

problem of his administration. When he returned to his desk tonight he found the pile of telegrams had increased. They had been coming in scores from all parts of the country. Many urged the adoption of severe measures. Several among them a few from workmen's organizations, advised a declaration of war as the surest preventive of further affronts to American dignity. Others suggested a severance of all diplomatic relations until adequate reparation and apology was made. Still others counseled a peaceful course but advocated the sinking of messages that justified the sinking.

Secretary Bryan, who spent the day at home also, received many messages bearing on the situation similar to those that came to the white house. The president plans to go to Philadelphia late tomorrow to deliver there in the evening a speech which observers generally believe will give expression to his own feeling on the situation produced by the sinking of the Lusitania. He is to address a meeting of 4,000 naturalized Americans arranged for several weeks ago by the bureau of naturalization of the department of commerce to launch a systematic campaign for the education of new citizens to a right understanding of the duties Secretary Tumulty went to Philadelphia today to make arrangements for the trip. Mr. Wilson will return early Tuesday, and a few hours later the regular meeting of the cabinet will take place, when it is generally expected he will lay before his advisers the policy he has in mind and ask their counsel.

NO GUNS CARRIED BY THE LUSITANIA.

On the questions of law involved in the sinking of the Lusitania the Washington government long ago stated its position to Germany. Law officers of the government were unanimous in their opinion shared by the president, that there is no warrant under law or reason for the destruction of an unarmed merchant ship even when without warning the passengers at the time the ship is encountered, and transferring non-combatants to a place of safety.

The official statement from Berlin, which came by wireless, admitting that a German submarine had sunk the Lusitania and pointing out that the big liner was naturally armed with guns, was widely commented upon by officials. On the highest authority it was stated that as early as last September, when Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, called attention to the arrival in American ports of British liners, among them the Adriatic, with guns aboard, the question was taken up by the state department. It was ruled by the department that a merchant vessel could not be classed as a warship if she carried guns not larger than 6-inch caliber for defensive purposes, but, nevertheless, informal negotiations were begun immediately with Great Britain and an understanding was reached whereby no British vessels clearing from American ports would be armed. It is the duty of the port authorities in New York each time a ship asks for clearance to see that no guns mounted or unmounted are carried on belligerent vessels. Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port and British consul, has been asked by the Washington government as to whether the Lusitania carried any armament, and has reported that she carried out the terms of the understanding as originally entered into with the British government, and had no guns aboard.

VON BERNSTORFF MAINTAINS SILENCE.

The tenacity of the situation was hardly reflected in the Sunday train quality of executive quarters here, but among diplomats and officials the all-absorbing topic of conversation was the probable attitude of the United States. Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador returned to the embassy, but declared that no expression would be given without instructions from Berlin. He said the German official statement concerning the disaster made comment from the embassy unnecessary. The unofficial Austro-German opinion here, however, emphasizes, to justify the act, the presence of ammunition on a passenger ship and argues that the sacrifice of passengers was less in the balance than the toll that would have been taken by the ammunition had it reached the allies.

GERMAN PROPAGANDA HAS ANNOYED WILSON.

The president has watched without open comment, but it is known with disapproval, the complaints of the German officials, who regard the question of neutrality and the efforts to array German-American sentiment against the Washington administration as a means of urging an embargo on a means of war against the allies. At first the German government admitted that there was no violation of international law in the sale by private individuals of munitions of war. When the German ambassador in London was amazed at the American opinion memorandum, practically accused the United States government of not being neutral in the question of permitting shipments of munitions, the president was angry. The sinking of the American steamer Frye, the attack on the Falaba which caused the drowning of an American citizen, Leon C. Thrasher, the wrecking without warning of the merchant tank ship Guilford, the dropping of bombs on the American steamer Cushing and finally the torpedoing of the giant liner Lusitania constitute a series of incidents which the president is trying to interpret. He wants to be certain whether they range themselves in order toward a grave climax of a carefully planned policy of hostility to the United States, or whether the sequence is casual and the German government friendly relations with the Washington government.

GERMANY SCHEMING TO INVOLVE UNITED STATES.

If the German government, as not a few diplomats and officials fear is anxious to draw the United States into the European conflict in the hope that the defense at home will reduce the supply of arms to the allies, some officials believe the situation must be considered in the light of other possibilities and incidents in the future which might be calculated to agitate public feeling in the United States.

Neutral governments are anxious to know what the course of the United States will be. They have frequently intimated to the American government their willingness to join in any movement which might effectively protect the rights of neutrals. They have promised their moral support if the United States traditionally has been opposed to joint action of any kind some observers think a continuing may arise as the international situation develops, which may make necessary conversations with the neutral countries on a common policy to safeguard the rights of neutrals.

BROTHER OF KLEIN HOPES AGAINST HOPE.

London, May 9.—Thirty survivors of the Lusitania arrived in London at 10 o'clock this morning. Walter James Page, the American ambassador and Dr. Carter and Irwin B. Laughlin, of the embassy met the train at Euston station, waiting the train bearing the survivors was Mrs. F. C. Stephen of Montreal, whose 13-month-old son and mother have not been mentioned in the lists of those saved. The husband a Canadian officer was brought to a French hospital at Dieppe (Thursday). The baby was his grandmother were hurrying to London to see the child's father. Another anxious watcher, hoping against hope, was Manuel Klein, the composer, a brother of Charles Klein, the American playwright.

Self-Abasement.

(From Judge.) Every man should know by himself remarked the parlor philosopher. "Perhaps," said the mere man, "but in the great line of the world that might be spent in making more desirable acquaintances."

tion here, however, emphasizes, to justify the act, the presence of ammunition on a passenger ship and argues that the sacrifice of passengers was less in the balance than the toll that would have been taken by the ammunition had it reached the allies. During the day the German ambassador received an anonymous letter warning him that at 1:32 a. m. tomorrow he would be blown up by the police, but he paid no serious attention to what he regarded as the work of a crank. All eyes continued to be focused on the white house, where the final decision on the policy to be pursued by the United States is to be made. Only the president's most intimate advisers know of the complexities of the problem before him. It not only concerns the attack on the Lusitania, with nearly 300 Americans on board, but a series of incidents indicating a period of strained relations with Germany for many weeks.

DEATH ROLL GOES WELL UP TO 1,500.

London, May 9.—Latest estimates here put the death roll in the sinking of the Cunarder Lusitania at well up to 1,500.

No Hope That There May Be Further Survivors. About 700 Escaped When the Lusitania Went Down.

Superintendent Dodd, of the Cunard Line, today dashed lingering hopes that there might be further survivors in a statement that said: "The only possible hope is to identify the names of the dead."

Lord Mersey is to conduct an inquiry into the disaster, and until that begins official opinion as to how the Lusitania came to be lost, will remain a matter of conjecture.

Every person seeking passage on a vessel crossing the Atlantic can obtain through the Cunard line a vessel which is carrying munitions of war and stands the chance of meeting the fate of the Lusitania.

The desire of the German government to keep peace and continue her friendly relations with America, added Dr. Dernburg.

Called "SUCCESS" FOR GERMAN NAVY.

Amsterdam, May 9.—(Via London)—The Frankfurter Zeitung says sinking of the Lusitania means an extraordinary success. Its destruction demolishes the last fabric with which the people of England consoled themselves on which hostile shipping relied when it dared to defy the German warnings.

BERLIN JUBILATES OVER THE HORROR.

London, May 9.—A Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, says: "The emperor drove to the ministry of marine Saturday for a conference with Admiral von Tirpitz. Great enthusiasm was displayed here over the sinking of the Lusitania, demonstrations being held before the government buildings. The sinking of the Lusitania has made the Germans for get Italy."

Second Torpedo Hit Steamer.

The heavy loss of life on the Lusitania was due, passengers believe, to the fact that some officers at least remained on the ship after the first torpedo struck. The Lusitania would remain afloat. Preparations were made to launch the boats, but before this the second torpedo struck the ship.

Another factor was the extreme confidence of the passengers themselves in the infallibility of the water-tight bulkheads.

The Lusitania was not in the British navy list for April and in the merchant vessels commissioned as British auxiliary craft, and Cunard officials deny that she ever was used for that purpose.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN GLUED TO LINER'S SIDE.

When She Took Plunge—Survivor Describes Last Minutes on Lusitania.

London, May 9.—Survivors of the Lusitania who arrived in London today all had thrilling experiences. E. M. Collins of Chicago, jumped into the sea and clung to a log for two hours before he was rescued.

