

EDUCATION BOARD EVENLY DIVIDED ON CO-EDUCATION As Result of Tie Vote Plan Is Likely to Be Tried Soon in the Atlanta School System.

OBJECTION IS VOICED BY WOMEN TEACHERS

Miss Muse and Mrs. Wise Oppose Co-education in Case of Commercial High and Boys' Business Course.

The board of education got into a deadlock yesterday afternoon over the question of co-education. While no direct vote was taken on the question, a motion to build an annex to the Crew Street school for the Girls' Commercial High school was lost by a tie vote, and the champions of co-education claimed a victory and proceeded to carry out plans for a co-education school building.

"Girls Might Fall in Love."

An interesting feature of the meeting were statements made by Mrs. A. T. Wise, principal of the Commercial High school, and Miss Jessie Muse, principal of the Girls' Commercial High school, against co-education. They said that it would be wrong, even disastrous to place girls between the ages of 14 and 18 in the same classes with young men.

Time Something Was Done. Mayor Woodward said that it was time that the board of education was looking after the interests of the schools without regard to what some people might think.

"They Would Fall in Love."

"You mean that they would fall in love with the boys?" asked James L. Key. "Oh, I am certain that they would do that," replied Miss Muse.

"I know that co-education under the conditions that now present themselves," he said, "is a wrong. Maybe it is a large campus and a splendid school building, co-education might work well. I believe in progress, but not in radicalism."

When a vote was taken on a motion by Mr. Armistead to build the Crew street annex, it stood as follows: Ayes: Terrell, Green, Kern, Armistead, Chambers, Morgan, etc. Noes: Mayor Woodward, President Quinn, Key, Plezco, Chambers, Hatch.

25 Cents Per Quart For Flies Is Price Health Board Fixes

Atlanta Hires Official Fly Swatter Who Will Supply the Ant Bear at the Grant Park Zoo.

Atlanta has an official fly-swatter! The city board of health had to go all the way to Douglas, Ariz., to secure the services of C. W. Curry to fill this position. He solved the question of salary by fixing his compensation at 25 cents per quart and writing a proviso into his contract of "No fly, no pay."

Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city health officer, was directed to report on the number of flies to the quart, that the board might not make an erratic step and pay too high for the insect report. On Friday that he had been unable to capture a quart of them, but estimated 2,500 to the quart.

It was reported to the board that the city of St. Louis, Mo., pays ten cents for each thousand children bringing in flies to the health officers, which would be ten times more expensive than catching them in Atlanta.

Scientific methods are used by Mr. Curry in catching flies according to the experience he has had with Atlanta officials. Some members of the board were at first of the opinion that Curry might employ assistants to incubate flies for his use and thereby increase the fly population of the city, but they agreed to put Curry on trial and see what results he produced.

Councilman Claude Ashley told the board that Park Manager J. O. Cochran had found it difficult to obtain provisions for the ant bear at the Grant park zoo, and he offered as a substitute the problem of how to dispose of the captive flies, that they be turned over to Mr. Cochran. The board agreed to the Ashley suggestion.

Secretary Thornton was directed by the board to notify Mr. Curry of his election and to authorize him to come to Atlanta at once and begin his work.

MIDSHIPMEN USED WHITE TROUSERS TO COPY "EXAMS"

Annapolis, Md., June 18.—Two Naval academy midshipmen admitted today that under certain conditions they would use stolen examination papers for their own advantage.

Daniel S. Appleton, of the former third class, questioned by Judge Advocate Watt, said he thought that half of his class would be parties to receiving and using stolen information.

Ralph Wyman disagreed with his classmate as to half the class in the examination papers were printed on a mimeograph machine on the premises of the academy.

Suspicion that midshipmen may have come to purchase copies of examination questions from a Naval academy employee, was hinted at in questions put by the judge advocate.

DECISION ON FRANK EXPECTED MONDAY

No Reprieve Will Be Given Prisoner on Account of Nearness of Execution Date, However, Says Governor.

Governor John M. Slaton will deliver no decision in the Leo Frank case until either Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning on the eve of the date set for execution.

This delay is caused by the immense volume of evidence with which the governor will have to familiarize himself before he decides what to do. Slaton's action, however, will be deferred no longer than Tuesday. There will be no respite for Frank, it was stated definitely last night.

Friday afternoon the governor and his secretary, Jesse Perry, revisited the pencil factory the scene of the Mary Phagan murder, where they spent considerable time examining the second floor on which the prosecution alleges the crime was committed, and the basement, where the defense contends the negro slew the girl.

Primarily the trip to the factory building was made to test the elevator on which Conley swore he and Frank brought the body to the basement from the second floor. The governor wished to satisfy his mind whether the elevator was adjustable in speed or descended to the bottom of the shaft precipitately.

As he read he jotted notes. Occasionally he would call to his secretary to bring out portions of evidence which had been called to mind by certain portions of the report.

Asked when he expected to render a decision, he declared that it would not be earlier than Monday afternoon and later than Tuesday morning.

Frank is cheerful. "No," he replied. "The judgment of the court should cause the prisoner to prepare for death. He never made a decision in advance, he has had ample time to make preparation."

At no time since the series of latter day setbacks from the varied courts has Frank had so much cheer radiated from the cell of Leo, who came from the Tower, where an air of assurance has replaced the former tension of suspense and apprehension.

Throughout most of Friday morning he received visitors, friends of long standing, who were familiar coming to his cell. At noon and all during the day he was visited by a messenger in one of the academic departments, wearing white trousers, sat on a mimeograph machine on the premises of the academy.

Attaches of the hospital ward say that Frank's health has not been visibly impaired by the ordeal of the trial. Friends of the prisoner are talking to him and the prisoner devotes to his mail and to the newspapers, by which he keeps well posted on all important topics of the day.

His mail continues heavy. Letters still come from all over the country. Some of them come addressed to Mrs. Frank. Others come to his attorneys.

At that spare time he finds when not talking to his attorneys, the prisoner devotes to his mail and to the newspapers, by which he keeps well posted on all important topics of the day.

Sells Toy Balloons To Secure the Funds To Buy Wooden Leg

Associated Charities Is Now Seeking to Place Robert Almond in Position to Help Himself.

Slowly wending his way through Atlanta's parks and picnic grounds, Robert Almond, with a large assortment of multi-colored balloons over his shoulder, is selling his wares to accumulate enough money to buy a foot to take the place of the one he lost in an accident several years ago.

According to Superintendent Logan, of the Associated Charities, Almond's case is one of the most pathetic and at the same time one of the most interesting that his office has ever had to deal with.

Twenty-two years ago, Robert Almond, as shown by records, was placed in the old Peters street orphanage of this city. He was later adopted and taken from the home by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kirkley.

When he was 18 years old he ran away and the couple, after a search of several years, gave him up as lost and abandoned their search. A short time ago, while engaged in a campaign to rid the streets of Atlanta of beggars, the Associated Charities took up the case of Robert Almond, who was at the time begging on one of the viaducts.

Almond claimed that on account of his missing foot he was unable to work. He is married at the present time and is trying to maintain a home.

To aid him in his work, Superintendent Logan purchased an assortment of whips and toy balloons for him to sell in the parks, and in that way help to swell the fund laid aside to buy the child a new foot.

Almond states that if he can only get a foot he can work as good as he ever did, as his occupation is cooking in restaurants and quick-lunch stands.

To give anything in the world to get a foot, Almond told the superintendent, "and if some one was to offer me my choice of either a foot or $300, I would take the former."

Through the help of Mr. Logan, Almond was placed in communication with the foster parents from whom he ran away many years ago.

Almond's intentions are to return in a measure the kindness they showed him in the past, and he says that he will be able to do that as soon as he earns his foot.

Albany, N. Y., June 18.—The court of appeals today upheld the order of Supreme Justice Hendrick directing a jury trial to test the sanity of Harry K. Thaw.

The court of appeals was unanimous in its decision, which held that Justice Hendrick did not attempt to evade responsibility in directing a jury trial, but merely wished to obtain the advice of a jury.

AS HE MURDERED HE DRANK WHISKY

Shaver Killed Father, Stepmother and Policeman and Was Himself Killed—He Drank From Bottle During Tragedy.

Jamestown, N. Y., June 18.—Fred Shaver today shot and killed his father, his stepmother and a policeman, and himself was killed by other policemen. The weapons used were rifles, and Shaver's act is attributed to drink and a quarrel with his father.

