sherman law has changed the function of the merchant. The man who created and sells this specialized product has given it his name and reputation and skill and in large degree has already sold it. He is a monopolist. He is not in fairness can his claims be denied. The manufacturer will not deny that he is a monopolist. He is not in fairness can his claims be denied. The manufacturer will not deny that he is a monopolist. He is not in fairness can his claims be denied.

Now if this be true—and I think most observers feel that it is—the result of the Sherman law to the small merchant has entirely changed just as the result of the Sherman law to the small merchant has entirely changed just as the result of the Sherman law to the small merchant has entirely changed.

Maintained prices mean the assurance of open markets, a willing field of activity in every part of the land, the assurance that nationalized products may be found everywhere in a national market. It means exactly the opposite—substitution of dissatisfied distributors, scanty supplies and other disadvantages from the market of desirable goods.

The hum of a great city is wafted to you through the Whitehalls and Peach trees of Greater Atlanta. Here, in price and princess you worship at the shrine of happiness.

YOUNG BLOOD TENDS TO BROOM BUSINESS

Sons of Firm's Builders Often Advance Interests, Although Held Back.

In many businesses which have been long established there is a continual struggle going on between the young blood which has been injected into the business and the older heads who have built the business up through the years to what it is today.

The young men who have grown up into the business or who have acquired an interest in it desire to introduce new and improved methods of doing business or of keeping the accounts, they are eager to expand and broaden out, to take advantage of opportunities which they see to enlarge the business and to make improvements generally.

Their desires are frequently opposed by the older men, who are naturally slower and more conservative in their ideas and policies, and who feel that having built the business up from nothing and made it a success, they know better what is good for it than those who are younger and less experienced.

Handicap to Youth.

This inertia, this tendency to resist changes, is in many instances a serious handicap to the younger men in their efforts to work improvement in the business, and because of it sometimes become discouraged and lose interest in the business. This is a state of affairs which is found in many successful, long-established businesses today.

It may be the son of the proprietor or of one of the proprietors who wants to make changes and introduce new and improved methods. He is enthusiastic over the business, and is keenly interested in new and modern methods. Perhaps he wants to departmentize the business or to arrange the system of accounting so that it will be just what each department is doing every day in the way of sales and profits. Or it may be that he favors adding several new departments.

The older man, while he is fond of the younger one and admires his go-ahead spirit, is yet in many instances loth to fall in with his progressive ideas. He contends that the business has always been successful under the old system, and he does not see why it is necessary or advisable to introduce a lot of "new-fangled ideas" which will revolutionize it and perhaps necessitate spending a good deal of money.

Remedy, Common Sense.

Well, what is to be done about it? Nothing, except to try to exercise that rare quality known as common sense. Common sense will furnish a correct solution to all problems. It should not be taken for granted that the younger element is always right in its contention for changes which it favors, any more than it is always true that the conservative view is always the right one.

It may be that in some cases the young fellows want to go ahead too fast and are sometimes a little too ready to make revolutionary changes in the business. It is well, however, for the older men to remember that every year, and that the methods by which they built the business twenty, thirty or forty years ago may not be good methods now. Competition is keener now, and it takes more aggressive methods to keep a business forging ahead.

The Most Successful Term in Thirty Years Has Been Completed at Reinhardt College

Waleska, Ga., May 16.—(Special)—In the hill country of north Georgia—Waleska, eight miles northwest of Canton in Cherokee county—is located the Reinhardt college founded in the Dalton conference in 1853 by Bishop Pierce in honor of Captain A. M. Reinhardt, then a citizen of Atlanta, and placed in charge of Rev. T. J. Linn. In 1891 the institution was duly chartered by the courts of Cherokee. The natural surroundings of the place are ideal and its general set atmosphere in health, etc., unsurpassed.

It was here last Tuesday evening that ended the thirtieth commencement of this splendid educational institution, which is regularly one of the best and most successful in its history.

A class of twenty received their diplomas from the hand of President Sharp, who for the past thirteen years has headed the college.

Reinhardt college has passed through years of struggles and troublous times—has had to combat poverty and devastating fires—but today the institution is stronger and more firmly established than at any time in its history, with a future more cheering and reassuring than ever in any period in the past. During the thirteen years of the enrollment of Reinhardt college, over which President Sharp has presided has grown from 215 in 1891 to 352 in 1914, while the financial increase shows even a larger ratio. For this year the enrollment is confidently expected to be larger than in 1914.

The weather during the week being perfect and ideal for this section, the attendance was fully up to the average. The paid admissions to the annual play Monday night amounted to more than 500 and the attendance upon other exercises from Sunday to Tuesday inclusive were equally as good and orderly.

Sermon by Rev. Rogers.

The commencement sermon was delivered by Rev. Wallace Rogers, of St. Mark's, Atlanta, and the Sunday evening discourse preached by Rev. S. R. Wainwright of Athens, presided by C. G. Wainwright in the afternoon.

On Monday morning short but interesting addresses were made by Hon. W. S. Witham, Col. Youngblood, Col. C. T. Ladd and Hon. Lem M. Park, all of Atlanta, following the freshman exercises. In the afternoon the sophomore exercises and the sham battle of the military department filled the hours most delightfully. The annual play, "A Loyal Friend" was quite a drawing card and brought many from all the country surrounding at night.

