

LEO FRANK'S FATE UP TO GOVERNOR; HEARING IS ENDED

Wednesday Consumed by Address of Ex-Congressman Howard, Solicitor Dorsey Making No Reply.

DECISION OF GOVERNOR EXPECTED BY SATURDAY

As Soon as Hearing Was Completed, Gov. Slaton Left for Country Home to Study the Records.

The Leo M. Frank hearing before Governor John M. Slaton ended with the conclusion of Attorney William Howard's speech yesterday afternoon at 4:19 o'clock.

Governor Slaton will probably render his decision Friday or Saturday. Just as soon as he could gather documentary evidence, records and other data bearing upon the case, he left for his country home on Peachtree road, where he announced he would spend the night in studying the case.

This line of procedure was announced by the governor the moment Mr. Howard ended his address. He was not out of his study of the case until he is prepared to render a decision. No intimations were given of his present opinion.

During the afternoon session Wednesday, a number of girls and young women put in an appearance for the first time. Owing to the crowded condition of the governor's private office, in which the hearing was held, they were forced to stand on the outskirts of the crowded doorways, standing upon soap boxes, chairs and stools.

Howard Reviews Case. There was a large attendance upon the famous Frank trial, overlooked by Attorney Howard. He undertook to show by the evidence of the defense that Conley, not Frank, was guilty. He based the bulk of his argument upon the testimony of Conley, himself. Mr. Howard manifested a keen insight into the records of the case and trial, and a phenomenally retentive memory of detail.

At the opening of the Wednesday afternoon session, Governor Slaton asked Mr. Howard if he would explain why Frank had held in advance the engagement to attend the baseball game on the Saturday of the Mary Phagan case, and why he had made the appointment.

"Certainly," responded the attorney. "It was in line with my argument." Begging his address, he said, in part: "It must be conceded, your excellency, that if the story of Jim Conley is not true in any part, no credence can be put upon it. And, in this connection, please consider the evidence which might contradict Conley. It is not that of the defense, but the evidence of the prosecution.

"It can't possibly be true that Mary Phagan was in the trial hall at the time of Monte Stover's appearance. (Here, the speaker cited the testimony of George Epps to the effect that Mary Phagan had left the trolley car at Broad and Marietta streets, two blocks distant, at 12:07 o'clock.)

Contrast to State. The Epps testimony was in direct contrast to what the state required. When Dorsey started to weave his net, he sought to make every thread of it to be sound and durable. But during the latter stages of the trial he put a witness upon the stand to contradict the statement of Epps, his own witness.

"It was your speech, Governor Dorsey (turning to the solicitor who sat nearby) that brought the verdict against you. You can't get away from that—there's no denying it.

"At the end of the trial, however, during the course of this great speech, Mr. Dorsey urged that, as testimony of the state, worthy and dependable to impeach the evidence of witnesses for the defense, Epps was used to refute the story of the street car employee who knew exactly as to the time of the hearing, and kept as perfectly posted on time as places were.

"This was one of the places where the state found itself facing the fact that it had failed to make its case—and began clutching at straws. It was on the theory of the state and on its evidence, I am willing to take the case made out by the state, even before the defense introduced a word—and acquit Frank. I am willing to take even this case. I am willing to take even this case. I am willing to take even this case.

"Here, the record is undisputed that Corintha Hall came and left between 11:32 and 11:45 o'clock on Saturday morning. With her was Miss Clark Freeman. That was their only visit to the factory that day. The fact is undisputed that Corintha Hall came into the factory office, he had already gone back into the metal room, passed over the bed, and had been Frank deposit it on the elevator, helped carry it to the door, the element of time was returned to Frank's office, chatted with Frank and smoked a cigarette.

"Dago Frank" Died In Electric Chair Although Innocent

Rabbi Goldstein, Sing Sing Chaplain, Tells New York Constitution Makers—Alleges Scores of Innocents Have Been Executed.

Albany, N. Y., June 16.—Rabbi Jacob Goldstein, a chaplain to Sing Sing prison, and the Tombs, New York city, asserted before the first of rights committee of the constitutional convention today that one of the four New York gunmen executed for the murder of Herman Rosenthal was his death an innocent man and that the district attorney's office has admitted as much in a communication to Governor Whitman. Mr. Goldstein would not name the gunman, but he is believed to have referred to "Dago Frank" Clorofici.

The rabbi appeared before the committee to urge a constitutional amendment abolishing the death penalty. "From my own experience," he said, "and from what I have learned, I know that scores of innocent men have died on the gallows and in the chair. I was present when a lad, whom I personally knew to be innocent, went to his death."

Asked if he referred to one of the four gunmen, he replied: "I do, and the innocence of this boy has been admitted in a communication sent from the district attorney's office to the governor."

