

For National Defense And Monroe Doctrine Wilson Makes Plea

The President Tells Congress in His Annual Address That the United States Should Be Prepared to Hold Pan-America as the Heritage of Freemen.

WITH STINGING WORDS WILSON SCORES CONDUCT OF THE "HYPHENATES"

America Has Never Witnessed Anything Like It Before, Said the President With Deep Feeling—Merchant Marine, Rural Credits and Other Important Subjects Covered in the Address.

Washington, December 7.—President Wilson, in his annual address to congress today, dealing mainly with national defense, proclaimed an advanced pan-Americanism grown from the guardianship of the Monroe doctrine to "the full and honorable association" of all the Americas.

Although in the longest address he has yet delivered to congress the president touched upon a variety of subjects, the predominant note was the necessity of a policy of military preparedness to meet the readjustments of the next generation as they will affect the American continent.

Hyphenates Bitterly Denounced

The point was not overshadowed by the president in the most unmeasured terms he ever has employed before congress, denounced naturalized Americans who by their sympathies for the European belligerents have endangered American neutrality.

Pan-Americanism at Outset

The president took up Pan-Americanism in the very outset of his message. "All the possessions of America," he said, "stand, so far as we are concerned, upon a footing of genuine equality and unquestioned independence."

Great Democracies Peaceful

Great democracies are peaceful, the president said, are peaceful, not seeking war, and without thought of conquest or dominion.

AUSTRIANS PLAY HAVOC WITH SHIPS IN ADRIATIC SEA

Six Steamers and Six Large Sailing Vessels Loaded With War Material Sent to the Bottom.

MUNITIONS INTENDED FOR USE IN BALKANS

Austrian Statement Seems to Confirm Previous Report That Italy Has Landed Troops in Albania for the Balkan Campaign.

Vienna, December 7.—The sinking of a French submarine boat, the Fresnel, and six steamers and six large and several small Montenegro sailing vessels in the lower Adriatic sea, off the coast of Albania, is related in the official communication issued here today. All the vessels were loaded with war material, which they either were trying to land on the Albanian coast or to convey there.

Five of the steamers and the sailing ships were sent to the bottom by the Austrian cruiser Novara and Austrian torpedo boat destroyers at San Giovanni di Medua, in the Gulf of Drin, to the north of Durazzo. They were engaged in discharging munitions. One Italian steamer, armed with three guns and an Italian motor vessel were sunk while on their way from Brindisi to Durazzo. These were loaded with munitions.

While the Austrians were engaged in sinking these vessels at San Giovanni di Medua, twenty guns on shore bombarded them heavily, but the official report says without success. Recent reports have been to the effect that Italian forces had been landed at Avlona, Albania, to enter the Balkan campaign with the entente allies, and today's report of the putting ashore of munitions and of artillery attacks from shore against the Austrian warships seemingly gives verity to the previous accounts.

The Austrian Report.
The text of the statement follows: "Russian front: There have been no important events. "Italian front: The situation is unchanged, no fighting of importance having taken place. "Southeastern front: South of Plevlje we repulsed Montenegrin attacks. In the frontier section, north of Berane, our troops are attacking the Montenegrin positions. Yesterday noon we stormed the entrenchments north of Suhodol. South of Novipazar we captured another 1,300 prisoners. "The district east of Ipek was the scene yesterday of further severe fighting, the enemy being everywhere repulsed and losing six guns. Early today we penetrated into Ipek and the Bulgarians occupied Diakova. "The Austrian cruiser Novara, with some destroyers, on December 5, sank at San Giovanni di Medua three large and two small steamers and five large and several small sailing vessels, while they were discharging war material. One steamer was blown up, one flotilla was bombarded very heavily from land by about twenty guns but without success.

"Our warships destroyed the French submarine Fresnel and captured the commander, the second officer and 25 men. "On the night of November 23 another flotilla sank an Italian steamer armed with three guns, and an Italian motor sailing vessel, which was fully loaded and en route from Brindisi to Durazzo. The survivors of the steamer, including four mines, were captured. The crew of the motor sailing vessel were released in their boats."

FRENCH SHELL GERMAN WORKS.

Paris, December 7.—Tonight's official communication says:

"In Belgium our artillery, in concert with the Belgian artillery, shelled an enemy work in the region of Het Sas. The work was completely shattered and two munition depots were blown up. "In Artois the artillery engagement became more pronounced in the course of the day. The bombardment was violent on both sides in the region of Givenechy, to the north of the Bois en liache, where fighting with large bombs likewise took place. In the sector of the road from Lille our artillery successfully shelled the enemy underground passages. The Belgian district patrol fighting to our advantage is reported.

"In Champagne the action continued for the possession of the advanced trench to the south of Saint Souplet. Our counter attacks have already enabled us to regain a large part of the lost section. One other local attack of slight importance has occurred to the east of the Butte de Souain.

"The Belgian official communication reads: "Besides effective shelling of enemy groups in the north and south of Dixmude, our batteries bombarded the German trenches in the direction of Woumen, in retaliation for the employment by the enemy of shells containing irritating gases. In the sector of Steenstraete our artillery co-operated with the Belgian artillery in the destruction of important enemy earth-works.

"Positive indications permit of the conclusion that the extensive inundation in the region of the Yser has caused great difficulties in the opposing troops, who have abandoned, under the menace of water, a great number of their advance works."

GERMANS STOPPED BY RUSSIAN FIRE.

Petrograd, December 7.—(Via London, December 8).—Today's official communication reads:

"Near the village of Kravo, south of the Vitya river we shot down an enemy aeroplane and captured its occupants. "In the region of the village of Janovka, northeast of the town of Buczacz, the enemy, protected by a violent fire, endeavored to advance eastward, but was repulsed toward the village of Pelava. Equally unsuccessful were enemy attempts to attack our troops near the villages of Zaylovce and Pyschokovtze, in the Bucacas region. West of Lake Svanen and south of the Vitya, near the village of Tsebroff, northwest of Tarnopol, our scouting parties carried out successful operations. In the other sectors of this front there is nothing to report.

SMALL GAINS FOR ITALIANS.

Rome, December 7.—(Via London).—Today's official communication reads: "There has been intense artillery action on both sides, especially in the Gludicaria valley, the Concer valley and Gernia district. Vigorous action by our infantry in the Carso enabled us to capture war material, including a gas producing machine, two trench mortars, rifles and ammunition."

GERMANS CAPTURE FRENCH TRENCH.

Berlin, December 7.—(Via London).—Capture of 250 metres of an advanced French trench in the Champagne district east of Auberive, was announced by German army headquarters today. Sixty men were taken prisoner.

Regarding conditions on the western and eastern fronts, the official statement says:

"Western theater of war: "Near Berry-au-Bac a large mine was successfully exploded. A French trench, with its occupants, was destroyed. An enemy mine position that had been almost completed also was destroyed.

"East of Auberive, in the Champagne, about 250 metres of an advanced French trench was taken. More than sixty men fell into our hands.

BRITISH AIRMEN SHELL GERMANS.

London, December 7.—The following official communication from Field Marshal French was made public to-night:

"On the 2d an air raid was carried out against Don Station and buildings in its vicinity. An ammunition store is believed to have been blown up and the railway was hit near the station. Some fires were observed in Don after the raid. All the machines returned safely, although several hostile machines were met and engaged. "Our artillery has continued to bombard enemy trenches with satisfactory results. On the 2d in retaliation for hostile shelling trenches south of Ipi Epinette were bombarded. Many gaps were made in the parapets and a bomb store was blown up.

"On the 3d the enemy's artillery was active, but our fire checked it. On the 4th the enemy's artillery was again checked in several places and their wire cut.

"Mining activity continues on both sides. We blew up a mine west of Fricourt on the fourth and the enemy one on the fifth. The latter did no damage. The same day two more mines were blown up near the same place. "Near Frelinghain a mine was blown up by us destroying a gallery in which the enemy was working. The enemy came in place, destroying about 25 yards of our trenches.

GERMANS TO MOVE IN MESOPOTAMIA.

Geneva, Switzerland, December 7.—(Via Paris).—The Germans are preparing on a large scale for operations in Mesopotamia under Field Marshal Baron Kolmar von der Goltz, who has just been appointed commander of the Turkish forces in Mesopotamia, according to private information received by The Journal de Geneve. Although the Germans speak ostentatiously of Egypt, says the dispatch to The Journal, it is possible that they may make their principal efforts this winter from Bagdad towards the Persian gulf.

ROUGH FOR ALLIES AT DARDANELLES.

Berlin, December 7.—(Via Wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.).—The position of the forces of the entente allies on the Gallipoli peninsula is growing worse every day, according to reports from Constantinople, the winter storms that are prevailing making it impossible to bring provision for the troops, the Overseas News agency says today.

"The lack of drinking water is telling particularly on the condition of the troops. "There is great jubilation in Constantinople over the brilliant successes of the Turks against the British invaders in Mesopotamia."

TURKS PURSUE BRITISH FORCES.

Berlin, December 7.—(By Wireless to Tuckerton, N. J.).—Advices from the front in Mesopotamia are that the Turks continue to operate vigorously against the British expedition along the Tigris river. They have driven the troops routed from the region of Bagdad within entrenchments at Kut el Amara and also expelled them from the north bank of the Tigris at this point.

The Turks, it is asserted, continue to capture the transport wagons attached to the expedition, a large portion of which were unable to reach the advanced base at Kut el Amara. Much ammunition was captured just above Kut el Amara. The losses in transport wagons, it is said, not only will prevent a renewal of the British advance against Bagdad, but will endanger the further retreat of the expedition in case it should be driven from Kut el Amara.

