ASSEMBLES TO FACE SPLIT SOCIAL SERVICE

Objection to National Protestant Platform May Act as Bar to Presbyterian Marger.

By REV. CHARLES STEZLE. Will the Southern Presbyterian Assembly organically unite with other Presbyterian denominations and out of fraternal relationship with all other protestants?

This is the question which its commission probably will be compelled to answer while the Assembly is in session in Atlanta.

There is little doubt that the Southern Assembly will combine with the United Presbyterian Church, but it is possible that it will sever a connection with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Federal Council includes practically the combined Protestant forces of the United States, representing 30 different denominations which have a communicant membership of 16,000,000.

One of the chief reasons given by those who favor the separation is their objection to the social service platform adopted by the Federal Council.

Here is the platform of the Council to which exception has been taken: The Church must stand for the preservation of the physical and moral health of the community.

For the fullest possible development for every child, especially for the protection of proper education and recreation.

For the abolition of child labor.

For such regulations of the conditions of toil for women as shall safeguard the physical and moral health of the community.

For the abatement and prevention of vice.

For the protection of the individual and society from the social, economic and moral waste of the liquor traffic.

For the conservation of health.

NEW THEORY IS OFFERED FOR PHAGAN MYSTERY

Detectors Not Centering All Their Efforts on Frank and Lee Now.

By REV. CHARLES STEZLE. Detectives in the Phagan mystery are not centering all their efforts upon Frank and Lee.

New theories have been advanced, new clues examined and every possible theory is being investigated.

It was because of these rumors on the streets today that a report was spread that an entirely new lead was being followed by Solicitor Dorsey.

The new theory alluded to has been submitted by a private detective employed by the Solicitor's office.

An important affidavit was added to the case by the private detective Dorsey.

When asked later what the key of the case, Miss Ross declared she had absolutely no knowledge of it.

Solicitor Dorsey, when asked about the report that Detective Burns was coming to Atlanta to take charge of the investigation, declared that he would welcome Mr. Burns.

Colonel Miller, whose correspondence with the great detective gave the routing check in order that he would report that he would enter the investigation, stated Tuesday morning that he would come positively by Wednesday whether Burns would comply with his request.

Mr. Burns is due to arrive in New York from Europe some time Tuesday.

The Grand Jury probably will hold an extra session this week to "clean up" the routing check in order that there will be nothing to interfere with the Phagan case when it is presented by Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey.

Consider Extra Session. The Solicitor and his assistant, E. A. Stephens, discussed Monday the advisability of an extra session of the grand jury.

The Solicitor explained, however, that it probably would take the two sessions this week to dispose of the routine, and the Phagan case might not reach the jury until Friday of next week, or an extra session to be called the first part of the week.

SHRINE MEET CONCEDED TO ATLANTA BOOSTERS

Barring Tennessee, Every State Bidding on Georgia Vantage Gate City to Land Council.

By JAMES B. NEVIN. DALLAS, TEXAS, May 13--Forrest Adair died with the Imperial Council to-day official invitations from Atlanta for next year's election from Governor Brown, Governor-elect Sloan, Mayor Woodward, the Capital City, Transportation, University and Piedmont Driving Clubs and many other social and business organizations and persons in Atlanta.

There seems to be nothing left that might have been done to insure Atlanta winning the prize of the section in Dallas. About the hotels and streets it generally is conceded that Atlanta will win.

The parade of the patrol to-day, serving the Imperial Council to its opening session, was beautiful and served to jam the streets with spectators almost to suffocation. There were about 100 patrol in line, averaging 50 men each, 20 brass bands, and a civic procession of something like 150 high school automobiles. Every patrol was uniformed, differently and gorgeously.

Great Parade for Tonight. The parade began earlier and better for already it is predicted that the attendance in Atlanta next year is to be much heavier than it is here, will look mighty attractive along Whitehall and Peachtree next year. The big parade of the section takes place in Atlanta, when it is expected that about 15,000 Shriners will march in line under the glitter of 100,000 electric lights.

No patrol in today's parade attracted more applause and attention than the Yaarab patrol, under Captain J. O. Seaman and Lieutenant Cuts Vandiver and Ashford.

At the Texas session, the only thing done of interest to the public was the election of William W. Irwin, of Wheeling, W. Va., to Imperial position next year. He will precede Atlanta and he told me today that the fact was particularly gratifying to him.

He has been outstaged in his support of a Texas for the honor of the Imperial Council. The other Imperial Council members were advanced in rotation, as is customary in the order.

There was a mighty careful checking up of names and counting of noses along somewhere after midnight last night. The Yaarab workers did not quit talking Atlanta until the report of creation of their bid gone to bed. Along about daylight Forrest Adair declared that Atlanta had to be Memphis by about two to one. Maybe Memphis good enough anyway.

Memphis is putting up the game. Memphis has a big bunch of money here and the matter is there under the microscope. However, Atlanta has been tight there with the literature, and the matter is there under the microscope.