I. J. Milford, of Maryland was dragged into a boat after swimming for twenty minutes of New York, said.

"On the decks absolute calmness prevailed after the first torpedo was launched. I did not notice any concerted effort to distribute life belts and I was unable to obtain one. My wife and I were the boats apparently did not meet with much success.

"Women were standing quite calmly waiting for an opportunity to enter the boats when they should be released by the men from the davits. I saw the list of the ship when the list was so great we could not get away before the ship went down. So I turned around to watch the great ship heel over. The monster took a second torpedo and the ship was split on her decks and boats filled with helpless women and children glued to her side.

There was a thunderous roar then she disappeared dragging with her a mass of men, women and children into the vortex. Many never rose to the surface but the few rapidly grew black with the figures of struggling men and women and children were saved.

HE SAW THE SUBMARINE AND TRAIL OF TORPEDO.

Robert Rankin, American Survivor, Cables Washington His Story of Tragedy.

Washington, May 9.—Statements by Americans of the Lusitania disaster to the state department tonight by Consul Frost, at Queenstown, gave brief, graphic stories of the destruction of the Lusitania. The greatest tragedy of the war, Robert Rankin, of New York, told of seeing the submarine, of watching it as it sped toward the Lusitania and of the bursting of the liner's boiler, which caused the ship to be struck.

Mr. Rankin's statement follows:

"At 12 noon ship began zig-zag course off Irish coast. At 1:20 p. m. I saw a white trail in the water. Went lunch twenty minutes. After rear starboard deck at about 2 o'clock ship's list. I saw a group of four sighted submarine, low black ridge about quarter mile starboard. Lusitania quivered and started to list. A thick fog horn till about 10 a. m. and was still steaming about 15 knots. Torpedo hit about 1:50 p. m. and ship traveled rapidly toward boat, leaving white trail. Struck ship not far from starboard. Explosion tore through boiler room. Explosion tore upward through deck, destroying part of forward life boat. The second torpedo exploded immediately and began to fill through open ports and holes caused by explosion. The ship was lowered and we pushed off. Rescued two ladies and one man from water. Did not actually see ship sinking. Reached Queenstown at 2 p. m. met on wharf by consul, who took me to the consulate and then placed me in a motor car. A young woman, an American lady, of Brantford, from whom I heard that she had experienced much kindness. Did not see submarine."

DERNBURG DEFENDS LUSITANIA HORROR.

New York, May 9.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former colonial secretary, in a talk with representatives of the press here tonight, reiterated statements he made in Cleveland yesterday, holding that Germany was justified in sinking the Cunard liner Lusitania. Dr. Dernburg said that the act merely showed the determination of Germany to carry out its announced policy of preventing any ships carrying munitions of war and supplies from reaching British ports.

"I am sure," Dr. Dernburg said "that Germany regrets the loss of life of Americans through sinking of the Lusitania, but sufficient warning was given in an incident such as the Lusitania affair a submarine cannot give an necessary warning. The Lusitania is a fast boat. It could speed out of range of a submarine in a short time."

"For this reason the German government thought its embassy in Washington warned Americans before the ship sailed. That was the next best thing that could be done."

"Every person seeking passage on a vessel crossing the Atlantic can obtain through the Cunard line a vessel which is carrying munitions of war and stands the chance of meeting the fate of the Lusitania."

The desire of the German government to keep peace and continue her friendly relations with America, added Dr. Dernburg.

Called "SUCCESS" FOR GERMAN NAVY.

Amsterdam, May 9.—(Via London)—The Frankfurter Zeitung says sinking of the Lusitania means an extraordinary success. Its destruction demolishes the last fabric with which the people of England consoled themselves on which hostile shipping relied when it dared to defy the German warnings.

BERLIN JUBILATES OVER THE HORROR.

London, May 9.—A Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, says: "The emperor drove to the ministry of marine Saturday for a conference with Admiral von Tirpitz. Great enthusiasm was displayed here over the sinking of the Lusitania, demonstrations being held before the government buildings. The sinking of the Lusitania has made the Germans for get Italy."

Second Torpedo Hit Steamer.

The heavy loss of life on the Lusitania was due, passengers believe, to the fact that some officers at least remained on the ship after the first torpedo struck. The Lusitania would remain afloat. Preparations were made to launch the boats, but before this the second torpedo struck the ship.

Another factor was the extreme confidence of the passengers themselves in the infallibility of the water-tight bulkheads.

The Lusitania was not in the British navy list for April and in the merchant vessels commissioned as British auxiliary craft, and Cunard officials deny that she ever was used for that purpose.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN GLUED TO LINER'S SIDE.

When She Took Plunge—Survivor Describes Last Minutes on Lusitania.

London, May 9.—Survivors of the Lusitania who arrived in London today all had thrilling experiences. E. M. Collins of Chicago, jumped into the sea and clung to a log for two hours before he was rescued.

I. J. Milford, of Maryland was dragged into a boat after swimming for twenty minutes of New York, said.

"On the decks absolute calmness prevailed after the first torpedo was launched. I did not notice any concerted effort to distribute life belts and I was unable to obtain one. My wife and I were the boats apparently did not meet with much success.

"Women were standing quite calmly waiting for an opportunity to enter the boats when they should be released by the men from the davits. I saw the list of the ship when the list was so great we could not get away before the ship went down. So I turned around to watch the great ship heel over. The monster took a second torpedo and the ship was split on her decks and boats filled with helpless women and children glued to her side.

HE SAW THE SUBMARINE AND TRAIL OF TORPEDO.

Robert Rankin, American Survivor, Cables Washington His Story of Tragedy.

Washington, May 9.—Statements by Americans of the Lusitania disaster to the state department tonight by Consul Frost, at Queenstown, gave brief, graphic stories of the destruction of the Lusitania. The greatest tragedy of the war, Robert Rankin, of New York, told of seeing the submarine, of watching it as it sped toward the Lusitania and of the bursting of the liner's boiler, which caused the ship to be struck.

Mr. Rankin's statement follows:

"At 12 noon ship began zig-zag course off Irish coast. At 1:20 p. m. I saw a white trail in the water. Went lunch twenty minutes. After rear starboard deck at about 2 o'clock ship's list. I saw a group of four sighted submarine, low black ridge about quarter mile starboard. Lusitania quivered and started to list. A thick fog horn till about 10 a. m. and was still steaming about 15 knots. Torpedo hit about 1:50 p. m. and ship traveled rapidly toward boat, leaving white trail. Struck ship not far from starboard. Explosion tore through boiler room. Explosion tore upward through deck, destroying part of forward life boat. The second torpedo exploded immediately and began to fill through open ports and holes caused by explosion. The ship was lowered and we pushed off. Rescued two ladies and one man from water. Did not actually see ship sinking. Reached Queenstown at 2 p. m. met on wharf by consul, who took me to the consulate and then placed me in a motor car. A young woman, an American lady, of Brantford, from whom I heard that she had experienced much kindness. Did not see submarine."

DEATH ROLL GOES WELL UP TO 1,500.

London, May 9.—Latest estimates here put the death roll in the sinking of the Cunarder Lusitania at well up to 1,500.

No Hope That There May Be Further Survivors. About 700 Escaped When the Lusitania Went Down.

Superintendent Dodd, of the Cunard Line, today dashed lingering hopes that there might be further survivors in a statement that said: "The only possible hope is to identify the names of the dead."

Lord Mersey is to conduct an inquiry into the disaster, and until that begins official opinion as to how the Lusitania came to be lost, will remain a matter of conjecture.

Every person seeking passage on a vessel crossing the Atlantic can obtain through the Cunard line a vessel which is carrying munitions of war and stands the chance of meeting the fate of the Lusitania.

The desire of the German government to keep peace and continue her friendly relations with America, added Dr. Dernburg.

Called "SUCCESS" FOR GERMAN NAVY.

Amsterdam, May 9.—(Via London)—The Frankfurter Zeitung says sinking of the Lusitania means an extraordinary success. Its destruction demolishes the last fabric with which the people of England consoled themselves on which hostile shipping relied when it dared to defy the German warnings.

BERLIN JUBILATES OVER THE HORROR.

London, May 9.—A Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, says: "The emperor drove to the ministry of marine Saturday for a conference with Admiral von Tirpitz. Great enthusiasm was displayed here over the sinking of the Lusitania, demonstrations being held before the government buildings. The sinking of the Lusitania has made the Germans for get Italy."