The Turkish headquarters of December received today from Constantinople and made public by the Overseas News agency, says:

"On the Iraq (Mesopotamia) front the Turkish troops continue to prosecute their offensive against the defeated British troops. On December 2 the Turkish troops covered 25 kilometres (about 15½ miles) in one day. Baghela, west of Kut el Amara, was occupied. Early in the week eight officers and 520 soldiers were made prisoners."

A Corset Sale Decidedly Different From the Usual

It is different in that it is a very rare thing that such corsets are ever brought into a sale such as this is, with savings of a fourth and a third.

But let's analyze it and see just what is what. The names of some corsets carry an enviable meaning; they are known by name as representative of all that a good corset should be, graceful in line, of the most dependable materials, well made.

Such are the corsets we speak of today—as their names tell—

Madame Irene, Successo, La Vida, Bien Jolie, Frolaset (Front Laced)

Assured, then, that the makes of corsets are as fine as America produces, the important question to the individual woman is— is there a model to suit her figure? And the answer is, that this is a Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Sale, done in the usual big way of Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Sales.

A woman may choose from our entire stock today and tomorrow and save according to this schedule:

$5.00 Corsets	$3.75	$ 9.00 Corsets	$6.75	$13.50 Corsets	$ 9.63
$6.00 Corsets	$4.50	$10.00 Corsets	$7.50	$15.00 Corsets	$11.25
$7.50 Corsets	$5.13	$12.00 Corsets	$9.00	$18.00 Corsets	$13.50
$8.00 Corsets	$6.00	$12.50 Corsets	$9.38	$20.00 Corsets	$15.00

Every model that is good this season, high, medium and low busts, long and medium long skirts—batistes, coutils, silk brocades—all are included.

Furniture for the Gift

The surest assurance that furniture makes one of the most satisfactory of all Christmas presents is found in the yearly increasing numbers of those who give furniture.

But the sort of furniture to give? There's the question—to which Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s Gift Furniture Section (First Floor) offers hundreds of correct answers, and each one different.

We urge you to see the display; any list, any description that we could give, would fall short.

This piece has its charm that would be particularly fitting to such and such a home; another its charm for another home—a visit and you see all!

FOR INCREASE IN 1916 OF SOFT DRINK LICENSES

Plan of Councilman Farlinger to Meet Loss of Revenue.

The city may increase the licenses for soft drinks next year in order to make up the deficit which will be caused by the loss of revenue from near beer saloons and locker clubs.

This is the opinion of Councilman A. W. Farlinger, chairman of the finance committee and acting chairman of the tax committee.

There will be a loss of between $75,000 and $100,000 when the saloons and locker clubs close up May 1, 1916. The licenses derived from these sources must either be made up elsewhere or the city tax rate raised, states Councilman Farlinger. We can hardly hope to raise the tax rate under existing financial conditions, and we therefore have to look elsewhere for the money that we lose when the saloons and locker clubs go out of business.

Mr. Farlinger says that all business licenses were raised to the limit this year in order to make ends meet, and even then the city has a deficit.

There will be many public improvements to take care of next year, and some of them are of such a nature that we cannot ignore the demand for them. We want through a hard strain this year, and next year will be equally as hard if not harder, and with a deficit of over $100,000 caused by the loss of the saloon and club licenses. We will have to get the money some where.

When pressed to state what might be his recommendation to council, Mr. Farlinger said:

I believe we may have to raise the license for the sale of soft drinks. These drinks are a luxury and people can't see why we cannot tax these in stead of the necessities of life.

He also said that when the council for 1916 organizes and the finance and tax committees are appointed.

LOCKER CLUBS TO BE VISITED BY OFFICIALS

Some time this week all Atlanta locker clubs will be inspected by Chief of Police W. M. Mayo and Chairman Edwin Johnson, of the police committee of council.

Chief Mayo announced the contemplated tour of inspection Tuesday afternoon after a conference with Chairman Johnson. The official stated that rumors had come to him of open door policies adopted at many of the clubs in the passage of the state prohibition laws.

The trial of officers of two locker clubs in police court recently convinced the chief according to his statement, that an investigation is needed.

CITY COURT OF MILLEN TAKES UP LONG DOCKET

Miller, Ga., December 7.—(Special)—The city court of Millen convened yesterday in an adjourned term. The calendar is very lengthy and court will probably last two weeks. Among the cases none is of special importance with the exception of two railroad cases. Judge H. H. Woodrum is looking after the state's interest.

Solicitor Willie Woodrum has announced for re-election and will be opposed by C. D. Dalko. He has already an need for the judgeship and as yet has no opposition. It is generally expected by the friends and supporters of Judge Dalko that the judge will enter the race on an early date and will not offer for the judgeship again as he has held this office two terms already. The judge is a native of Scriven practiced law in Savannah for a number of years before coming to Millen and has held court continuously throughout Bulloch, Screven, Burke and Jenkins counties.

NARCOTICS ARE STOLEN FROM JACOBS' PHARMACY

Some time in the early hours of Tuesday morning the Jacobs' pharmacy branch corner of Whitehall and Alabama streets, was robbed of cocaine valued at approximately $50 and six dollars worth of stamps. The thief was supposedly a dope fiend, and according to detectives working the case he was probably secreted himself in the store robbing and then breaking out at his leisure.

Private investigator, who works Whitehall street, discovered the door to the store open at 4:30 o'clock and with the manager, A. Smith, he found that the narcotics were missing. An attempt had been made to rob the safe.

Nothing else was disturbed but a flashlight which the burglar had used to throw light on the safe. It was found on the floor.

BAILIFF CANNOT TELL OF MURDEROUS ATTACK

Rome, Ga., December 7.—(Special)—Bailiff A. T. Gilbert, of Dalton whose skull was fractured in an assault with a rock here Sunday is still alive but unconscious, and unable to give any account of the mysterious affair in which he was wounded three months under arrest. He and the Shelton brothers refuse to discuss the case.

Superior judges Vaughn and Burk made the arrest of Pitts and the negro, and testified that they had found several quart bottles of liquor in the saloon, and also introduced witnesses who swore that they had purchased it there.

TWO HELD ON A CHARGE OF SELLING WHISKY

W. R. Pitts proprietor of a saloon, 159 Peters street, was held to the grand jury under a bond of $100 for selling whisky and fined $15.75 for keeping it on hand for illegal sale, by Recorder Johnson in police matinee Tuesday afternoon. His negro porter, Will Russell, was given the same penalties on the same charges.

Superior judges Vaughn and Burk made the arrest of Pitts and the negro, and testified that they had found several quart bottles of liquor in the saloon, and also introduced witnesses who swore that they had purchased it there.

$3,000 BOND IS MADE FOR PENCIL FACTORY

Sheriff C. W. Mangum took charge of the equipment of the National Pencil factory Tuesday afternoon, when attorneys for the Pinkerton National Detective agency obtained from Judge Pendleton an order to attach the property.

The Pinkertons recently won a suit for $140,000 for services alleged in the Pinkerton investigation of the Phagan murder. The pencil factory officials gave notice of appeal. No bond was made, however. Tuesday the sheriff was given instructions to levy upon the material.

Big Monty, one of the factory officials, later made bond of $3,000, however and the levy was relinquished.

WOMEN ARE CITED TO FACE CHARGES BEFORE RECORDER

Copies of charges citing them to appear before Recorder Johnson Wednesday in police court on charges of disorderly conduct Tuesday, were served on Mrs. T. Walter Ware and Mrs. W. L. Bishop by Call Officers Anderson and Pain.

Mrs. Ware, who lives at 363 Ponce de Leon avenue, and Mrs. Bishop, who lives at 130 McLendon avenue, had an alleged encounter at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets Monday in which a pistol figured.

The municipal court cases made against the two women were not heard Tuesday because the attorneys were not ready. They will in all probability be given a hearing by Judge Ellis some time in the week. Mrs. Ware made bond in response to charges of "pointing a pistol at another" and a peace warrant was served on Mrs. Bishop.

Mrs. Ware is represented by Attorney John Y. Smith and Mrs. Bishop by Attorney John W. Moore.

FORMER WEDDINGS ARE STILL BINDING PETITIONS CHARGE

Alleged failure to obtain divorce before remarriage is the basis of two suits entered in the superior court yesterday.

In one instance the wife, Mrs. John James, pleads that James failed to secure a divorce from a former wife. In the other Adolphus Reynolds declares that Mrs. Reynolds is still the wife of another.

Mrs. James charges that her husband, to whom she was married last year is still the husband of Anna May James, so at Circle, Ga.

Reynolds declares that his wife who he claims was Mrs. Emma Reeves was married to another man and that Reeves legally remains her husband.

TAYLOR COUNTY POSTMASTER SENT TO FEDERAL PEN

Columbus, Ga., December 7.—(Special)—In the United States court today Perry Q. Whittle, a postmaster of Taylor county was sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary in Atlanta for misappropriating postoffice funds.

Denham Gets a Lecture After Having His Son Arrested as a Vagrant

After having his son arrested as a vagrant, because he was living on the alimony paid his mother, Charles Denham, 647 East 14th street, received a lecture from Recorder Johnson in police court Tuesday morning and was told to let his wife and son alone.

According to Denham he and his wife have been separated for some time because Denham drove his son Gus, aged 18, away from home.

Denham objected to Gus living with his mother, but she is the woman to whom he was forced to pay alimony.

The recorder turned the boy over to Probation Officer Coogler, who found him a position.

Losing Temper When Case He Made Was Dismissed Harris Fought Witness

After having a case which he had made dismissed by the recorder Tuesday afternoon and then attacking one of the witnesses for the defense as the latter was leaving the court room, B. L. Harris, a special agent for the Louisville and Nashville railroad living on the Jonesboro road was fined $10.75 for disorderly conduct.

Harris had arrested a switchman, John Lewis, living at 273 Sunset avenue on charges of stealing a sack of oranges from a train in that week in police court. Lewis declared that Harris had tried to frame up on him on several occasions, and proved to the satisfaction of the recorder that the oranges had been bought at a stand on Central avenue.