CRAZED POLICEMAN FIGHTS WITH CHIEF

Man Put on Force Against Beavers' Wishes Charged With Being Drunk.

An Atlanta policeman, crazed by drink, it is claimed, went on a wild rampage last night in front of police station as a squad of county officers and Bellwood camp guards were rounding fifty-six convicts to quarter them there for the night, due to the destruction by fire of the convict camp.

Policeman J. P. Born rushed into the camp of convicts, attempting to pull one of them from the street car, according to Oscar Jones, assistant county superintendent, and drew his pistol on the frightened negro, it is charged.

When Chief Beavers was notified he immediately rushed out, seized Officer Born and forced him into police barracks. Chief Beavers then disarmed Born, taking his gun and other accessories and his police badge.

Born began to resist Chief Beavers, insisting that he was going to his wife and baby. Assistant Chief of Police E. L. Lett and other officers quickly rushed to Beavers' aid, and then a terrific struggle ensued between the policeman and his superior officers.

Policeman Born was overpowered and locked in a cell, where he began to break out glass windows with his fist, the broken glass gashing his hands. It became necessary for Chief Beavers to have Born jailed in a dark cell, where he could do no injury to himself.

Born is one of the officers who was recently made a member of the police force by the police board against the wishes of Chief Beavers. Beavers refused to endorse Born, but the board, excluding the chief of police from its meeting and in executive session put the force with two other policemen.

A case of disorderly conduct and drunkenness allegedly against Born Beavers has suspended him from the force pending a trial by the police board.

AUTO STRIKES HOG; ONE MAN KILLED, ANOTHER WILL DIE

Birmingham, Ala., June 16.—James Collins, Jr., merchant of Celera, was fatally injured tonight, one mile south of Pelham, Ala., when their automobile struck a big hog in the road and turned over, plunging them underneath.

It's the Plugger Who Wins. Nine cases out of ten it is the man who is on the job early and late, keeping everlastingly at it, who wins. It is doubly so in advertising.

Constitution advertising brings the highest percentage of returns because it reaches the people who have money to spend and spend it for dependable merchandise.

FIRE PLAYS HAVOC AT CONVICT CAMP

Main Building at Bellwood Avenue Destroyed When It Is Struck by a Bolt of Lightning.

Struck by a bolt of lightning, the Bellwood avenue convict camp was set on fire last evening about 6:30 o'clock and in a short while the main building was burned to the ground.

In the building at the time were 237 convicts, all negroes with the exception of five white trustees. None of the negroes are believed to have escaped, but it will require a check this morning before it is known exactly how many are missing.

None of the convicts was injured, all getting out of the building before the flames had spread. Building 30 Years Old. The building was built in 1885 and was located in Bellwood near Ashby street. It cost about $3,000 and was a large frame structure with a shingle roof. It was fully insured.

Within 50 feet of the main building was the stable, in which were 117 mules. It was unfortunately the wind blowing so to keep the flames from the stable, otherwise it might have burned and all the stock lost.

The convicts had just sat down to supper after a hard day's work and they were hungry. A storm was brewing and suddenly there was a flash of lightning and a crash of thunder and the roof of the building was in flames.

The convicts and guards sprang to their feet. Three convicts, who were near the door, saw hopes of liberty in that flash of lightning, and they made a dash and got away. Others tried to follow, but were stopped by the guards.

Panic in Averted. It required coolness and courage to prevent a panic. The men were marched out of the burning building into an old field, where they were made to stand in a circle so they could be fastened together by a long chain. They seemed to be too tired and hungry to offer resistance.

The blaze as the large wooden structure burned made light, which was seen nearly over the city. Crowds flocked to the scene and about fifty autos carried city and county officials to the scene. In a short while the fire department was on hand headed by Chief Cummings, but it could do no good. The city police, the county police and members of the board of county commissioners were on hand, all helping the guards to take care of the convicts.

Commissioner Terman, Winn and Mills took matters in hand and directed that the convicts be sent to the county jail and the police station for the night. It was necessary to give them a hot supper before they went to sleep and that took quite a while.

Chained together and marching two abreast, the convicts were taken to the river car line, where they were placed on special trolley cars that had been ordered by the city. There was no disorder in the city, looking like a lot of frightened sheep as they huddled together in the field and stepped forward to have their legs chained together.

George Jones, the superintendent of the camp, furnished a brief report of the fire. Chairman Terman, of the county board, A full report will be made today.

Commissioner Winn stated that the convicts will be temporarily divided until the other camps in the county until a new building can be erected at the Bellwood camp. The new building, he said, will be of concrete.

Try Escape Through Sewer. Mose Bradley, of Bellwood camp, who was sentenced for shooting a policeman, attempted to escape from the camp last night by crawling into a sewer that led underneath the railroad tracks.