Second Torpedo Hit Steamer.

The heavy loss of life on the Lusitania was due, passengers believe, to the fact that some officers at least remained on the ship after the first torpedo struck. The Lusitania would remain afloat. Preparations were made to launch the boats, but before this the second torpedo struck the ship.

Another factor was the extreme confidence of the passengers themselves in the infallibility of the water-tight bulkheads.

The Lusitania was not in the British navy list for April and in the merchant vessels commissioned as British auxiliary craft, and Cunard officials deny that she ever was used for that purpose.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN GLUED TO LINER'S SIDE.

When She Took Plunge—Survivor Describes Last Minutes on Lusitania.

London, May 9.—Survivors of the Lusitania who arrived in London today all had thrilling experiences. E. M. Collins of Chicago, jumped into the sea and clung to a log for two hours before he was rescued.

I. J. Milford, of Maryland was dragged into a boat after swimming for twenty minutes of New York, said.

"On the decks absolute calmness prevailed after the first torpedo was launched. I did not notice any concerted effort to distribute life belts and I was unable to obtain one. My wife and I were the boats apparently did not meet with much success.

"Women were standing quite calmly waiting for an opportunity to enter the boats when they should be released by the men from the davits. I saw the list of the ship when the list was so great we could not get away before the ship went down. So I turned around to watch the great ship heel over. The monster took a second torpedo and the ship was split on her decks and boats filled with helpless women and children glued to her side.

HE SAW THE SUBMARINE AND TRAIL OF TORPEDO.

Robert Rankin, American Survivor, Cables Washington His Story of Tragedy.

Washington, May 9.—Statements by Americans of the Lusitania disaster to the state department tonight by Consul Frost, at Queenstown, gave brief, graphic stories of the destruction of the Lusitania. The greatest tragedy of the war, Robert Rankin, of New York, told of seeing the submarine, of watching it as it sped toward the Lusitania and of the bursting of the liner's boiler, which caused the ship to be struck.

Mr. Rankin's statement follows:

"At 12 noon ship began zig-zag course off Irish coast. At 1:20 p. m. I saw a white trail in the water. Went lunch twenty minutes. After rear starboard deck at about 2 o'clock ship's list. I saw a group of four sighted submarine, low black ridge about quarter mile starboard. Lusitania quivered and started to list. A thick fog horn till about 10 a. m. and was still steaming about 15 knots. Torpedo hit about 1:50 p. m. and ship traveled rapidly toward boat, leaving white trail. Struck ship not far from starboard. Explosion tore through boiler room. Explosion tore upward through deck, destroying part of forward life boat. The second torpedo exploded immediately and began to fill through open ports and holes caused by explosion. The ship was lowered and we pushed off. Rescued two ladies and one man from water. Did not actually see ship sinking. Reached Queenstown at 2 p. m. met on wharf by consul, who took me to the consulate and then placed me in a motor car. A young woman, an American lady, of Brantford, from whom I heard that she had experienced much kindness. Did not see submarine."

DERNBURG DEFENDS LUSITANIA HORROR.

New York, May 9.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former colonial secretary, in a talk with representatives of the press here tonight, reiterated statements he made in Cleveland yesterday, holding that Germany was justified in sinking the Cunard liner Lusitania. Dr. Dernburg said that the act merely showed the determination of Germany to carry out its announced policy of preventing any ships carrying munitions of war and supplies from reaching British ports.

"I am sure," Dr. Dernburg said "that Germany regrets the loss of life of Americans through sinking of the Lusitania, but sufficient warning was given in an incident such as the Lusitania affair a submarine cannot give an necessary warning. The Lusitania is a fast boat. It could speed out of range of a submarine in a short time."

"For this reason the German government thought its embassy in Washington warned Americans before the ship sailed. That was the next best thing that could be done."

"Every person seeking passage on a vessel crossing the Atlantic can obtain through the Cunard line a vessel which is carrying munitions of war and stands the chance of meeting the fate of the Lusitania."

The desire of the German government to keep peace and continue her friendly relations with America, added Dr. Dernburg.

Called "SUCCESS" FOR GERMAN NAVY.

Amsterdam, May 9.—(Via London)—The Frankfurter Zeitung says sinking of the Lusitania means an extraordinary success. Its destruction demolishes the last fabric with which the people of England consoled themselves on which hostile shipping relied when it dared to defy the German warnings.

BERLIN JUBILATES OVER THE HORROR.

London, May 9.—A Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, says: "The emperor drove to the ministry of marine Saturday for a conference with Admiral von Tirpitz. Great enthusiasm was displayed here over the sinking of the Lusitania, demonstrations being held before the government buildings. The sinking of the Lusitania has made the Germans for get Italy."

Second Torpedo Hit Steamer.

The heavy loss of life on the Lusitania was due, passengers believe, to the fact that some officers at least remained on the ship after the first torpedo struck. The Lusitania would remain afloat. Preparations were made to launch the boats, but before this the second torpedo struck the ship.

Another factor was the extreme confidence of the passengers themselves in the infallibility of the water-tight bulkheads.

The Lusitania was not in the British navy list for April and in the merchant vessels commissioned as British auxiliary craft, and Cunard officials deny that she ever was used for that purpose.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN GLUED TO LINER'S SIDE.

When She Took Plunge—Survivor Describes Last Minutes on Lusitania.

London, May 9.—Survivors of the Lusitania who arrived in London today all had thrilling experiences. E. M. Collins of Chicago, jumped into the sea and clung to a log for two hours before he was rescued.

I. J. Milford, of Maryland was dragged into a boat after swimming for twenty minutes of New York, said.

"On the decks absolute calmness prevailed after the first torpedo was launched. I did not notice any concerted effort to distribute life belts and I was unable to obtain one. My wife and I were the boats apparently did not meet with much success.

"Women were standing quite calmly waiting for an opportunity to enter the boats when they should be released by the men from the davits. I saw the list of the ship when the list was so great we could not get away before the ship went down. So I turned around to watch the great ship heel over. The monster took a second torpedo and the ship was split on her decks and boats filled with helpless women and children glued to her side.

HE SAW THE SUBMARINE AND TRAIL OF TORPEDO.

Robert Rankin, American Survivor, Cables Washington His Story of Tragedy.

Washington, May 9.—Statements by Americans of the Lusitania disaster to the state department tonight by Consul Frost, at Queenstown, gave brief, graphic stories of the destruction of the Lusitania. The greatest tragedy of the war, Robert Rankin, of New York, told of seeing the submarine, of watching it as it sped toward the Lusitania and of the bursting of the liner's boiler, which caused the ship to be struck.

Mr. Rankin's statement follows:

"At 12 noon ship began zig-zag course off Irish coast. At 1:20 p. m. I saw a white trail in the water. Went lunch twenty minutes. After rear starboard deck at about 2 o'clock ship's list. I saw a group of four sighted submarine, low black ridge about quarter mile starboard. Lusitania quivered and started to list. A thick fog horn till about 10 a. m. and was still steaming about 15 knots. Torpedo hit about 1:50 p. m. and ship traveled rapidly toward boat, leaving white trail. Struck ship not far from starboard. Explosion tore through boiler room. Explosion tore upward through deck, destroying part of forward life boat. The second torpedo exploded immediately and began to fill through open ports and holes caused by explosion. The ship was lowered and we pushed off. Rescued two ladies and one man from water. Did not actually see ship sinking. Reached Queenstown at 2 p. m. met on wharf by consul, who took me to the consulate and then placed me in a motor car. A young woman, an American lady, of Brantford, from whom I heard that she had experienced much kindness. Did not see submarine."

NO CONVOY GIVEN TO THE LUSITANIA.

Queenstown, May 9.—Injured survivors of the Lusitania are reported to be progressing today. Of the volume of the volume has been better than Dr. Howard Fisher of New York, who was rescued after being in the water three hours.

Dr. Fisher now numbers among his patients Lady Mackworth, Lady Allan, of Montreal, and Dr. Fisher's sister in law, Miss Dorothy Conner, who also is a cousin of Henry L. Stimson ex secretary of war of the United States.

Dr. Fisher, a brother of Walter L. Fisher, former secretary of the interior of the United States, was on his way to Belgium for Red Cross duty. His story follows:

It is not true that those on board were unconcerned over the possibility of being torpedoed. I took the big liner to save time and also because in case of a floating mine I felt she would have more chance of staying up. But like everybody else aboard I felt sure in case of being torpedoed, that we would have time to take to the boats.