The latter, Hudson Shaver, 67 years old and well to do, was married June 7 to Ruth Campbell, 37. The son today went to his father's apartments, where, after a dispute, the older man fled to the hall. There he fell dead from a rifle ball.

Shaver frequently appeared at a window, defying policemen, who had surrounded the building. Occasionally he drank from a bottle of whisky. He did not threaten men who entered the apartment and retrieved the body of his father. Finally he threw out a note addressed to a local paper, reading:

"This is a proposition that I have contemplated ever since I have been in jail. I got out of the city of police and his officials. I tried to spare my father, but he grappled with me, and under the impulse of the moment I got him, too. Goodby."

A deputy sheriff called on him to surrender, but Shaver refused. Shortly afterward he threatened to fire into the crowd of spectators.

The next time Shaver appeared in the window several policemen across the street fired and he fell back to the floor. The officers broke open the door and found young Shaver dead. Near the window lay the body of his stepmother. The officers did not get until they entered the room that Mrs. Hudson Shaver had been killed.

Albany, N. Y., June 18.—The court of appeals today denied the application of Charles Becker for a reargument on its decision affirming his sentence of death.

Becker, convicted of inspiring the murder of Herman Rosenthal, is in the Sing Sing death house, sentenced to die during the week of July 12. Intervention by Governor Whitman, or the United States supreme court, alone can save him, according to legal authorities.

There was no written opinion in the case handed down today. Becker's attorneys alleged in the application for reargument that Justice Seabury, who presided at the second trial, in instructing the jury, failed to present fully the defense's testimony.

New York, June 18.—Martin T. Manton, attorney for Charles Becker, announced tonight that he would not appeal to the federal courts in an effort to save his client from the electric chair, but would file an appeal for executive clemency to be made to Governor Whitman.

"It is useless to make any further legal efforts to save Becker from the electric chair," Manton said, "on every effort will be concentrated to bring about executive clemency."

Governor Whitman, while district attorney of New York county, prosecuted Becker.

Probation Officer And the Recorder Clash Over System

"As at Present Conducted It Is All Wrong and Should Be Changed," Says George Johnson.

The city probation system is going to be overturned and completely changed if Recorder Johnson carries out the plans he now has under way. The recorder not only has decided to change the probation system, but he will have a hand in conducting it.

In speaking of the proposed changes he expects to make the recorder has some very pertinent things to say about the way in which the system has been conducted by Officer C. J. Coogler.

Officer Coogler comes back at the recorder and the friction that has been apparent between the two officials for some time has at last resulted in steps being taken that will show which is to win out, the recorder or the probation officer. The matter will go to the city council for final adjudication.

Coogler's Duties. The probation officer has two branches, one where those who drink to excess are placed on probation for twelve months, and the other where husbands are forced to support their families.

When he first went into office Recorder Johnson proposed the paying of money by husbands to the probation officer on the ground that he was not under bond and handled thousands of dollars.

The recorder proposes to change the other branch of the probation system. In a statement made to a reporter of The Constitution Friday, the recorder said:

"I and my clerk, Mrs. Meade, are preparing a plan whereby the probation system will be entirely changed. I am going to place men on probation only when they themselves request it and when I have no other probation officer. Then again I will never send any man to the changing for thirty days for simple drunk merely because he was weak and failed to keep his promise. My plan is to let a man go on probation if he asks for it and then to make the time three months. When he makes good I will place him on his honor and send him out into the world as a free man. I will give him one or two or three or maybe more trials, but will depend upon the man and the circumstances. Just think of sending a man to the changing for thirty days when his wife and children need his support. It is an arbitrary law is unjust, it is inhuman."

Recorder Annals System. The recorder gave an instance in which he allowed a man five times to do better, and when the man failed at the last, he sent him $10 in each case, and the man is now at the stockade for 110 days.

"I know a lot of things about this probation business," he continued. "I know that men were taken to the main reformatory headquarters, and both the source of news and the Austrian official account assert that nearly everywhere in the Galician region the Russians are meeting with repulse."

The battle for Lemberg is now raging along the fortified Grodek line. It is a final stubborn battle to save the capital.

The British press, pending such time as the Russians stiffen their resistance, is finding solace in the reports of the Russian human sacrifices which the Austro-German drive through Galicia entailed. It is claimed that the Russians, even if forced to retreat, by clever management have drawn the Austro-German forces so seriously that they have estimated losses of 10,000 men a day as to contribute materially to the outcome of the western campaign.

Hard Fighting on the West. Although disagreeing as to results, the German official statement, and the French and British communications, all agree that the fighting in the Arras sector and at the northern and southern parts of the short British front is as desperate as any the western theater of war has developed. The last day has brought much hand-to-hand fighting, the British and French striving to hold the trenches gained and the Germans, with a preponderance of machine guns, as promptly initiating a counter attack.

TEUTONIC HAMMER STILL BATTERING AT RUSSIAN ANVIL

Town of Tarnograd, Inside Czar's Territory, Taken by Austro-Germans and Battle Rages for Lemberg

Each Side Dwells on Losses of the Other and Each Emphasizes Its Gains, All of Which Have Been Costly, Though Small as to Distance.

1,610,000 WAR PRISONERS CAPTURED BY THE TEUTONS Berlin, June 18.—(Via London).—The prisoners taken by the German and Austro-Hungarian armies up to June 14 totaled 1,610,000, according to the Bavarian Staats Zeitung. The newspaper says this total is divided as follows: Russians, 1,240,000; French, 255,000; English, 24,000; Belgian, 41,000; Serbian, 50,000.

London, June 18.—Part of that great mass of Russians who in the winter campaign invaded Galicia and captured Przemysl, and later worked their way to the southwest and battled with the Austrians through the Carpathian passes until they had reached the plains of Hungary, again are back in the hands of the Austrians. They were victims of the relentless drive that has been in progress since the Germans joined their allies in the Galician campaign.

The town of Tarnograd, just inside Russian territory to the north of Siemawa and the heights of Kresow, to the northwest of Tarnograd, are occupied by the troops of the Teutonic allies, while to the southeast in that sector of Galicia between the lower San and the Vistula the Russian forces at several points have had to retire.

BATTLE RAGES FOR LEMBERG. Before Lemberg the Russians have been driven back on their last defenses, say dispatches from the Austro-Hungarian reformatory headquarters, and both the source of news and the Austrian official account assert that nearly everywhere in the Galician region the Russians are meeting with repulse.

The battle for Lemberg is now raging along the fortified Grodek line. It is a final stubborn battle to save the capital.

The court of appeals was unanimous in its decision, which held that Justice Hendrick did not attempt to evade responsibility in directing a jury trial, but merely wished to obtain the advice of a jury.

EMBEZZLEMENT IS LAID TO NASHVILLE OFFICIALS Commissioner Andrews and Comptroller Burns Arrested. Assistant Treasurer Wanted.

Nashville, Tenn., June 18.—Coming as the climax of a week of excitement following the announcement by Mayor Howe that valuable books were missing from the office of the city comptroller, warrants today were served on City Commissioner of Finance Leo Andrews and City Comptroller Miles Burns, charging them with the theft of the books.

A warrant was also issued for Assistant City Treasurer J. B. West, Jr., who has disappeared.

An audit of the city's finances is now under way. An announcement was made by Mayor Howe last Saturday of the theft of the books from the comptroller's office, who at the same time suspended Comptroller Burns from office and ordered a search for their recovery.

WOMAN WHO KILLED HUSBAND IS FREED BY CORONER'S JURY

Macon, Ga., June 18.—(Special).—Mrs. A. W. McGhee, who shot her husband, William L. McGhee, to death Wednesday night when he came home in a drunken condition and abused her, was exonerated this afternoon by the coroner's jury, which held the killing to be justifiable. Immediately after the verdict was made known, Mrs. McGhee was released from jail.

Late this afternoon Mrs. McGhee went to the undertaking parlors to take a farewell look at her husband's body. She showed much emotion, and it was with difficulty that the friends could induce her to leave the place.

McGhee's brother, who left with the body this afternoon for Deering, Ga., was not at all pleased with the action of the coroner's jury. He declared it was his intention to prosecute his sister, and he has already written a letter to the principal witnesses before the coroner's jury today were the three little adopted children of the McGhees. They are Alice and John Duffley and Martha McGhee, all of whom are their father's treatment of their mother. Alice, aged 15, stating that her father knocked Mrs. McGhee down when she endeavored to induce him to come in the house and go to bed. She mentioned that on one occasion recently her mother had told her husband she was going to kill him and herself if he did not stay sober and quit spending her hard-earned money on other women.