Bradley and another negro slipped into the sewer, but shortly afterwards were captured by Assistant County Superintendent Oscar Jones, who took the negroes through the sewer with a couple of guards, and captured them.

TWO POLICEMEN STOP FLIRTATION AND ARREST GIRL

Policemen Cason and Eber were eyewitnesses of a long flirtation last night, the officers watching from the roof of a private residence at No. 139 Ivy street. A young girl was making love, it is said, to his sweetheart in an adjoining house in an open window. Neighbors objected to the amorous love-making of the young couple and called the police.

After being satisfied that the kick of the neighbors was well grounded, the policemen attempted to arrest the young couple. The youth escaped through a rear door, but Miss Case, Philipp, of 51 West Cain street, was called to police station, where a case of disorderly conduct was docketed.

200 GERMAN'S DIE BY BOMBS DROPPED FROM AEROPLANES

Damage Done at Karlsruhe by the French Air Raid Much Greater Than Newspapers Were Allowed to State.

ZEPPELINS RETALIATE BY RAIDING ENGLAND

Sixteen Persons Killed and Forty Injured—Zeppelin Raid on Night of June 6 Resulted in 24 Deaths, Women and Children Killed.

London, June 17.—(3:56 a. m.)—A Rotterdam dispatch to The Exchange Telegraph reports that damage done at Karlsruhe by the French air raid was much greater than the newspapers were allowed to state.

"Two hundred persons were killed," says the correspondent. "Fifty bombs were dropped, one of them almost destroying a ducal palace used as headquarters of the Karlsruhe commandant. Other destroyed shell factories. A great panic was caused and the victims will be buried secretly at night.

"The people are ignorant of the utter failure of the anti-aircraft measures and they complain that no signals of the approach of the French aviators were given."

A French statement yesterday said the attack on Karlsruhe was made by 23 aeroplanes which dropped 130 projectiles causing many fires. It was stated a serious panic was observed at the railroad station.

Beilin, June 16.—(Via London)—Chief editor of the Aeroplane Zeitung, commenting on the Zeppelin attack, terms it a "nefarious and senseless act" for which "unscrupulous retaliation is demanded."

The Zeppelins Germany hitherto has retaliated for the bombardment of defenseless unfortified cities only by the bombardment of military localities, but that an example now should be made, Herr Becker suggests, that the best step would be a bombardment of the western portion of London. He thinks the retaliatory measures should be extended also to other departments of war.

Geneva, Switzerland, June 16.—Travelers arriving today from Karlsruhe said two French aviators were killed and two captured during the air raid yesterday. Two bombs, they said, struck the palace, destroying one wing and damaging the other. The arms factory, railway station, railway tracks and bridges also were damaged.

The travelers said that they left the railway station several houses in that vicinity were in flames. HEAVY DEATH TOLL FOR THE ZEPPELINS. London, June 16.—Zeppelins raided the northeast coast of England last night and as a result of their bombs, 16 persons are dead and 49 injured.

It is also officially announced that the Zeppelins on the night of June 6 were 24 persons killed and 49 injured. Thirteen women and six children were among the victims.

"Further inquiries show that casualties in connection with the visit of a Zeppelin to the northeast coast Tuesday night amounted to 16 killed and 49 injured.

The principal fires were in drapery establishments, lumber yard and a terrace of small houses. The latest Zeppelin raid on England has caused the most serious calamity since the war. It is estimated that at one time more than five Zeppelins of the latest type were over the English coast.

An air attack by one side has been followed so closely by a counter attack that retaliation is strongly indicated. Yesterday 23 aeroplanes raided the northeast coast of England. The raid on England mentioned in the foregoing dispatch followed this onslaught within 24 hours.

CALVIN DEMAREST CUTS HIS WIFE AND MOTHER

Former Billiard Champion Then Slashes Own Throat. Wife May Die.

Chicago, June 16.—Calvin Demarest, former national amateur billiard champion, attacked his wife with a pocketknife today and then slashed his own throat. His mother, who attempted to restrain him, was cut in the hand. Husband and wife were taken to a hospital. Their condition appeared to the ambulance police to be serious.

At the hospital Mrs. Demarest's wound was said to be serious. The 2-inch blade of a pocketknife entered her throat in several places. Demarest was not seriously hurt and was removed to the infirmary of the house of correction.

The doctor's wound was dressed at the hospital. She said Calvin had been on the verge of a nervous breakdown for some time and had hallucinations concerning his wife, one of them being that she was poisoning him. Neighbors, attracted by the screams of the two women, subdued the billiardist and summoned the police.

BRYAN BECAME PEEVED WHEN HE WAS IGNORED

Bernstorff's Special Messenger to Kaiser Throws Light on Nebraska's Resignation.