On Tuesday morning Rev. Gus Venable, of Griffin, delivered the literary address, followed by Rev. J. M. Pierce, of Dalton. Other members of the board are Revs. George D. Stone, S. R. England, E. W. Hudson, John D. Smith, S. W. Williams, H. Cooper, Wallace Rogers, J. T. Dukes, A. A. Sullivan, George L. Park, and J. Lee Aligood, of the local and from the faculty, Captain A. M. Reinhardt, Colonel L. E. Tate, E. A. Fincher, J. C. J. Campbell, Rev. S. H. King, Rev. J. M. Sharp and W. S. Witham, J. R. A. Hemphill, W. D. Manley and T. A. Grimes, of Atlanta.

The board met on Tuesday and unanimously re-elected Professor R. C. Sharp and his full corps of teachers for another term of three years.

of Waleska Junior Marion Lakes of Commerce, and Miss Winnie L. Brett of Waleska, a Champion debater, and J. Hutchinson, of Haralson and for best drilled man, J. C. Davis of Cartersville.

On Tuesday evening the commencement closed with the graduating exercises and the lecture by the address of President Sharp to a class of twenty, each of whom ranked above 90 in their examinations, eleven of whom were honorable mention. The full class is as follows: M. B. Bradd, S. Wainwright, Dorsey Campbell, Boston, Wm. Dickson, Mamie Kendrick, Clair Moore, Cordelia and Noble Timmons, all of Waleska, Georgia; Wm. H. Adams, Atlanta; F. F. Fiquette, Ocala, Fla.; J. M. Griffin, Rocky Face, Ga.; Grady Hutchinson, Haralson, Ga.; H. H. Lanning, Ga.; J. C. L. Lanning, Los Angeles, Cal.; Robert and Raymond Osborn, Kennesaw; Annah Lee Rutherford, Union Point, Allen Smith, Leno, Ga.; L. S. Leno, Ga.; J. E. Earnest, Watts, South Atlanta, and Dooehua Lam, Ping Yang, Korea.

Dr. R. C. Ladd, of Haralsonville is president of the board of trustees, with Ben F. Perry, of Juniorsboro, as vice president and the Rev. J. M. Pierce of Waleska as secretary. Other members of the board are Revs. George D. Stone, S. R. England, E. W. Hudson, John D. Smith, S. W. Williams, H. Cooper, Wallace Rogers, J. T. Dukes, A. A. Sullivan, George L. Park, and J. Lee Aligood, of the local and from the faculty, Captain A. M. Reinhardt, Colonel L. E. Tate, E. A. Fincher, J. C. J. Campbell, Rev. S. H. King, Rev. J. M. Sharp and W. S. Witham, J. R. A. Baptist Revival to Open At the Morning Services In Local Churches Today

With the first services in all the Baptist churches of Atlanta this morning at 11 o'clock, the religious campaign which will be conducted by the Baptists of Atlanta will begin. The campaign will continue for two weeks, and possibly longer. The plans make it one of the greatest campaigns of its nature ever carried on in Atlanta. Fifty evangelists and religious workers have been brought to Atlanta to take part in it, and come from a score of states.

After the services in the different churches this morning will follow a grand central meeting at the Tabernacle Baptist church, at 3 p. m. Dr. J. M. Pierce will preside, and all the evangelists and singers will attend and take part in the meeting. Special music will be furnished at this meeting by a chorus, led by Mr. Boatman.

At 8 o'clock tonight at all the churches will be held the second services. There the sermons preached in each of the services will be evangelized in its nature.

Beginning tomorrow morning, a series of daily central meetings will be held in the First Baptist church, commencing at 9:15, and lasting until noon. The time there will be devoted to a personal workers' meeting each morning, and there will be given limited discussions of various phases of the work which is being done, and reports from the meeting in the various churches.

At 12:10 p. m. during the week, services will be held at the Bijou theater, and at various shops and factories throughout the city. Every night at 8 o'clock will be held separate meetings at the various churches throughout the city.

Saturday night, a great street meeting will be held in which many noted pastors and evangelists will participate. Music for this occasion will be furnished by the singers who have been brought here to take part in the campaign.

The central meeting for the colored people will be held this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the Wheat street church. At this meeting will be present the colored evangelists who will assist in the campaign.

It is intended to make the campaign comprehensive that has been in Atlanta. Not only the Baptists are working this end, but the members of other denominations in Atlanta have offered their assistance in making it a success.

Still Another Shipment of Bon Ton Corsets!

Atlanta breaks another record—this time in sales of Bon Ton Corsets.

Many Atlanta women know the Bon Ton—have known it for years. But since the Bon Ton Corsets were shown on living models, more women learned the grace and comfort-giving qualities of the Bon Ton.

They saw by actual demonstration how the Bon Ton makes for the lithe, sinuous contour, the normal waist and the straight hips—those ideal figure qualities always associated with the classic Venus de Milo.

So we have sold Bon Ton Corsets freely, and here is another big shipment to fill in the ranks. All styles and sizes now—the right corset for every figure.

Bon Ton Corsets, $3 to $25.

Postscript—We clean, alter and repair corsets. The work is warranted; the charges nominal. The service is open to the public. Women wearing uncomfortable corsets can have them altered here to fit.