Tillman at Panama. Colo., June 18.—Senator E. R. Tillman, of South Carolina, accompanied by his family, arrived today from New York. All the party were well, although they had rough weather for several days en route. They will leave Panama for San Francisco about June 22.

Two Men Are Killed by Fall of Aeroplane. Quincy, Mass., June 18.—In an aeroplane accident here today, George H. Hersey, Jr., of this city, a mechanic, was killed instantly and William D. Ely, of Providence, R. I., was receiving instructions in flight.

Harry M. Jones, operator of the machine, sustained injuries from which he is recovering in the hospital. Jones probably escaped serious injury by falling on the bodies of the other two.

The machine, a biplane, had ascended to a height of 100 feet when it fell. Observers expressed belief that one of the passengers interfered with Jones' operation of the levers.

through, but it is potent that they are on the offensive. In Alsace the French declare they are continuing to advance in the region of Metz and along both banks of the Moselle river. In the region of Paris reports that the French troops are holding under their fire the German line of communications between Metz and Lunster.

AUSTRO-GERMANS PURSUE RUSSIANS.

Vienna, June 18.—(Via London).—The Austro-German troops in pursuit of the retreating Russians have crossed the Galician border north of Sieniawa and have reached the heights north of Kresow, Russia, and occupied the Russian town of Tarnograd, according to an official communication issued by the war office tonight.

The communication says: "The Russian army, pursuing troops have penetrated Russian territory and reached the heights north of Kresow and occupied Tarnograd. The Russian forces between the lower San and the Vistula have retired at several points. The heights north of Kresow (13 miles of Lubaczow) have been taken. In the mountainous region east of Niemirow and in the rear of Jaworow, strong Russian forces have appeared. "On the Vereszyca river the fighting continues. Our troops have gained a footing at some points eastwards of the river.

FRENCH GAIN IN ALSACE.

Paris, June 18.—The following official communication was issued tonight: "In the sector to the north of Arras, the French artillery has taken place today. The front here remains unchanged. We hold all the ground we have captured.

"In Alsace we have fortified the positions which we took yesterday and continue to make progress here. Our advanced parties at the end of the day had reached the outskirts of Metz. We have advanced along both banks of the Fecht. We hold under our fire the enemy's communications between Metz and Lunster. We have captured three prisoners, machine guns and a very large quantity of war materials, notably rifles and cartridges.

BRITISH HOLD GERMAN TRENCHES.

London, June 18.—The following report from Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British forces on the western front, was received here tonight: "The fighting in the northern and southern portions of our front continued throughout June 18, in co-operation with the attack of our ally.

"East of Ypres all the German first line trenches which were captured remain in our hands in spite of two counter-attacks which were repulsed with heavy loss to the enemy. We were, however, unable to retain those of the enemy's second line trenches, which we had occupied in the morning.

"East of Postubert as a result of a further attack on the afternoon of the 18th, we made slight advance and, judging by the number of dead German soldiers in the trenches entered by us, our artillery fire was every effective."

ALLIES REPULSED, GERMANS CLAIM.

Berlin, June 18.—(Via London).—Official announcement was made here today that an allied force which attacked German positions north of La Bassée, northwestern France, was destroyed only a few succeeding in retreating.

"The text of the statement follows: "Our enemies continue their attempts to break through our lines and to take the heights of the Dnieper. Their attacking troops were destroyed. Only a few men succeeded in retreating.

"East of Arras, south of Souchez and north of Fourie, the French penetrated our outer positions in the intervals. Due north of the Lorette hills we surrendered a section of a trench situated in the rear of the enemy's line in accordance with our plans. The rest of the enemy's attempts to attack were frustrated in retreating.

"Since June 15 we have captured on the battlefield north of Arras 17 officers and 647 men. The sanguinary losses of our opponents were equal to those of the battles in the Champagne district.

"In the Argonne we repulsed weak enemy advances at Vauquois. Local fights developed in the Vosges. Still greater progress was made around Metz. The German theater.

"Western theater: Russian division was driven back by German cavalry across the Szymara Bryczow and have suffered an attack by the enemy in strong force against the Dawina line was repulsed.

"Southern theater: "On both sides of Tarnograd Austro-German troops yesterday drove the enemy back toward a branch of the Tarnow river. The sanguinary fighting defeated Russians were driven still farther back by the army under General Zimovitski. They retreated as far as the prepared positions at Grodek, which are on the line running from the Nary and the Wereszyca to their junction with the River Dnieper.

"On the Dnieper front, northeast of Stry, the situation remains unchanged."

TEUTONIC LOSSES ARE VERY HEAVY.

Petrograd, June 18.—(Via London).—An official review of recent operations on the Russian front, given out today, says: "The development of the battle along the Nary and the Wereszyca, which one of the six armies attacking our forces in Galicia is operating, will serve to give some idea of the magnitude of the operations in this region. The fighting in the vicinity of Stry in the fact that there were no endeavors to turn our front operations into a general offensive. The enemy would have been of great help to the offensive of General Mackensen. All our other bands, which would have meant that Mackensen's operations were merely a series of fruitless frontal attacks.

"The above mentioned sector on the Dnieper river, however, was not the scene of the principal fighting with regard to the number of troops engaged. On May 18 the enemy, close to following our troops, retiring from the Carpathians, met our opposition in the region east of Prohobycza, north of the Dnieper, in the vicinity of Belachow. On the 19th, the enemy brought all his forces into action, but the next two days he was compelled to quit this offensive, having lost tens of thousands of men.

"The fighting in the vicinity of Stry, which was the turning of our right flank near Stanok, with the threat of a possible turning movement, was continuing this week we remained passive, confining our operations to exterminating the enemy as he approached the positions. The next four days were devoted by the enemy to bringing together heavy artillery and supporting troops. On June 25 we made a turning of the decisive attack, and the crisis came on the fifth day of the fighting. The enemy's main component of three German divisions, succeeded at the price of incredible sacrifice in capturing the village of Stanok. The position of the Austrians attacking us they constituted the right wing of the following army, which took the offensive and drove them back.

"For three days, May 30, May 31 and June 1, we were under the necessity to attempt to turn the Germans, who had broken through our front near Stry, or to fall back on the line of the Dnieper. The situation in Galicia finally caused us to adopt the latter course. The night of June 2 the enemy demonstrated his intention to turn our front in the direction of Mikalajow, losing several thousand men.

"The main attack was delivered by the army under General von Bothmer at a point more to the east. The enemy's main force was repulsed, but on June 6 General von Bothmer crossed the Dnieper near Jarawo and the enemy occupied the left bank to a distance of 15 miles.

"June 8 and June 9 the bulk of the German army were under the necessity to be thrown back across the Dnieper. Nevertheless, on June 13 the German army delivered a general offensive, delivered a new attack with the remains of his regiments. The enemy's main force was repulsed, but on June 13 the German army delivered a general offensive, delivered a new attack with the remains of his regiments. The enemy's main force was repulsed, but on June 13 the German army delivered a general offensive, delivered a new attack with the remains of his regiments.

"We have noted serious symptoms of demoralization which are beginning to show themselves in the ranks of the enemy in the vicinity of Mikalajow."

"It has been interesting to trace the reflection of events on the Dnieper in the official military announcements of the enemy. Every day before the attack has been completed by the Germans, has been reported in their announcements in a German victory over the Russian army. The following announcements would indicate that the German army was successfully retreating from the scene of the Russian attack and on the third day that the Russians had great forces at their disposal in the region in question. Such a sequence and method of reporting has been noted in the German announcements on three different occasions during the thirty days fighting on the Dnieper.

"The opinion is expressed generally that there now is no chance that Bulgaria will enter the war on the side of Germany."

Berlin, June 18.—(Via London).—Information reaching Berlin from Sofia is that Bulgaria's reply to the proposal of the powers in the matter of her participation in the war, refers to the question of the restoration of the territory she ceded to Rumania, and of portions of Greek and Serbian Macedonia.

Bulgaria is described as demanding precise details as to what she will be given, and of understanding here it is that she is endeavoring to avoid a definite answer to the allies, leaving the way open to further negotiation.