Spradling, formerly a special agent for the Central of Georgia railroad, where it was said Harris had been employed at the same time testified that Harris had been discharged from the road for stealing whisky out of cars.

Judge Johnson dismissed the case against Lewis and as Harris was leaving he broke into a tirade against Spradling.

Spradling was going out of the door at the time and Harris struck him in the face with his fist drawing blood. Chief of Detectives Newport A. Lanford and several newspaper reporters rushed between the two men.

BEGIN ON SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF KIDNEY PAIN

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then the back hurts.

Says glass of Salts flushes Kidneys and ends Bladder irritation.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy the bladder is irritated, and you may have to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them to get rid of the urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull pain in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water and get from my pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and you may have your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, and it also drives the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder ouch.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent urino-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists do not carry it, get a lot of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

TROUP MAIL CARRIER IS DECLARED GUILTY

Signed Names of People on Route to Jewelry Orders.

Columbus, Ga., December 7.—(Special)—In United States court today John Hammond, a rural mail carrier from Troup county, pleaded guilty to charges of opening mail and defrauding patrons on his route and was sentenced to two years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Hammond wrote letters to mail order houses, signing the names of people on his route to the letters, which would be orders for jewelry and merchandise. When the goods came the carrier took charge of them, selling them for cash.

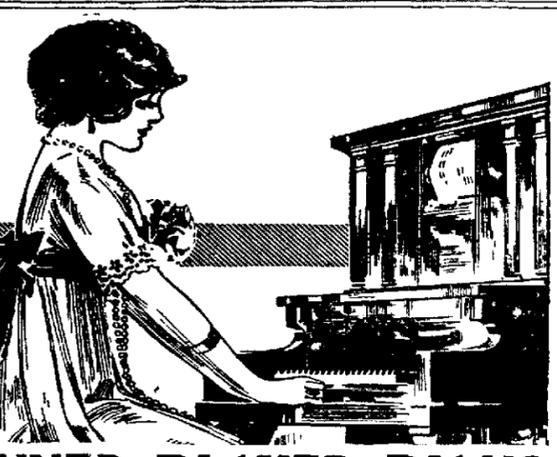

He explained that he was badly in debt and he did this in order to obtain money to pay pressing obligations. Most of the transactions were jewelry sales.

AUGUSTA CONFERENCE A. M. E. CHURCH TO MEET

Augusta, Ga., December 7.—(Special)—The Augusta annual conference of the A. M. E. church convenes here tomorrow in Bethel A. E. church. Rev. H. L. Long, pastor, and John Harmon, presiding elder of the Augusta district. Two hundred ministers and delegates will be called to order Wednesday morning by Bishop S. Phipps of Atlanta, who is closing his seventh and last annual conference of the Sixth Episcopal district, composed of Georgia only.

When this conference closes with its eight delegates it will make a total of eighty-four delegates to the general conference from Georgia alone. Presiding elders Charles Jones, A. M. Jordan, H. H. Hanna, H. H. Johnson, John Harmon and others compose the county wide district. The conference is one of the most powerful states of negro Methodists in the country and they control much school property. Many of their members own much real estate and pride themselves of having made much progress along religious, moral and educational lines. When the conference closes at Augusta it is claimed that the A. M. E. church shall have handled a ministerial lay delegates and evangelistic number composed of ten hundred and thirty seven leaders and Christian workers, an membership in their missions circuits and stations that will make a total of 170,000 members.

Some of the leading negroes who will take part in the conference are: Rev. R. H. Singleton, W. A. Fountain, Treasurer L. H. Smith, A. B. Cooper, W. T. Maxwell, Dean P. W. Greatheart, Editor J. E. McDaniel, W. D. Johnson, Secretary Jameson Book Agent J. T. Wilkerson, C. M. Tanner, W. A. Hadley, J. Iverson, M. D. Johnson, W. N. Hyman, W. B. Lawrence, C. M. Manning and C. A. Winfield.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Brief and vigorous, President Wilson's message read to congress yesterday is one built mostly of generalities, but generalities with direct and specific application. It is the kind of message best calculated to suggest to congress and direct it in the line of its duties, without hampering it as to details.

The questions uppermost in the public mind are those, of course, which have grown out of the European war. These include the importance and apparent necessity of our own national preparedness against any possible aggression; the national income which has been seriously affected by the diminution of imports from the countries at war, and the internal condition brought about by the disloyalty of certain naturalized and native born citizens who seem to consider their obligations to the country to which they have sworn allegiance or to which their allegiance naturally belongs, of wholly secondary or minor importance.

Naval and military preparedness have become a generally accepted national duty; any differences of opinion relate only to extent and degree. There is a wide disposition to support the policy heretofore enunciated by the president, and which, in his message, he deals with only in general terms.

He is at least specific in the declaration in favor of internal and direct taxation, instead of a bond issue, as a means of providing needed government revenue; and this includes both extension of the present war revenue bill and the retention of the tariff duty on sugar.

Americans everywhere will agree with President Wilson that there should be some steps taken more effectively to impress upon naturalized aliens and upon those born in this country of alien parentage, a full sense of their obligation to the United States. Individual sympathy is not inconsistent with national neutrality; but that personal or conspired activity which would destroy property and trample upon the flag, in violation of neutrality laws, if not with the hope of embroiling the nation itself, must demand the attention of congress with a view to repressive remedy.

President Wilson's expression of the national policy toward the Central and South American republics is as clear cut and in as full accord with the spirit of our purposes as any public statement of it anywhere on record. It is the expression of the true spirit of Pan-Americanism, not as the outgrowth of the European war, but coordinated with the conditions to which the war has given rise. It is not as policeman or as preceptor, but as a generous elder brother that we stand with the Latin-American republics, in tacit association for the common protection and the common good of all. Our dealing with Mexico, as was our aid rendered Cuba more than fifteen years ago, is sufficient demonstration of the disinterestedness and unselfishness of our purposes.

Laws calculated to establish an adequate merchant marine and the restoration of the flag to the seas are well worthy the careful attention and consideration of congress. We are winning a trade now that would have been generations in the building had it not been for present conditions in Europe. What of it we retain must rest with us and the preparations we make to hold it.

The proposal to direct an investigation into railroad and transportation problems along lines which may determine "whether there is anything else we can do that would supply us with effective means, in the very process of regulation, for bettering the conditions under which the railroads are operated and for making them more useful servants of the country as a whole." It is altogether a wholesome and gratifying one. It is indicative of the constructive spirit of the day which has long since superseded the spent wave of destructive demagoguery which, for a time, threatened extensive harm.

Altogether, President Wilson's statement to congress is a well-considered and well-advised document, and the democratic majority would do well to adhere to it closely in planning the work that is before it.

As party head and party spokesman, the burden of party responsibility rests upon the president. He has directed national affairs wisely and well, and a democratic congress cannot do better than follow him along well-chosen lines.

If it does this, if it follows wisely where the president has so carefully pointed the way, it may build for party growth and security. If it divides and substitutes dissension for organized party unity, it must expect to bear the shifted burden of responsibility for party failure that will be almost sure to follow.

THE NEW TRAFFIC ORDINANCE.

With comparatively slight changes from the original draft as presented by the special committee, Atlanta's new traffic ordinance has been adopted by council and will unquestionably be approved by the mayor to go into effect at once.

The ordinance, as far as can be seen short of its actual practical effect, is a good one, and is well calculated to relieve the traffic congestion on the principal business streets, which has long since become intolerable. If practical operation should prove the desirability of any further changes, it will be a matter simple enough to make them by amendment; but the chances are that the new ordinance, properly enforced, will meet present conditions and afford the much-needed relief.

With the beginning of the enforcement of the new ordinance, Atlanta will need the keenest and best effort of her police traffic squad. Temporarily, at least, until the people reach a full understanding of the new traffic regulations, it may be necessary to station a traffic policeman at every street crossing within the congested territory most affected by the new regulations.

While drivers of cars and other vehicles, and pedestrians, too, for that matter, are naturally expected to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the new ordinance, and the majority of them will, no doubt, do so, it will require some time for all to reach a full understanding of its requirements.

The natural disposition of driver and pedestrian will be to place themselves in accord with the new requirements and follow them as closely as possible for their own protection. In doing this at the start they will need assistance, the assistance which the members of the traffic squad so well know how to give.

If the traffic policemen will exercise the same careful patience they have so often demonstrated in guiding traffic aright under the old arrangement, and if drivers and pedestrians will exhibit ordinary cheerfulness and willingness in following instructions and the requirements of the ordinance, it will be a matter of only a short time before the situation will be well in hand and traffic congestion in the business center will be fairly well overcome.

Pedestrians, in some instances, at least, may find it difficult at first to confine themselves to crossing streets at the designated points and within the limits fixed at street crossings. But the idea once ingrained will stick and must carry weight with the thought that the new regulations have been devised particularly for their protection.

On the whole, the plan seems to have been carefully worked out with a view to best meeting and providing for conditions as they now present themselves. Every Atlantan should post himself thoroughly as to the requirements of the new ordinance and put himself in accord with it. This will mean easier and quicker travel, both for vehicle and pedestrian, and, best of all, will tend to the immediate diminution of accidents so often due to street congestion.

And here's The Washington Post intimating that the National Gas convention is in too close competition with congress.

Instead of making moonlight raids, Villa should attend a moonlight school and brush up for the lecture platform.

Probably Bryan's lecture engagements prevented him from accompanying his friend Ford. He had to tour America first.

Just as Long Ago
"Comes another Christmas—
Here before you know!
Those locks that fringe your forehead
Will soon be white as snow!"

That's what Time's a-saying:
Take it not amiss;
We've heard the chimes at midnight,
We've known love's elaps and kiss,
And we're glad that we're a-living
In a merry world like this!"

