BURKE INDICTED FOR PERJURY SUBORNATION

The grand jury Thursday afternoon indicted C. W. Burke, the special investigator for the Leo Frank defense, under a charge of subornation of perjury. The indictment was returned upon the testimony of Helen Ferguson, the girl witness for the prosecution, who testified before the jury that Jimmy Wrenn, a youth, said to have been associated with Burke, had offered to marry her if she would retract her trial statement. Bond of $2,500 was furnished by Burke. His connection with the Ferguson girl's accusation, it is said, is an alleged attempt to get her to change her testimony upon a visit to the office of Luther Z. Rosser.
