

THE WEATHER. Forecast—Fair to-night and Thursday.

Read for Profit—GEORGIAN WANT ADS—Use for Rest Its

VOL. XI. NO. 230.

ATLANTA, GA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 1913.

2 CENTS EVERYWHERE

CRACKERS FIGHT TO DEFEAT BARONS IN HOT STRUGGLE

Billy Smith's Pennant Aspiring Warriors Clash With Champion Barons in First Game of Series at Birmingham--Musser and Foxen on Mound.

THE GAME. FIRST INNING. Ager grounded to Egan, who fumbled the ball, and he was safe on first.

GIRL'S DEATH LAID TO FACTORY EVILS

Working Conditions Here Wrong, Proved by Phagan Crime, Says McKelway.

Dr. A. J. McKelway, president pro tem of the Southern Sociological Congress, declared to-day that if factory conditions in Atlanta were such that they should be 14-year-old Mary Phagan never would have slain.

Dr. McKelway's remarks came in the course of a conversation in which he discussed at length the evils of child labor in industrial plants and the absolute necessity of rigid child labor legislation.

3 DEAD IN KANSAS CITY TRAMPS' REFUGUE FIRE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 30.—Three men are known to be dead in a fire which started in the Hurry-Up Trampy company's office at Fourth and Wyandotte streets this afternoon and rapidly spread to nearby houses and buildings.

GULLS RE-USE FOUR PLAYERS; KIRBY LET OUT

ATLANTA, Ala., April 30.—Mike Finn, manager of the Gulls, to-day released four of his players, Mottley, Battery, McCall and Fletcher Kirby, who let the latter was secured from the New York Cub.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

HARTWELL, Ga., April 30.—Robert Wallace, 4 years old, was burned to death a few miles south of Hartwell to-day when a large barn on his father's farm was destroyed by fire.

2 LABOR EDITORS JAILED

CHICAGO, N.Y.A., April 30.—Charged with publishing an article on the industrial revolution, Fred M. Clark and John L. Ramsey, alleged to be editors of the Labor Argue, were arrested here to-day.

$100 for Swat the Fly Essay

Chamber of Commerce's Prize Contest Open to All Atlanta School Children. The Chamber of Commerce to-day offered a prize of $100 for the best composition written by an Atlanta school child on the "Prevention of the Breeding of Flies."

Block New Head of Street Car Board

Georgia Railway and Electric Director Elected to Head Atlanta Business Men. The directors of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company to-day elected Frank E. Block president of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Joseph C. Cray.

Decatur Girls and Boys Clean Up City

4,000 Cans and Bottles Are Gathered in Effort to Make Spottless Town. Five school boys, Albert Benes, George Hollingsworth, Nathaniel Pratt, McKinney Gash and Clarence Hinton, working in Decatur, Ga., removed about 4,000 discarded cans and old bottles from the landscape of the municipality.

Danger in Louisiana Flood District Grows

Hundreds of Miles Inundated by 8,000-foot Crevasses in Levee Near Natchez. NATCHEZ, Miss., April 30.—The flood situation throughout this section was very grave to-day.

Lorimer's Candidacy Amazes Senators

Members of Upper House Do Not Believe Illinois Man Will Go Before People. WASHINGTON, April 30.—Reports that William Lorimer had been named as a candidate for the United States Senate at the primaries was received with amazement by Senators.

Wilson Completes Plan for Currency Reform

WASHINGTON, April 30.—President Wilson's currency reform bill will make its appearance in concrete form in the near future. It will represent the views of the President on the monetary system of the United States of a more substantial basis.

Christy Churchill, Last of Kentucky Family, Dies

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 30.—Christy Churchill, last member of the noted Kentucky family from which Churchill Downs received its name, died here to-day.

15,000 Suit Against Southern Ry. Is Heard

Testimony in the case of H. P. Cape against the Southern Railway Company in a suit for $15,000 in damages was taken in the United States District Court to-day.

Mrs. Candler's Niece Dead of Auto Injuries

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—Miss Irvin Candler, a niece of Mrs. A. J. Candler, of Atlanta, died here to-day of injuries received Monday when she was struck by an automobile.