Love lead us on the way
That leads from darkness to the perfect day

Love teach us, in Life's night,
That we are still God's children of the Light.

Love hold us in his keep
And smooth the pillow of our last, sweet sleep

His Worthy Petition.
"Lord, make us thankful for prosperity," prayed the old deacon, "and, having placed us

Shows us all the way
To dance down our troubles
And be happy for a day.
But soon the dancing's ended
And Joy—he will not stay.

But only to have met him
Gives life an after-gleam
And brings to us in shadows
A little bloom and beam
And in a starry midnight
We're with him in a dream

SOME PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The careful buyer at Christmas time has an eye to the useful as well as the ornamental. Though the ornamental tempts judgment often leads from the crystal vase to the pair of stockings; from the vanity box to the box of gloves; from the expensive extract to the dainty handkerchief. All these articles, the vase, the vanity box and the extract make beautiful, acceptable gifts, but sometimes the stockings, the gloves and the handkerchiefs are the more appropriate gifts.

The Atlanta market has an unusual display of these common sense articles, and the present fashion, which admits of the sporty touch in wearing apparel does not confine gift stockings to those of black or white. Gloves in gray and tan are worn as much now as those of all white, and there is an infinite variety of dainty handkerchiefs to select from.

A Scream in Stockings.
So vari-colored and dressy are madame's stockings now that somebody suggested in print not long ago something like "hoistery versus morals." The plain stocking now is almost unique, and many women who do not read novels on Sunday and who would not go to a movie that had a ballet in it, wear stockings that scream with delight at their own coloring. The gift stockings are more cheerful looking and many pairs I have seen ready to be done up in tissue paper and red ribbons say "Merry Christmas" to you in their buoyancy of tone. Though black and dark blue, brown and tan, are the colors upon which these articles of raiment are built, they have stripes and rims of color. On dark blue and dark green one can see stripes of antique white, brown stockings carry white stripes effectively. A smart stocking is in white with black stripes, lengthwise or around, and then there are those of alternating black and white stripes which look gray at a distance. All-black stockings are rich in lace inserting, or embroidery, and white stockings have cloches and and are good to wear traveling. The fashion of no sleeves in the evening gown has called back the long white glove as an acceptable gift, and the three-quarter length glove is worn with the elbow sleeves of the one-piece gown, or the dressy waist designed to be worn with a coat suit. White gloves with black stitching are worn with the long sleeves.

Smart Gloves.
The secret of a good glove is that it be well fitting, and yet women are often careless about that very thing. No matter how pretty a woman's hand is, how handsome or fresh her gloves are, neither shows to her advantage if the glove fails to fit the hand. French women always wear their gloves a half-size too large, those who know tell you, not only because the hand looks better thus covered, but because the gloves last longer. (American women have not yet borrowed thrift in this direction from the French model.) The white glove holds as an excellent gift for every occasion, the smart women on the street are wearing the glove to match their colored top boots. Gray and light tan gloves are stylish, and one sees on many occasions the buff color or almost yellow kid gloves, stylish so many years ago. Black gloves with white stitching are favored by women when shopping and are good to wear traveling. The fashion of no sleeves in the evening gown has called back the long white glove as an acceptable gift, and the three-quarter length glove is worn with the elbow sleeves of the one-piece gown, or the dressy waist designed to be worn with a coat suit. White gloves with black stitching are worn with the long sleeves.

Women who are dainty, who study the toilet, who stay at home more than they do on the street, are as particular about that accessory—the handkerchief—as they are about the gloves they wear, their hats or their veils. Nothing delights the woman of refinement so much as to look over her collection of handkerchiefs. She has them from friends who have brought them from abroad, from those who have hand-made them for her, and she has them sometimes to match her gowns. Yes—a smart handkerchief for general use now has a dainty colored edge, often- times in a contrasting color, and is bordered. For dressy occasions, however, only the all-white handkerchief is acceptable. It may be embroidered, it may be lace-trimmed, or it may be hemstitched only, but it must be sheer, and soft, and the best of its kind.

For men the same order prevails. For every-day use and general wear, the handkerchief admits of a little color in the border or even real sporty patterns, but for evening wear a gentleman's handkerchief must be all white and good linen.

Handkerchiefs naturally lead to the subject of perfumes. Too much perfume of any kind is vulgar, as too much of anything is, but a subtle dainty perfume is not objectionable. The best perfume is the one which comes as a finish to the toilet. One never feels entirely well dressed unless there is just a little perfume on the handkerchief drawn from a sachet, the powder madame uses, or from a bottle which is a part of the equipment of a woman's dressing table, or a man's chiffonier.

This year are tempting the senses with toilet boxes, many of these containing the soap, face powder, sachet, toilet water and extract of the favorite perfume, whether it be Jacquenot rose, Acacia, violet, narcissus, lily of the valley and the hundreds of other popular perfumes. In smaller packages, the toilet water in gift packages, and are in good taste as gifts to either men or women.

Caution the dealers to keep the sachet powder and the packages well guarded before use, as the perfume escapes if they are left out or placed near packages of drugs or materials which have another kind of perfume. Sals bottles are popular gifts, as they may be adorned to suit the fancy.

DATES ARE NAMED FOR FAIR OF 1916 BY THE MANAGER

Announcing October 14 to 21, inclusive, as dates for the 1916 fair of the Southeastern Fair association, General Manager R. M. Striplin returned yesterday from attending the American Association of Fair and Exposition Managers in Chicago.

He said that exhibits of major importance could be secured for this period from all parts of the country, and expected that the executive council of the fair association would be called together by Chairman Ivan E. Allen within a few days to ratify the action of Mr. Striplin.

In his report Manager Striplin stated that the big stock associations and other organizations largely represented at the big fairs of the country looked with great favor upon the possibilities of exhibiting in this section of the country. Many of them have not only promised to bring their exhibits here next year, but also to give substantial sums of money for premiums.

Instead of one breed of cattle there will, he said, at least twelve represented. Together with the sheep, swine, the association exhibits and the several buildings which are now in process of construction, the 1916 fair will be complete, it is declared, in every particular.

"We have not been asleep on high-class amusements," said Mr. Striplin. "Many representatives of companies giving the best open-air diversions at the largest fairs were present at the Chicago meeting. We have secured many of these attractive sidelines and they will be obtained."

Suggestions by Express Company To Facilitate Christmas Shipping

With the approach of the Christmas season and the attendant increase in the demand for all transportation facilities, the Southern Express company is putting forward unique and unusual efforts which will insure to its patrons the fullest benefits of the express service, in the event the shipping suggestions given out by the company, are put into execution.

It is evident that the express business this season will be unusually heavy and extra forces are being employed and trained already, so that the proper efficiency may be attained before the height of the Christmas shipping is reached, and in this way the full benefits of the service secured throughout the rush.

General Agent W. T. Elder, of the Southern Express company, has already set in motion the plans whereby the facilities of his office will be enlarged and improved, so that the local patrons will secure every possible advantage of the increased service which is being offered.

Suggestions for Shippers.
At the Christmas season thousands of shippers use the Express service who do not use it at any other time of the year, and in transportation and delivery of their Christmas remembrances, the following important suggestions in connection with the packing, addressing and shipping of these remembrances have been compiled, and if followed will materially assist in attaining the best service possible:

1. The address of all shipments should be plainly written with ink or crayon; never use a lead pencil. The address should be marked on the shipment. The name of tags should be avoided whenever possible.

2. The local address of the consignee should be shown, as the absence of the local address may result in delay in delivery. The shipper's home and address should be placed on every shipment, so that prompt notice can be furnished in case of non-delivery.

Care in Packing.
4. All shipments should be packed with sufficient care to withstand the ordinary wear and tear of transportation. Packages should be wrapped in heavy paper, and tied with strong cord. Glass and similar fragile articles should be enclosed in strong wooden boxes, or the padded cartons used in the transportation of such shipments. Never enclose such articles in packages wrapped with paper. Special labels reading "Glass" or "Fragile" will be furnished upon request by the express company.

5. Always correctly describe the contents of each shipment and the value thereof; the contents and value are elements in determining the charge. Special rates are provided for shipments of foods and such packages should be marked "Perishable."

6. Money, jewelry and other articles of unusual value should not be packed with ordinary merchandise. Such articles should be in separate packages, sealed so that they can be handled in the special department the express company maintains for transporting such shipments.

7. Ship early, and thus avoid congestion. Do not delay forwarding Christmas shipments until the last moment.

Attractive Labels.
In addition the Southern Express company is furnishing, for the convenience and use of its patrons, very attractive labels printed in colors, conveying the holiday spirit, which, when used, and attached to the packages of the shipment if desired the company will also supply stickers, reading "Do Not Open Until Christmas," so that shipments may be made as far in advance of Christmas day as desired, and at the same time the secret be kept secure.

In addition to the receipt which is always issued to the shipper, the express company will also furnish, upon request, an attractive Christmas postcard which may be mailed by the shipper, and which will result in the shipment has been sent that it has been forwarded by express, and will arrive shortly.

These suggestions, when observed coupled with the innovations the express company has introduced and the service it is performing, will result in a more popular transportation being more popular with the shippers this Christmas than ever before.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL ASSESSES TAX ON LARGE AMOUNT OF BONDS

Following the failure of the Louisville and Nashville and the Seaboard Air Line railroads to return for taxation to the state, Comptroller General W. A. Wright has assessed the bonds for taxation.

Peacock Brothers, attorneys for Richmond county, claim that these bonds have been deposited with the Georgia Railroad and Banking company, of Richmond county, and are, therefore, taxable in that county and this state.

Major Joseph E. Cumming, of Augusta, claims that the bonds have not been deposited with the Augusta banking concern, but with the Farmers Loan and Trust company, of New York.