London, June 16.—A peaceful settlement of the questions which have arisen between the United States and Germany is being sought by Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, who is on his way from the German embassy in Washington to explain the situation to the German government.

Dr. Meyer-Gerhard is Dr. Meyer-Gerhard in the Frankfurt Zeitung forwarded from Amsterdam by a Reuter correspondent was obtained yesterday at Christiania, Norway, when the statesman and Dr. Meyer-Gerhard was a passenger touched there.

The conflicting views existing between Berlin and Washington regarding the Lusitania affair rest on a misunderstanding which has settled peacefully, he is quoted as saying. "The conflict between President Wilson and Secretary Bryan is of old origin and arose from quite different causes than the Lusitania affair."

The breach was rendered inevitable by the action of Secretary Bryan, president who rejected the counsel of his responsible minister and drafted the note against the German ambassador according to his own ideas. President Wilson framed his reply to the note on the basis of Bryan's letter and other recourse to request that he be released from office.

The tension between the two states therefore be regarded as entirely a domestic affair. The feeling of the United States against Germany towards Germany is not at all bellicose, on the contrary there prevails an absolute desire for peace.

Washington, June 16.—Secretary Lansing received word late today from sources which he regarded as reliable that the man who sailed for Germany with a safe conduct carrying messages to the Kaiser was Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard.

"Doubt had been cast on the identity of the envoy by published reports that the safe conduct in Dr. Gerhardt's name was in reality obtained for Dr. Alfred Meyer, chief of the supply department of the German army, and to have been having supplies in the United States. Another story was to the effect that Dr. Meyer accompanied Gerhardt."

State department officials today expressed much curiosity over the reports, but instituted no formal investigation. While the state department would examine any evidence brought to it, nothing thus far indicates it was said officially that there is any foundation for a charge of treachery.

AUSTRO-GERMAN DRIVE AGAINST THE RUSSIANS STILL MAKING HEADWAY

Czar's Forces Are Being Driven in Galicia, and the Indications Point to the Early Fall of Lemberg. Both Berlin and Vienna Report That Thousands of Russians Have Been Captured and Also Many Guns.

London, June 16.—For the first time in weeks there has been heavy fighting over a comparatively extensive line of the British front in Belgium and France. Berlin describes it as an Anglo-French movement synchronizing with Russian reverses in Galicia and planned to relieve the pressure on the Russians.

At two points on their line the British have resumed an active offensive. A line of German trenches at Festubert, France, was occupied, but soon lost, through the violence of the German counter attack. Belgium, the British were successful in capturing more than half a mile of trenches, including the whole of the first line and parts of the second line, and these they are holding.

The German war office admits the capture of positions by the British near Ypres, but asserts that in the fighting around Postubert the British were repelled and that they sustained heavy losses in men and left several machine guns and bomb-throwers behind after their assault.

The French are gaining ground in the region of Aras and in the Vosges on both banks of the Peche river, where several hundred prisoners, together with a large quantity of rifles and cartridges were taken.

Russian agents have heavily bombed and shelled the French report that about a dozen shells fell on the famous cathedral. German aeroplanes have dropped bombs on Nancy, St. Die and Belfort.

RUSSIANS LOSE TO TEUTONS. The capture of 122,300 Russians and a great number of guns from June 1 to June 15 is reported by the Austrian war office, while Berlin's report gives the German General von Mackensen credit for the capture of 46,000 since June 12. Whether the latter are included in the Austrian official estimate is not made clear.

Military observers at Postubert express the belief that 2,800,000 Germans and Austrians are operating against the Russians in the east. Each day adds to the extent of territory the Austro-Germans have regained from Russia's invading armies and they are still pressing their campaign against Lemberg. The Austro-German advance continues to swing forward with the exception of the section between the Dniester marshes and Zbarawa, where the Russians are holding the bridge-heads, are making some headway.

General von Mackensen, according to Hapsburg news, has given a fortnight in which the capture of Lemberg, and it would seem that, at the rate his and co-ordinate forces are going forward, this time limit will be attained. The Russians are unable to initiate a stiffer resistance than they are showing now.

