

GERMANS LOSE 70,000 MEN IN BATTLE WITH RUSSIANS AND RETREAT IN DISORDER

Official Report by Russian General, Gives Details of German Defeat on the East Prussian Border.

RETREAT OF GERMANS FAST BECOMING ROUT

They Are Reported to Be Abandoning Everything in Their Efforts to Reach a Place of Safety.

Rome, October 5.—(Via Paris)—The Russian embassy here tonight made public an official communication received from the Russian headquarters staff, saying:

"The defeat of the Russians is complete. Their retreat is changing into a rout that is so disordered and so precipitous that they are forced to abandon everything.

"Two Russian armies are proceeding, one from the west and another from the south, toward Allenstein (in East Prussia, 50 miles southeast of Elbing).

"The German losses have not been officially ascertained, but it is estimated that they had 70,000 men disabled."

GERMANS GET IN BOG AND ARE SLAUGHTERED.

London, October 5.—(11:05 p. m.)—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says:

"Side by side with the official account of the German defeat on the Russo-Prussian frontiers details are published of the Russians crossing the Carpathians, which, as one writer says, destroys the legend that the eastern Carpathians are impenetrable.

"Before attaining Usok pass, the Russians successfully captured by a wide flanking movement, three well masked positions, strongly defended by guns. Each time the Russians charged the enemy fled, and the Russians followed up the Austrian retreat with shrapnel and quick fire, inflicting heavy losses.

"During the Russian retreat through the Matzi lake district, in East Prussia, a Russian battery was surrounded on three sides by the enemy's quick-fires. The infantry was on the other side of the lake and the Russian ammunition was exhausted. In order to avoid capture the commander ordered the battery to gallop over the ceiling into the lake. His order was obeyed, and he himself was among the drowned.

"During an assault on the fortress of Osowitz, a German column got into a bog. The Russians shelled the bog, and the single road crossing it. The Germans, in trying to extricate themselves, sank deeper into the mire, and hundreds were killed or wounded. Of the whole column only about forty survived."

GERMAN CORPSES BLOCK THE ROADS.

Petrograd, October 5.—Emperor Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, has received at the headquarters of the active army.

"This information was given out today from general headquarters.

"The following official communication was made public by the general staff last night:

"According to reports from the commanders the Russian troops at the battle of Augustown gave proof of extraordinary courage. Several regiments fought without rest during the whole week, withdrawing themselves with dignity from the most terrible blows.

"The engagement, etc. exceedingly obstinate in the vicinity of Suwalki, where the enemy concentrated important forces and, having fortified their

FORTS OF ANTWERP ARE STILL HOLDING

British Troops Are Fighting With Belgians Against the Germans—German Losses Very Heavy.

Antwerp, Belgium, October 5.—(Via London.)—According to official announcement made here today, the situation of the fortified positions around Antwerp remains today without change.

London, October 5.—The Morning Post's English correspondent in Antwerp makes the following statement:

"The Belgian field artillery is co-operating effectively with our heavy artillery. Our infantry is entrenched on the near bank of the Nethe, opposite the main German forces. Two German attempts to cross the river have been smothered by our artillery."

This dispatch is the first intimation that English troops have gone to Antwerp and are co-operating with the Belgians in the defense of that city.

Germans in a Hurry.

The Antwerp correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, telegraphing in regard to the fighting around Antwerp, under date of Saturday, says:

"The Germans continue their desperate efforts to capture Antwerp. They are in a desperate hurry to accomplish it, pounding away incessantly with their artillery at Forts Waelhem and Wavre-St. Catharines and flinging their infantry forward in frantic efforts to break through.

"Their losses have been enormous and the numbers killed are estimated as high as 5,000 during the present movement."

"The Belgians adopted a clever ruse at Waelhem. After the bombardment had lasted several hours the fort ceased to fire. The Belgian gunners waited, thinking the fort out of action, ordered the infantry to advance in close formation. The German soldiers, until they could see the whites of their eyes and then opened a murderous fire.

"Thus far the forts in the outer ring of the Antwerp defenses have suffered little harm from the German bombardment. The German big guns are not being worked by regular soldiers, but by men in citizens' clothing, who wear only an armband to indicate their military occupation. Undoubtedly these men are employees of the Krupp factory, hastily summoned to replace the losses among the regular gun layers.

The heaviest German guns are located north of Vilvorde, where foundations of heavy concrete have been prepared. The German shells have practically wiped out most of the little villages and hamlets on the outer circles of the Antwerp defenses. The Germans still hold Malines, although at a heavy cost. The town is subject to a constant bombardment from the Antwerp forts.