Should the railroad still refuse to pay the tax on these bonds, the matter will be referred to arbitration.

The seven years' taxes in which the state would be entitled to collect amount to some $35,000. This does not include whatever taxes might be due to Richmond county.

TRAVELERS WILL OPPOSE BAGGAGE PETITIONS FILED BY RAILROADS

W. G. Moore, past councillor of Fulton county No. 505, United Commercial Travelers, stated yesterday that this organization has decided to oppose the collection of taxes by the railroads with the state railroad commission asking that the commission grant authority to increase rates on baggage, where it is checked on ticket which is not used and is later turned in for redemption.

Mr. Moore stated that the travelers have already held a meeting to discuss this question and have taken the matter up with their attorney, James L. Moore.

Mr. Moore said that this is a subterfuge on the part of the railroads to obtain more money from the traveling public, and that already the roads have ample protection in the emergency complained of by the simple expedient of putting the ticket, thus making the ticket non-refundable.

PRISONER WIFE WEEPS FOR JOY AS GOVERNOR PARDONS HUSBAND

Mr. J. W. Wooten, of Kingston, Bartow county, broke down and wept for joy yesterday when she tried to thank Governor Harris, who yesterday pardoned her husband. Wooten was convicted of manslaughter and had served three years.

GOVERNOR HARRIS NAMES BELL, FULTON BEER TAX COLLECTOR

Governor Harris has named Clarence M. Bell, of Atlanta, as near beer tax collector for Fulton county, for a term of four months, beginning January 1.

ALTRUISM

If I shall build the larger self
That I may hope to be,
If I shall dream the truth eternal,
And life's revealing see,
Then I must bid my days secure,
And rest the sense of things,
Must know myself in conscious poise
With life that order brings.

If I must feel the fuller hope,
That looms before my life,
And realize my dream complete,
And find the sense of things strife—
Then, visions of a great Complex,
And larger human weal,
Shall I bid my days secure,
And conscious truth reveal.

SCHOOL CHILDREN OF CYCLOPAMA FREE

The school children of the city will be allowed to see the cyclorama in Grant and Park at Atlanta at Grant Park free under a plan submitted to the park commission and adopted yesterday afternoon.

The plan is to let two classes with teachers visit the cyclorama three days in the week free. This will give six classes a week a chance to see the historical picture.

GOLF PLAYERS CAN PRACTICE ON THE BASEBALL GROUNDS

Golf players will be permitted to practice in the baseball grounds in Grant and Piedmont parks every morning between 5 and 8 o'clock.

This action was taken by the park commission yesterday afternoon on the suggestion of L. C. Hopkins.

PARK BUDGET IS ADOPTED $24,000 IS AMOUNT WANTED

The park commission yesterday afternoon adopted the budget for 1916 as submitted by General Manager J. O. Cochran.

The budget calls for an appropriation of $24,000. The appropriation for the year was $22,000. It is believed by the commission that the council for next year will be very liberal and give the park department a good showing as was this year.

HERE'S A RIDDLE BY A POET

By George Byron Beauchamp.
I'm in my lady's boudoir
Where dainty things you see,
Yet mighty men of prowess
Will oft resort to me.

I'm where spectators gather
To see their favorites play,
I hold correct measure
That people must obey.

Like throne upon the monarch,
To coachmen I belong,
Yet men, 'tis said, get in me
When they do what is wrong.

While reading the above real good riddle don't fail to note the centerpiece in the author's name—"Byron"—that surely denotes that he has some poetic claims. Then, I'll hide in one of the very lists that has been written by city hall official George Byron Beauchamp is the able chief clerk in the assessor's office. He offers a Christmas present for the city, and the answer to the riddle by Alderman James William Maddox, which was published in Tuesday's Constitution, is "Council-Count."

THE RECALL AND THE GOSSIP

Are they gossiping about the recall of the city hall?

Well, maybe. But those who are doing the most talking are the callers, not the recallers, and not the officials. They are those politicians who just "drop around" to see what is going on. They are, generally speaking, people who "don't care much, you know, how the thing goes."

When you ask the average official what he thinks of the recall he will more than likely say: "Well, I don't know. How's the recall anyway?"

They are not on the fence—just too busy to be intelligible.

The "caller" will give you all kinds of "dope" on either side. He has heard with care the arguments for and against the recall. The only thing he is short on, is authors.

WILL DISCUSS AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE FILM BUSINESS

There will be an important meeting of the special council committee that has under consideration an ordinance to regulate the manufacturing and handling of films in the city, at the mayor's committee room this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The chairman, Councilman J. N. Renfrow, has decided to have a public hearing before the ordinance is passed upon and he has invited all citizens interested to be present.

The ordinance is the outcome of the disastrous fire which has been in a manufacturing on Luckie street some time ago.

REPORT ON THE TAX DIGEST WILL SOON BE MADE UP

George B. Beauchamp is working on the tax digest, checking up the list of those who paid their taxes this year. He will not complete the digest until the 15th of the month. He believes the city will make a good showing, "states the chief clerk, "despite the talk about tight times. Our books will make as good a showing as has been made by the tax digest in many years, unless I am very much mistaken."

MAYOR WOODWARD SAYS A WORD IN BEHALF OF THE TEACHERS

"I would like to have you quote me as saying," said Mayor Woodward to the city hall corps of newspaper reporters yesterday, "that I have never felt more pleased over a thing in my life than over the outcome of the meeting of the board of education Monday. If there are any people I sympathize with in the world, they are the teachers in our schools. They work hard and faithfully and should always be given every consideration. It was extremely unfortunate that the proposed medical examination of the teachers did and the board of education never did a better thing than when it rescinded its first action and saved the teachers from unnecessary embarrassment."

BANKERS PLEDGE AID TO FARMERS

In Marketing and Financing Future Cotton Crops and in Extending Selling Season Through Entire Year.

New Orleans, La., December 7.—Definite plans designed to aid in the advancement of the south's agricultural commerce and other interests were promulgated by the conference of cotton states bankers at its closing session here today, in the adoption of resolutions which were discussed at the two days' meeting among other things, the bankers promised to assist the farmers in marketing and financing their 1916 and future cotton crops and in promoting a selling season extending over the entire year instead of a few months.

In addition to the pledges contained in the resolutions, presidents of state bankers' associations in various states gave further promises of assistance by their organizations in carrying out the plans outlined.

The conference urged adoption by the cotton states of a measure looking toward uniformity in cotton transactions including financing, warehousing and marketing, advocated a campaign to increase the acreage of cotton and provided the movement for safe farming of the raising by each farmer of sufficient food and feed crops to supply his farm advised the adoption by bankers and business men of a farm rate sheet or schedule of the plans of the farmer when applying for credit and advocated encouragement of state and federal agencies to work out scientific and economic methods on farms and proposed aid in solving the problems of preventing waste in the baling, handling, and transporting of cotton from the gin to the mill.

Officers Are Chosen
The conference was adjourned after the election of officers for the organization.

Joe Birch of Corpus Christi, Texas, was elected chairman of the conference and Woodhead Wright of Little Rock was chosen as secretary. The same positions last year in the 1914-15 season. Other officers elected were:

Treasurer: O. Newton Jr., Jackson, Miss.
Chairman: J. H. H. Adams, Tompkinsville, Ky.
Secretary: W. R. Keane, Little Rock, Ark.
Committee on Finance: J. H. H. Adams, Tompkinsville, Ky.; W. R. Keane, Little Rock, Ark.; J. H. H. Adams, Tompkinsville, Ky.; W. R. Keane, Little Rock, Ark.

The resolutions declared the conference its purpose and intention to stimulate the cotton industry and to assist the farmer in marketing his cotton and to promote agricultural well-being by the aid of safe banking.

Warehouse Committee Urged
Attention was directed to the present strong condition of southern banks which, while they are generally able and entirely willing to assist southern farmers in marketing the product of their fields, are unable to offer a list of suitable credit facilities to the cotton farmer.

The resolutions adopted by the conference provide that each state banker's association in the south immediately organize a warehouse committee to develop additional warehouse facilities to the crop of 1916 and future crops and to assist the farmer in financing his crop as soon as possible.

The conference also urged the cotton farmer to cooperate with the warehouse committee in promoting a selling season of twelve months instead of three or four months and to assist the warehouse committee in promoting a selling season of twelve months instead of three or four months.

That the conference appoint a committee to uniform cotton warehouse laws to consult producers and buyers so that there may be offered for adoption by all the cotton states a measure which will result in uniformity of cotton transactions financing and marketing.

That all experience proves that one crop farming is unsafe both from the standpoint of property and from the standpoint of banking credit. The past year's experience has demonstrated in the south that a system of farming which makes the raising of sufficient food and feed the first concern is safe farming.

We invited the producers to cooperate with us in making safe farming the basis of safe banking credit. We urge buyers and farmers to consider the plan recommended by the department of agriculture for us. A farmer's crop should show his ability and productivity in methods similar to the rate sheets and statements furnished by merchants so that safe farming may receive financial accommodations at rates and terms as favorable as those furnished to commercial and industrial.

That the bankers committee of the general states to operate with state federal and other organizations for rural betterment.

That the Texas system of ginning warehousing, grading and marketing cotton under its supervision was recommended for consideration and emulation by other states.

511 Pardons Were Given By Kentucky Governor In Term of Four Years

Frankfort, Ky., December 7.—Governor James B. McCreary today during his four years term as chief executive commuted to life imprisonment 511 death sentences and issued pardons in 511 cases ranging from pistol carrying to manslaughter. His pardon record fell 49 under that of his predecessor Governor McCreary evicted the pardon power in five cases yesterday.

