

ONE FRANK LYNCHER SAID TO BE KNOWN

His Name to be Given to Gov.
Harris This Week—Promise of Thorough Inquiry.

GRAND JURY TO GET CASE

Law Officials Confer with Governor —Family Holds Aloof from Outside Pressure on Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 21.—It was intimated in official circles here tonight that the identity of one member of the party, that lynched Leo M. Frank was known to some officials, and that the information probably would be placed before Governor Harris next week.

Nothing that seemed likely to lead to identification of any of the men had come to the Governor today, he announced. He said early in the day that he was not making public all steps he had taken to investigate the abduction and lynching, and this caused some speculation. The statement even was interpreted by some to mean that he knew who some of the men were, but he later said there was no such significance to his words.

Governor Harris today had conferences with Herbert Clay, Solicitor of the Blue Ridge Circuit, in which Cobb County is situated, and Judge H. L. Patterson of the Superior Court of the same circuit relative to the Frank lynching. The Governor said Solicitor Clay had assured him that everything that could be done legally would be done to bring the members of the Frank lynching party into court.

Judge Patterson said that a special term of court to try pending cases would be convened on Aug. 30, and that the Cobb County Grand Jury would meet Sept. 1. At that time, Judge Patterson said, he would lay the Frank matter before the Grand Jury and urge that it make diligent inquiry into the lynching.

Governor Harris expects to confer next week with the prosecuting officials of Baldwin County, in which the State prison farm is located.

The City Council today unanimously passed an ordinance making it unlawful to sell in Atlanta a photograph of the body of a person who has been hanged illegally. Licenses had been issued to three persons here to sell postcard photographs of the body of Frank taken while hanging. The Council instructed the City Clerk to revoke the licenses.

NO ACTIVE PURSUIT BY FRANK FAMILY

Will Leave Detection of Lynchers to Georgia Authorities and Organizations.

Announcement was made yesterday at the home of the parents of Leo M. Frank in Brooklyn through a woman relative that Frank's family would take no active part in any attempt to apprehend and convict the members of the lynching party that caused his death. The search for the slayers of Frank will be left to the authorities of Georgia and the local organizations interested in the case. The woman relative also corrected some wrong impressions.

"It was said," she remarked, "that Mrs. Leo Frank collapsed after the funeral. That is not correct. Mrs. Frank is a healthy and very sensible woman. Of course, the tragedy affected her very greatly, as it would any woman in her position. She struggled for more than two years to save her husband's life and learned to bear disappointments, if not with resignation, at least with fortitude. Her physical condition and mental condition are very good, considering the terrible strain she has undergone for such a length of time.

"I do not know how long Mrs. Frank will stay here with us, as I have not discussed the matter with her. But I am sure that she will be here for some days at least. So far as I know she has made no definite plans for the future."

A meeting of the Leo Frank Protest League, organized by men and women interested in Frank's case, was held at the home of Max Scheinert, a lawyer of 1,435 East Seventeenth Street, Flatbush, yesterday. Mrs. Bella Newman-Zilberman, a suffragist who had taken a leading part in the formation of the league said that the league was preparing a statement to be sent to the Governor of every State in the Union, protesting against injustice done to Frank. She said that the league had more than two hundred members.

TRIED TO OVERPOWER GUARD

Ball Jumpers Caught in Poughkeepsie Assaulted Detective on Train.

Harry Fielder of 339 Bedford Avenue and Victor Cordovitz of 160 South Fourth Street were sentenced to three months in the workhouse yesterday by Magistrate Conroy in the Manhattan Avenue Court, Williamsburg. The men had been arrested five months ago on the charge of attempting to pick a man's pockets. The complainant disappeared before they were brought to trial, and they were arraigned on a minor offense and released under $500 bail pending a further hearing.

The men jumped their bail and nothing more was heard of them until Friday night when they were arrested in Poughkeepsie. Detective Conroy went after them, and while he was bringing them back to this city on a train early yesterday morning, they assaulted him, near Tarrytown, and attempted to escape. They were overpowered by the train crew, and handcuffed.

Diet Kitchen Needs Funds.

Of 3,035 babies under its care thus far this Summer only four have died from digestive disorders, according to a statement issued by the New York Diet Kitchen Association of 1 West Thirty-fourth Street. This is a new record in its campaign to reduce infant mortality in this city. The association maintains eight milk stations in crowded sections of the city. To carry on its work it is appealing for contributions.