AMERICAN PREACHER CURSED BY GERMANS

Rev. Albert Williams, of Boston, Tells of Arrest and Brutal Treatment.

London, October 5.—Albert A. Williams, pastor of the Maverick Congregational church, of Boston, has reached London after arrest and imprisonment in Brussels at the hands of the German military authorities on the charge of being an English spy and with trying to buy information concerning the movement of German troops.

Notes made by Mr. Williams for a sermon on the horrors of war fell into the hands of the Germans when he was arrested. A German lieutenant thought they constituted code messages. Mr. Williams was arrested and taken to German military headquarters. He was held along with thirty other prisoners, mostly Belgians, and put through a drastic examination. He was not permitted to communicate with Brand Whitlock, the American minister. Finally he persuaded a German student that he was not a spy and managed to get a letter to Mr. Whitlock, who brought about his release.

Mr. Williams says that during the two days of his imprisonment he and the other prisoners were denounced by the Germans as pigs, and showered with oaths in an effort to frighten them. The Belgian prisoners regarded Williams as a friend, but they all were reluctant to talk, as they feared the Germans had spies among them.

The American embassy has received a large number of letters from American consuls in German cities concerning British subjects in Germany. The consuls at Steinf, Danzig and Coblenz reported that Englishmen who had visited those cities had been well treated and that none of them desired to remain throughout the war. Many communications by private individuals is impossible, but inquiries made through American sources show that English non-combatants are universally well treated in Germany.

SAW 1,000 DEAD GERMANS IN RADIUS OF 600 YARDS

New York, October 5.—Lieutenant A. Elliott Brown, U. S. A., who visited the battlefield of the Meaux just after the fighting, reached New York today. So great had been the carnage, he said, that within a radius of 600 yards he saw 1,000 dead German soldiers. The bayonet charges of the allies, he said, were responsible for the great slaughter, as the German soldiers were so strongly entrenched that they could be dislodged in no other way.

"I saw Capt. Parker of the United States army, while I was in France," Lieutenant Brown said, "and he told me that he had seen one dead German soldier from his near approach to Paris had been perfect in the movement and that he had seen but one dead German left behind. The German soldiers are friendly to French peasants, he said, and he found no trace of atrocities, although he had heard much about them."

IRISHMEN ARE URGED TO FIGHT THE GERMANS

London, October 5.—John E. Redmond, Irish leader, in making recruiting speeches at Wexford on Sunday, appealed for a re-enlistment on the home rule question. He said:

"I will meet Andrew Bonar Law (the opposing leader of the British cabinet) with gentleness and by reason. I pray with all my heart and soul that out of this conflict a new Ireland may come for Ireland, and that is that as Irishmen go on fighting side by side, Catholics, Protestants, and men of Ireland Irishmen by south of Ireland Irishmen, it may prove to be a sign of the future unity of our Irish nation."

"German domination would mean the loss of all the liberties we have won in Ireland, it quite bluntly said General Botha (the South African premier) in his speech. Are you for Britain and her colonies or are you on the side of Germany?"

"Believe me, we cannot remain aloof."

WHY RUSSIANS INVADE HUNGARY.

Rome, October 5.—(Via Paris.)—News from Russian headquarters says that the invasion of Hungary through the Carpathians has two objects. The first is to insure the left flank of the Russian army operating against Przemyśl and along the San river, and second, to open a new field of action in the west, Hungarian plains where the concentration of the railways, the communications, besides freely feeding an important portion of the army from the resources of the country.

It is recalled that during the Russian-Turkish war of 1817 an expedition commanded by General Gourko and mostly composed of cavalry did the same thing, forcing the Balkan mountains and entering Eastern Rumania.

The Store Presents a Picturesque Background for the Beautiful Merchandise We Have Gathered

Harvest Week

The native richness of the south is symbolized in the store decorations—the shocks of corn, the ripened grain, the red, red apples, the big yellow pumpkins tell a happy story of a happy people left at their homes to conquer the soil and reap the fruits of peaceful industry.

As a display alone, the scene the store presents is worthy of your interest—but its fuller meaning, its significance is that it symbolizes the wealth and beauty of our stocks, that it marks the time of fullness and plenty in fashion and fabrics. It is Harvest Week for those who would be about the selection of their fall and winter wardrobes.

We have gathered abundantly, a bumper crop, so to speak, and it's all the kind of merchandise that appeals to discriminating women whose tastes instinctively separate the wheat from the chaff.

The Ready-to-Wear Section Presents Hundreds of New Suits and New Dresses

The fruits of our buyers' second trip to New York arrived in quantities yesterday—today they are in their cases.

