SELIG-FRANK.

The wedding of Miss Lucille Selig and Mr. Leo Frank was a pretty event which took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Selig, on East Georgia avenue. Rabbi David Marx performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

The house was artistic with quantities of smilax and vases of pink carnations in all the rooms. The center-piece for the table in the dining room was a flat basket filled with carnations and ferns.

The bride entered with her father and was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Milton Rice, of Rochester, N. Y.

The bride's gown was white charmeuse satin, trimmed with princess lace and pearls. Her veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, worn by a sister, and her flowers were bride roses showered with lilies of the valley.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, and Mrs. Selig, mother of the bride, received her guests wearing a gown of lavender chiffon blending into gray, over lavender silk trimmed with lace, and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of Parma violets.

Mrs. R. Frank, of Brooklyn, mother of the groom, wore a gray chiffon cloth gown embroidered, trimmed with lace, and folds of coral velvet, and she wore a corsage, bouquet of Parma violets.

Mrs. M. G. Michael, of Athens, wore a white lace gown over silk.

Miss Helen Michael, of Athens, wore a white lingerie gown over pink silk.

Miss Michael sang several beautiful selections before the ceremony and was accompanied by Miss Regina Silverman, who also played the wedding march. Miss Silverman wore a pink chiffon cloth gown over silk, trimmed with lace and black marabou.

The bride's traveling gown was brown velvet with brown chiffon blouse, over Persian silk, and a brown velvet toque trimmed with quills.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank are spending several weeks at the Piedmont before going north on a wedding trip.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. Frank, of Brooklyn; Mrs. M. G. Michael and Miss Helen Michael, of Athens; Mr. Milton Rice, of Rochester, N. Y.