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 18.—(Via London).—Bulgaria's reply to the proposal of the entente powers is a request for further enlightenment.

Premier Raduslawoff personally visited the entente ministers, thanked them for the offers of their governments, and expressed his appreciation on specific points, so that Bulgaria may be able better to judge what will be her position at the end of the war.

GUNNER WHO FIRED ON FORT SUMTER DIED ON THURSDAY.

Dr. Henry M. Clarkson, of Haymarket, Va., died Thursday afternoon last in his home in Virginia. Dr. Clarkson served a full career in the Confederate army. He first enlisted as private in the Columbia (S. C.) Flying artillery in December, 1860. Immediately upon the secession of South Carolina, he served at Charleston, and was until the formation of the confederacy and the fall of Fort Sumter, when he was appointed surgeon and served as such until the close of the war. Dr. Clarkson had the distinction of being one of the four gunners who fired upon and drove away the first shot at Fort Sumter, January 9, 1861. It has been claimed that he was the first to fire the shot. Dr. Clarkson wrote a history of that event, published in The Confederate Veteran, May, 1914, which has been pronounced the best account of the same. Dr. Clarkson was distinguished in other ways during the war, and has many other claims to honor, all of which have been published in his work "Songs of Love and War," which is now being published in book form as a Christian gentleman, who served his country well.

He left many relatives—some of whom reside in this city.

The crocodile was about 10 feet long and 12 inches in diameter. Joe Foster was about 20 years old and was a native of Georgia. SWEDEN IS ANGERED BY SUBMARINE WAR.

London, June 18.—(2:15 a. m.)—A dispatch to The Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen says: "The Norwegian steamer Svein Jarl, of 1,125 tons, has been torpedoed. The Norwegian newspapers allege that German spies were aboard the Svein Jarl and other steamers which have been torpedoed before they left port. The newspapers urge the government to take energetic action."

London, June 19.—(2:47 a. m.)—"The anger of the public and the press is rising daily over the German attacks on neutral shipping," says Reuter's Stockholm correspondent. "Newspapers of all shades of opinion are protesting energetically against the capture of the Swedish steamer Torsten and the sinking of the Swedish steamer Verdandi, both of which carried certificates that they had nothing aboard which the Germans should consider contraband. Some of the newspapers are discussing the question whether in addition to the Swedish government should not consider adopting some form of reprisal."

London, June 18.—The British steamship Atlas, of 1,000 tons, was sunk by a German submarine today off the southeast coast of Scotland. The crew was saved. The steamer Atlas was of 1,000 tons gross and built in 1914. She was 200 feet long, 31 feet beam and 15.2 feet deep.

BULGARIA AGREES WITH THE ALLIES? London, June 18.—Reports were in circulation in London today that Bulgaria had come to an agreement with the allied powers. These reports lacked confirmation, but the bureau of the Petrograd bourse was taken as an indication that important events were near at hand. The opinion is expressed generally that there now is no chance that Bulgaria will enter the war on the side of Germany.

AUSTRIANS ATTACK ITALIAN INVADERS

Battle in Progress Near Mori and Roverto—Hungarian Force Cut to Pieces by Italians.

London, June 18.—(Special.)—The Italian front indicates that the Austrians have thrown their crack regiments to take the place of customs guards and soldiers of the landsturm. On the Tyrol front the Austrians in the vicinity of Mori and Roverto have taken the offensive against the Italians and a battle in that region is in progress. Vienna reports that heavy losses were inflicted on the Italians near Plava when Dalmatian troops repulsed an attack by the enemy once more attacked, but again was repulsed. It is stated that two prominent brigades of public reformed participated in the attack. The Italian losses here were very heavy. Repeatedly the Austrians in the Ploekon region and on Monte Coston were repulsed.

AUSTRIAN WARSHIPS SMELL ITALIAN CITIES. Rome, June 18.—(Via Paris.)—An official statement by the Italian naval headquarters staff tonight says: On the Tyrol front the Austrians on a scouting expedition shelled a section of the coast railroad near Pano near the foot of Monte Atilio. The ship was hurt. Trifling damage was done to a small part of the line. The result of the shelling still in doubt. Udine, Italy, June 18.—(Via Chiasso and Paris.)—Reports from all the fronts state that strong bodies of first line troops, especially the emperor's own troops, Croats, Bohemians and Hungarians, have been substituted for the Austrians in the customs guard and soldiers of the landsturm. All these first line soldiers have been hardened by over ten months of war and make formidable adversaries. The Italian Alpine troops themselves realize the difference and fight with greater circumspection as was proved Wednesday afternoon when they repulsed a 1,000 Hungarian force tried to take revenge for the Austrian reverse on Monte Nero. This time the Hungarians climbed Vrata mountain hoping to dominate the Italian positions and outflank them. Italian Alpine troops gradually surrounded Vrata, creeping through the undergrowth. For some time they did not reply to the Hungarian fire. It being a rule among the Alpine soldiers not to shoot unless they can kill. Finally the Alpine troops poured in a rain of bullets and then sprang out with fixed bayonets. The Hungarians were repulsed in confusion and tried to escape, but found the Alpine soldiers emerging from every hole. Every member of the Hungarian battalion either was killed or taken prisoner.

AT THE THEATERS

Keith Vaudeville. (At the Forayth.) The packed audiences that have been in attendance upon the Forayth this week vouch for the elaborate and vaudeville that is on tap at that busy temple of variety, wit, ingenuity and song and music. Charley Orapelin, who, with the famous Risolotto Brothers, shares toppling honors is a bigger hit than ever. The vehicle in which he appears this season, "Laughkeepers," more adapted to his original talent for character delineation and the comic pantomime pictures. The Risolotto Brothers present a dazzling outlay of variety, rhythmic, song, music, stunts, magic and comedy. Others of note are King and Gladys, who, in their new gowns and song hits the Keystone Trio, accomplished entertainers and a charming impersonation of Marjorie and Hackett, original funmakers, Dier, the masterful accordionist, and Watson's spectacular farce.

Boifeuillet Returns After Stay in London. Clerk of Lower House Learned of Bryan's Resignation While on Board Ship. Let the legislature now meet and proceed! Colonel John T. Boifeuillet, for many years clerk of the lower house of the general assembly, is back from Europe and ready for business at home. He registered at the Kimball house Friday, and is feeling fine, thank you, and looking the same! Colonel Boifeuillet, who has been serving as attaché, by special appointment of former Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, to the American embassy in London, sailed from Liverpool June 5 on the American steamer St. Paul, and arrived in New York last Monday. Except for a few days' stop on business at the department in Washington, Colonel Boifeuillet came directly to Atlanta. Nothing to Say on Bryan. Colonel Boifeuillet declined to discuss the resignation of Secretary Bryan or the issues between the country and the European powers at length on Friday, but indicated that he might be able to do so later. The sinking of the Lusitania, he believed, is the first real waking up that England has had since the war. Colonel Boifeuillet was congratulated and welcomed by scores of his friends in Atlanta and from about the state Friday. Of great interest to Georgia is the announcement that Colonel Boifeuillet has been asked by the state department to return to London after the adjournment of the Georgia legislature. Colonel Boifeuillet accepted the appointment as ambassador's post only on condition that he would be allowed to return for the Georgia legislature. He is eminently fitted for such service, say his friends, through his experience as secretary to the late Senator A. O. Bacon, who has been chairman of the United States senate committee on foreign relations. He has not yet decided what he will do. Stay a Pleasant One. Colonel Boifeuillet declared that his stay in England had been most pleasant and active. "I also visited Paris," he said, "where I had opportunity to see the real effect of the war at much closer range than in England." The return trip of Colonel Boifeuillet across the Atlantic was fraught with much interest. He sailed on the St. Paul, upon which he sailed, is an American boat. She carried every passenger for which she had accommodation, he said. There were some 800 passengers aboard, who, with the crew, made a total of some 1,300 souls. Unexpectedly to any of the passengers, Colonel E. M. House, confidential secretary to the president in London, boarded the boat and returned to America. There was great speculation aboard as to his sudden mission. It was expected as the sailing of Colonel House was the arrival of a British torpedo boat destroyer, alongside the St. Paul, which was to get along. These boats accompanied the St. Paul through the war zone. It was the first time that such a vessel had happened to any of the vessels, said Colonel Boifeuillet, and this was much a mystery as to what the commanders of the torpedo boat destroyers stated that they had from the British admiralty to act as convoys. Colonel Boifeuillet said that he saw no submarines while he was crossing the Atlantic, although there was declared a senger aboard the boat who declared that he had seen a submarine. On board the St. Paul with Colonel Boifeuillet were twelve survivors from the sinking of the Lusitania. The majority of these had lost relatives. On the night of Secretary Bryan's resignation, Colonel House received a copy informing him of the resignation. He immediately informed Colonel Boifeuillet and Colonel Wallace, and for two days these were the only persons aboard who knew of the secretary's resignation. When the St. Paul arrived at quarantine at New York, the cutter of the Port Maloney met the vessel upon the revenue cutter, and was accompanied by the son of Colonel Boifeuillet. Colonel House was taken aboard the cutter and went ashore, while his son boarded the St. Paul and came in with his mother. "Altogether," said Colonel Boifeuillet, "I had a most interesting trip. But I am glad to be back in Georgia again, and I am particularly glad that I am back in time for the legislature, as I had promised to be."

