

HOOVER SEIZES NEW EVIDENCE FROM CONLEY

MORE SUSPICIONS IN

Keefers Fights Suspensions in Club

KEEFER ROW IN POLICE COURT

Broker, Mauled by Son, Will Fight Wife's Charge of Assault.

Mauled and pummeled by his young stepson, then arrested at the instance of his wife on a charge of disorderly conduct to which he will answer Saturday afternoon, David Keefers, prominent Atlanta broker, is convinced that the role of hero in a stormy matrimonial drama is not at all what it is cracked up to be.

The latest chapter in Mr. Keefers' highly interesting marital career was begun Friday evening when he went to the Piedmont Driving Club.

Mr. Keefers' wife, Mrs. Keefers, who is a well known social figure in Atlanta, is reported to have been in the city for some time.

Mrs. Keefers had been apprised of the encounter between her son and her husband and arrived at the scene just as peace was about to settle.

Mrs. Keefers instituted divorce proceedings in 1911, but the case was dismissed. Keefers stated, since then the two have been separated much of the time. They have not been living together for the last eight months.

Rebels Advance on Juarez; Fight Near

EL PASO, TEXAS, June 28.—Pancho Villa, Mexican rebel leader, who has announced his intention of taking Juarez and executing General Balmori, commander of the garrison in the hill city, established outposts within three miles of the town.

Plans Airship Squad
In All Russian Corps

ST. PETERSBURG, June 28.—A flying squadron is being organized by the Minister of War in carrying out an important assignment. It was announced in the Duma.

New Book Tells All About Health-Giving Waters in Georgia

A treatise on the mineral and medicinal waters of Georgia has been issued by the State Geologist, David W. McCalla. It is a most valuable book.

Builds 2-Acre $15,000 Home for Her Cats

GREENWICH, CONN., June 28.—Mrs. Clifford B. Harmon, daughter of Commodore B. C. Benedict, lifted the first spadeful of ground to-day in the construction of what is to be the most complete home for cats in this country.

Goethals Says Canal Is Air-Bomb Proof

NEW YORK, June 28.—Colonel George Goethals has returned to Panama. He will remain on the Isthmus until the first ship has passed through the canal.

Baroness Arrives to Wed St. Louis Man

NEW YORK, June 28.—Baroness Kallwieser, accompanied by her mother, Baroness Kallwieser, arrived here to-day on the latest steamer.

Rate on 60 Chinese Skeletons a Puzzle

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—What rate to charge for shipping 10 Chinese skeletons from the city to San Francisco is bothering freight agents of this city.

Plans Long Hike to Seek New Fortune

NEW YORK, June 28.—Mrs. Marie Chamber is preparing here for a hike to Mississippi. She proposes to take a long hike to Mississippi.

RIND PROBE PUSHED BY COURT

Charges of Corruption Made by Ex-Bluescoat, Who Promises
Complete Exposure.

Revelational disclosures which will result in the suspension of at least two more policemen were expected from the arrest Saturday morning of Claude Gray, a negro living at the notorious room at the rear of 111 Auburn Avenue, which the four policemen arrested Friday are alleged to have frequented.

Nat Goodwin Must Not Eat at Own Cafe

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—Others may dine at the Cafe Goodwin, but not Nat Goodwin, with carte blanche all the way down the menu from oyster to cannibalism, may not.

Says He Produces Fuel From Water

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—Through the invention of a device in which water is used as fuel, it is claimed that Henry Gray, a Philadelphia inventor, may revolutionize the production of artificial heat.

Page Tries to Lease Manchester's House

Special Cable to Atlanta Georgian. LONDON, June 28.—A report is current that Ambassador Walter H. Page is trying to lease the Duke of Manchester's town house at 5 Grosvenor Square.

Roumania Warlike; Threatens Bulgaria

BUCHAREST, ROUMANIA, June 28.—The government to-day is preparing to send a report to the League of Nations.

Vatican Will Give Canada a Cardinal

ROME, June 28.—Closely following the Roman Catholic convention it was announced at the Vatican to-day that among the new Cardinals will be a Canadian.

Capital's Tyranny Caused Unionism, Says E. H. Walker

Edward H. Walker, candidate for Governor in the race with Hoke Smith and Joseph M. Brown, has issued a statement defending unionism in reply to Governor Brown.

Gov. Slaton Takes Oath Simply

With the simplest ceremonies in the history of the State, marked by the absence of all military display and

John M. Slaton, Who Becomes Governor of State of Georgia

Hundreds of crowd
Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

Gov. Slaton Takes Oath Simply

With the simplest ceremonies in the history of the State, marked by the absence of all military display and

John M. Slaton, who becomes Governor of the State of Georgia, was sworn in at noon.

Hundreds of crowd Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

John M. Slaton, Who Becomes Governor of State of Georgia

Hundreds of crowd Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

John M. Slaton, Who Becomes Governor of State of Georgia

Hundreds of crowd Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

John M. Slaton, Who Becomes Governor of State of Georgia

Hundreds of crowd Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

John M. Slaton, who becomes Governor of the State of Georgia, was sworn in at noon.

Hundreds of crowd Capital to see ceremonies.

New Executive is sworn in at noon.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A persistent rumor that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Frank, Solicitor Dorsey, to believe he was wrong and the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Mr. Hooper refused to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not warrant in making any definite statement for publication in reference to this evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aid Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro sweeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important admissions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

The weather forecast for Atlanta and Georgia is generally fair Saturday and Sunday.