Constantly besieged by friends and relatives of prisoners for clemency as his term neared its end, Governor McCreary acted in but few instances. Strong pleas were made in behalf of Henry Youtsey, Curt Jetz, Beach Harris and August Ropke four noted prisoners but to no avail. Youtsey is serving a life term for complicity in the case of Governor Goebel and has served 16 years. Young Harris has been in prison five years. He is serving a life sentence for the murder of his father Judge James Harris of Breathitt county. Jetz is a life prisoner. Ropke was sentenced for embezzling more than a million dollars and still has several years to serve.

SEEK CLUES HERE TO BARN BURNERS

In the vicinity of each were found emptied cans that once contained oil. Cherokee authorities say that there is no doubt the incendiary was the same man who worked of an organized clan bent upon a single purpose. Fearing additional arrests, the stock raisers and planters who employ negroes last night patrolled their property with armed guards.

Cremlins Animals Were Plugs
Sheriff Spears who visited the scene of the fires discovered that the incendiary was the same man who worked of an organized clan bent upon a single purpose. Fearing additional arrests, the stock raisers and planters who employ negroes last night patrolled their property with armed guards.

Cherokee county borders on Forsyth county in the center of which stands the town of Cherokee. A lynching and the interference of state troops on two occasions were in evidence in the case of the incendiary. It is well possible that the incendiary had some connection with the black belt.

No reward has been offered by officials of the city of Canton it was stated by Mayor J. D. Carleton. He said that the incendiary was a negro who committed the crime beyond the city limits. The report that the incendiary had offered a reward of $1000 in confusion of a reward that had been made for dynamite in the streets of Canton.

State Officers Reward
At the request of Solicitor General Herbert Clay of the Blue Ridge circuit in which Cherokee county is located, Governor Harris yesterday ordered a reward of $500 for the apprehension and delivery of the unknown persons (any or all) involved in the burning of the Cherokee county property.

Solicitor Clay's petition was as follows: To the Hon. Nat. E. Harris, Governor of the State of Georgia: The petition of Herbert Clay, Solicitor General of the Blue Ridge circuit, in which Cherokee county is located, for a reward of $500 for the apprehension and delivery of the unknown persons (any or all) involved in the burning of the Cherokee county property.

GERMAN ATTACHES ENTIRELY TOO BUSY

United States Informs Germany Boy-Ed and Von Papen Were Dismissed for Their Activities—Facts Not Discussed.

Washington, December 7.—Secretary Lansing, has communicated to Germany through Count Bernstorff the German ambassador's reasons which caused the United States government to request the immediate withdrawal of Captain Karl Boy-Ed and Captain Franz von Papen respectively, and military attaches of the embassy here.

In the communication which is believed to have reached the Berlin foreign office today, Secretary Lansing is understood to have stated that the naval and military activities of the attaches constituted their principal offenses. It is said that there was no discussion of facts relating to the reasons for the dismissal of the attaches nor any disclosure of the department's information.

Will Berlin Be Satisfied?
Whether Germany expected a discussion of the facts has not been known. Officials are waiting with interest to see whether the Berlin foreign office will be satisfied with the stating of the broad general reasons.

The opinion seems to prevail that Germany will be satisfied with the statement that the attaches were dismissed without further delay in some quarters however it was thought that other communication might come from Berlin.

Secretary Lansing declined to comment upon the subject for publication today and the German embassy also was silent.

It is understood that Count Bernstorff was of the personal opinion that the reply made by Secretary Lansing was satisfactory. Officials also apparently thought that the state department's requirements probably would satisfy the German government.

Activities of Attaches
In addition to mentioning the naval and military activities of the attaches it was said authoritatively tonight that the American communication pointed out that the attaches had been dismissed from their posts for reasons which were not stated in the communication. It is thought that the attaches were dismissed because they had been engaged in other undesirable connections.

It was considered doubtful tonight that the text of the communication which had been passed between Secretary Lansing and the German ambassador would be made public in any form unless the present views of the situation changed materially.

Woodsman Gets Kentucky Seat.

In seating Ray Woodson as member from Kentucky the committee held that when he was selected by the Kentucky state central committee to succeed the late John M. Mayo Woodson was chosen to fill the entire unexpired term. The selection of General Haldeman by the Kentucky state convention as a member of the committee which took place after the Woodson election was not regarded as a report to this effect was drawn up by a sub-committee consisting of Mr. Wood of Michigan and John J. M. Wood of West Virginia and adopted by the committee. The committee also held that General Haldeman had acted in good faith in connection with the election.

Woodsman Gets Kentucky Seat.

In seating Ray Woodson as member from Kentucky the committee held that when he was selected by the Kentucky state central committee to succeed the late John M. Mayo Woodson was chosen to fill the entire unexpired term. The selection of General Haldeman by the Kentucky state convention as a member of the committee which took place after the Woodson election was not regarded as a report to this effect was drawn up by a sub-committee consisting of Mr. Wood of Michigan and John J. M. Wood of West Virginia and adopted by the committee. The committee also held that General Haldeman had acted in good faith in connection with the election.

Great Black and White Ball Inspires General Social Interest

What must I wear to the 'black-and-white ball' women ask each other when they meet. Others are at work secretly on their costumes and they do say that Atlanta women are going to vie with one another in the beauty they will put in costumes combining black and white.

The ball is to take place the evening of December 22 at the Georgian terrace hotel. The proceeds will go to the fund being raised for war victims of France.

Dinner will be served in the rose room at 8 o'clock that evening. Tickets for the dinner and the ball to follow will be $2.50 which means that the reservation for dinner at that price carries with it the ball ticket. But those who do not attend the dinner but wish to attend the ball which begins at 10 o'clock can procure a ticket for $1.50.

Reservations for tables for the dinner must be made through the management of the hotel, when application will be turned over to a committee of ladies appointed by Mrs. Frank S. Ellis, chairman of the ball to look after the dinner reservations.

Another committee is planning the elaborate decorations which will be a feature of the ball while another will look after the music. There will be two orchestras engaged for the evening so that there will be every opportunity for everybody dancing in any part of the first floor of the hotel to catch the strains of the dance music. The ball will be one of the largest and most picturesque of the kind yet held in Atlanta, and given as it is for a worthy purpose deserves a generous patronage.

Mrs. Dickey to Entertain.
Mrs. James L. Dickey will entertain on the 16th at her home on Paces Ferry road the occasion to be a housewarming.

To Mrs. Black.
Mrs. William H. Kiser's luncheon yesterday in compliment to Mrs. David C. Black who is the guest of Mrs. Albert Howell Jr. was a delightful occasion. The following were the guests: Mrs. Black, Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun, Mrs. Alex. Smith Jr., Mrs. Charles Hopkins, Jr., Mrs. Ewell Gay, Mrs. Stuart Witham, Mrs. George McCarty, Jr., Mrs. Albert Howell, Mrs. Marion Smith and Mrs. Edward Alspaugh.

Maxim's Appearance Is Feature Of Picture on Preparedness

The actual appearance on the screen of Hudson Maxim, the famous inventor, as one of the principal characters in 'The Battle Cry of Peace' the greatest war picture ever filmed, which is to be shown here all next week at the Auditorium-Armory under Fifth Regiment auspices, will be one of the drawing features of this wonderful production.

Even with the all-star cast, including such capable actors as Charles Richman, Joseph Kilgour, James Morrison, Norma Talmadge and Thais Lawton, enacting the drama portion of the picture it is believed there will be no feature of the picture that will hold more interest for the public than the character enacted by Hudson Maxim.

Delivers a Lecture
In the prologue Maxim is seen delivering a lecture on the subject in question in which he emphasizes the sad lack of military equipment in the United States army and navy, the woeful inferiority of coast defenses, and the terrible fate that might befall this country if it were attacked in its present state of unpreparedness by a strong enemy equipped with all the modern implements of warfare.

An interesting question was raised at a recent private showing of 'The Battle Cry of Peace' to officers of the Fifth regiment and a few private citizens of Atlanta, as to the advisability of publishing before all the world in such a manner the condition of this country as regards the army and navy. It was brought out, however, that the day of so-called military secrets is past.

Inspired as it was by Hudson Maxim's book on 'Defenseless America' 'The Battle Cry of Peace' is designed to enlighten a few of those who will not or cannot understand the need of national preparedness.

Peaceful Scenes Shown
The play proper at first shows only peaceful scenes—good citizens at home who love and live on in their usual way, regardless of the fact that they are taking place daily in the European conflict, but quite unable to believe that all those horrors could be brought to their own roofs some day.

Into these peaceful scenes come painful rumors. A foreign nation picks a quarrel with the country. The friends of peace, as it were, seek to prevent the powers that be from enrolling the armies and mobilizing the fleets of the United States to meet the fast increasing threat of war.

Then like a bolt out of the sky comes the deluge. A fleet of resistless forces arrives land great armies and in a short time works unbelievable havoc in New York city. In amaze and terror the onlookers watch the great buildings crash to the ground, see men and women slaughtered in the streets and witness in wonder the realistic and horrible events as they are depicted throughout the breadth and length of the great city.

In the entire production great pains have been taken to avoid ruffling any national sensibilities.

Major W. M. Leahy, chairman of the Fifth regiment committee in charge of arrangements has opened up headquarters in room 516 chamber of commerce building and all matters connected with the showing of the feature in Atlanta will be handled direct from that office. The telephone number is 155 5531.

Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Felder entertained at dinner last night at their home in Ansley Park, the occasion a compliment to Miss Dorothy Arkwright and to Miss Louise Walker of Waconia, Ga. The party were Miss Ina Robinson, Mr. Remsen King, Mr. T. B. Higdon and Dr. R. H. DeLoach.

The table decoration was artistic in plan, the centerpiece a French basket of pink carnations and ferns with bows and streamers of tulle. Around it pink candles burned in eight majolica canisters, each representing a flower, and the hand painted place cards were pink flowers.

Mrs. Felder wore a becoming pink gown of tulle, combined with a beige crepe.