GERMANS DRIVEN BY THE BRITISH. London, June 16.—Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British forces in France, reports that the British troops captured and then lost a line of German trenches at Festubert, but that the British have occupied the German positions to the north of Hooze for a distance of 1,000 yards. The report says: "Last week there was no change in the situation. The enemy exploded five mines on different parts of our front, but none of these caused any damage to our trenches and only one caused any casualties. Yesterday evening we captured the German front line trenches east of Estubert on a mile front, but failed to hold them during the night against stronger counter attacks. Early this morning we successfully attacked the enemy's position north of Hooze (to the east of Ypres). We occupied the whole of this first line of trenches on a front of 1,000 yards and also parts of his second line. By noon today 107 prisoners had passed to our rear. The German counter attack has been repulsed with heavy losses. TEUTONIC ALLIES PUSH RUSSIANS. Berlin June 16—(Via London)—Special dispatches from the Austrian headquarters report that the Teutonic allies are pushing the Russians vigorously from the San river to the Besarabia frontier. The latest operations are said to have resulted in bringing General Mackensen's forces in contact with General Linington and General Pflanser. Heavy fighting is proceeding along the whole line in Galicia, but the maximum apparently has not yet been reached. The Russians are bringing all their available forces consisting of fresh recruits to resist the advance of the German allies. GERMANS ADMIT GAIN BY BRITISH. Berlin June 16—(Via London)—The German army headquarters today gave out the following statement: "In the western theater in consequence of the Russian defeat the English and French again attacked many points on the western frontier with strong forces. The English succeeded in forcing back to some extent our positions near Ypres to the north of Bellewaerde where the battle continued. Two attacks made by four English divisions between the Estalre La Basse road and the La Basse canal failed. Our Westphalian troops and divisions of the guard completely repulsed the assaults after desperate hand-to-hand fighting. The enemy sustained heavy losses and left several machine guns and bomb throwers in our hands. Since his defeat of June 13 and 14

the enemy has made no further ventures against the strong positions near Lorette held by Baden troops. Near Moulins-Toutvent fighting continues. "An attempt made by the enemy to break through our line in the Voeges between the Forest and Lauch valleys failed. Fighting continued only to the northwest of Metteral and Hilsenfirst. Otherwise all the attacks were repulsed. "In the eastern theater Russian attacks against the German positions southeast of Mariampol, east of Augustowo and north of Bolkow, were all repulsed. Our attacks along the Lipow-Karvany front gained further ground, several positions being recaptured. We made 2,040 Russian prisoners and captured three machine guns. On the north of the upper Vistula our troops repulsed an attack on our positions we took from the Russians on Monday. "The defeated Russian armies attempted on Tuesday along the whole front between the River of Steniawa and the Diester marshes to bring the Teutonic allies to a standstill. In the evening the Russians everywhere have been driven from their positions near Gieslow, near Gieslowa in the Lubyszow-Budawodka sector, southwest of Niemerow and west of badowa-Wiszniowa. The enemy is being pursued. "General Mackensen's army has captured upwards of 40,000 men and 69 machine guns since June 12. Between the Diester marshes and Zuzimow the Russian attack on some ground, but the general situation there has not changed. GROUND YIELDED BY RUSSIANS. Petrograd June 16—The following official statement was issued last night: "Lighting continues in the Shavil district without substantially modifying the situation. "During Monday night the enemy delivered a futile attack in the direction of Sasinica and Baki, as well as several isolated attacks in the district north of Przaanys, all of which were successfully repulsed. "The German divisions made good their losses by bringing up fresh troops not before seen on this front. The Russian divisions on the right bank of the San supported by a strong artillery and machine gun force were fighting we yielded some ground to the enemy on the right banks of the Lubyszow and the Wiszniwa, a tributary of the San. "On the Diester on Sunday we delivered a counter attack and captured the left banks of the Tismentaw and the Styr rivers. Here we made 1,200 prisoners including 23 officers and captured seven machine guns. "The same day the Germans attacked the bridgeheads in the south of the bridgeheads of Jidatseff, taking the village of Rokouhano. "At dawn of the day following we delivered a counter attack and recaptured the villages of Rokouhano and Jouravkoff. We secured also a gun with its equipment and several artillery men. In this engagement the Germans hoisted a white flag and the fighting immediately ceased. "Between the Diester and the Pruth in the region of Czernowit we have withdrawn beyond our frontier."