Precautions Not Up to Standard. I do not know what case is being made out for the Cunard people but I cannot say that either discipline or precautions were up to the standard.

Another passenger who was rescued to the port side. No officer was in sight. An effort was being made to lower the boats. I saw the explosion from the grand entrance. Women children and men made a mad scramble about this boat, which was small, and the side, throwing all the occupants into the sea.

I saw a sailor and a passenger launched a second boat which carried chiefly women and children.

We then saw our first glimpse of the sea. I was on the deck and spoke to Lady Mackworth Miss Conner and myself who were standing in a group. Don't worry the ship will right itself. He hardly hardly moved on before the ship turned sideways and then seemed to plunge headforemost into the sea.

I came up surrounded by swimmers dead bodies and wreckage. I got on an upturned raft where I found thirty other people, among them Lady Allan whose collarbone was broken. Another passenger on the raft saw a man whose name I did not learn had his arm hanging by the skin. His injury probably was due to the explosion. This arm was amputated successfully with a butcher knife by an Italian surgeon aboard a tramp steamer which picked me up.

This tramp was flying the Greek flag. Hence the report that a Greek vessel was on the scene. It was midnight before I arrived at a hotel in Queenstown.

I do not see how either the Cunard or the government can be held responsible free from blame for this tragedy. The authorities allowed a great ship to be blown to pieces and to proceed through known dangerous waters without a single torpedo boat as a convoy.

ANTI-GERMAN RIOTING OCCURS AT LIVERPOOL.

Liverpool, May 9.—The torpedoing of the Cunard Lusitania roused the feeling against the Germans here to fever heat and a number of shops owned by Germans were wrecked to day.

Windows were broken and the contents of the stores were scattered about the streets. Fifty policemen were called out made twenty arrests but the rioters were so violent in their efforts to rescue comrades that the police were forced to use batons to quell the disturbance.

The attacks were renewed tonight. Most of the rioters were Germans and the relatives of those of the Cunard line.

Several shops were wrecked and the contents piled in the streets and burned.

Many arrests were made although so many police have joined the army that the Liverpool force is hardly able to cope with the outbreak.

JEWISH WOMEN WILL HOLD MEETING TODAY.

The annual meeting of the Council of Jewish Women will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the vestry of the Temple. Election of officers and reading of reports will be the features. A very fine musical program has been arranged.

YOU'LL FIND IT AT Kamper's

SPECIAL Best Virginia Hand Packed CANNED TOMATOES Per Can, Monday and Tuesday only 6 1/2c

SPECIAL Jiffy Brush Combination 3 1/2c cans Spotless Cleanser 15c 1 1/2c can Lustre Polish 10c 1 1/2c Jiffy Brush 25c TOTAL THIS SPOTLESS CLEANER COMBINATION all for 25c YOU get a real 25c Brush Free

SPECIAL Kamper's Sp/ Oil Mop 60c A 25c bottle of Oil FREE with this Mop at less than half price

SPECIAL WE GIVE YOU A REAL LOAF OF BREAD 5 Pkgs. Starch 25c Atlanta Made—Best Quality. A Loaf of Bread Free With Each Purchase.

SPECIAL TELMO PEARS 1 Doz. 20c Cans $1.59 PHONE IVY 5000 482-490 PEACHTREE STREET

GRINGTON-SHUMAKER Business College Corner S. Pryor and Hunter Sts. Atlanta, Ga. MONTELA FOR TUITION. Class rooms equipped with every modern convenience. INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION given by the proprietors in person. Catalogue Free

DEED OF GERMANS APPALLS THE WORLD

Press of All Countries Denounce the Sinking of the Lusitania as Unpardonable Crime Against Humanity.

Christiana, May 9.—(Via London)—The mad and reckless actions of German submarines...

PRO-GERMAN EDITOR CALLS IT REVOLTING.

Stockholm, May 9.—(Via London)—The conservative newspaper, Nya Dagligt Allehandan...

ACTION EXPECTED BY UNITED STATES.

Rome, May 9.—(Via Paris)—Interest in the Lusitania grew today as fresh details became known...

GERMANY SEEKING TO ANTAGONIZE WORLD.

Paris, May 9.—The Journal Des Debats, referring to the Lusitania says...

CIVILIZED WORLD FILLED WITH HORROR.

Copenhagen, May 9.—(Via London)—Commenting on the torpedoing of the Lusitania...

SMEAR OF FLOTSAM MARKS OCEAN GRAVE.

Continued From Page One. had climbed into a boat that there was no immediate danger...

grammed the small government telegraph office, where three clerks and three operators strove desperately...

IN FOUR MORGUES ARE THE CORPSES.

In four morgues lay the dead, women in some cases side by side with children grouped like toys...

WIRELESS WARNING TO LUSITANIA.

Queenstown was almost as much dazed by the tragedy as those aboard the Lusitania.

GIRL HEROINE IS DEVELOPED.

The brief time lapsing between the torpedoing and sinking of the Lusitania was long enough to develop a heroine in Miss Kathleen Kaye...

TXANS ESCAPE AS BY MIRACLE.

One of the most remarkable escapes of the Lusitania was that of Miss Maudie also of Gainesville...

ONLY 22 AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Advices to Washington Put Number of Known American Survivors at Eighty.

SEVERAL AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Queenstown, May 9.—Miss Dorothy Connor, of Washington, D. C., was a cabin passenger, is among the survivors here.

U. S. LINER NEW YORK REACHES LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 9.—The American liner steamship New York, which sailed for Liverpool last Saturday...

WOMEN AND CHILDREN JUMPED OVERBOARD.

London, May 9.—Dr. Carl B. Foss, of Montana, who leaped into the sea, said that he saw women and children jumping overboard...

Then he was taken into a boat which he still had the strength to assist in rowing.

DAY OF THE DEAD IN QUEENSTOWN.

This has been a day of the dead in Queenstown. Most of the survivors of the Lusitania left for their homes...

BROOD OF BABIES SENT TO DEATH.

G. D. Lane, a youthful but cool-headed second cabin passenger, who was returning to his home in New York...

MANY YOUNGSTERS WITHOUT MOTHERS.

Captain David Murphy, of the trawler Stormcock, was first on the scene with a rescue boat.

ATTITUDE TAKEN BY AMERICANS.

The American survivors have taken no action and have made no protest beyond supplying the American consular authorities with their experiences.

ONLY 22 AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Advices to Washington Put Number of Known American Survivors at Eighty.

SEVERAL AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Queenstown, May 9.—Miss Dorothy Connor, of Washington, D. C., was a cabin passenger, is among the survivors here.

U. S. LINER NEW YORK REACHES LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 9.—The American liner steamship New York, which sailed for Liverpool last Saturday...

WOMEN AND CHILDREN JUMPED OVERBOARD.

London, May 9.—Dr. Carl B. Foss, of Montana, who leaped into the sea, said that he saw women and children jumping overboard...

two children, but his 13-year-old son was mangled and his fourth son is missing.

BARON VON WELDEN DEFENDS GERMANY.

Says Country Was Within Her Rights, and Expresses Fear for Safety of the Transylvania.

That Germany was entirely within her rights in sinking the Lusitania and in causing the loss of life...

REJOICING IN BERLIN.

There was great rejoicing in Berlin today over the sinking of the Lusitania. This, of course, was not on account of the awful loss of life...

FEAR FOR TRANSYLVANIA.

Baron von Welden expressed surprise that the Transylvania should have sailed after the example set by the Lusitania.

ONLY 22 AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Advices to Washington Put Number of Known American Survivors at Eighty.

SEVERAL AMERICAN DEAD HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED.

Queenstown, May 9.—Miss Dorothy Connor, of Washington, D. C., was a cabin passenger, is among the survivors here.

U. S. LINER NEW YORK REACHES LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 9.—The American liner steamship New York, which sailed for Liverpool last Saturday...

WOMEN AND CHILDREN JUMPED OVERBOARD.

London, May 9.—Dr. Carl B. Foss, of Montana, who leaped into the sea, said that he saw women and children jumping overboard...

BODY OF MME. DEPAGE AMONG IDENTIFIED DEAD.

Queenstown, May 9.—The body of Mme. Marie Depage, wife of Dr. Antoine Depage, medical director of the Belgian Red Cross...

