

COL.

COL. FELDER DENIES OFFERING $1,000 OR ANY OTHER SUM FOR AFFIDAVIT HELD BY DETECTIVES

At the Request of The Journal He Left Trial of a Case in Manhattan and Came to Atlanta Friday Afternoon Where He Dictated a Statement Without Having Read the Dictated Interview Which Is Given Elsewhere in This Paper

WELL-KNOWN ATTORNEY GIVES HIS VERSION OF WHAT HE SAID TO SECRETARY G. C. FEBRUARY
Col. Felder Declares He Told February and Colyar He Would Introduce Them to Some Gentlemen Who Might Be Interested in Getting Possession of Evidence on the Detective Department Says He Never Claimed He Had Been Employed by the Colombians

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL has developed the fact that the city detectives have dictated a conversation alleged to be the subject of a conversation between Colonel Thomas B. Felder, the widely known attorney, G. C. February, secretary to Chief of Detectives, and William Woodward, a cousin, alleged to have occurred between them Wednesday afternoon shortly after 7 o'clock in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2. That the detective believed they were setting a trap for the assaulter is known, but there is also a probability that Colonel Felder on his part was endeavoring to trap the trappers.

COL. FELDER DENIES OFFERING $1,000

OR ANY OTHER SUM FOR AFFIDAVIT
Colonel Thomas B. Felder was in Manhattan Friday morning engaged in the trial of a case. He was communicated with by The Journal and informed that a story of importance was to be printed in The Journal in which he was interested. Colonel Felder stated that he would come to Atlanta and did so at 1:30 p. m. Colonel Felder said: "On my arrival at the Journal office, I am informed that the story of the interview which was in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

At this time I desire to say that I will establish this by proof. I do not desire to pay a thousand dollars for an affidavit which I could not make. I am informed that the story is in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

At this time I desire to say that I will establish this by proof. I do not desire to pay a thousand dollars for an affidavit which I could not make. I am informed that the story is in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

At this time I desire to say that I will establish this by proof. I do not desire to pay a thousand dollars for an affidavit which I could not make. I am informed that the story is in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

At this time I desire to say that I will establish this by proof. I do not desire to pay a thousand dollars for an affidavit which I could not make. I am informed that the story is in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

HERE IS COLEMAN AFFIDAVIT WHICH OFFICERS SAY COL. FELDER OFFERED TO PURCHASE FOR THE SUM OF $1,000

STATE OF GEORGIA:
FULTON COUNTY:
The affiant, W. Coleman and wife, citizens of Atlanta, Ga., who reside at 146 Lindsay St.

The affiant, W. Coleman and wife, citizens of Atlanta, Ga., who reside at 146 Lindsay St. The affiant is the father of Mary Phagan, deceased, the child who was fatally murdered by a bullet from an assassin on April 23, 1913.

The affiant is a man of good character and is well known to the community. He is a man of good character and is well known to the community. He is a man of good character and is well known to the community.

HOW DICTOGRAPH WAS INSTALLED IN WILLIAMS HOUSE NO. 2 TO TRAP COLONEL THOMAS B. FELDER

Instrument Was Put In by Lawrence O. Surles of the Southern Bell Telephone Company—George M. Gentry, Neighbor of W. T. Coleman, Took Down the Conversation in Shorthand

The dictograph through which was recorded the conversation and taken down in shorthand by George M. Gentry, neighbor of W. T. Coleman, was installed in Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The dictograph through which was recorded the conversation and taken down in shorthand by George M. Gentry, neighbor of W. T. Coleman, was installed in Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

COL. FELDER CONFIRMED HIS OFFER IN A MIDNIGHT CONVERSATION BY TELEPHONE, SAYS A. S. COLYAR

A. S. Colyar has given to the police the following affidavit:
STATE OF GEORGIA:
FULTON COUNTY:
I, A. S. Colyar, do hereby depose and say that I am a citizen of the State of Georgia and reside at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga.

I, A. S. Colyar, do hereby depose and say that I am a citizen of the State of Georgia and reside at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga. I have been employed by the Southern Bell Telephone Company as a messenger.

I, A. S. Colyar, do hereby depose and say that I am a citizen of the State of Georgia and reside at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga. I have been employed by the Southern Bell Telephone Company as a messenger.

FELDER AND COLYAR DICTOGRAPH SET BY DETECTIVES TO TRAP COL. THOMAS B. FELDER; HERE IS THE DICTOGRAPH RECORD

Affidavit, Detailing Conversation Which Is Alleged to Have Occurred in Col. Felder's Office, Is Given Below
"GO AND GET EVIDENCE," COL. FELDER IS QUOTED
"Lanford Couldn't Detect an Elephant at Five Points," He Is Alleged to Have Said
Both Chiefs Are Denounced

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

The city detective have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which is claimed to have taken place between Colonel Felder and G. C. February, secretary to Chief Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, at 146 Lindsay St., Atlanta, Ga., on May 22, 1913.

In interview with G. C. February, Secretary to Chief of Detectives Newport Lanford, in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2, Heard by Dictagraph and Taken Down in Shorthand, Col. Felder Is Alleged to Have Offered Bribe
"I CONTROL MAYOR, SOLICITOR AND JUDGE," HE IS QUOTED AS SAYING IN ASSURING FEBRUARY PROTECTION
East Lake Was Agreed Upon as Place for Transfer of Papers, Although Colonel Felder Suggested the Transportation Club, According to Stenographic Report of Conversation That Occurred—All of Alleged Interview That Is Printable Is Given Below

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL has in its possession a sworn copy of an alleged dictograph conversation, said to have taken place between Colonel Thomas B. Felder, well-known Atlanta attorney; G. C. February, secretary to Chief of Detectives Newport A. Lanford, and A. S. Colyar, a citizen.

In this record of the alleged dictograph conversation Colonel Felder is quoted as offering a large sum of money to Secretary February if he would extract certain affidavits and papers relating to the Phagan murder mystery from the safe of Chief Lanford and turn them over to him.

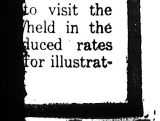

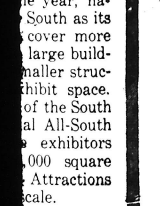

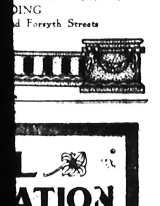

Colonel Felder is also quoted as having promised immunity to February if he would attempt to prosecute him for extracting the papers, and according to the dictograph record, February refused to do so.

February is also quoted as offering a large sum of money to Felder if he would extract certain affidavits and papers relating to the Phagan murder mystery from the safe of Chief Lanford and turn them over to him.

February is also quoted as offering a large sum of money to Felder if he would extract certain affidavits and papers relating to the Phagan murder mystery from the safe of Chief Lanford and turn them over to him.

February is also quoted as offering a large sum of money to Felder if he would extract certain affidavits and papers relating to the Phagan murder mystery from the safe of Chief Lanford and turn them over to him.

February is also quoted as offering a large sum of money to Felder if he would extract certain affidavits and papers relating to the Phagan murder mystery from the safe of Chief Lanford and turn them over to him.

...herding his bees...
...Bank at...
...Safety...
...Knoxville Tenn...
...Sept. 1st to Nov. 1st 1913...
...Low Rates on All Railroads...
...the year, Nashville...
...South as its cover more...
...large building...
...smaller structure...
...substantive space...
...of the South...
...All-South...
...exhibitors...
...0,000 square...
...Attractions...
...scale...
...To visit the...
...held in the...
...duced rates...
...for illustrat...