SOCIETY

Christmas Bazar.

The ladies of the Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church will hold a bazar Thursday and Friday of this week, December 9 and 10, in the Atlanta National bank building. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Brooks' Reception.

Mrs. W. W. Brooks was hostess yesterday at a beautiful reception at her home in the Roslyn. The invitations were issued for reception hours, four and five to six and six and six to seven. The approach of the holidays suggested an occasion of artistic elaboration and green and white were the prevailing colors forming the decorative scheme. The reception room Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Charles J. Haden who received with a staid before a festive massing of palms. Vases of red and white roses and bowls of growing ferns were placed with taste about the room and red candles burned in the tall candlesticks on mantel and bookcases.

In the arch between the reception and dining rooms was a beautiful hanging basket of Richmond roses and purple geraniums and in both apartments pictures were placed in baskets imported from Japan held Richmond roses.

In the dining room the table center piece was a plate of the crimson roses and at intervals were four Venetian glass bowls holding crimson and white japonica. The wash like blue vases sent by a friend from South Carolina. Red candles in antique silver candlesticks had white shades and garlands of amaranth added their touch of tender green.

A delicious repast was served and Mrs. Carolina King and Miss Emily Casin presided at the tea and coffee tables.

Mrs. Brooks' reception gown was a French creation, its foundation of flesh colored satin draped with black chiffon hand-embroidered in chenille roses in rose and blue. Its finish is in jet.

Mrs. Charles Haden was gowned in blue velvet, the corsage of chiffon over silver lace contrasted with velvet.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Porter King, Mrs. Hugh Willet, Mrs. Bolling Jones, Mrs. A. V. Guide.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hader gave a pretty dinner last night at the Piedmont Driving club in company with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Humphries of Memphis, who have been spending a few days in Atlanta.

Invited to them were Mr. and Mrs. William Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell King and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Peoples.

In the table decoration there was suggestion of the approaching holidays. The centerpieces were a silver loving cup of crimson carnations and round

It was a chain of silver vases of carnations with amaranth garlands between the vases and on the table cover. The spirit of Christmas was happily typified in the place cards, including little boys in crimson sweater suits perched in various acrobatic attitudes on the glasses.

CHRISTMAS TREE WILL BRING JOY TO 280 CHILDREN

A mammoth Christmas tree which will gladden the hearts of 280 Atlanta children is being planned for the Sunday afternoon after Christmas by the ladies of Libby Circle King's Daughters and Sons.

The Christmas tree will be at the Georgian theater. It will be laden with nuts, candies, raisins and many other good things to eat as well as shoes and clothes. Special moving pictures for children will be shown with out-charge.

Atlanta Given Boost As Electrical Center In Talk to Rotarians

That Atlanta was the south center of electrical activities and prosperity was the burden of an interesting address delivered before the Rotary club yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Winchell by F. H. Ginn, of the General Electric company.

He dealt largely in statistics. Many interesting statements were made two of which were that 6 per cent of the persons in America employ electricity in some form and that 10 per cent derive their living from the electrical industry.

BANKERS ARE INVITED TO HOLD MEETING HERE

The Cotton States Bankers conference now in session in New Orleans has been invited to hold its next meeting in Atlanta. Secretary Walter C. Cooper wired invitations yesterday from President Mel R. ECHO OF THE SEIZURE OF STEAMSHIP DACIA

New York, December 7.—An echo of the seizure by a French warship of the steamship Dacia, while proceeding from Galveston to Rotterdam with cotton was heard in the supreme court today when the suit of a Rhode Island insurance company to recover from Tom B. Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, an amount representing unpaid premiums on 11,000 bales of cotton valued at $54,948. After the Dacia and her cargo were sold through the prize courts she was renamed the Yae and later was sunk by a German submarine.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

It is a fine as the proverbial fiddle. You must keep the liver washed clean almost every morning to prevent its sponge like pores from clogging with indigestible material, acids, bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, many breath or stomach, belching, constipation, it's your liver. Yellow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes, all denote liver uncleanness. Your liver is the most important also the most abused and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release its jammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel which is a dangerous salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues also attacks the brain.

Give your liver and woman sleek or well should drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the liver and lower the poisonous bile and toxins, thus cleans up sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into it. Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel because it can be taken for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless and any little child will get you a quart of it which is sufficient for a demoniacal amount of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and out.

Detroit Electric

World's Leading Enclosed Car

$2175

—the best family Christmas gift

A gift of a Detroit Electric is really a splendid present for the entire family. You will derive equally as much pleasure and service from it as your wife and children. And it is a gift whose daily use, year after year, will constantly call to mind the love and thoughtfulness of the donor. The 1916 Detroit Electrics have all the power and speed you normally need; will carry you farther on one charge than you ordinarily care to ride in a whole day; and cost far less for operative upkeep than any other car of similar size and power. When may we give you a demonstration?

Christmas morning delivery can be promised on only a few more cars.

Suffrage Tea.

The Fulton and DeKalb counties branch of the Equal Suffrage Party of Georgia will be entertained at a tea this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Maddox at her home 35 Haralson avenue Inman Park. A very attractive program has been arranged and some very unique surprises will greet the guests. Plans for the year's work will be discussed. It is hoped that everyone interested in the cause will attend and bring a friend. The chairman of the ninth ward Mrs. Frank Pitten will preside. A cordial invitation to other wards is extended.

Terpsichorean Club.

An event of the week will be the first December dance given by the Terpsichorean club on Friday evening December 16. Plans have been perfected to make all meetings of interest. A number of invitations have been issued to non-members of the club, and it is expected that seventy-five couples will be present. At a special initiation Saturday night the following members were received into the club: Messrs. A. Bloodworth, John Massa, W. A. Lane and Carl A. Taylor. Another initiation will be held by the club on Saturday night at which time several more members will be added. A feature of the evening will be a Dutch supper served by the club to the members. The regular Saturday afternoon tea-dance will be held Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Gause Entertains.

Miss Margaret Gause was hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon yesterday at her home on Ponce de Leon. In addition to the regular members of the club, a number of guests were present. The luncheon was most enjoyable and for Miss Gause a most successful one. A basket of Killarney roses and narcissi formed the centerpiece of the table.

Goodbye Curling Iron!

Better Method Found

Don't burn the life out of your hair with that instrument of torture the curling iron. There is nothing that will so surely dry out and break off the hair giving it that ragged unkempt appearance.

You will be glad to learn that you can keep your hair beautifully wavy and curly by using a perfectly harmless liquid known to druggists as "Sulfurine." You need only apply a little with a clean tooth brush before retiring and in the morning you will find the most securely curled hair with the soft and this effect lasts for a number of days. It is so economical to use a "Sulfurine" is really beneficial to the hair and there is no greasy or sticky residue or anything unpleasant about it. It is a good idea to divide the hair into strands and comb them one at a time drawing the brush down the full length.

luncheon table. Silver candlesticks had pink shades and other pretty details of decoration were in pink. The prizes were French prints and perfume and were won by Miss Muriel Luthicum and Miss Louise Cooper. The honor guests were given monogram stationery. Miss Gause wore black velvet combined with Georgette crepe. Mrs. Baldwin wore black tulle velvet trimmed with beaver fur and her black hat was also trimmed with beaver. Mrs. Holloman wore a suit of brown cloth with white velvet hat. Mrs. J. G. Gause assisted her daughter in waiting. There were twenty-five guests.

Mrs. Witherspoon's Tea.

Mrs. Robert Witherspoon entertained at a luncheon yesterday afternoon at home for her sister Mrs. E. S. Adams, of Louisville, Ky. with Miss Lunge, Mrs. Rosen and blooming plants decorated the rooms and a tall silver vase of pink roses was the centerpiece of the tea table. Mrs. Harry M. Atkinson poured tea and little Miss Lunge, Nixon and Mary Sheldon were present. There were twenty guests.

Tea-Dance at Driving Club.

The weekly tea-dance will be an enjoyable occasion of the afternoon at the Driving club.

Mrs. Louis Gholston will entertain a party in compliment to Mrs. E. T. Donnelly who is the guest of her sister Miss Liza Pitten at the Georgian Terrace. Mrs. E. S. Adams of Louisville, Ky. will be the guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. Erwin Dickey. Among others on the list are Mrs. M. M. Motte Pittman, Mrs. James H. Harney, Mrs. Gus Dodd, Mrs. Jack J. Spalding and Mrs. Milton Dargan.

Dinner-Dance at the Driving Club.

A number of parties are being arranged for the dinner-dance Saturday evening at the Driving club. Mr. Brooks Moran will entertain several guests in compliment to Mrs. Dorothy Arkwright a lovely debutante of the season. Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Elkin will have as their guests the members of the Shell club and their wives. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff C. Hatcher will have a large party of friends in celebration of their wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Winship Nunnally will entertain as will also Mr. Frank Calloway.

For Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Harvey Hill will entertain at the tea-dance this afternoon for Mrs. D. M. Hughes of Danville, Ga. The guests will include Mrs. B. H. Hill, Mrs. H. C. Bayley, Mrs. Edward Van Winkle and Miss Florida Ferrell.

"WREN'S NEST" WILL BE OPEN THURSDAY TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

The Uncle Remus Memorial association announces that the birthday of Joel Chandler Harris will be observed on December 9.

The teachers in all the public and private schools have been requested to prepare Uncle Remus programs on that day.

The Wren's Nest, the old home of Mr. Harris and now a public institution in honor of his memory will be open to the school children of Atlanta on Thursday. We wish the day to be generally observed throughout the state. The committee having the matter in charge sincerely and we wish the Wren's Nest visited by the children.

REGISTRATION TO CLOSE AT TECH NIGHT SCHOOL

Tomorrow will be the last day for regular registration for the winter term of the free night school at Georgia Tech. The school is almost full to its capacity and Dean J. N. G. Nesbit announces that all new students and old students as well who wish to be in for the winter term should make sure of registering between now and Thursday night.