LINER LA TOURAINE ESCAPES SUBMARINES.

New York, May 9.—The French liner La Touraine, which left here April 27, arrived at Bordeaux Saturday...

QUALITY FIRST

"My! that soup looks good!" "It is good. It is Campbell's. Sit down and have some. We'll make more in three minutes!"

And this is the literal fact about Campbell's Tomato Soup. Three minutes is time enough to prepare it...

The simple directions on the label make it so easy that a child could prepare it; and it is just as rich and wholesome...

Wouldn't it "go" good with your dinner today? 21 kinds 10c a can.

F. J. COOLEGGE & SONS, INC.

Old Forsyth Street Bridge, Atlanta Factory, 434 Marietta Street. On Sale and Largest Makers of PURE PAINTS in the South.

WE CAN SUPPLY THE BEST PAINTS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

JOBBERS OF PLATE AND WINDOW GLASS

Twenty-fifth Annual Reunion UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS RICHMOND, VA.

June 1, 2 and 3, 1915. $11.25 Richmond, Va. $11.25

U. S. LINER NEW YORK REACHES LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 9.—The American liner steamship New York, which sailed for Liverpool last Saturday...

WOMEN AND CHILDREN JUMPED OVERBOARD.

London, May 9.—Dr. Carl B. Foss, of Montana, who leaped into the sea, said that he saw women and children jumping overboard...

San Francisco's Newest Hotel HOTEL PLAZA

Facing the Plaza of Union Square 400 ROOMS. American & European Plan. The Hotel Plaza is in the center of the city's shopping and theater district.

BODY OF MME. DEPAGE AMONG IDENTIFIED DEAD.

Queenstown, May 9.—The body of Mme. Marie Depage, wife of Dr. Antoine Depage, medical director of the Belgian Red Cross...

LINER LA TOURAINE ESCAPES SUBMARINES.

New York, May 9.—The French liner La Touraine, which left here April 27, arrived at Bordeaux Saturday...

QUALITY FIRST

"My! that soup looks good!" "It is good. It is Campbell's. Sit down and have some. We'll make more in three minutes!"

And this is the literal fact about Campbell's Tomato Soup. Three minutes is time enough to prepare it...

The simple directions on the label make it so easy that a child could prepare it; and it is just as rich and wholesome...

Wouldn't it "go" good with your dinner today? 21 kinds 10c a can.

F. J. COOLEGGE & SONS, INC.

Old Forsyth Street Bridge, Atlanta Factory, 434 Marietta Street. On Sale and Largest Makers of PURE PAINTS in the South.

WE CAN SUPPLY THE BEST PAINTS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

JOBBERS OF PLATE AND WINDOW GLASS

Twenty-fifth Annual Reunion UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS RICHMOND, VA.

June 1, 2 and 3, 1915. $11.25 Richmond, Va. $11.25

U. S. LINER NEW YORK REACHES LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 9.—The American liner steamship New York, which sailed for Liverpool last Saturday...

WOMEN AND CHILDREN JUMPED OVERBOARD.

London, May 9.—Dr. Carl B. Foss, of Montana, who leaped into the sea, said that he saw women and children jumping overboard...

San Francisco's Newest Hotel HOTEL PLAZA

Facing the Plaza of Union Square 400 ROOMS. American & European Plan. The Hotel Plaza is in the center of the city's shopping and theater district.

Sports

KELLY HAS SIGNED; POTTS TO FOXES

Bowden and Manning Await Instructions From Manager Rickey, of the St. Louis Browns.

Herbert Kelly, the Mobile boy who has just been turned over to the Cracker...

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pirates 3, Reds 3. Cincinnati, May 9.—Pittsburgh bunched five consecutive hits off Douglas...

FEDERAL LEAGUE

Newark 4, Chicago 3. Newark defeated Chicago for the third straight time...

OTHER RESULTS

American Association. Minneapolis 10, Cleveland 9. Memphis 10, Indianapolis 7. Kansas City 5, Milwaukee 4.

MAISEL AND SNODGRASS ARE BEST STEALERS

Fritz Maisei is leading the American league players in stolen base averages...

MANCHESTER 9, TALBOTTON 0

In a fast game of ball here Saturday afternoon, Manchester defeated Talbotton by the score of 9 to 0.

STROH'S BOHEMIAN BEER THE MOST EXPENSIVELY BREWED BEER IN AMERICA

Double-Header With 'Nooga Today

Kelly Makes Debut Today Against Chattanooga Team; Hiatt Twirls Other Game

Herbert Kelly, the Notre Dame university southpaw, sent to the Cracker...

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Indians 3, Athletics 0. Cleveland, May 9.—Cleveland defeated Philadelphia today, 3 to 0.

TIGERS 1, SENATORS 0

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—John Dubuc pitched one of the greatest games of the season...

COBB AND SAIER LEAD BIG LEAGUE SCORERS

Vic Saier of the Chicago Cubs, and Ty Cobb of the Tigers are the leading run-getters in the two big leagues...

ATHLETICS AND REDS LEAD IN HITTING

Connie Mack's Athletics and the Cincinnati Reds are the leading hitting teams...

SENATORS AND PIRATES LEAD IN FIELDING

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Washington Senators are the two most accurate fielding machines among the eighteen clubs in the big leagues.

MANCHESTER 9, TALBOTTON 0

In a fast game of ball here Saturday afternoon, Manchester defeated Talbotton by the score of 9 to 0.

BASEBALL TODAY Two Games, First Game 2 O'Clock Atlanta vs. Chattanooga

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Travelers 2, Birds 1; Sylvester Breaks Leg. New Orleans, May 9.—Inability of New Orleans players to hit Fincher...

MOBILE 6, VOLTS 5

Mobile, Ala., May 9.—Mobile defeated Nashville in an exciting game today, 6 to 5.

MEMPHIS 4, REDS 2

Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—Birmingham defeated Memphis today, 4 to 2.

BARONS 3, CHICKS 0

Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—Birmingham defeated Memphis today, 3 to 0.

FOURNIER AND SAIER POUND BALL HARDEST

Jacques Fournier, of the White Sox, pounds the ball the hardest on any man in the big leagues...

PRATER PLAYS MARKS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

In the first game of the pool championship for the state of Georgia at the Montgomery billiard and pool parlour...

LOOKOUTS RELEASE SOUTHPAW BURKE

Southpaw Burke, who started the season Saturday for the Lookouts against the Crackers...

TRAP SHOOT AT MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—The tenth annual southern handicap of the Interstate Trap Shooters' association will open here tomorrow for a four-day tournament...

BOYS' HIGH-MARIST GAME ON TUESDAY

Will Determine Prep League Winners—Teams Tied if Boys' High Wins.

The Boys' High-Marist contest, which will be pulled off Tuesday afternoon in the final round of the league...

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P.C. American League, South Atlantic League, Federal League, National League, Georgia State League, Ga.-Ala. League.

Georgia and Sailer Resume Games at Athens on Friday

With no decision having been reached as yet, the first game having been rained out...

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY

Southern League. Chattanooga at Atlanta. First game called at 2 o'clock.

Queries Answered.

(Under this head the sporting editor will endeavor to answer questions pertaining to all branches of sports.)

CUBS AND TIGERS LEAD IN EXTRA BASE HITS

The Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers are the heaviest slugging teams in the big leagues.

G. M. A. and 4th District Tied in Prep Track Meet

The announcement that the Fourth District Agricultural and Mechanical school had won the prep track meet...

PRATER PLAYS MARKS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

In the first game of the pool championship for the state of Georgia at the Montgomery billiard and pool parlour...

Havana Scribes Roast Jack Curley

Under the head, "Curley Dupes United States Newspapers," The Havana scribes have given the Cuban side of the Johnson-Willard bout...

The Post resents Curley's attitude and many of his statements since coming to this country.

Little Rock Franchise Goes Back to Montgomery

The Constitution has been reliably informed that the Little Rock franchise, which was secured from Montgomery...

Georgia State League Teams in the Player And Salary Limits

Today is the day for the final cutting down of the Georgia state league into two divisions...

SOCIOLGY CONGRESS MEETS AT HOUSTON

Houston, Texas, May 9.—John Woods, speaker of the Texas house of representatives, presided at today's sessions...

ARRANGING FOR BURIAL OF LUSITANIA VICTIMS

London, May 9.—A Central News dispatch from Queenstown says that arrangements for the burial of the Lusitania victims...