Suits and Dresses of Lately Evolved Styles Shown Now for the First Time in Atlanta

Coming from makers who excel in their art, they are away from the ordinary. Their tailoring, their little points of fashioning, mark them as the kind of suits and dresses that women of good taste will like.

What are the style-points, wherein do they differ from suits and dresses collected hurriedly and with but little thought? You shall see. You shall see that it is not a matter of price. We have

Suits at $19.75, $22.50, $25.00, $29.75, $35.00 and Upwards

Dresses at $8.75, $11.75, $15.00, $19.75, $25.00 and Upwards that stand out strongly as what they are, beautiful styles, artistic triumphs.

As a Special Harvest Week Value

$8.50 SANITARY FELTED Cotton Mattresses $6.80

We have done for Harvest Week what we had not been able to do before. Through the co-operation of the maker of our regular $8.50 Sanitary Felted Cotton Mattress, we have brought down its price to $6.80.

At $8.50 this mattress has been the standard value. It is just a little better than most makers have been able to produce. It weighs full forty-five pounds, has rolled edges and is warranted never to lump—it is of felted cotton. See it in the first floor of the Furniture Store—see it in its various stages of making—the amount of cotton that goes into it, then the mattress half finished, showing the felted cotton at one end and on the other the ticking sewn on. Then see the finished mattress.

Choose from five patterns of sturdy ticking—the mattress is made to order, in any size desired.

SOUTHERN FOOD CONFERENCE URGES LEGISLATIVE ACTION FOR COTTON CROP REDUCTION

Governors Will Be Asked to Call Special Sessions of General Assemblies, Provided the People Indicate Their Desire.

ASKS PRESIDENT WILSON TO ISSUE PROCLAMATION CALLING FARMERS' MEET

Estimated That Georgia's Crop Will Be Reduced to One Million Bales by the Lee County Plan-Bankers Will Give Aid.

The southern food products conference, called by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, with delegates from the cotton-growing states present at the meeting at the state capital Monday, endorsed resolutions urging the governors of these states, if warranted by public sentiment, to call special sessions of the legislative bodies of their respective states for the purpose of enacting legislation a reduction of the 1915 cotton acreage.

It was the belief of the conference that such legislative enforcement of cotton acreage reduction would bring about diversification of crops, which would mean an assurance to the cotton consumers of the world that the south does not intend to raise another big cotton crop in 1915. This legislative assurance, the conference believed, will in a short time raise the price of cotton to 5 or 10 cents, and thereby afford the cotton grower enough money by marketing his crop to pay for the expense of raising the present crop, and proceed next year with the raising of food products.

Approved by Delegation. This resolution was introduced by Judge E. H. Calloway, of Augusta, Ga., and met with the unanimous approval of the entire delegation. A committee of ten prominent delegates, with Judge Calloway as chairman, was appointed by C. J. Haden, of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, who presided over the meeting, to call the services of the governors of the cotton-growing states immediately. Mr. Calloway's resolution further embodied that the president of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and a committee composed of five leading citizens in each county in the state of Georgia to arrange for a meeting of the farmers and business men of the county for Saturday, October 17, the object of the meetings being to find out if it was their desire that Governor Slaton issue an immediate call for Georgia's legislature to meet. It was Judge Calloway's idea that the governor would be largely influenced if the public sentiment of the cotton growers and business men of each county was brought to bear on him.

Resolution for Reduction. H. C. Bagley, representing the Macon Chamber of Commerce, introduced the plan, published in Monday morning's Constitution, which was adopted almost in its original form, as predicted by the Constitution. This plan is substantially the same as the Lee county plan, embodying a clause whereby the cotton growers of each cotton growing county shall voluntarily bind themselves by legal contract to raise only ten acres of cotton next year to the plan. The popularity of the Lee county plan predominated throughout the meeting. The plan provides that those cotton growers who violate their pledges be enjoined from planting more than ten acres in cotton by court action.

Many of his old friends did not know him and others thought he had a wig. On being asked how he did it, he made the following statement: "I attribute the remarkable growth of my hair to the use of the following simple recipe, which any lady or gentleman can mix at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of E-s-e Compound and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but removes dandruff, scalp humors and prevents the hair from falling out. It darkens the hair soft and glossy. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home."

ENGLISH AUTHORS ARE HELPING OUT

Robert Hichens, E. W. Hornung and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Prominent Among Those Who Are Giving Aid to Country.

London, October 5.—(Special Correspondence.)—English authors, big and little, are being hit hard by the war, which has practically killed the publishing trade here...

Among the first to do something definite are Robert Hichens, E. W. Hornung, Winfield Graham, who wrote "Ezra, the Mormon," and as one would have confidently predicted, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle...