The books close definitely for this week tomorrow night, there is a possibility, however, that they will be opened for two or three days during the early part of next week, but that will depend entirely on whether the school is previously filled to its capacity or not.

MORE SPACE DESIRED FOR EPWORTH LEAGUE

A committee was appointed and plans were formulated to request the Wesleyan Advocate to enlarge its Epworth League department at its regular monthly meeting in the Young Men's Christian association last night. Besides this reports were heard from the presidents of all local chapters and from the Epworth union officers. The latter submitted plans for the union meeting to be held December 14 in Capitol View.

WEST POINT RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FLAMES

West Point, Ga., December 7.—(Special) The home of J. F. Wood, on the east side of the Chattahoochee, was destroyed by fire last night at 11 o'clock. The inmates had a narrow escape. This is the third fire for West Point in less than a week. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been from a defective flue.

The children will enjoy Howard's Ponies, Forsyth, today.

LISTEN—

Worthy Atlanta products are best for Atlantans—just as Georgia products are best for Georgians, and southern products best for southerners, and American products best for Americans.

We are talking about southern products, though, now—products made in Georgia—made in Atlanta. We are home concerns.

Being an integral part of the manufacturing south, and all things being equal—our goods being as high in value and low in price as similar goods—we feel that we are not asking or expecting too much when we say that we believe we are entitled to your patronage.

Just now Atlanta printers are waging a "buy-at-home" campaign, as touching all printed matter. They are producing good results. There is much to the argument of Mr. W. S. Wardlaw, chairman of the campaign committee. He says:

"It would mean a vast increase in the number of employees in all branches of the printing trades, and likewise a considerable increase in the population of Atlanta. It would mean thousands of dollars additional money annually distributed in wages, to be redistributed right here at home. It would create a demand for more houses. It would put a larger amount of money into circulation weekly. It would mean more business for the real estate dealer, the butcher, the baker, the grocer, the clothier, the milliner, the dry goods man and every other business man. It would add to the city's revenue for municipal improvements and enlarge the school fund. In short, it will BUILD Atlanta, and in this campaign to induce Atlantans to keep their printing at home we are only asking Atlantans to 'show the Atlanta Spirit.'"

That's a sound argument for building Atlanta. The same argument is good for Georgia—good for the south.

The campaign we have been waging for months—a campaign calling attention to home concerns which employ home people—is along the same lines. It has preached "PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES." It has been a bit broader in its scope than mere local interests—because we are southern manufacturers—we serve a large patronage in the south, and in other states.

Georgia has, some time ago, awakened to the fact that its productiveness and independence could be largely increased by cultivating a home demand for home products, whether of field or manufacturing plant.

To the extent that southern folks utilize their own resources and encourage their own enterprises, so shall they grow in prosperity and self-reliance.

So, then, Consumer, you call for our goods—southern goods—shoes, stoves, flour, shirts, pants, overalls, biscuits and crackers, ham, shoulders, bacon and the like. You will be pleased—and you will be displaying the proper loyal spirit toward home enterprises.

And you, Mr. Dealer, it's up to you to handle these lines—if you want to best satisfy your trade.

Provisions Score New High Records Because of German Entry Into Market.

Chicago December 7.—Bearish estimates regarding the amount of domestic wheat of sufficient quality for milling did a good deal today to bring about a setback in prices.

Wheat had been weak and strong by turns until late in the session when one of the largest houses on change made public fabrications regarding the milling crop of the United States.

Provisions were sharply affected by reports that Germany was buying lard and pork.

Grain prices were generally lower, with wheat showing a slight recovery.

ROBERT DEMPSEY DIES IN RAILWAY ACCIDENT Following the receipt of a telegram from Callahan, Fla., stating that Robert Dempsey, a former Atlantan, was killed in a railroad wreck near that place yesterday afternoon, J. P. Haridge, 60 Sylvan avenue, asked the police to assist him in finding two sisters of the dead man who are supposed to be living in the city. He stated that Dempsey formerly lived at his residence and that the two sisters are said to be living on Piedmont avenue. Since he did not know their names, he reported that he had been unable to locate them. The telegram gave no details concerning the railway accident.

"PEACE COUNCIL" TOOL OF GERMANY

Federal Officials Assert Organization Was Financed by Rintelen, Who Sought to Cause Strikes. Tried to Corrupt Labor Leaders.

New York, December 7.—The alleged activities of labor's national peace council in stirring up strikes in war munition factories continued under investigation here today by the federal grand jury. The fact that the council is being investigated was announced by United States District Attorney Marshall, who said he had received information that the organization was financed with money furnished by Franz von Rintelen through David Lamar. Grand Jury's Probe. The grand jury's inquiries into the conduct of the peace council began last week after the arrival here of William F. Kramer, of Chicago, an official of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and formerly vice president of the council, and of C. Canode, of Chicago, printer who filled some printing contracts for the council. The evidence they gave has not been disclosed here. Mr. Marshall's statement was the first official notice concerning the alleged activities of Von Rintelen. Von Rintelen was indicted here last October on a charge of trying to forge a passport to assist his return to Germany. He is now in the custody of the British government awaiting extradition. Lamar, who is known as "the Wolf of Wall Street," is under sentence to serve a term in the Atlanta penitentiary for having impersonated a representative of Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, but is free on bail. The organization of labor's national peace council was announced in Washington last year. Its headquarters were in Chicago. Jacob C. Taylor, of East Orange, N. J., now president of the council, said after Mr. Marshall's statement became public that he welcomed a federal investigation of the council's activities and that it had been a factor in keeping the United States out of the war. It was reported today that the grand jury has subpoenaed the records of a bank in Washington in an effort to trace the expense accounts of the peace council which it said some times met in the Washington hotel. He Was Double-Crossed. United States Attorney Marshall declared today that Von Rintelen was "double-crossed" by the labor in the trial to corrupt and, despite the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars, failed to accomplish his mission. Mr. Marshall gave the major credit for Rintelen's failure to the stand taken by the labor officials. "Rintelen only succeeded in corrupting some subordinates," Mr. Marshall said, "and a few small strikes, none of his efforts was successful and all the strikes he did instigate were quickly killed by the good men at the head of the unions. I am not prepared to state just how much money Rintelen expended in his mission, but he expended thousands of dollars. He had $500,000 to his credit in one bank, and that David Lamar would not be called as a witness before the grand jury, as that might give him immunity from prosecution. Rintelen is held a prisoner by the British authorities in the Tower of London. No attempt will be made to extradite him. The arraignment of Robert Fay, Walter Scholz, Max Breitling, Dr. Herbert Kienzle and Paul Bronkhorst, who were indicted yesterday on a charge of conspiracy to commit murder in connection with plots to blow up munition ships, was today put over to Monday. The New York police are investigating the record of Anton F. Mente, an

Austro-Hungarian, arrested yesterday in whose laboratory they say they discovered a large quantity of chemicals used in the manufacture of high explosives. They are trying to discover whether Mente was implicated in placing bombs on board the steamship Kikkoswald which left here for Marseilles, France, in May. Unexploded bombs were found in the steamer's hold on her arrival in the French port. Mente was arraigned in police court today on charges of conspiracy to commit murder and for a further hearing Thursday. Mente was remanded to police headquarters pending a more complete investigation. In an affidavit submitted for the peace council by Mente, it was charged that a quantity of inflammable mixture in Mente's possession was intended to be used in the destruction of ships and munition plants. Mente asserted today he was merely a student of chemistry and had had no criminal intent in his experiments. Mente challenged the police to find anything irregular in his actions, and denied that he had received money from any foreign government. All his chemicals and apparatus, he said, were purchased in New York. Mente was found in his room he insisted he had made for his own use.

AUSTRIAN PRISONERS PROSPER IN RUSSIA

New York, December 7.—Thousands of Austrian prisoners in Russian hands in and near Yekaterinburg, Russia, center of the Ural mining region, are living as miserably as many not only have bank accounts, but are sending funds to Austria. J. A. McVicar, of Buffalo, N. Y., who for three years has represented an American diamond drill concern in Russia, made a manifestation today when he arrived on the liner Cameronia from Liverpool. Of eighteen cabin passengers on the Cameronia were a number of military and government service, mainly of technical education coming here to inspect or charter their own automobile expert. He estimated that the French and British were using 65,000 automobiles on the western front.

NO GERMAN WELCOME FOR FORD PEACE PARTY

Berlin, December 7.—(Via London.)—The German press treats the Ford peace mission with the most unkindly of American eccentricity. According to opinion here, the mission will have no effect in Russia, and the efforts in Germany or other belligerent countries, in view of the fact that the Germans of these countries are good only for neutral countries, making it impossible for the mission to operate at all. It is reported that the Ford party is being treated with the most unkindly of German eccentricity. WANTED TO BE JUDGE WHEN CASE WAS CALLED

There is one man who does not believe that the prohibition laws which will go into effect next year can be enforced. He is J. J. Clay, of 16 Kelly street, who came into prominence as a member of the party entering when he offered to bet Recorder Johnson that he would be fined for drinking beer. Clay was arrested by Detectives Cheving and Sturdivant. The judge fined him $175. He was charged with drunkenness on the streets.

SEEK MILLION IN GOLD TAKEN BY GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, December 7.—A request for restitution of $1,000,000 in gold shipped from New York on the Dutch liner Noordam to The Netherlands Overseas Trust and seized by a British cruiser in the North sea, was made to the British embassy today by a representative of Goldman, Sachs & Co., of New York. Great Britain holds the gold was contraband, alleging it was intended for use in paying German trade balances. The New York firm maintains it was shipped in the course of regular business with the Holland concern. Embassy officials said the incident would have to be taken through the American government. This will be done.