The Easter Horticulturist.

Demurely Fanny comes arrayed in flames of the Easter throng; To join the Easter Day parade...

Wonder Children.

(From The New York World.) A 20-year-old girl who speaks eight languages, knows a lot of cloze and is a practical nurse...

Optimism—A Whitewash for the CAMEL CIGARETTES You instantly appreciate the Camels flavor, because the blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos is more delightful than either tobacco smoked straight!

THE CONSTITUTION THE STANDARD SOUTHERN NEWSPAPER Published Daily, Sunday, Tri-Weekly CLARK HOWELL, Editor and General Manager

velopment such as the south has not yet known It will open the way everywhere for quick and comfortable travel. It will bring the market to the farmer and make neighbors of communities a hundred miles or more apart.

A SOCIAL PROBLEM OF THE WAR. Among the many problems which have sprung out of the European war, England is confronted by an exceedingly embarrassing social question whose solution is, as yet, in much doubt—what to do about the "war babies".

Leaders of parliament have proposed that the churches should take a hand and seek to create a sentiment that "in existing circumstances the mothers of soldiers' illegitimate children are to be treated with no scorn or dishonor, and that the infants themselves should receive a loyal and an unshamed welcome".

THE WORLD'S MUSIC CENTER. Gustav Judd, a musical authority of Berlin, writing in The Washington Post of the influence of music in cities affected by the war, as in the trenches, where it cheers the men, predicts that the United States, after the war, "doubtless will be the great music center of the world".

AS CLEAR AS CLOUDS. Nothing like directness and placing matters in so clear a light that even the uninitiated wayfarer may read as he runs! In this connection The Arkansas Gazette quotes, for the "enlightenment" of its state legislature, "a resolution passed by the House of Representatives of the Minnesota assembly," creating a committee to investigate certain departments.

Income tax returns show an increase, which is additional proof that the last editor has paid up. Anyway, the Turks' press agent is not unspcakable.

JUST FROM GEORGIA Pulling Through at Home. The mighty dangers of the Deep—the air with froes alive. You almost hear the battle-blast and see the deadly "Drive".

UNCLE JULES SAYS I LIKE TO KEEP A CORNER IN MY HEART FOR EVERY RAY OF SUNLIGHT THAT COMES MY WAY.

Not the First Snake Story. The Lounston Telegraph says the first snake story of the season has to do with a New Jersey copperhead that landed on the seat of an automobile and caused a wreck.

At the Turning Point. You long for the turn Of the lane to the clover, But the lane—it turns. An the wagon tumbles over.

The Rarest Signer. For the autograph of Button Gwinnett $2,875—the highest price—was paid recently, by Mr. F. W. Morris, of New York and this is the subject of the following poem by McLandburgh Wilson, in The New York Sun.

The Spring Temptation. The Musket Ridge correspondent of The Dalton Citizen tempts the editorial appetite with this spring-garden bill-of-fare: "Just think of a big plate of beans with a little butter and onion chipped over it and then a dash of salt and pepper. And then a cold goblet of good buttermilk and a hunk of corn bread—go 'way, man!"

Bayshore's Barefoot Days. James Wells, "The Printer-Poet" of The Dalton Citizen, writes of "Barefoot Days" Here is a stanza from his breezy poem: "I want to go a-fishing in the old-time fishing hole. With a pocket full of earthworms and a crooked hickory pole."

The Holland Letter Leopold Fredrick, financial adviser of the Guggenheims and familiar with the copper properties in Chile which the Guggenheims are developing upon a very large scale, thought that he would not be far out of the way in asserting, some months ago shortly before the European war began, that this Chile copper could be smelted and made marketable at a price considerably less than was demanded for the lowest price of American copper.

The high quotations recently reported as having been obtained for the stock of various corporations whose products are brass and whose manufacturing plants are in the valley of the Housatonic and the Naugatuck bring to mind the surmise which prevails all over the country that this chief center of the brass manufacturing industry in the United States owes its origin and development to the fact that at one time a copper mine in northern Connecticut was perhaps the chief source of supply in this country for the metal.

Others have spoken as Senator Depew has done in opposing this transaction. Notwithstanding its magnitude, it was almost instantly absorbed so that there remained only 5 per cent of the entire issue for distribution among members of the syndicate.

A Fifty-Million-Dollar Exhibition. Dr. Eben E. Olcott, formerly president of the American Association of Civil Engineers, in which profession he achieved greatly not only in the United States, but in South America, returned yesterday from the Pacific coast and to the San Francisco exposition.

ATLANTA ROTARY CLUB NEWCOMERS' CELEBRATION Name Business Address How Many in Family? Line of Business How Many Children, and What School Do They Attend? Where Did You Move Here From?

TRAFFIC IN SOUTH SHOWS GREAT GAIN, DECLARE OFFICIALS. H. E. Maynard and J. B. Dennison, of New York, traffic manager and assistant traffic manager of the Clyde Steamship company, who are considered experts on conditions in the south, stated yesterday that the amount of commercial traffic in the south had increased $31.3 per cent since the first of the year.

LUŠITANIA'S SINKING DENOUNCED. IN PULPITS OF ATLANTA SUNDAY; PRAYERS ARE ASKED FOR VICTIMS. Leading ministers in Atlanta's pulpits on Sunday scored the "reversion to barbarism and 'devilish cruelty' of the Germans in their ruthless disregard for the lives of non-combatant men, women and children in the sinking of the Lusitania, and prayers were offered for the sufferers of the disaster and for the guidance of President Wilson in the crisis which the United States now faces.

Dr. J. L. White, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, in his morning sermon, scored the position of a civilization which produces little of such reversion to barbarism, and declared that such disregard for human life, as was disclosed in the sinking of the Lusitania, will not be forgiven by the civilized world.

"IS THIS LAW OF GEORGIA?" ASKS MRS. FELTON IN RINGING CARD ON PENDLETON DECISION. Editor Constitution: May I copy here the words used by Judge Pendleton, of your city court, in the Fozzard case on yesterday? I would do the subject justice and certainly I would not do an injustice to the learned judge who presided in the hearing of the case.

Personally I am an old-fashioned, I believe in the Bible. I think the husband should be the head of the family, and that the wife should obey him. You had no right to take his child and leave him without his mother, and I shall give this child to him. But if you are a good woman you'll go back with your husband.

Before I discuss the verdict of Judge Pendleton, which is the most remarkable I have ever seen, I will recall another decision that you will find in the supreme court records of North Carolina—delivered in the year 1884—forty-seven years ago.

Efficiency is the key to success. DR. CHARLES JONES TELLS NEGROES. The opportunities for the negro are in the south, he said, and the key to success through these opportunities lies in efficiency.

TRAFFIC IN SOUTH SHOWS GREAT GAIN, DECLARE OFFICIALS. Their investigation has extended over every important shipping point in the south, including New Orleans, Birmingham, Chattanooga, Jacksonville, Nashville and other big centers. The purpose of their tour is to learn the exact conditions of the shipping situation.

RIPLING RHYMES. There are some fellows in this land whose doughs I can't understand. The chaps who sit around playing cards, when spring inspires the lilted bard, when sunshine fills the air, and the birds are singing their refreshing songs, when there are sights and sounds and scents which fascinate all mortals.

the Clyde agency in Atlanta is being put on just as the Clyde system has for all other systems traversing Atlanta territory. We likewise observed that Atlanta was one of the flat business centers to recover from the war shock.

TEMPERANCE JUBILEE WILL BE HELD HERE

Dr. Myers Will Make Address at Baptist Tabernacle on May 16.

The jubilee of the National Temperance Society of America will be celebrated on May 16 in eight of the leading cities in the United States. Atlanta has been selected by the officers as the place for the southern states. The meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Tabernacle Baptist church, Rev. Cortland Myers, D. D. of Framont Temple, Boston, has been selected as the orator. His subject will be "The Doom of the Liquor Traffic."

Dr. Myers is one of the most noted preachers and lecturers in America. He preaches regularly to perhaps the largest audience in this country. People must be admitted by ticket only. He has been active in reform work, and was president of the society for enforcement of criminal law of New York city for twelve years. Before going to Boston he was pastor of the largest church and congregation in New York city for sixteen years. He is the author of fifteen books, has traveled around the world and very extensively in every part of the world. He has just been offered a salary of $500 per week to lecture, but has declined, and stays in his present position as pastor for a nominal amount. He has lectured extensively and to many audiences of over six thousand.