BRITISH TAKE GERMAN TRENCHES. Paris June 16—The French war office this afternoon issued this statement: "There is nothing of importance to report from the remainder of the front. A German attack was repulsed at a point near Noyor Sur Quere, to the northeast of La Fertemillon. The aviators made prisoners. GREAT BOOTY FOR TEUTONS. Vienna, June 16—(Via London)—The official communication was issued today: "In Galicia the Russians, despite their obstinate resistance, could not withstand the general attack by the allied armies. Hotly pursued by our victorious troops the Russian corps are retreating across Newkiew Lubaczow and Jawow. "South of the Lemberg railroad the army of General Boehm Ermolli today night stormed the German positions of the entire front driving the enemy across Sadowa Wiszniwa and Kuzow. "South of the Diester the fighting is proceeding before the bridge head the troops of General Pflanser yesterday captured Nisnow. "From June 1 to June 17 our total war booty has been 108 officers and 122,300 men, 100 machine guns and 78 munition wagons. "The Italians have attempted new isolated attacks but these were repulsed notably on the Isonzo near Monfalcone Sagrado and Playa on the northern bank of the Piave and in the Tyrolean frontier district near Poutelstein. GAINS CLAIMED BY THE FRENCH. Paris June 16—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight: "To the north of Ypres the British troops have occupied a line of German trenches. Gains made west of La Basse have not been maintained. "In the sector to the north of Arras we have secured ground at divers points, notably to the east of Lorette, to the southwest and south of Souchez and in the labyrinth. We took 200 prisoners and several machine guns. "South of Arras the Germans violently bombarded the positions which they held in the town of Rethel. The enemy has been driven about a hundred shells, several of the incendiary type and a dozen of the projectiles fell on the cathedral. "In the Voeges we have realized important progress on the two banks of the upper Meuse. On the north we have taken possession of Braun-Kop. The enemy left in our hands 400 prisoners and a large quantity of material, comprising a number of rifles and 200,000 cartridges. "Yesterday several bombs were dropped on Nancy St Die and Belfort by German aeroplanes operating singly. At Nancy only several civilians suffered by the attack. "A German airship was compelled to come to land within our lines at a point near Noyor Sur Quere, to the northeast of La Fertemillon. The aviators were made prisoners. BELGIANS DRIVE AT GERMANS. Have June 16—The Belgian war office tonight issued this statement: "During the night we pushed forward a reconnaissance as far as the country house situated at the 13th mile stone on the road to the Women road. This reconnaissance obtained a footing on the western fringe of the German positions, the house in trenches which the enemy had capitulatedly abandoned leaving his dead hand to the Belgians. "There have been violent bombardments at Ramscapelle, Berysse, Noord-schoote and Reninghe and environs."

NEBRASKAN TORPEDOED, DECLARE THE EXPERTS. Washington, June 16—Ambassador Page, at London, has forwarded a complete report of navy experts who examined the American steamship Nebraska, fragments of metal found in the ship which are said to strengthen the theory that the ship was torpedoed and did not strike a mine. State department officials said today that portions of the report which is coming by mail, might be made public.

SUBMARINE SINKS SHIP AND 22 PERSONS DROWN. Strathmair Is Destroyed Off Scilly Islands—Submarine Refused to Aid Drowning Men. London June 16—The British steamer Strathmair was torpedoed today off the Scilly Islands and sank. Twenty-two members of the crew, including the captain, were drowned. The crew was composed of nine Englishmen and twenty-four Chinamen and of these only nine Englishmen and ten of the Chinese were saved. These were landed at Millfordhaven. The torpedo struck the steamer amidship and blew up one of her boilers. Four of the ship's boats were hastily launched, but two capsized, while another was smashed against the steamer's side. The other boat with the eleven survivors was picked up later and the men taken to Millfordhaven. The survivors say that after the Strathmair was torpedoed the periscope of a submarine was seen clearly but that the underwater boat made no attempt to rescue the drowning men. The Strathmair which was a vessel of 4,336 tons was bound from Cardiff for Archaengel with coal. Building for the Future. COMMUNITIES served by the Bell system are always growing up to their telephone equipment. Exchanges, switchboards and substans are built not only to care for the present needs of each community, but are so planned as to be readily and economically adapted to necessary extensions and developments for twenty years ahead. Construction plans are based on careful studies of each locality by men especially trained in estimating possibilities in growth of population as well as commercial and industrial expansion. The work done here carries out this principle. The building contains room for larger switchboards and central office equipment. The cables contain more wires than are needed at present. As the city grows these facilities will be needed. They will be ready for instant use and will keep the Bell telephone system always ahead of this rapidly growing city. T. R. GENTRY, Mgr. BIG STRIKE ENDED BY CHICAGO MAYOR

Locked Labor Leaders and Traction Officials in Office and Forced Them to Agree to Arbitrate.

Chicago, June 16.—Normal service on Chicago elevated and surface car lines was resumed today as the result of an agreement reached after an all night session of railway and labor representatives and a council committee, headed by Mayor Thompson, had agreed on arbitration. The home-bound thousands tonight were transported without delay. The elevated lines ran cars soon after the announcement that there had been an agreement to arbitrate, but it was several hours before anything like a normal schedule was in operation. On the surface lines the first cars to appear downtown reached the loop about 11 o'clock. They were enthusiastically cheered. At the rush hours of the evening the surface lines were in full operation. The formal agreements between the companies and the unions to arbitrate differences was not signed until noon, although the order had gone out to the 14,000 employees to return to work several hours before. Mayor Thompson was credited with bringing about the agreement to arbitrate, and he was chosen by both sides as the neutral arbitrator. The one representing the men and the companies will be chosen before Saturday, when the first meeting of the three arbiters is to be held. In working out the arbitration agreement it was agreed that as to wages there should be no arbitration downward, and that "trimmers," men who work only during the rush hours of traffic, would be eliminated. Every point of difference between the men and the employers is to be decided by the arbiters. Threatened break-ups were prevented after labor leaders and traction officials both announced they could reach no agreement, when Mayor Thompson invited the conferees to take off their coats. The mayor then locked the doors of his offices, and told the conferees he would keep them there until a solution was reached.