PEACHES ARE RIPE

War Threatened Again by Austria

Foreign Office Declares Montenegro Must Change Attitude or Invasion Will Follow. Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian. VIENNA, April 30.—The Austrian foreign office announced to-day that the Austrian Government would immediately adopt coercive measures against the Montenegrin Government unless there is a change of attitude at Cetina.

The Bryan Rickey, Harris Appointment Reported Favorably

Served by Diplomatic Wagon to Berkeleys to Those Who Like It Better Than Real Stuff. WASHINGTON, April 30.—A white ribbon car is now on sale in Washington, D.C. It is called the "Bryan Rickey" and came into the city on the very heels of the "rape juice" diplomacy.

Teachers Take Tests This Week for Licenses

Examination of applicants for teachers' certificates will be held at the Boys' High School Building Friday and Saturday. Tests prescribed by the County Board of Education will be given.

Big Gun Sold for $40 to Young Swiss Gadets

GENEVA, April 30.—The Swiss military cadets at Thun, the Bivins Military School, were greatly surprised and pleased recently to receive a modern gun from Germany. It was the product of 1912 and had reached them among themselves to buy a "pump" gun.

War Threatened Again by Austria

Foreign Office Declares Montenegro Must Change Attitude or Invasion Will Follow. Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian. VIENNA, April 30.—The Austrian foreign office announced to-day that the Austrian Government would immediately adopt coercive measures against the Montenegrin Government unless there is a change of attitude at Cetina.

Lorimer's Candidacy Amazes Senators

Members of Upper House Do Not Believe Illinois Man Will Go Before People. WASHINGTON, April 30.—Reports that William Lorimer had been named as a candidate for the United States Senate at the primaries was received with amazement by Senators.

Mrs. Candler's Niece Dead of Auto Injuries

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—Miss Irvin Candler, a niece of Mrs. A. J. Candler, of Atlanta, died here to-day of injuries received Monday when she was struck by an automobile.

NEW LEE ON STAND AT INQUEST TELLS HIS SIDE OF PHAGAN CASE

Describes Finding of Body of Slain Girl and Events at Penell Factory Before and at Time of Discovery of Crime.

New Lee's Testimony as He Gave It at the Inquest

New Lee, watchman at the National Penell Company's factory, who notified the police of the discovery of Mary Phagan's body, told his complete story on the stand at the coroner's inquest to-day.

Lee was on the stand for more than an hour and was pried with questions intended to throw light on the tragedy. He replied to questions in a straightforward way, and in detail his story is substantially the same as he has made to the reporters ever since his arrest.

The most significant answers concerned his employer, Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the factory. Lee said that when he reported a girl's body for work, Frank told him to go home until 6 o'clock.

Chief of Police Beavers said that Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the National Penell Company, would go on the stand before the coroner's jury probably late this afternoon.

E. L. Scuttell, on the stand this afternoon, reiterated that he had seen Mary Phagan with Arthur Mullinax at midnight Saturday night. His testimony and that of other witnesses is printed on page 2.

Q. Where did you see her? A. I saw her at the National Penell Company.

Q. What time did you see her? A. I saw her at about 11 o'clock.

Q. How long did you see her? A. I saw her for about 15 minutes.

Q. What did you do when you saw her? A. I went to the factory and reported her to Mr. Frank.

Q. How did you report her? A. I called Mr. Frank and told him that I had found a girl's body.

Q. How did Mr. Frank react? A. He told me to go home until 6 o'clock.

Q. How did you feel about this? A. I felt very sad and worried.

Q. How did you spend the night? A. I went home and did not sleep.

Q. How did you feel in the morning? A. I felt very nervous and anxious.

Q. How did you spend the day? A. I went to work and did not talk to anyone.

Q. How did you feel about the inquest? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.

Q. How did you feel about the coroner's jury? A. I felt that they would do the right thing.

Q. How did you feel about the trial? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.

Q. How did you feel about the verdict? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.

Q. How did you feel about the execution? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.

Q. How did you feel about the case? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.

Q. How did you feel about the people? A. I felt that they were very kind and helpful.

Q. How did you feel about the future? A. I felt that it was a very important matter.