This is Dr. Myers' first visit to the south, and it is hoped that Atlanta will see this distinguished gentleman a great reception.

On Monday night May 17, he will lecture for the benefit of the Tabernacle Bazaar, a home for working girls. His subject will be "The New Woman and the Old Man." Admission, main floor, 50 cents; galleries, 25 cents; young people under 15 years, anywhere, 25 cents.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS ATTEND SERVICES SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The members of Atlanta lodge and other de Lion lodge of the Knights Templars of Atlanta, observed their annual public worship Sunday afternoon at St. Salvator's Episcopal church. Front seats were reserved for the knights, and a large delegation of them were present in full regalia. The annual public worship is a part of the Knights Templars Masonic ritual.

Dr. W. W. Memminger, rector of All Saints, preached a special sermon for the occasion. He gave a history of the Knights Templars, and told how, when after the crusaders had vanquished the Saracens and reclaimed the savior's tomb nine of the knights remained on duty at the tomb to protect pilgrims who visited the place. These nine knights, he said, were the beginning of the great order of the Knights Templars of today.

We all know, he said, that the knights of old were ready to die for Christ. Today it is their duty to live for Christ. He paid a tribute to the Knights Templars of the world, and said they were the best work for the uplifting of humanity.

A full choir rendered music specially adapted to the occasion under the direction of William A. Arnold, organist and choir master.

KNIGHTS OF JACKSON AWARDED LIBATION SET

Jackson, Ga., May 9—(Special)—Alexis commanders, No. 22, of Jackson received a merited recognition at the recent meeting of the grand commanders in Augusta, when the local knights were awarded a handsome libation set for the best resident attendance during the past year. The Jackson commandery had a large membership but a number of the members live in near-by towns, and it was the attendance of the resident members during the past twelve months that Sir Knight J. D. Jones was eminent commander, that brought the honor to this city.

ROME COMPLETES DATA FOR HIGHWAY MEETING

Rome, Ga., May 9—(Special)—The Chamber of Commerce of Rome yesterday completed its preparation of data to be placed in the hands of the Dixie highway commissioners. The information was placed in bound form in albums and consisted of answers to the specifications of the commissioners, a complete automobile log of the route between the different points on the completion of the roads, and agreements of county officials as to what they will do on the roads. Accompanying the documents are views of different scenes of historical interest along the Home route.

JAMES S. JENNINGS KILLED IN RUNAWAY

Augusta, Ga., May 9—(Special)—James S. Jennings, aged 56, of Jackson, S. C., was thrown from a wagon here yesterday and killed. The horses became unmanageable, and turning threw the driver to the ground, his neck being broken in the fall. Death ensued while he was being taken to the hospital. J. Rinkenberg, who was also on the wagon, was thrown off, but sustained only slight bruises.

DIAMONDS Sent on Approval— All Express Charges Paid

We gladly send selections of diamonds to reliable people anywhere for inspection. We can afford to do this, for our grades and prices are such that fully nine out of ten approval shipments result in sales.

Write for our diamond booklet and tell us about the style and price diamond is wanted. Shipment of assorted qualities will be sent direct—all express charges paid. Attractive monthly payments allowed to those who prefer to buy that way.

A postal request will bring you copies of our diamond booklet and 1915 catalogue. They contain net prices and full particulars.

Maier & Berkele, Inc.
Diamond Merchants
31 Whitehall Street
Established 1887

Cattle Raised in Georgia As Fine as Any of the West

Cattle Raised by W. S. Florence, of Powder Springs, Ga.

The question, Why don't Georgia farmers raise cattle for beef? has been asked for some time by speaking experts, particularly since it has been brought home to the south that its climate is better for commercial supremacy in diversified farming.

FUNDS ARE GIVEN TO BUILD BRIDGE ACROSS ST. MARY'S

Folkston, Ga., May 9—(Special)—Resolutions appropriating funds for the construction of a bridge over the St. Mary's river, passed by commissioners of Charlton and Nassau counties, were shown to delegates attending the highway meeting here yesterday and aroused great enthusiasm. Advocates of the short cut route declare that now the last obstacle in this route has been removed and that it is the proper one for the Dixie highway.

A report of delegates present showed great improvements all along the route from Fitzgerald to the Florida line of miles south of Folkston. Conditions are working and in some of these counties day laborers are repairing and hard successing the road in additional to the county grants. Delegates took exception to certain statements made by some advocates of other routes that are crossing the short route especially south of the Willacoochee river to Jacksonville to the effect that this section is low and that it requires boats to get around the Okfenokee swamp. In truth this section has been surfaced a good portion of the route and it is declared to be higher than the other route. A resolution of the (Charlton county) commissioners promising to build and maintain their 18 miles and keep it in good repair was presented.

DR. DURHAM PREACHES AT REINHARDT COLLEGE

Canton, Ga., May 9—(Special)—A brilliant commencement season opened at Reinhardt college, at Waleska, today with a great sermon by Dr. Plato Durham, dean of Emory university, Atlanta, at 11 a. m. and a sermon at 8 p. m. by Rev. J. A. Sharp, president of Young Harris college. Special music was rendered by Miss Cade Coggins of Canton. Exercises Monday will consist of chamber debating, military drill and freshman and sophomore oratorical contests. Tuesday will witness junior and senior exercises and addresses by Hon. M. L. Brittain, W. S. Witham and others.

MITCHELL BRAGGING ABOUT WHEAT CROP

Thomasville, Ga., May 9—(Special)—Mitchell county is bragging about its wheat crop this year and it is calculated that the yield will prove to be between fifteen and twenty bushels to the acre. It sounds a little unusual to hear farmers discussing their wheat crops in this section of the state, but nevertheless, they are figuring on and hoping to be the richer by $1.50 a bushel for it this fall.

SOUTHWEST GEORGIA FAIR IS ORGANIZED

Thomasville, Ga., May 9—(Special)—At a meeting of the officers and directors of the Thomas County Fair association held yesterday it was decided to change the name to the Southwest Georgia association and instead of just holding a fair for Thomas county it is proposed to include all counties of this section of the state. The time for the fair was fixed for October 12. A stock company will be incorporated, grounds for holding a fair secured and enclosed and an admission fee charged. This means much for this section in the friendly way that will be the result among the exhibitors from the various counties of southwest Georgia.

BUILDERS' EXCHANGE WILL MEET ON MAY 20

The Atlanta Builders' Exchange will hold its next annual meeting on May 20. As the election of officers will take place, a large attendance is desired.

Forsyth High School

Forsyth, Ga., May 9—(Special)—The board of education of Monroe county has chosen as principal of the Forsyth high school for the coming year Mrs. T. H. Phinazee, wife of Monroe county's school superintendent. The selection of a woman for this position is a new departure here, but Mrs. Phinazee, who was formerly Miss Sadie Smith, was at one time a teacher in high school teachers and has since that time been connected with the high school at Cedartown and with Young Harris college, and the members of the board believe they have made a wise selection.

Jackson's Teachers

Jackson, Ga., May 9—(Special)—At a recent meeting of the city board of education teachers were elected for the session of 1915-16 of the Jackson public schools, the same faculty, with few exceptions, having been named. Superintendent W. F. Martin was re-elected some weeks ago. The other members of the faculty include W. J. Terry, principal, Misses Janie Hearn, Julia Thornton, Beattie Waldron, Annie Lou, Mable E. Dalton, Ruth Harkness, Fletcher, Kate Amoss, Mrs. Julia Doane.

Revival at Canton

Canton, Ga., May 9—(Special)—Today witnessed the close of the great revival at the First Baptist church here, which was held over one hundred sessions to the church, and a general spiritual uplift of the town. Dr. W. L. Cutts, the pastor, has been ably assisted by Evan Gehrig, T. T. Martin and his co-worker Sam Rayburn.

FIRST CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTEST STARTS

When the orchestra of the First Christian Bible school began playing a classic at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning 505 scholars were in their seats. The total attendance was 592, with 49 new scholars.

Sunday was the first day of the ten weeks' contest for attendance, efficiency and new scholars, which this Bible school has started in order to win for the Southern Orphans' home, on Lee street, the furnishing for a "white room," which a prominent local manufacturer volunteered to give, provided one hundred thousand points are made in the time limit. The church was banked with flowers. Two ladies of the auditorium class brought twelve new scholars, and a good natured rivalry has developed among the scholars as to who shall make the largest number of individual points in order to be one of the twenty-five names to go on the brass plate to be hung in the "white room" Sunday being the annual "Flower day," the church was banked with flowers. After the services the flowers were made into bouquets and distributed to the various hospitals and penal institutions of the city.