LEO FRANK'S FATE UP TO GOVERNOR

contradict the word of Misses Hall and Freeman, do you think that this capable, this astute, discerning, usually reliable attorney, E. C. Ponder, with all the state's resources at his command, and a corps of assistants at hand, would have failed to do so? "I assure your intelligence to dwell any further upon this diabolical word-robe party." At this point the speaker took up the explanation of Frank's failure to keep the baseball game. "One week," he asserted, "Frank had to make up his financial statement—or, in other words, his weekly statement. But, in order to do it, he must have data from the superintendent of the pencil factory—the cedarwood plant, the silt mill and the assembling plant. "His appointment for the ball game was made with his brother-in-law, Charles Ernsbach. But, when Frank got to his office that morning, he discovered that Herbert Schiff, a subordinate clerk, had not prepared the necessary data for the financial sheet, having overlooked himself. Frank, therefore, having to do the work of accumulated data from all three departments, could not possibly do the engagement, and called Ernsbach over by telephone to cancel it. (Mr. Howard picked up a copy of the financial sheet, an exhibit at the original trial.) This is the thing Frank did on the day of the murder, and the thing he was engaged in doing at the time he is accused of having committed murder. "They say he was nervous—that the detectives took upon him and left the sort of crime he had committed. Here (again showing the financial sheet) this is the thing Frank does it look like the handiwork of a murderer, performed at the time a murder was done? "These things speak for themselves."

McKnight Testimony.

"I now apply to a different angle in the case. The solicitor fought throughout the trial to uphold the story of Albert McKnight, the negro, and the record stands that 1.30 o'clock Frank came home his midday meal, where he was seen by the negro McKnight. "And yet, one of the only hours fixed by Jim Conley is 1.30 o'clock, at which time he swears Leo Frank left the factory en route home for lunch. Here again are we vindicated by the evidence furnished by the state. "Governor Slaton interrupted the speaker to ask if he could account for McKnight's motive in fabricating, in event his story was a fabrication Mr. Howard replied: "Motives, your excellency, are too subtle for instant comprehension. I understand then you must know the individual character with which you are dealing. Believe, however, that it was largely a question of the reward, which question actuated a bulk of the perjury in this case. "Refering to the many persons who had testified to Frank's good character, McKnight said: "It doesn't advance my case, but my Lord! I am not afraid of it. "These things speak for themselves. Compels me to say that on both sides there was much written that will not bear the glare of publicity. "Prior to concluding his argument, Mr. Howard reviewed the names and addresses of the many persons who had testified to Frank's good character. During which he was asked by Governor Slaton what other witnesses had testified to Frank's perversion besides Conley. He directed the question to Mr. Dorney as well as to the counsel for the state. "We weren't permitted, under law," answered Mr. Dorney, "to put the testimony of Frank's perversion before the jury, due to the refusal of the defense to cross-examine our character witnesses." "Wouldn't Get Indictment." "Here's a man against whom not a shadow of suspicion has been cast by Conley and the state," replied Mr. Howard. "Just change the name of Leo Frank, and you have the spirit of the state, strike out the spirit of feeling and present these facts as they have been established, and you won't get even an indictment." "The closing words of the attorney's speech were: "In behalf of Leo Frank, in behalf of his kindred and his friends, we, as profoundest thanks for the patience with which you have heard this plea in Georgia, believe that, in justice, you have listened to what we have had to present, in behalf of the people of this state, and in behalf of the state, and in fairness, right can be established and entrenched over wrong—we have both health and life, will stand by performing his will in this, the crisis of this man's life, in your excellency's person. You have been to us, in the name of God, the only hope of the state, as the guidance, we believe, of Divine Providence. You have been to us, in the name of God, the only pillar of fire by night. And now, as we have come into the very shadow of the Georgia Constitution, we will stand by his help—working through a clear and tutored mind and with a strong and unshakable faith in the upholding of the dignity of the laws of this great state, in justice, in honor, and in the name of God, here lies our hope. I thank you."

Argument on Blood Spots.