"No one can tell," he adds, "the course of this war we predict how far in a few months time the existence of some hundreds of thousands of additional men who have some elementary military training may affect the situation."

W. T. de la Motte, who has written "The Garden of Allah," is another well-known author who is active and athletic and stands 5 feet 10 inches in height...

"I can't do it," he says, "but I will do my best to do it." He is in Italy at the time of the Messina earthquake, and in that crisis, as in this one, was among the first to offer help...

SKIN TROUBLE ITCHED AND BURNED

On Body, Could Not Rest, Broke Out in Pimples All Over. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

R. F. D. No. 1, Box 164, Bridgewater, N. C.—"I was suffering with a skin trouble which began after a spell of sickness six years ago. It was mostly on my body and I could not rest for the itching and burning. It began like a nettle rash, then it would break out in pimples all over me. I would wash and burn and itch all over almost raw. At times I could hardly bear to rub against the parts that were affected."

"I do not know how many remedies, soaps, etc., I tried but none did me any good. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they seemed to be the very thing that I needed. I only used them four weeks and they completely healed me. I have not been bothered with the trouble since." (Signed) Mrs. H. L. Patton, Jan. 31, 1914.

Coffee Hurt You?

No need to get mad now tear up the paper, or shout 'nonsense, good coffee never hurt anyone.' You know better than that, for you can point out all around you folks who are the worse for coffee's slugging.

In fact after having studied the matter a bit it will become plain that if you are a coffee-drinker the chances are that some form of incipient or perhaps fixed organic disease due to coffee has set in. Headache, biliousness, constipation, nervousness, sleeplessness, heart flutter or others of the well proven coffee ill. One can refuse to look the thing squarely in the face and peg along with the coffee.

Some day Nature will haul him up short.

It's a Poor Bargain

to swap health and a clear, business-like head for a few cups of coffee each day

Every coffee toper tries to wiggle round and charge his aches and ills to weather, overwork, too much or too little food, this, that or the other thing, but how he hates to admit that the real enemy is his Master, coffee.

A Sure Personal Test

will locate the exact cause of your steady destruction of health, if that cause be coffee. It's worth knowing the plain, sober fact before organic heart trouble or other disease sets in, which perhaps cannot be cured.

The test is pleasant, accurate and satisfying—

Quit coffee absolutely for ten days and in its place use POSTUM

Postum now comes in two forms: Regular Postum must be boiled. Instant Postum—soluble form made in the cup instantly, with hot water. Both kinds of this famous food drink have the color and flavour very much like the high grades of Old Gov't Java.

If in a few days you begin to sleep soundly, at night digest your food better, stomach and bowels show signs of recovery, or the old feeling of weakness at the head, leaves, or head works clearer (the after effects of coffee drug are multitudinous) the facts will be before you, and

Pure Water is one reason for the surpassing excellence of Crystal Pale Beer

Water is a most important constituent of beer—a particular kind and quality of water is required to make the best beer.

From the World's Work Belgium, the thirteenth and most populous of all countries, consumes the greatest quantity of beer per head of population.

And so in water lies one reason for the palate-pleasing wholesomeness of Crystal Pale Beer.

That Crystal Pale Beer is aged in mellowness—then freshly tapped, freshly bottled, freshly delivered, are other reasons for its betterness.

COLUMBUS AND HIS STATUE IN NEW YORK.

"Today" Is a Gripping Play Full of Intense Emotion

By SIDNEY ORHOND.

"Today," which was presented at the Atlanta theater last night, is a powerful play wonderfully well enacted. Not a pleasant play; not an amusing one, not a play in which there is anything strikingly original, but, without a production full of situations so intense that one sits spellbound for moments at a time.

The title is rather inclusive and misleading. It would have one suppose that the story and the characters are typical of the present period. They are not. They represent a phase of present-day life and that is all—a phase with which we are all familiar. In reality, the play might have been laid 100 years ago and been just as typical of that period as it is today.

There is a tense moment. The forced laughter of the wife rings out. The lights are turned on. Mrs. Garland is face to face in the blinding glare of the gilt-furnished room. The man raves for a moment. The woman shrieks and sobs convulsively. She takes her by the throat, leads her to the door, and flings her out.

Novelty and variety are the real headliners on the Forsyth bill this week. Some acts are good, some are much better. By and large, the program offers a wider range than any of the present season. Monday afternoon showed plainly that they liked five of the seven acts—all the better for it. The first act, "The Three Creighton Girls," is a play that receives sufficient applause to justify a half dozen bows and the final bow is kept in the hands of the patrons in their seats to the finish.