PLANS ARE BEING DRAWN FOR NEW MACON STATION

Macon, Ga., June 18.—(Special.)—President W. A. Winburn, of the Central of Georgia railway, who is in Macon today, stated that the plans for the new union passenger station, to be erected at Fifth and Cherry streets, are being drawn by P. H. Palmer of Long, New York architects, and will be ready to submit to the railroad commission by September 1, that being the final limit fixed by the commission in an order to the railroad. The plans have been submitted from time to time, and the plans now being drawn are the ones which will be drawn by the approval of the mayor and council and the railroad commission. The sketches called for a million-dollar station.

15 PERSONS KILLED AND SCORE INJURED

Destructive Storm Strikes Missouri and Kansas—The Property Damage Is Estimated at $250,000.

Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—Fifteen lives were lost, a score of persons were injured and property damage estimated at a quarter of a million dollars was done by a wind, hail and electrical storm which centered in Missouri and Kansas last night and early today. The heavy fall of rain—ranging from one to three inches—turned creeks into turbulent streams and sent the rivers to which they are tributaries to flood. Stories of Narrow Escapes. Many stories of narrow escapes came in as telegraphic communication business was being interrupted. At Galley, Okla., J. R. Johnson and Volney Davis, farmers, led their families into caves at the approach of a small tornado and saved their lives, the homes of both families being demolished. The stone house of Mrs. J. W. Pickin was blown over while Pickin and his wife were within. Both escaped with bruises. Mrs. Clyde Carwood was carried from her home into a wheat field a mile away and escaped with slight injuries. E. E. Bowen, a farmer, suffered a fractured skull when a dwelling was blown in upon him. Sixty-five cars were blown from the Frisco railroad tracks in the yards at Fort Scott, Kan. One was a work train in which track laborers were living. Three were injured. The home of J. Wood was blown away, intact, carrying the occupants with it. No one was hurt. Several farm houses and many small buildings north of Fort Scott were blown away. Five Members of Family Killed. Five members of the family of John Borge, a farmer near Onaga, were reported killed and two seriously injured in a tornado. Houses were wrecked, stock was killed and much other property damaged in the section. Morris and his son were on an inspection trip. The collapse of the bridge over the river at Onaga, Mo., was reported. Two women lost their lives when a farmhouse near La Tour, Mo., was demolished. A tornado crossed Henry county, Missouri, according to a report received here. Farm buildings, barns and silos were blown down. A tornado at Archer, Okla., barns and silos were blown down. A tornado at Fort Scott, Kan., unroofed a score of small houses. Forty box cars were blown from the railroad tracks at Macon, Mo., trees, telegraph poles and telegraph wires were blown down today. Another tornado swept a section half a mile wide and miles long near Nevada, Mo., Deerfield, Walker and Harwood, villages in the storm's path, were heavily damaged. Stock was killed in large numbers.

MENACING REPLY MADE TO WILSON

Washington, June 18.—The United States government was informed today by Francisco Lagos Chazaro, president of the Villa-Zapata convention government in Mexico City, that if President Wilson's recent warning to Mexican factions to compose their differences should signify pressure or threat, the government will "still harbor the conscience of its sacrifices, will maintain the dignity of the Mexican people." The communication, transmitted by the Brazilian minister at Mexico City, states that the government continues "to conjecture that the general idea of the government of the United States is to help us through a way to bring to an end our fratricidal struggle which would be for the greatest good of the country." After declaring a willingness to make peace with the Carranza faction the note says in part: "The conventionalist government does not desire to see, in the substance of the declaration made by President Wilson anything more than an advice, a friendly suggestion to induce the conventionalist government to out their differences and lead them by the path to the end pursued by the revolution. Comrades, the declaration that if we Mexicans cannot settle our differences within a very short time the government of the American union will find itself constrained to decide as to what means it will employ to bring to an end our fratricidal struggle which would be for the greatest good of the country." "I am proud to belong to a powerful nation which says that Mexico, which we are crucifying, will enjoy the same liberty in the management of its affairs as we enjoy. If I am strong weak in the measure of my strength, my pride consists in keeping my strength free and not in oppressing another people with it." "To maintain Mexican Dignity." "If contrary to the interpretation which in the most friendly sense the conventionalist government puts upon President Wilson's warning, this closing part should signify a denial of the instinctive sympathy generously demonstrated by the Mexican revolution and should further signify a denial of the conventionalist government's harboring the conscience of its sacrifices with maintenance of the dignity of the Mexican people. We continue however to conjecture that the general idea of the government of the United States is to help us in a fratricidal struggle which would be for the greatest good of the country." "The government is ready to bring about by all means consistent with its dignity the fusion of all the contending groups to inaugurate all the economic, political and social reforms aimed at by the revolution and to establish a stable government with which all tendencies and all legitimate interests will find the fullest and most joyful law provides." This note from the convention government was drafted after conference with the Zapata leaders. The state department previously had received a note of the same general character from General Villa which, while denying that the government of the United States had intervened in Mexico, said that the suggestion for a unification of the factions should be adopted. Proposals for peace are repeated in the Chazaro note, but yet no definite word has been received from General Carranza as to his attitude.

NEW BROWN UNIFORMS FOR STREET SWEEPERS

Atlanta's street sweepers are to be attired by the board of health in attractively brown uniforms, following the action of the board of health when a regular uniform was agreed upon. The board further agreed to furnish the uniforms to the employees at the expense of the department, and instructed Chief John Jensen to purchase them at once. Two styles of uniform were submitted to the board, and that selected is expected to be forwarded to the department, present a much better appearance than the present uniforms. There are 151 men who will be furnished uniforms.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

Advance Guard Coming In. The advance guard of the new order of things at the state house is beginning to be felt. John P. Boreffillet, for many years clerk of the house of the general assembly, on Friday registered at the Kimball house for the coming session of the general assembly. Boreffillet comes back this year, having served with honor, and on Friday many of his host of friends were congratulating him. His appointment as secretary to the Georgia O. A. Bacon, chairman of the United States senate committee on foreign affairs, is a fitting honor. Boreffillet was attached to the American embassy in London when he was under the direction of Ambassador Walter Age. This is his first visit to Atlanta since his return from that service.

Mr. Jones stated that Judge Harris expects to arrive in Atlanta Monday. He will live at the Grand Hotel. Attorney General-elect Cliff Walker spent Friday in Atlanta. He stated that he will be in and out of town for the next week, and expects to remain himself permanently to Atlanta about next Saturday for the remainder of his term.

Auto Road Money Ready

Secretary of State, on Friday, completed his appointment of the various qualifying counties of the general road fund available from the sale of automobile licenses, to the treasury department will mail out the checks in a few days. The fund is distributed according to the rural route mileage of each county. Fulton county, with about 5,000 automobiles, has the largest share of the fund. Fulton county has 204 miles of rural routes, and will therefore get the largest share of the fund. The big slices of the fund go to Carroll county, $1,865.00; Cobb county, $1,722.22; and DeKalb county, $1,722.22. The counties of Fannin and McIntosh have no rural route mileage and will, therefore, receive no share of the fund. Neither will Bibb, Spalding, Spalding county, and Wilkes counties share in the fund, this being because these counties failed to register their cars. The law requires that the law properly they would receive $1,700.00 each. Sumter and Chatham counties, which also projected the enforcement of the law, received five of its cars, and will receive $208.41.