"One of the most impressive phases of the attorney's argument was his argument upon the blood spots and hair discovered upon the second floor of the factory. He brought out the primary facts to support Conley's story. "First, the finding of the strands of hair on the lathe in the second room, the discover of blood on the second floor, where the state contends the murder was committed. "But these facts must be substantiated beyond the shadow of a doubt. There must be a question as to regarding them justice, fairness and the voice of God demand it. If the blood of Frank is on the lathe, it must be because of the blood of Mary Phagan—and none but her blood. "The attorney then stated that the hair found on the lathe looked like Mary Phagan's hair. But she could not identify it positively. There was a difference of opinion among the employees. Some thought it was her hair. "Right now, I couldn't describe the color of your excellency's hair. Only experts can determine such things. Dr. Harris is an expert in whom you have the utmost confidence, informed and admitted to the solicitor that he was not certain it was the hair of Mary Phagan. "Barrett's Discovery. "And the blood spot, the first place, they were found by Barrett, the man termed by my predecessors as 'Christy the Colubine,' because of his predilection for exploring Barrett was accused of having been on the alert for the reward he was on a cruise of discovery, and his mind was on the spot of gold. But let us see what Dr. Clark of Smith, the forensic pathologist, says of the spots he found. "Four, five or six corpuscles were in the field of his microscope. If the rest of the blood spot totalled as much as that it must have been at least a half drop or a drop at most. It was impossible to tell how old the blood was. This is a scientific impossibility. "Science refutes Barrett, common sense refutes him. Would you take our blood for the aniline dye with which he manufactured blood? "Refering to the aniline dye upon the murdered girl's head, Mr. Howard declared his belief that it had been struck after she was dragged to the body from the metal room to the basement. And no one has ever been able to identify the tickings. "Conley's Invention. "I am firmly convinced," he declared, "that the 'bedlicking' was an invention of Conley. He tried to make it a crocus sack, but, after he had explained that he had tied the body in the fashion of the weekly laundry, he perceived that it would not do, and was forced to adopt something larger than a small crocus sack. "And right here, let me say something else in connection with that trip into the basement. It is a well-known fact in a habit of carrying their handkerchiefs in their handbags. They selected them from the trunk, and they took that Mary Phagan's handkerchief, soiled and bloody, was found beside her head to evidence that Conley threw it from the bag, taking the bag for his own personal use."

PROTEST TO BRITAIN URGED BY CRUSHERS

Interference With American Commerce Deplored—E. C. Ponder Is Elected President of Association.

Tybee Hotel, Tybee, Ga., June 16.—(Special)—Strong resolutions protesting against the alleged practice of England in stopping shipping between this country and neutral countries were adopted today by the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia and other countries demanding that neutral shipping be respected. "The convention closed its most successful meeting with the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: E. C. Ponder, Rutledge, Ga., president; Henry C. Brown, Augusta, Ga., vice president; and E. P. Oliver, secretary-treasurer, Atlanta, Ga. Retiring President McCarty, was presented with a solid silver water glass as the gift of the association, the speech of presentation being made by Henry E. Watkins, of Atlanta, to which President McCarty replied most feelingly. "C. L. Law, official chemist of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia, delivered an address, the only speech he made, before the association on "Relation of the Chemist to the Cotton Seed Products Industry." He stated that the purchasing of cotton seed is handled in the crudest manner of any raw material

Acute Articular Rheumatism

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. B. Schellase expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners who say that Anti-Rheumatic Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets are also unsurpassed in headaches, neuritis and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

FIERY RED SKIN ON CHILD'S FACE

Came on Limbs, Pimples Under Skin, Clothing Irritated, Itched and Burned, Restless at Night, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, In a Month Face Normal.

R. F. D. No. 2, Mooreville, N. C.—"My little boy's affection began with dry red skin on his face. Later it came on his limbs. There were small pimples under the skin. It was itched and burned at times worse than others. His clothing irritated it very much. The breaking out on his face looked very badly; it looked as if it would bleed. It seemed to itch and burn when rubbed. He was restless at night.

"He had the affection for four months or more before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. First I tried a sample of each and before I had the sample used a marked improvement could be seen. I then bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and in a month his face was normal again without any scars." (Signed) T. S. Deaton, Oct. 1, 1914.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First, weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think about you, but the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And, best of all, the new flesh stays put. Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you eat into rich, fine fat-producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste, and does it quickly, and makes the fat-producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now, develop into pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and economical. Jacob's Pharmacy and other leading druggists in Atlanta and vicinity sell it in large bottles of 100 tablets in a package—a guarantee of weight increase or money back.—(adv.)

EIGHTH WONDER OF STATE OF TEXAS

It is a Natural Deposit of Volcanic Origin and May Be Used by Entire World.

Attention of scientists has been attracted to strange chemical-mineral earth stratum found at an isolated spot in Texas. This stratum is classed as the eighth wonder of the state. It is reached through an opening in a huge mound in the flat coast country. The stratum appears to come straight up from the interior of the earth. It is rich in medicinal properties and it suspends a force which chemists have been unable to positively classify. The same, or a similar force, is faintly traceable in the waters of Carlsbad, Bohemia and Hot Springs, Ark. It is claimed that this gives them their curative value.