PERSONS WILL ADDRESS STUDENTS OF WALESKA

A. P. Persons, lawyer and banker, of Talbotton, Ga., who is visiting W. S. Witham, in Atlanta, will leave today with Mr. Witham, Professor M. L. Brittain, state superintendent of schools, by automobile for Waleska, Ga., where Mr. Persons and Professor Brittain will address the students of Reinhardt college.

THIS THIEF PREFERS BRYAN'S BEVERAGE TO ATLANTA'S BEST

Although a near beer saloon was but a few blocks distant on Marietta street, an early morning burglar, with a William Jennings Bryan thirst, burglarized M. F. Boisclair's soft drink stand at 371 Luckie street before daybreak Sunday and robbed the store of ten one-pint bottles of grape juice. Besides taking the grape juice, the burglar also vanished before the arrival of police officers, carrying additional loot, consisting of three one-half gallon bottles of Maraschino cherries. Also one-half dozen ice cream dishes were taken and ten grape juice glasses.

Neighbors summoned Call Officers Austin and McWilliams from police station, but the robber disappeared with his loot in due time.

Forsyth Commencement.

Forsyth, Ga., May 9—(Special)—The graduation exercises of the Forsyth high school took place last night. The education address was delivered by Hon. G. O. Persons, of Forsyth. The diplomas were awarded by Hon. T. R. Waldridge, chairman of the Monroe county board of education. An attractive program was rendered. The graduates are Misses Lucile Smith, Mary Hanny Floyd, Louise Phinazee, Ruth Hunt, Mary Gibson, Inez Wright, Trellis Wadward, Hewlett Lifest, Melba E. Dalgo, Ruth Harkness, Hatlie Goodwin and Louise Mitchell and George Pennington.

HAWKES' KRYPTOKS

We want you to know about these wonderful new Bifocals—the most beautiful and perfect lenses made. Both far and near sight in one solid glass. No visible dividing line. Ground in our own factory. We guarantee them to give perfect satisfaction. We will take pleasure in showing them to you—how they are made, their advantages over the old style, etc. These lenses, together with the well known Hawkes reputation, is your assurance of a perfect fitting pair of glasses. We invite your patronage.

HAWKES

Established 1870

OPTICIANS
14 WHITEHALL
ATLANTA

ANOTHER GREAT TRIUMPH IN THE WORLD OF BOOKS

The Constitution opens the door for its readers to hours of delightful and helpful reading by another great offer of the complete Romances of Victor Hugo---the complete set of six volumes at a price lower than usually paid for a single volume.

Bound in Red English Buckram Cloth---Gold Decorations

The World-Famous Romances of VICTOR HUGO

By special arrangement with Thomas Nelson & Sons, the famous Bible publishers of London, Edinburgh and New York, The Constitution is able to offer to readers exclusively the greatest book bargain ever known to lovers of good books. These attractive sets come to us at a price which merely covers the tariff duty and cost of handling and are turned over to our readers without any thought of profit on the part of this paper. The entire six volumes of Hugo are given

Bible Paper
New Type
Duotone Pictures

FOR ONE FREE LIBRARY COUPON Plus Twenty-Five Cents Per Volume for Charges Incidental to Distribution

The romances of Victor Hugo have always held a position in the front rank of the world's best books. No library is complete without them. As works of fiction they are exceedingly fascinating and full of compelling interest. Hugo was a master of imaginative writing and the dramatic intensity of his plots, combined with the extensive knowledge of history displayed in all of his books, make Romances especially notable in every way.

$1.50 For SIX Volumes

$1.50 For SIX Volumes

You Have Never Had Such a Liberal Book Offer--- You May Never Have It Again---ACT NOW!

The number of sets is limited and the offer of six volumes for six coupons and $1.50 will be for only a short time. Those who are wise and wish to be sure that they will not be disappointed, are ordering the books now. Let us have your order as soon as possible—today if you can.

This is without question the greatest book offer ever made by a newspaper to its readers—the entire set of six volumes is yours for about the value of one volume if bought in usual way—$1.50.

How to Get the Books

Cut out the Free Library Coupon printed on another page in this paper and bring or send it to The Constitution Office, together with $1.50, for the six-volume set of books. If you desire the books sent by mail or express, all charges prepaid, add 15c—or $1.65 in all.

Farms and Farmers

PROF. R. J. H. DE LOACH, EDITOR.

How to Keep Down Accounts in 1915. On account of the low price of cotton...

Plant Plenty of Sugar Cane. This would be a good year to plant cane...

Sweet Potatoes to Grow. We all know that a good many sweet potatoes...

Hog Raising. We shall all of us be glad to see the hog raising...

Chufas and Gobbers as Feed. Chufas are all other hog feeds and that...

Dairy Products. The year 1915 will be the banner year for southern dairy products...

Commands Destroyers

CAPTAIN SHIM. One of the most impressive arrays in the review of the Atlantic fleet...

One of the most impressive arrays in the review of the Atlantic fleet...

Big Change Given Bears in Cotton

Prices Fell Rapidly After Sinking of the Lusitania. Week Showed Loss of 67 to 77 Points.

New Orleans, May 9.—The outstanding feature of the cotton market this week was the weakness...

Bank Clearings in United States for Past Week

Table with columns for City, Amount, and % Change. Includes New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, etc.

The Cartoonists' Flop.

(From The Savannah News.) It is noticeable in the picture the suffragist nowadays as a beautiful, stylishly dressed young woman...

Trade Outlook Cheerful, Say Business Reports

Enlarged Demand at Retail and Jobbing Fairly Good, Says Bradstreet's.

Bradstreet's report says: Undercurrents run in a favorable direction, though trends in certain lines...

The iron and steel industry is now operating on about a 75 per cent basis with inventories...

Cost of Local Want Ads in the Constitution

1 insertion 10c a line. 2 insertions 20c a line. 3 insertions 30c a line.

Lost and Found

Lost articles sometimes are never recovered. If you have any articles...

Personal

OLD HATS MADE NEW. MRS. C. H. SMITH. WE TURN YOUR OLD STYLE STRAW HATS INTO NEW STYLES...

Pennsylvania Road Big Factor in Steel

Is About to Distribute Its 1915 Rail Tonnage—138,000 Tons. New York, May 9.—Promises of domestic railroad equipment orders...

Condition of Treasury

Washington, May 9.—The condition of the United States treasury at the close of business May 8 was...

Rome Opening Today

Rome, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The local opening of the Georgia-Alabama League...

IMPERIAL GERMAN 5% War Loan NOT CALLABLE BEFORE 1924. Since the closing of the subscription...

SHOCK WITHSTOOD BY STOCK MARKET

Precipitate Decline in Stocks After Sinking of Lusitania Was Followed by Prompt Recoveries.

New York, May 9.—All other developments of the week, including the complicated situation in the Far East...

Help Wanted—Male

MR. BUSINESS MAN! WHY WORRY OVER your stenographic problem? The best that can be obtained will be furnished by HEALEY BLDG. STENOGRAPHIC SERVICE...

Help Wanted—Female

WANTED—WOMEN FOR GOVERNMENT WORK. WANTED—WOMEN FOR GOVERNMENT WORK...

Situation Wanted—Male

OR several of them may be sent in as late as a week after your last advertisement...

Situation Wanted—Female

SPECIAL rates for situations wanted. Advertisements in this column...

Willingham-Lift Lumber Co.

200 Murphy Ave., Atlanta, Ga. Our specialty High-Grade Mill Work. Sash, Doors, Blinds and Interior Trim.

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY TWO-PANEL 'IMPERIAL' DOORS AT $2.00 EACH

THE BEST DOOR MADE. E. G. WILLINGHAM'S SONS. 643 WHITEHALL ST., PHONE MAIN 1242.

THE POPULAR PARSON AND HIS PRETTY PARISHIONERS

A HIGHLY amusing musical comedy adapted to dramatic clubs and school entertainments. Very successful wherever produced...

FLY-ESCAPE SCREENS

USED by thousands of the best people for over 15 years. Made to order. L. G. REEVES & CO. 411 Silvery Building.