Roughin Convicted For Death of Child; Denies Carelessness

Convicted of involuntary manslaughter, Dr. L. Roughin, the physician arraigned before Judge Ben Hill for the death of Hugh E. Murray, Jr. while undergoing an operation, announced yesterday afternoon that he would consult his attorneys regarding an appeal to the supreme court on a writ of error. The verdict was returned shortly following the trial of the jury. The argument by Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey. The trial had consumed two days. Dr. Roughin's statement preceded the address of Mr. Dorsey. Sentence will be passed by Judge Hill in the afternoon. The charge is manslaughter and subject to either a fine or imprisonment.

Three physicians were put upon the stand by the defense to testify that the accident was unavoidable. Dr. Roughin, himself, stated that it was a horrible, deplorable but inevitable, and a stroke of Providence that could not have been prevented. The testimony of Miss Evelyn Steinbach, the nurse employed by Dr. Roughin when he operated on the child, was that the doctor had taken no precautions to insure sterilization of the instruments used. He had answered the telephone while the patient was under the anesthetic, returning to find him dead. "I was well aware of the condition of the child," the doctor testified. "I stand. No examination of the heart was necessary under the existing circumstances. I am a general practitioner and I can say heart tests determine whether or not a patient can stand an anesthetic. It is unfortunate but true, that a percentage of persons die under anesthetics, but there is no possible manner of determining their ability to endure it beforehand. Efforts to Save Child. "I did all in my power to save the child. I applied electrical apparatus, respiratory treatment, everything possible called other physicians. We were powerless. It was just a stroke of Providence that was unavoidable—that could not have been stayed by the hand of man." Concluding his speech Dr. Roughin declared emphatically and with a touch of deep feeling, "If all of my life's blood would have been poured into the child, I would have gladly given it."

Dr. Roughin was represented by Van Arman, of Atlanta. He refused the argument by Solicitor Dorsey was aided by John W. Moore. The solicitor's address was from an arrangement before Judge Ben Hill, whom he termed incompetent.

The decree was made in the history of Fulton county. The decree likewise removed the disability of a wife but refused the privilege to the husband to remarry. Attorney Harvey Hill and Arminius Taberner arranged before Judge Ben Hill a formal motion for a new trial, which motion, if necessary, the attorneys will carry to the supreme court. The motion will defer the payment of alimony until a final decision of the case has been made by the courts.

CHARTIER SHORTHAND DISCARDED BY EASTMAN BUSINESS COLLEGE WHICH, IN LINE WITH THE SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE, CONTINUES A PITMANIC SYSTEM

With a Full Corps of Experienced Teachers, Large Number of Typewriting Machines, and the Best Systems of Shorthand and Bookkeeping Known to the World, the Southern Business College Stands as Pre-eminently the Leader of Commercial Education in the South.

MISS VALDE FARNESTOCK, Graduate of the Southern Shorthand and Business University.

The enrollment of pupils for the summer term at the Southern Shorthand and Business University, continues with unabating interest. The demand for stenographers and bookkeepers is good. Business men in need of office help agree that the Southern Shorthand and Business College is the best place to send their children. The superiority of Pitmanic Shorthand has long ago been determined. Several years ago the managers of the Southern Business College at the present address, after a very careful and fully examined and then refused to adopt the Chartier system of shorthand because of its great inferiority. The verdict of inferiority has been overwhelmingly sustained by the fact that very few colleges since that time have tried the Chartier and thrown it out among the latest being the Eastman Business College at Foughkeenoque, N. Y.

CAN'T MAKE EXPERTS

After testing the Chartier system for seven years, along with the Pitman system, the Eastman school has discarded it to continue the Pitman in a letter from the president of Eastman College, he writes: "Our Chartier department was maintained purely to meet the needs of students who did not intend to qualify as expert shorthand writers." The Eastman school could not afford to impair its good reputation by teaching trashy systems after discovering their inferiority. "NO CHARTIER WRITERS NEEDED TO APPLY." As further evidence that Chartier writers are incompetent, the Atlanta newspapers contained the following advertisement: "WANTED—Lady stenographer worth $30 per month to begin. Chance for advancement. Must understand handling of money. Excellent beginner will answer. NO CHARTIER writers need apply. M. A. care Georgian."

WHAT A CHARTIER PUPIL SAYS

One of the most intelligent and well educated young men in Atlanta learned Chartier shorthand and finding that it would not do, advised a friend to let it alone. In his letter to his friend he states: "As a friend I advise you not to attend a college because having attended the same I pronounce the system a fake. My brother who afterwards attended the Southern Shorthand and Business College is filling a good position and doing nicely."

If there's an official court reporter in the United States using Chartier Shorthand, we have been unable to locate him and we have searched the country over.

True, there are some Chartier stenographers holding positions but they have good memories, write unfamiliar words in longhand and continually call upon the dictator for help.

FACTS ARE WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT

Investigate young men using shorthand before taking up the study of shorthand. Learn the best or none at all. Ask a business man about the efficiency of stenographers and bookkeepers turned out by the Atlanta Business College. They have employed them from all the schools. Don't make a mistake. Go to the fountain source—learn the good and tried Graham Pitmanic shorthand at the old established Southern with its experienced and expert teachers.

The southern is in receipt of a letter from Miss Maud Farnestock of Valhalla, S. C. who finished the full course and now has a position awaiting her in that she writes: "Please send me your catalog to show to a friend of mine who is going to attend a business school for I am sure he could not find a better school. I have a position open for me in Los Angeles, Cal. where our family will move soon. If any pupil who enters the Southern is not benefited after a reasonable time or is not capable of holding a position it is his or her fault and not the teachers. For a prospectus, attend to ALL alike from each instructor. Investigate now in effect. Call phone or write for catalogue. A. C. Brisson, Pres. L. W. Arnold, Vice Pres. 10 West Mitchell street Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)"

WILL DECIDE PAVING FOR PONCE DE LEON

When the street committee of general council Friday opened bids for material for the proposed Ponce de Leon paving, J. N. Meek, representative of the Southern Wood Block Preserving company an Atlanta concern objected on the grounds that bids had not been legally asked for and that he had not been given an opportunity to file a bid.

Recently the city awarded a contract to the Atlanta concern for Grant street paving with wood block and by ordinance agreed to the contract of the company to purchase blocks for repairs and other purposes during the ensuing year at the rate of $1.30 per square yard.

When bids were opened Friday it developed that two other concerns had bids in cheaper than $1.30. The Southern Paving and Construction company, represented by Shelby Smith filed a bid offering to furnish 3-inch block at $1.25 per square yard and the Colonial Paving company of Charleston, S. C. filed a bid of $1.26. The Republic Paving company of Mobile, Ala. put in a bid of $1.47.

Mr. Meek contended that none of these concerns had been required to furnish a certified check nor give bond, nor had any legal notice been given of the opening of bids. He claimed that the companies offering to do the work cheaper than the Atlanta company would not submit bids cheaper than the local company if they were required to furnish bonds and put up the certified check.

Alderman Edgar Dunlap said it appeared that the general council had made a blanket contract with the Atlanta company to furnish wood block for the entire year and give them a monopoly. He said this was done without his knowledge and that it would prejudice him against wood block for any of the streets.

The bids however were opened and referred to the construction department to tabulate and submit tonight to a meeting of property owners abutting on Ponce de Leon avenue so they might agree on the material for the paving by knowledge of the cost would be. The job covers about 9,000 square yards.

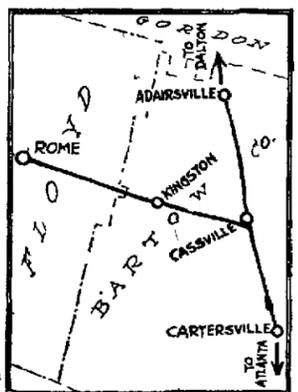

BARTOW COUNTY BOARD AGREES ON HIGHWAY

Question of Routing of Two Divisions of Dixie Highway Is Unanimously Agreed to.

A delegation of about fifty citizens of Bartow county assembled yesterday at noon in the office of Clark Howell in the Constitution building, for the purpose of settling the matter of the routing of the Dixie highway between Adairsville and Cartersville.

Under the regulation of the Dixie Highway association, wherever there is a contest as to location between any two points in the same county the decision is left to the county authority in charge of road building.

The Dixie highway commission located the western division from Rome to Kingston and from thence to Cartersville, so that there was no other alternative than that the western route must pass through Kingston. The eastern division was located "from Adairsville to Cartersville," without specifying the route.

Kingston claimed that it should come from Adairsville to Kingston, uniting the eastern and western divisions at that point.

Cassville, the old county seat of Bartow, contended that it should come straight from Adairsville through Cassville to Cartersville, which would save 5 miles in distance than if the eastern division united with the western at Kingston.

The board of commissioners of Bartow county attended the hearing yesterday in Mr. Howell's office. After having had the matter of the location of the two routes under consideration in Cartersville a week ago they found it impossible to agree, and by unanimous vote at that time the commissioners agreed to refer the settlement of the whole question to Messrs. Howell and Anderson, the two state highway commissioners. Mr. Anderson could not attend yesterday's meeting, authorizing Mr. Howell, his associate, to represent him.

An interesting discussion. At yesterday's meeting representatives of the eastern division from every county south of Chattanooga insisted that the route be established from Adairsville via Cassville, to Cartersville.

Mr. Lewis Gaines, long a resident of and a large property owner in Kingston declared that in his personal opinion the route should be established from Adairsville to Kingston, but as it already had the western route, he realized that his arguments in favor of the eastern division by the direct route were unanswerable.

Mrs. W. H. Felton of Cartersville, took the position making the plea that the public road of Cassville was practically the only thing left after the civil war of what was once one of the most beautiful towns in north Georgia, and arguing that with the inspiration of the Dixie highway, it would be placed in a position where it could resume its former activities.

Mayor L. Barrett of Kingston heading a committee from that enterprising city, argued in favor of uniting the two highways at Kingston, declaring that his people had already raised enough money to eliminate every grade crossing between Kingston and Adairsville.

Commissioners Unanimously Agree. Several other addresses were made, after which the Cobb county commissioners were into a conference with Mr. Howell and a unanimous agreement was reached by which the western division will approach Cartersville by the public road that now runs from Kingston to Cassville. It was also unanimously agreed that the route from Adairsville to Cartersville should go via Cassville—the two routes uniting where the public road now join, at a point just south of Cassville.

The county commissioners of Bartow by unanimous action placed the two routes in their county—the one from Cassville north via Adairsville to Dalton, and the other from Cartersville via Kingston to Rome, should be given identically the same treatment—that one should be put and kept in the same condition as the other and that work along the two routes should proceed practically simultaneously. The guarantee that this should be done in good faith.

The routes as above selected on the unanimous action of the commission were chosen at the suggestion of Dr. Baker, of Cartersville, one of the most distinguished citizens of the county, and a master builder of good roads, in which suggestion he was heartily joined by his associate commissioners Messrs. Adams Bradford and McTier.

Mr. Howell accordingly made an announcement of the settlement of the question, and the various delegates from Bartow county returned to their homes yesterday afternoon in full harmony, and highly pleased that the county commissioners of Bartow county had gotten together in united action.

Two Drinks of Booze

Mixed With Medicine Too Much for Born

J. P. Born, the policeman who ran amuck Wednesday night on Decatur street after he had taken a little too much booze, was tried in the police court yesterday afternoon and fined $10.

He pleaded guilty and said he mixed two drinks of whisky with some medicine and was doped. He asked for clemency.

Recorder Johnson said he would make the fine light as the officer had to stand trial before the police commission.

Casey Ran "Jitney"

On the Unique Basis "Pay If You Want To"

You want to ride with Casey if you like a "jitney" better than a trolley. W. C. Casey was brought before the recorder yesterday afternoon on the charge of running a jitney without a license. His defense was that he was not running a jitney for any pay.

"You ride passengers for nothing," the recorder asked him.

"Yes, was the reply. I operate like the movies do on Sunday. I hand around my hat and let my passengers pay what they wish if they want to ride free from the car."

Casey was fined $375 and told to get out a license or suspend his hand-around the hat business.

"HOP BACK" CAUSES ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE

It was on account of the hop-back that Bill Farrow, a negro city convict made his escape yesterday morning. Farrow was brought before the recorder yesterday afternoon on the charge of running a hop-back.

The prisoner had served 25 of his 30 days, stated a state boss.

I don't see why he ran away under such circumstances, remarked the recorder.

It was the hop-back the boss explained.

"The hop back" asked the recorder, puzzled.

"Yes, was the reply. He was sent to the city changing for 30 days and marked return for state charge. That was the hop back.

Farrow was given an additional 30 days and will take the hop back later on.

BECKER GOES FISHING, BUT TELLS THE TRUTH

William E. Becker, manager of the Hotel Ansony, has broken the record of hotel managers, fishermen and Atlantans. He writes Charles G. Day, assistant manager of the Ansony, telling him that after three days' stay at St. Simons Island, Ga., he hasn't broken any fishing records.

Big Supply of Cocaine Found in This House And Owner Arrested

Lillie Murphy who rooms at 11 Courtland street, was before the recorder yesterday afternoon on the charge of having too much cocaine on hand for any one person to safely utilize.

Officer Blazer stated that he went to Lillie's apartment on a report that she was selling cocaine.

"I found forty-two boxes empty and twenty-two boxes full," he said "and the whole floor of the room was covered with a white dust that proved to be cocaine. The woman has simply been living in a cloud of the drug."

The woman, who appeared to be a physical wreck from the use of the drug, was sent to the stockade for thirty days by the recorder so she could be treated for the drug habit by the city physician.

ALL CALVES MUST BE 60 POUNDS IN FUTURE

No calf, or meat therefrom, can now be sold in Atlanta if the calf weighs under 60 pounds, according to the substance of a new city ordinance, effect-policemen, which is read to the city council. Chief Beavers was furnished with a copy of the new calf ordinance yesterday, which he read to the city policeman with instructions to them to be on the lookout for violators of the new law. The 60 pound limit for underweight calves applies to dressed carcasses.

MASS-MEETING MEN ONLY

AT THE GRAND TOMORROW SUNDAY, 3:30 P. M.

CALLED BY FORTY-SEVEN MINISTERS OF ATLANTA

TO CONSIDER TWO HUNDRED FORTY DEALERS DOING BUSINESS AS SALOONS AND LOCKER-CLUBS IN THE CAPITAL OF GEORGIA

FRONT PAGE articles in Atlanta papers of Thursday and Friday emphasize the need for clear thinking.

ONE SAYS:

"An Atlanta policeman, crazed BY DRINK, it is claimed, went on a wild rampage in front of the police station—

"Born is one of the officers who was recently made a member of the police force against the wishes of Chief BEAVERS.—For the first time in its history, the BOARD excluded the chief of police from its meeting and in executive session put Born on the force with two other policemen."

You will recall—

All of them had been discharged for drunkenness or worse.

INTERESTING as showing the methods of the Police Board for promoting the efficiency of the Police Force of Atlanta.

The SAME PAPER on the same page had this:

"She had been to the OWLS' DANCE—

"Lawrence witnessed her effort to kill herself and slapped part of the poison tablets from her lips—

"It is not thought that she will recover."

You will recall—

BEFORE THE DOOR OF THE OWLS' CLUB a young man was shot to death.

Is it not time to call a halt?

Should mothers be required to bargain with club managers for the protection of their girls?

Should Chairman Johnson, of the Police Committee of Council, and a member of the POLICE BOARD, give as the reason for his committee's action, in recommending to COUNCIL the licensing of LOCKER-CLUBS, the failure of the police to make cases, when the COMMITTEE knows each locker-club holds a United States liquor license prima facie EVIDENCE of guilt?

How long must Atlanta endure this situation?

SHOULD THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL LICENSE MEN, WHO HAVE BROKEN THE LAW, TO BREAK THE LAW AGAIN?

Tomorrow come to the Grand and answer, not as we say, but as your conscience dictates.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

LOS ANGELES WINS TOM MORRIS TROPHY

Chicago, June 18—Official reports of the Tom Morris competition received today by Secretary Heneberry, of the Western Golf association, placed the score of the Los Angeles Country club team at 24 instead of 25 down. The reports received up to tonight practically confirmed the coast players' victory, as no other club has claimed a better score.

Cochran 2, Eastman 1.

Cochran, Ga., June 18—Cochran defeated Eastman in a ten-inning game, 2 to 1. Camp, for Cochran, out-pitched Weaver in the battle, allowing Eastman only four scattered hits. Cochran and Hawkinsville commence here Monday five games, and they will be the hardest fought games of the season, drawing large attendance.

Score by innings: Cochran 100 000 000 1-2 7 8; Eastman 000 010 000 0-1 4 5

FOURTH DROPPED TO SCHMIDTMEN

Crackers Stage Hectic Rally in Eighth Which Fell One Short—Game Was Exciting.

By Carl Taylor. The Gulls annexed the fourth game of the series (Friday night) after a pretty rally by the count of 8 to 7, the game being exciting and thrilling throughout.

Frank Hunt, whom the locals secured from Mercer, made his debut, but was not so successful as he had been in previous games. Hunt seemed to be suffering from some ailment. This was his first try at professional ball, and while he seemed to have his fast one hopping he was unable to hit. He appeared very nervous. However, he allowed only two hits, both of them singles.

In the eighth round, with Mobile having a six-run lead, the locals staged a pretty rally and with two men down, counted four runs. At this juncture, Manager Schmidt yanked Hogg and brought Bill Townsend into the affair. With one on he walked Manning and hit Kaufman, filling the sacks. But Hogg failed to deliver in the pinch and fanned. The Gulls would have won the game for the locals.

The Gulls played good ball and with the exception of the second and eighth rounds Hogg pitched winning ball. He controlled the game until the eighth, when he threatened to become dangerous. He would invariably tighten and although the Crackers had several excellent chances, he held them scoreless in all except the two innings mentioned. Lindy Helt, who was substituted for Hunt held the Gulls well in check until the sixth round when he gave up four hits and two runs. With a wild throw to the plate by Manning enabled the Gulls to walk four bases. This was the only inning that the Gulls were able to solve the delivery of Helt successfully. Several times the Gulls had holes but none of them resulted disastrously. Bill Rumer was forced to retire from the game in the sixth inning. Manning's throw to the plate to catch Miller hit right in front of the Crackers' big catcher and bounced up hitting him in the face. He stuck the inning out but had to retire after Mobile had been put out.

Schmidt Hits Well. Charley Schmidt the Gulls' catcher was the hitting star of the game getting three hits, two of which went to the platter one of which went for two bags. Billy Lee's two-base wallop to the hill in left field with the bags loaded in the eighth was the batting feature of the game from the Crackers' standpoint. Lee had previously been fanned by Hogg twice Hogg making him hit on slots out and then by Manning the sacks came as a pleasant surprise.

Box scores for Atlanta and Mobile. Atlanta: Moran cf 5 1 2 0 0 0; Williams 2b 4 2 3 1 4 0; Lee lf 1 0 1 1 1 0; Manning rf 1 0 1 1 1 0; Kaufman 1b 4 0 1 13 0 0; Hiltnd as 1 1 1 2 4 1 0; Korfthagen 3b 5 1 2 2 0 0 0; Hunt p 2 1 1 0 1 0 1; Hirt p 1 0 1 0 0 0 0; Jenkins c 1 0 1 0 0 0 0. Totals 36 7 12 27 12 1.

FLAG LEAGUE.

Waycross 8, Gainesville 1. Waycross Ga. June 18—(Special)—Wiggins kept his hits scattered today and Gainesville was defeated 8 to 1. Dunning's homer over the right field fence scored the only run. The pitchers were used in the visitors' line-up, slow fielding being responsible for the numerous extra base hits.

Brunswick 11, Valdosta 2. Brunswick Ga. June 18—(Special)—Baker was wild and was hit hard in the first two innings of today's game and Brunswick defeated Valdosta 11 to 2. After the second inning the game was played in record time.

Thomasville 5, Dothan 4. Dothan Ala. June 18—(Special)—Thomasville set the pennant hopes of the Crackers by defeating the locals 5 to 4. The game was featured by the base running of the visitors. There were two steals of home. March stole four bases.

BUSINESS IS GOOD, STATE MERCHANTS

Southern Wholesale Dry Goods Men Prosper and Eastern Concerns Reduce Their Sales Force.

Consistently inconsistent Dame Fashion will be just a little more so than usual this winter, if the prognostications of the Southern Wholesale Dry Goods Merchants, in session at the Piedmont on Friday, pan out. After a session of several hours Friday afternoon and a banquet at night Secretary Norman H. Johnson, of Richmond, was able to announce that this winter midday will wear sheer materials. Secretary Johnson, who is an expert in such matters, explained that "sheer materials" means cloth that is very thin and easily penetrated by atmosphere, sunlight, vision and other such intangibles. "Such a whim of fashion, of course," he said, "is to be expected after a summer of coruscous, white fur neck-pieces and velvet-covered hats, to say nothing of stiff collars for women and open-work shirts for men."

Third Division Meeting.
The findings of the merchants, however, consisted also of things more substantial than "sheer materials." It was the third division—there being four divisions in all—which met in Atlanta Friday. This division included South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. Every wholesale dry goods member of this territory was represented and the present conditions, with their past "whys" and future "whats" were thrashed out pretty thoroughly.

It was found that the increase of the business of southern jobbers has been such that many eastern concerns have reduced their sales force in this territory. It was also shown that southern jobbers are able to duplicate by eastern concerns. In other words, substantial competition is going on.

The merchants are of the opinion that, although it is reported that the manufacturers and commission men who are primary controllers of the market, have shortened their terms to the jobbing trade, southern jobbers will not find it necessary to shorten their terms to retailers to an extent so great as might have been anticipated. The betterment of the jobbing retail trade, it was pointed out, is a matter of terms on the part of the jobbers will apply only to such concerns as have not been taking discounts. Usual discounts will not be changed.

Retailers Protected.
The general trend of the market shows that cottons and woollens are advancing, but it seems that southern jobbers placed orders early enough to protect retailers on early orders. Silks will probably not advance, as American manufacturers have increased their facilities for domestic demands and imports have not fallen off as much as had been expected. The dye situation seems to be responsible for most advances. Jobbers find that the great readjustment which has taken place since last August is gradually bringing business conditions back to normal. CONCRETE FOUNDATION BEATEN IN COMMITTEE

The street committee, Friday with only one dissenting vote, that of Mr. George Thompson, has voted to rescind an ordinance recently introduced in general council by Alderman George Thompson and which would continue the work by direct taxation. The street railway company is forced to lay a solid concrete foundation under all of its tracks. The Georgia Railway and Power company, appeared before the committee and discussed at length the relative value of concrete over rolled ballast. He submitted facts and figures showing that concrete had proved unsuccessful in many cities and that the majority of the street railway companies were using ballast.

The ordinance was submitted to general council Monday afternoon with the recommendation that it be rescinded.

ACTION OF INNES IN PULLING TEETH PUZZLES OFFICERS

Did compliance with some law of mysticism—of which he is a devout disciple—prompt Victor E. Innes, a suspect in the famous Neims sisters mystery, to extract two sound and normal teeth within a few moments following advice that the United States supreme court had denied him privilege of a reduced bail?

It is a question that has stirred San Antonio, Texas, in which city Innes and his wife are imprisoned awaiting action of the United States courts on their extradition resistance. Mrs. John W. Neims Friday received a telegram describing the action of the prisoner—when he received a wire from Washington telling of the supreme court's action, he deliberately affixed a cord to two of his front teeth, then jerked out both teeth, each of which, on examination, proved to be sound and normal.

The prisoner would offer no explanation of his act.

Innes, for years, has been a student of mysticism and spiritualism. San Antonio newspapers have advanced the speculation: Was the act committed in atonement, or does it indicate signs of mental aberration? The health of both Innes and his wife is known to be rapidly on the decline, due to their long imprisonment.

BELIEVE LEE NEGRO WAS SHOT BY HENSON

It is now the belief of city detectives that a negro by the name of Henry Lee, who died at the Gray hospital early Friday morning, from gunshot wounds, was wounded Wednesday night by Charles A. Henson, of Millidge avenue, when Mr. Henson and his son routed two burglars who were attempting to break into his residence. Lee admitted to Detective Sturdivant and Chevington shortly before his death that he was wounded in the neighborhood of 34 Millidge avenue.

WHAT IS A TRADING STATEMENT?

It should be designed to show the Gross Profits on trading. That is, the excess of the amount charged goods sold over their purchase price, together with any expense attendant on their acquisition. A grocery firm, for instance, prepares a Trading Statement at the end of the year to show what it has made or lost by selling goods. In preparing such a statement the services of a Certified Public Accountant are valuable in locating leaks and tightening loose joints.
